THE REGENCY AUCTION 32
MAY 15 & 16 | NEW ORLEANS | HARRAH'S

THE REGENCY AUCTION 32 MAY 15 & 16 | NEW ORLEANS | HARRAH'S

Dear Numismatic Enthusiast!

Welcome to the 32nd Regency Auction! For the third time in 12 months, we were consigned enough coins to break the sale up into two sessions. The sale is anchored by numerous important collections, and like the May 2018 Regency Auction, Day 1 is focused on silver dollars, and Day 2 is focused on fantastic coins from all other series. We are very proud of the overall scope and quality of the coins that appear in the sale.

Dollar Day kicks off with three spectacular early dollars, all from the PUG Collection. Each coin is a highlight of the sale! Immediately following is the Issaquah Estate No Motto Seated Liberty and Peace Dollar collections, assembled over the course of more than a decade by a Legend Numismatics client. An extensive selection of Morgan dollars makes up the majority of the rest of the session, including SUPERB GEM selections from the famed Vanderbilt Collection and the Coronet Collection II.

Offered between these SUPERB coins are other highly collectible dollars, including many affordable grade, better date issues. Also, as always, beautifully toned and DMPL dollars are offered for the specialists.

Thursday's session offers an unbelievable selection of RARE U.S. coins! We start the session with the Wolverine Collection. This collection, assembled over the better part of two decades, includes many high end GEM and SUPERB GEM Proof Indian Cents, Superb Mint State Barber dimes, and a few other type coins mixed in for good measure.

Coins from all U.S. series follow, with more high-end Proof Indian cents leading the way. The Northern Lights Collection of Proof Buffalo nickels, the PUG Collection of Bust quarters and $3 gold pieces, and amazing selections from the S.S. Central America shipwreck, including the monster toned Supernova MS67 CAC 1857-S $20 will excite numismatists of all stripes. Between these areas of concentration are awe-inspiring type coins, better date gold, and rare patterns.

As always, LRCA is dedicated to creating the finest curated, boutique numismatic auctions in the industry. You will clearly see that we were successful with the 634 lots that follow. Good luck!

Warm regards,

Julie Abrams

President of Legend Rare Coin Auctions.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

This is a public auction, conducted in accordance with these Terms and Conditions of Sale, by Legend Rare Coin Auctions (hereinafter referred to as "LRCA"). By bidding on any lot offered by LRCA, the bidder indicates acceptance of the following Terms and Conditions of Sale. Bidders are to comply with the Terms and Conditions of Sale, posted on LegendAuctions.com, at the time of the auction in which they are participating.

BUYER'S PREMIUM

A 17.5% buyer's premium will be added to all successful bids, and is payable by the winning bidder as part of the total purchase cost.

SALES TAX

All sales are subject to applicable state and local taxes. Any lots that are picked up and/or delivered in the state of The Regency Auction are subject to applicable state and local taxes.

PAYMENT

All merchandise must be paid for within TEN (10) days of the date of sale. We reserve the right to cancel any unpaid order after that time and to ban the bidder from future sales. Credit cards (Visa, MasterCard and Discover) are accepted for auction payments up to $2,500.00 per invoice. Invoices and/or balances over $2,500.00 must be paid via personal or certified check, money order, or wired funds. Personal checks, money orders and cashier's checks may be held for up to 10 business days in order to allow time for them to clear appropriate banking channels. Please email info@legendauctions.com for bank-wiring instructions and/or to provide numismatic references.

E-CHECK PAYMENTS

E-check payments now available. Please email form to info@legendauctions.com

INTERNATIONAL BUYERS

Foreign buyers, unknown to us, are required to deposit 25% of their anticipated expenditures before bidding. Please contact us in advance of bidding for bank wiring instructions.

EXTENDED PAYMENT TERMS

For all items $15,000.00 and over, LRCA is now offering Extended Payment Terms. Please advise us at least 48 hours before bidding or purchasing the item in question. Pre-approval is required.

RETURN POLICY

All lots are sold "as is." Lots graded by PCCS, NGC or other third-party grading services, or any lot viewed by the buyer or anyone on buyer's behalf prior to the auction, may not be returned. This is not an approval sale. All sales of lots to the highest bidder are final. Bidders are strongly advised and encouraged to research any lots upon which they plan to bid, and to determine bids, based upon their own evaluation. Bidders assume all risks concerning and related to the grade, quality, appearance, condition, history and origin of any lot. Bidders acknowledge that coin grading is not an exact science, that it can be subjective and inconsistent and that it is possible that two parties might assess or grade the same coin differently. LRCA makes every effort to accurately describe all items offered in its sales. All items will be available for preview prior to the auction.

SHIPPING

Shipping costs will be billed separately and are non-refundable. Items will usually ship within 5-10 business days after payment has been received and/or funds have cleared. Coins will be shipped via Fed Ex or USPS or transported via armored carrier.

The shipping charge includes fees for our third-party insurance coverage, as well as any costs incurred through the USPS or Federal Express. Any shipments made via armored carrier (Brinks, Dunbar, etc.) will be calculated and assessed at the time of shipment.

INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING

It is not possible for LRCA to ship to some countries. Please email questions to info@legendauctions.com. Payment for all international orders is required in US funds. Please contact julie@legendauctions.com for bank wiring instructions.

Customs requirements for each country are the responsibility of the buyer. All packages shipped outside of the United States will include the required customs declaration and full value of the invoice.

BIDS VIA TELEPHONE

An absentee bidder may also participate live, during the auction, via telephone. Requests for phone bidding must be received at least three days prior to the auction date. Please fill out our phone bidding request form online or call 732-935-1168 to request a call from one of our representatives during the live auction. LRCA cannot guarantee phone lines, but will make every effort to accommodate those who wish to participate via this method.

RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

The auctioneer will determine the highest bidder. The auctioneer, alone, has the right to reopen the bidding for an item, if deemed necessary. LRCA and its representatives reserve the right to remove any attendees who impede the preview and/or the auction. Title to all merchandise shall pass to the winning bidder after receipt of good funds by LRCA. Bidders will be held responsible for their bids, including those bids placed incorrectly. PLEASE VERIFY BIDS BEFORE SUBMITTING THEM. In order to have a bid removed or corrected, bidder must contact LRCA prior to start of the auction. Bidder waives auctioneer's responsibility and holds LRCA harmless for failure to recognize, accept, receive or execute any lost or missing bids by internet, telephone, email, floor bid, fax, mail or other means. LRCA reserves the right to postpone or cancel an auction without notice. Lots may be withdrawn at LRCA's discretion, without prior notice. Lots may carry a reserve. A reserve is a price below which the auctioneer will not sell an item, or will re-purchase the item on behalf of the consignor or for LRCA. LRCA permits bids to be placed by the auctioneer, or an employee of the auctioneer, up to the pre-determined reserve set by the consignor. Legend Rare Coin Auctions' partner, Legend Numismatics, reserves the right to bid on items, for its own account and for the accounts of its clients.

DISCLAIMER AND WARRANTIES

No warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose is made or implied on any lot. No warranty, whether expressed or implied, is made with respect to any lot except for warranty of title, and in the case of title, auctioneer is selling only that right or title to the lot that the consignor may have as of the auction sale date. All lots are sold "as is" and with all faults. Purchaser hereby assumes all risks concerning and related to the grading, quality, description, condition, authenticity, and provenance of a lot.

- a. Coins and currency listed in this catalog graded by PCGS, NGC, or any other third party grading service or examined by the buyer prior to the auction sale may not be returned for any reason whatsoever by any buyer, except for claims related to authenticity.
- b. For non-certified coins that have not been examined by the Buyer prior to the Auction Sale: if it is determined in a review by LRCA that there is a material error in the catalog description of a non-certified coin or the LRCA no later than seventy-two (72) hours of delivery of the lots in question, and such lots are returned and received by LRCA, in their original, sealed containers, no later than fourteen (14) calendar days after delivery, in the same condition the lot(s) were delivered to the Buyer, time being of the essence.
- c. If an item or items are returned pursuant to the terms herein, they must be housed in their original, sealed and unopened container.
- d. Late remittance or removal of any item from its original container, or altering a coin constitutes just cause for revocation of all return privileges.
- e. Grading or condition of rare coins may have a material effect on the value of the item(s) purchased, and the opinion of others (including independent grading services) may differ with the independent grading services opinion or interpretation of LRCA. LRCA shall not be bound by any prior, or subsequent opinion, determination or certification by any independent grading service.
- f. Questions regarding the minting of a coin as a "proof" or as a "business strike" relate to the method of manufacture and not to authenticity.
- g. All oral and written statements made by LRCA and its employees or agents (including affiliated and related companies) are statements of opinion only, and are not warranties or representations of any kind, unless stated as a specific written warranty, and no employee or agent of LRCA has authority to vary or alter these Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale. LRCA reserves the right to vary or alter the Terms of Sale, either generally or with respect to specific persons or circumstances, in its sole discretion. Any variation or alteration shall be effective only if in writing and signed by an officer of LRCA authorized to do so.

h. LRCA is acting as an auctioneer. Title to the lots purchased passes directly from the Consignor to the Buyer. Accordingly, LRCA is not making, and disclaims, any warranty of title.

i. Bidder acknowledges that the numismatic market is speculative, unregulated and volatile, and that coin prices may rise or fall over time. LRCA does not guarantee or represent that any customer buying for investment purposes will be able to sell for a profit in the future.

j. Bidder acknowledges and agrees that neither LRCA, nor its employees, affiliates, agents, third-party providers or consignors warrant that auctions will be unimpaired, uninterrupted or error free and accordingly shall not be liable for such events.

WAIVER AND RELEASE

Bidder, for himself, his heirs, agents, successors and assignees, generally and specifically waives and releases, and forever discharges LRCA, and its respective affiliates, parents, officers, directors, shareholders, agents, subsidiaries, employees, managers and members and each of them, and their respective successors and assignees from any and all claims, rights, demands and causes of actions and suits, of whatever kind or nature, including but not limited to claims based upon Auctioneer's negligence, whether in law or equity, tort or otherwise, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected (a "Claim"), which Bidder may assert with respect to and/or arising out of, or in connection with any challenge to the title to or authenticity of any goods purchased, the sale itself, any lot bid upon or consigned, and/or the auction, except where such Claim is otherwise expressly authorized in these Terms of Sale. It is the intention of Bidder that this waiver and release shall be effective as a bar to each and every Claim that may arise hereunder or be related to the Auction Sale.

DISPUTES

If a dispute arises concerning ownership of a lot or concerning proceeds of any sale, LRCA reserves the right to commence a statutory inter-pleader proceeding at the expense of the Consignor and Buyer and any other applicable party, and in such event shall be entitled to its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. LRCA reserves the right to cancel or postpone the Auction Sale or any session thereof for any reason whatsoever. No Bidder shall have any claim as a result thereof, including for incidental or consequential damages. Neither LRCA nor any affiliated or related company shall be responsible for incidental or consequential damages arising out of any failure of the Terms of Sale, the auction or the conduct thereof and in no event shall such liability exceed the purchase price, premium, or fees paid. Rights granted to Bidders under the within Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale are personal and apply only to the Bidder who initially purchases the lot(s) from LRCA. The rights may not be assigned or transferred to any other person or entity, whether by sale of the lot(s), operation of law or otherwise. Any attempt to assign or transfer any such rights shall be absolutely void and unenforceable. No third party may rely on any benefit or right conferred by these Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale.

Any dispute arising out of or related to these Terms of Sale, the Auction Sale or any lot, with the sole exception of actions by Legend Rare Coin Auctions to collect amounts owed to it and other damages, shall be submitted to binding arbitration pursuant to the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association, with any arbitration hearing to occur in Monmouth County, New Jersey. Absent an agreement of the parties, the arbitrator shall limit discovery to that which is necessary to enable the hearing to proceed efficiently. The arbitrator shall not have the power to award punitive or consequential damages, nor alter, amend modify any of the terms of this Agreement. The award by the arbitrator, if any, may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. Each party shall pay one-half the costs of the arbitration. Bidder acknowledges and agrees that the competent courts of the State of New Jersey shall have exclusive in personam jurisdiction, subject to the requirement to arbitrate, over any dispute(s) arising hereunder, regardless of any party's current or future residence or domicile. Bidder further agrees that venue of the arbitration proceeding shall be in Monmouth County, New Jersey; and any court proceeding shall be in the Monmouth County Superior Court, in the State of New Jersey, and in each case waive any claim of Forum Non Conveniens. Bidder agrees that any arbitration or legal action with respect to this Auction Sale is barred unless commenced within one (1) year of the date of this Auction Sale.

Auction participants expressly waive any right to trial by jury.

PRINCIPALS

Laura Sperber
Partner

Laura was raised in Highland Park, NJ. During high school, the coin bug hit her hard. Her trip to the 1976 NYC ANA left a lasting mark and huge desire for her to own and handle the greatest rarities. While attending Monmouth University, Laura attended coin shows more than classes. After college, she started LSS RCI, a wholesale coin company. In 1986, she realized the need for a "better" coin retailer and teamed up in 1986 with George Huang to form Legend Numismatics.

In 1996 Bruce Morelan became a partner and since then Legend has exclusively built or assisted in assembling this generation's greatest collections. In 2012 Laura saw the need for a smaller, boutique auction firm, and created Legend-Morphy with Dan Morphy, whom she split with in 2014. Today, Laura is also a leading consumer advocate for coins. The passion has never subsided, and she keeps a beautiful Proof Walker on her desk to this day.

Bruce Morelan
Partner

Bruce started collecting coins when he was only six years old and by the time he was in high school his dream was to be a coin dealer. But life intervened and instead, Bruce went into business. By chance, he became Legend Numismatics' financial backer in 1996. His great grandmother had given him three coins when he was young, one of which being a Trade Dollar, so he set out to build the finest Trade Dollar set. After a few years with ultra rarities, Bruce returned to his love of dollars and completed both a set of Gobrechts and a set of Seated Dollars.

After selling those sets, Bruce recently returned to dollars with a new Gobrecht set and a spectacular early dollar set capped by his dream coin, the Amon Carter 1794 Dollar. Not many collector's can say they have completed not only the finest 1794-1885 Dollar Sets and have over the years owned such coins as two 1913 Liberty Head Nickels, an 1894-S Dime, 1876-CC Twenty Cent piece, 1827 Original and Restrike Quarters, 1838-O Half Dollar, two 1885 Trade Dollars and four 1884 Trade Dollars!

Julie Abrams
President

Julie Abrams started in numismatics in 1986 when she joined up with Bernard Rome and launched Teletrade, the first computerized auction company. Teletrade developed a unique coin trading method, utilizing state-of-the-art digitized voice board technology to run live auctions before the advent of the internet. As President of Teletrade, Julie helped expand the company, increasing the frequency of auctions and expanding annual sales to $24 million within a few years. In 1999, GMAI, a publicly traded company, purchased Teletrade and Ms. Abrams became Executive Vice President of Sales for the parent company. Her job responsibilities included continuing her role as CEO for Teletrade as well as marketing to buyers and consignors, with the goal of maintaining a balance between inventory and sales while growing the business.

In 2004 she joined Stacks-Bowers, an old world traditional auction house where she worked to expand their e-commerce presence, including the development of an online bidding platform for the firm. She also marketed Stacks' programs to secure consignments from dealers and institutions such as banks, museums and universities.

Julie is a member of the American Numismatic Association, the Central States Numismatic Association and Florida United Numismatists.

DOLLAR DAY

Welcome to LRCA's second Dollar Day auction session. Our first Dollar Day was at the Regency Auction 26, and featured the record breaking PFM and Crow River collections. This year, to continue that tradition and success, Dollar Day will feature several outstanding consignments, from full collections to breathtaking individual coins. The session will begin with three early dollars from the Pug Collection, each of which would be a highlight of any auction, but to have the three together, is truly a momentous numismatic event.

Following these spectacular coins are the No Motto Seated Liberty and Peace dollars from the Issaquah Estate. The estate belonged to a long-time customer of Legend Numismatics who passed away last year. The Seated Dollar portion includes many old friends, including coins that were once a part of the famed Legend Collection.

Following Issaquah Estate are a wide range of Morgan Dollars, including a selection of SUPERB GEM coins from the Vanderbilt Collection. Other offerings include coins from the Coronet Collection II. Highlights abound!

Lot 1

The Garrett-Flannagan-Cardinal-Hesselgesser-Pug 1795 B-3. The finest example with prominent silver plug, graded PCGS AU55 CAC.

Lot 3

The Flannagan-Jack Lee-Pug 1799 dollar, PCGS MS64+ CAC, a gorgeous GEM!

Lot 4

The fully PL 1842 Seated Dollar from the Issaquah Estate, ex Eliasberg Collection, PCGS MS64 CAC.

Lot 17

The Share-Legend-Issaquah 1857 Seated Liberty dollar, graded MS64 by PCGS and CAC.

Lot 23

The Issaquah Estate Peace dollar set begins with a glorious 1921 in PCGS MS66 CAC.

Lot 36

Another amazing GEM Peace dollar from the Issaquah Estate, a PCGS/CAC 1925-S.

Lot 73

$1 1879-CC CAPPED DIE. PCGS MS65+ CAC

$1 1882-S PCGS MS68+ CAC

Lot 129

A VERY CHOICE 1889-CC PCGS MS64 CAC from the Coronet Collection, 2.

Lot 131

A Superb MS66+ 1889-O dollar from the Vanderbilt Collection. This is a major condition rarity.

Lot 144

The Coronet 1893-CC dollar, one of the FINEST KNOWN of this key issue, graded MS65 PCGS/CAC

Between these highlights are other highly collectible, high grade, PQ for the grade silver dollars in all series. If you collect silver dollars, you will certainly find at least a few great pieces to add to your collection.

LOT 1

$1 1795 B-3, BB-11 SILVER PLUG PCGS AU55 CAC
FROM THE PUG COLLECTION.

Ex Hesselgesser, as noted on the holder.

Not only is this one of the most impressively provenanced early dollars that we have had the pleasure of auctioning, it is also very high end and beautifully eye appealing. We believe it may be the finest BB-11. Sharply struck from an early die state of the first Flowing Hair die pair employed. As such, it is arguably one of the first dollars struck in 1795. Satiny and vibrant mint luster clings to the surfaces, which are toned with a majestic blue, russet, gold, and violet. The toning around the central silver plug are especially spectacular. A forceful blow from the dies have imparted a very crisp strike. The details are sharply struck up, and were it not for some light friction on the highest points, the details would be totally complete. Some minor traces of contact were obtained during this coin's very brief stay in early federal commerce.

The coinage act of April 1792 that established the U.S. mint, also created the standards for the content of each authorized denomination. By late 1792, several patterns and 1,500 half dimes had been produced, but mint officials had to post surety bonds in order to strike gold and silver coins, so the only coins struck in 1793 were half cents and cents. In 1794 silver coins began to be struck, most of which were half dollars and a small number of silver dollars. The standards required that precious metal coins be within a very narrow weight tolerance, overweight planchets were filed down to proper weight, underweight planchets were sometimes treated with a silver plug, where a small hole was drilled into the blank planchet and a plug of silver was inserted, then flattened when the coin was struck. When this coin was cataloged as part of the Philip Flannagan Collection in November 2001, the cataloger noted that there were some light adjustment marks at the lower reverse rim, which suggests that the coiners were trying hard to get the weight "just right." Since this coin was struck using the earliest state of the first die marriage of the year, it is suggested that this may have been the first 1795 silver plug dollar struck.

This coin's provenance is known going back to June 1885, when T. Harrison Garrett bought this coin from Lyman Low's 8th Sale, lot 59. It remained in the Garrett Collection at Johns Hopkins University until it was consigned to Stack's March 1976 sale of the Garrett Collection, lot 245. From there, it resided in private collections, next appearing in the Bowers & Merena November 2001 sale of the Philip Flannagan Collection, lot 4204. It was purchased by the Cardinal Collection, sold in ANR's June 2005 sale of the Cardinal Collection, lot 6; intermediaries to Dr. Hesselgesser in February 2008. Hesselgesser Collection, Goldberg's September 2011, lot 5000. Most recently sold in May 2012 Goldberg, for $103,500.

PCGS 4, NGC 0, CAC 1. As noted this is the most recently sold example which realized $103,500 seven years ago. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $120,000. This is one of the most historically important 1795 dollars struck. Add to that the amazing eye appeal and technical qualities, and you get a stunning type coin or Flowing Hair dollar for a major variety set. We anticipate very strong bidding for this GEM AU coin when it crosses the block.

PCGS# 6854 | ESTIMATE: $100,000+

LOT 2*$1 1798 LARGE EAGLE. PCGS AU58+ CAC

Ex. Col. E.H.R. Green and Eric P. Newman Collections.

B-15, BB-115, Pointed 9, Close Date variety, considered to be R-4. Arguably the FINEST KNOWN of this variety. In the 2013 revision of Q David Bowers' Encyclopedia of U.S. Silver Dollars, 1794-1804 lists the NGC-graded Warren Miller AU58 as the finest in the Notable Specimens. NO Mint State coins are known, and he estimates that 5-8 examples are known in AU. Ranking above all other listed examples in his census, is this coin, with a provenance that goes back perhaps as much a century. Think about that, in nearly 100 years this coin was owned by just THREE collectors: Col. Green, Eric Newman, and the present consignor.

An impressive, nearly Mint State Bust dollar, boasting a SUPERB eye appeal. Highly lustrous, with champagne-tinged silver surfaces in the center, yielding to rings of blue, coppery-orange, and gold toning at the rims.

PCGS 27, NGC 43, CAC 6. This coin sold in the November 2017 sale of Part IX of the Eric Newman Collection, realizing $33,600 as an NGC coin.

This is truly an historic opportunity to add the FINEST example of this somewhat scarce die marriage to your set, and you really cannot beat the look! We love this coin, and we think you will too. Bound for a great early dollar set or type set! Expect bidding to be very strong here, this one will not sell cheap! Good luck!

PCGS# 6873 | ESTIMATE: $30,000+

LOT 3

$1 1799 PCGS MS64+ CAC

Ex Flannagan Collection, as noted on the PCGS insert

B-12b, BB-160. This beautiful, essentially GEM 1799 is among the very FINEST of the variety known. An old friend, as it was once part of Phil Flannagan's collection of early dollars that our founder, Laura Sperber helped build. It is truly one of the most beautiful Bust dollars Legend Rare Coin Auctions has ever had the honor of offering.

Sharply struck devices stand out with a lovely frosty texture, which contrasts nicely against the satiny, almost semi-reflective, lustrous fields. Beneath a moderate dusting of gold that blends to blue and coppery-amber at the rims, the surfaces are essentially flawless. A powerful glass fails to uncover anything but the most insignificant trace tick or line, all ancient and mostly hidden within the original patina. Every detail is crisply rendered by a powerful blow from the screw press. Liberty's curled strands of hair show full separation, and there is just the barest trace of weakness at her shoulder. The reverse is fully struck up, with every feather, every shield line, every vein in the leaves brought out to its full glory. Both sides are well centered on the board planchet, and the dentils are full on both sides. We note (mostly hidden by the PCGS holder) a small flaw in the rim between the B and R of LIBERTY. That and the wonderfully original coloration will always serve to identify this as the Flannagan coin.

This is one of just two varieties where the olive branch has no berries, making it popular among collectors. Struck from Die State III, which shows several prominent die cracks around the date, one that curves up through Liberty's drapery and one that curves up toward the inner point of star 1. The obverse surfaces show a "pebbly" texture typical for the variety, and this is seen in parts of the fields, and in the details, like Liberty's hairlines. This variety is not rare in an absolute sense, with Dave Bowers estimating between 650 and 1,150 surviving in all grades, most of these XF or lower. In AU and lower Mint State it is RARE, and extremely rare in such a lofty grade. This is the second coin in Dave Bower's updated list of Notable Specimens in the 2013 revision of the early dollar encyclopedia, listed as ex: Heritage's 1995 ANA auction, lot 6520; Philip Flannagan Collection, Bowers and Merena, November 2001, lot 4257; Jack Lee Collection III, Heritage, November 2005, lot 2192; Joseph C. Thomas Collection, Heritage, April 2009 lot 2552, intermediaries, our present consignor. Only a single example, which looking at old catalogs is hard to determine if it is a different coin (the toning pattern is similar) is the Waldo Newcomer; Col. E.H.R. Green, T. James Clark, Jascha Heifetz coin that last sold in Superior's July 1993 auction as an NGC MS65.

PCGS 11, NGC 13, CAC 4. PCGS has graded 3 in MS64+. As a non-CAC PCGS MS64, this coin sold a decade ago for $103,500. None of the MS64+s have ever sold in auction. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $125,000 and this one is certainly much more pleasing to the eye than the mottled Cardinal MS65 that sold in the 2015 ANA auction for $123,375. This stunning coin will elevate any dollar type set or date run of early dollars to a world class status. We can see this GEM selling for a very strong price.

ISSAQUAH ESTATE COLLECTION

Back in 2007, we got a call asking if we had any Mint State No Motto Seated Dollars. At the time, we had one. The person on the phone was quite inquisitive. He wanted to know about all the details-especially the strike. After what seemed like a grueling 15 minutes, the coin was sold. When the collector got the coin, he called saying how much he loved it-and a relationship of 11 years was formed. From that point on, we helped him build a partial Mint State Seated Collection. We never knew the extent of his coin collecting until we got the sad call from his wife he had passed away and left a note for us to handle his coins.

Issaquah is in Washington State out side of Seattle. Lovely area. The Issaquah collector lived there over 20 years while he was employed by Boeing as a top engineer. When we had found that out about him (earl y on), we then understood better why he would ask a certain series of questions about a coin. Then one day we met him at an ANA show, and were delighted to see he was just a big old cream puff and was a really nice guy.

Mint State Seated Dollars were his #1 collection followed by Peace Dollars (we only sold him a few of those), and Uruguay coins (he has a 120+ incredible pieces). We are proud we helped him build his No Motto Seated Set which he worked on through early 2018. You'll find all his Mint State Seated are well struck (a must for him) and his Peace Dollars all have exceptional strikes and luster. His wish would be for his coins to end up in good homes where the owners would enjoy them as much as he did. We are sad but honored he has allowed us to complete his last collecting wishes.

LOT 4

$1 1842 PCGS MS64 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH
ESTATE
EX ELIASBERG

All around this is an amazing coin. It certainly does border on GEM quality!

To start, this coin is FULLY prooflike. If it were a Morgan we'd be telling you the mirrors are a full 8" and are DMPL status. Obviously this coin was a very early strike. Just like a Morgan, because of the deep mirrors you can see a few tiny ticks and giggles-but they are spread out. The mirrors resemble a fresh sheet of ice. An intense luster/flash beams from all over. The contrast is as strong as any you'd see on a Cameo Proof. Clearly the reverse of this coin was sitting on felt. It has beautiful colors of original golden brown/pale violet. The obverse is pretty much untoned. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck and stand out boldly with thick frost. The eye appeal is amazing!

PCGS 17, NGC 20, CAC 7. For this coin, especially looking like this, ALL published price guides hold NO relevance. We placed this coin with Issaquah in 2011. You can search forever and will never see another 1842 like this (in fact the only other fully prooflike coin we have ever seen-the 1857-is in this sale). We are basing our estimate on what we strongly believe this coin is worth at high wholesale. But then, the last PCGS CAC piece sold in 2015-4 years ago and certainly was not anywhere as wild as this coin. For a MS Seated Dollar, this coin is a MONSTER!

PCGS# 6928 | ESTIMATE: $15,000+

$1 1843 PCGS MS63 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH
ESTATE

What a coin! This is no question a SUPER HIGH END piece (its still in its older holder)

To the naked eye you don't see much due to the toning. When using a strong glass you can see some scattered light ticks and lines. Nothing is serious or dug in. A strong luster glows from all over. Both sides are evenly covered by wonderful deeper original toning. The obverse has shades of evergreen/rose/pale blue. The reverse has navy/purple colors. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck and do stand out. The eye appeal is refreshing!

PCGS 18, NGC 7, CAC 11 (obviously there was a resub many times) The last PCGS CAC piece to sell in auction brought only $6,600 in August 2018. We placed this coin with Issaquah for $9,500 back in 2009! We think this coin is worth much more.

For a MS Seated Dollar, this coin is a MONSTER!

PCGS# 6929 | ESTIMATE: $7,000+

LOT 6

$1 1844 PCGS MS63 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH
ESTATE

HIGH END. We have seen many 1844 Mint State Seated Dollars. We do very much consider this coin to be above average. Also, the rarity of this date can't be over hyped.

Boldly sem.-prooflike to nearly fully prooflike surfaces are something you do not have to imagine. Save for one area of small cuts/scrapes in the upper right obverse field the surfaces have only light scattered ticks that you need a strong glass to see. To the naked eye this coin looks clean. A bold glowing luster and the flash of the mirrors make this coin visible from feet away. The obverse has a totally original mix of deeper golden brown/reddish gold. The reverse has big slashes of navy/purple toning. There also is good cameo contrast on the obverse. Miss Liberty and the details are frosted and are fully sharply struck. The eye appeal is great!

PCGS 8, NGC 2, CAC 4. PCGS has graded only 4 coins higher. The last one of these to sell in auction brought $12,925 in July 2017. The current Collectors Universe value is $12,000. A PCGS CAC MS64 sold in auction for $41,125 back in 2013. One more fact: we placed this coin with Issaquah back in 2009. This is a very hard to find date in nice and true MS like this!

PCGS# 6930 | ESTIMATE: $11,000+

$1 1845 PCGS MS62 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH
ESTATE

No question this is a totally original coin. We consider it HIGH END as well.

To the naked eye the surfaces are clean and smooth. Only when using a strong glass can you see a few scattered tiny ticks. There is a thick totally original toning that we think keeps the coin from a MS63 grade. The toning has colors of pale navy deep gun metal grey/pale evergreen colors.

You can see traces of light semi-prooflike mirrors when you tilt the coin. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck and have light frost. The eye appeal is excellent!

PCGS 6, NGC 4, CAC 1. PCGS has graded only 5 coins higher. While NGC has graded only 3 higher. This is an exceptionally rare date and grade. PCGS auction records show the last one selling (NO CAC of course) way back in 2008 for $18,400! That was forever ago! We expect strong bidding here as this is a coin you just can not find in MS. Good luck!

ISSAQUAH ESTATE COLLECTION

LOT 8

$1 1846 PCGS MS64 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH
ESTATE

VERY HIGH END. For an original Mint State Seated Dollar, the quality is wonderful!

Superior surfaces do appear clean and satiny smooth. Only when using a strong glass can you detect some minor and widely scattered ticks. For an 1846, the luster is above average and glows strongly from all over. Both sides are an original white mixed with original pale golden toning. We do grade the reverse MS64+ Miss Liberty and the details are thickly frosted and are extremely well struck. The eye appeal is fantastic!

PCGS 23, NGC 20, CAC 6. The last PCGS CAC piece to sell in auction brought only $7,638 in December 2016 (in a lower market). We placed this coin with Issaquah way back in 2008 for the price of $13,250. It is horrible what has happened to the pricing of the series because a few bad coins came to be. The current Collectors Universe value is only $9,000. We cannot stress enough how overall rare any MS64 and higher Seated Dollar is!

PCGS# 6932 | ESTIMATE: $7,500+

LOT 9

$1 1846-O PCGS MS62
ESTATE

No question to us this is a HIGH END and gorgeous coin. We do not know why CAC did not bean it.

Even though the coin is toned you can see the sem. prooflike mirrors (no imagination needed). There are just a handful of ticks spread all over. We actually think the surfaces are fine even if the coin was graded MS63. Both sides are fairly flashy. Beautiful layers of original colors are spread all over. A circle of royal blue surrounds the rims only on the obverse. The rest of the coin is toned deep golden brown with pale hints of magenta. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck and do have light frost. The eye appeal is exceptional!

PCGS 10, NGC 9, CAC 2. The last PCGS no CAC coin that sold in auction brought $7,000 in April 2018. We placed this coin with the Issaquah Collector back in 2007 for $12,500. We've seen a few MS63's that do not look anywhere as nice as this. The current Collectors Universe Value is $10,000. Opportunity knocks. Look here for the picky Mint State Seated Collector!

PCGS# 6933 | ESTIMATE: $7,500+

LOT 10*$1 1847 PCGS MS64

Even though CAC did not bean it, we really do like it. Our sister company Legend Numismatics placed this coin way back in 2007-and they say they would again.

Overall, the surfaces are exceptionally clean and smooth. Only when using a strong glass can you see a few light scuffs and widely scattered ticks. Nothing is serious or stands out.

For an 1847, this coin has a good luster. Both sides are evenly covered by an original mix of pale reddish gold/pale golden brown/pale off white colors. Miss Liberty and the details are fully struck and have light frost. There is no discoloration on the knees. The eye appeal is wonderful!

PCGS 11, NGC 9, CAC 0. The last example to sell in auction brought $5,875 back in 2015-4 long years ago! This is a nice and very fresh coin that has been off the market for 12 years. We think it will sell for closer to the current Collectors Universe Value of $10,000. This coin WILL be a very nice addition to any choice/GEM set!

PCGS# 6934 | ESTIMATE: $8,500+

LOT 11*$1 1849 PCGS MS63

FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

Yet another Seated Dollar where CAC showed no mercy. We think this coin is pretty neat.

This coin actually has real prooflike mirrors-no imagination needed. Save for a few SMALL cuts in the left obverse field, this coin is remarkably free of any other problems of any size. We think CAC had a problem with the colors. We strongly believe they are original. They are just deep (no damage). Both sides have deep colors of olive/evergreen/purple/green/gold that vividly swirl together. Miss Liberty and the details are fully struck and have delicate frost. The eye appeal is pretty remarkable!

PCGS 20, NGC 14, CAC 4. The last PCGS piece to sell in auction brought $4,406 in November 2015. That sure was a while ago now. The current Collectors Universe Value is $6,500. We try to be as accurate as possible, however, as with any auction coin, we recommend you view it to make your own opinion. This coin we strongly suggest it.

ISSAQUAH ESTATE COLLECTION

LOT 12

$1 1850 PCGS MS63 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH
ESTATE

We placed this coin with the Issaquah collector in early 2007. For an 1850, this piece is seriously above average!

The obverse is more semi-prooflike while the reverse is more satiny. One thing both sides do have in common, hardly any ticks and NO scratches. There is some luster, that mixed with the flash, makes the coin stand out. Both sides have a deep mix of totally original navy pale purple/pale olive colors that are spread all over. We think at the time, PCGS felt the colors were a tad too dark and held back on the grade (no promises). Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck, including many of the stars. The eye appeal is nice!

PCGS 8, NGC 9, CAC 6 (with only 2 beans higher) A NON PCGS CAC piece in MS63 sold for $14,100 in April 2017. How rare is the next grade up? The last auction record for one of the 2 PCGS has graded was from 2004! We can not stress enough how rare this date and grade are. The current Collectors Universe value is $16,500. We can see this really rare piece selling for much more. Be prepared!

PCGS# 6937 | ESTIMATE: $15,000+

LOT 13

$1 1853 PCGS MS64 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH
ESTATE

VERY HIGH END! You can tell this coin has been carefully stored for many years.

Looking carefully at the surfaces using a strong glass, there are just a few super light ticks scattered about not enough to be annoying or visual. A surprising luster is strong and glows from all over. This coin has deeper and totally original album-like colors. The rims are olive/blue while the centers are purp.e/purple-teal. We easily rank the reverse as a 64+. When this coin was originally graded, PCGS did not like deeper or darker colors. So they were harsh. It's okay because this coin today stands out as well preserved. Miss Liberty and all the details are extremely well struck. The eye appeal is pretty neat!

PCGS 18, NGC 34, CAC 7. The last PCGS CAC MS64 to sell in auction brought $11,163 in August 2017. It was not this coin as we placed this piece back in 2007 for $15,000. If you like some color and are picky on quality, this 1853 will be welcome in your collection. Good luck!

PCGS# 6941 | ESTIMATE: $10,000+

LOT 14

$1 1854 PCGS MS63 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH
ESTATE

We are sad to say, this was the last coin purchased from us. Issaquah bought the coin in 2017 from a major collection we built that we were then selling. We cannot say we have seen a better MS63 1854. No question this coin is a borderline MS64!

Outstanding surfaces are just that. Only with a strong glass can you find a tick or two. In fact, you can actually count the ticks (and one reverse reeding mark) on your hands. The surface texture is both sleek and satiny. A light luster (typical for this date) beams from all over. Both sides enjoy a moderate and totally original mix of pale blue/pewter/gold/golden brown/lilac colors that are evenly spread all over. This is NOT a dull or drab coin. Miss Liberty and the details are fully struck and do stand out. The eye appeal is neat!

PCGS 6, NGC 6, CAC 2. PCGS has graded 10 coins higher—do not be fooled by that. Only 2 are CAC. And good luck finding them! The last one to sell in auction brought $21,600 in April 2018. We placed this coin from the collection we had built for $18,500 in 2017 (this coin never hit the open market). We are sure the next owner will enjoy this coin in their collection as much as Issaquah did. It's a great 1854 for sure!

PCGS# 6942 ESTIMATE: $17,500+

LOT 15

$1 1855 PCGS MS61 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH
ESTATE

We think this coin is SUPER HIGH END and a real numismatic treasure. This date is grossly UNDER estimated.

For an MS61, this coin is not hacked up at all. Only when using a strong glass can you see a few scattered ticks and dings. There are NO serious marks or lines. Overall, the surfaces do appear smooth. A moderate glowing luster can be seen all over. Both sides enjoy a totally natural mix of colors that include: pale purple/golden brown/pale green/pewter. The colors are not spotty or dull. Miss Liberty and the details have no rubbing anywhere and are all well struck. The eye appeal is terrific!

PCGS 4, NGC 6, CAC 1. The last PCGS/CAC to sell at auction brought $12,396 back in January 2013. Keep in mind, this is a date where an MS64 (there are none higher) will sell for $150,000. To find a PCGS CAC piece this fresh and nice is like finding a needle in a haystack. This will be a prize for any serious Mint State Seated Collector!

PCGS# 6943 ESTIMATE: $9,000+

ISSAQUAH ESTATE COLLECTION

LOT 16

$1 1856 PCGS MS62 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH
ESTATE

It is our strong opinion this coin is much better than an MS62 (We make no promises.) There is no question to us this coin is VERY HIGH END!

Remarkable surfaces are just that. We used a strong glass and looked really hard all over and there were just a few widely scattered ticks to be found. There were no lines or other problems. A surprisingly strong luster illuminates both sides. Both sides are wrapped by a mix of original silver/olive/blue/pale purple colors. This is NOT a dull or drab coin. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck and stand out. The eye appeal is very pleasing!

PCGS 7, NGC 5, CAC 1. It is very critical to note of the possible 9 graded higher, CAC has only beamed 3 coins. Nothing is better than an MS64 at any grading service. This coin has been off the market since 2007. We can state factually this is not a date or grade we ever see. NO PCGS CAC pieces of MS62 and higher have ever been sold via auction. That is beyond a powerful statement as to this coin's extreme rarity. The current Collectors Universe value seems too cheap at $6,500. This is a huge silver coin that is legitimately rare and seems like $10,000 should be a value. We expect strong specialists bidding on this piece. Good luck!

FROM THE ISSAQUAH

EX STERLING/LEGEND

This remarkable piece is from the original Mint State Seated Dollar set Legend build with our partner Bruce Morelan. We had purchased the entire Sterling Collection just to get at a few coins.

This was one. In fact, it took us many years to find one better (the David Akers personal coin). The coin is remarkably FULLY prooflike. At first glance you think it is a proof. The quality is seriously HIGH END! Outrageous surfaces have full booming mirrors. You do not have to imagine them. Amazingly, there are NO visible ticks or lines. Even when using a strong glass anything you find is at most microscopic. The flash is bold and "in your face". A light hint of gold is spread all over. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck and are covered with thick creamy frost. The only small negative about this coin-the stars are not struck up. We have no idea how that can happen when most likely this is an early strike (unless weak dies were used). The eye appeal is tremendous!

PCGS 5, NGC 20, CAC 7. PCGS has only graded 3 higher possibly. The last PCGS CAC MS64 1857 to sell in auction brought $10,825 in January 2018. Of course it looked nothing like this. We paid over $100,000 for the MS65+. The coin offered here was placed by us in the Issaquah Collection back in 2007 for $15,000. All we can say is really? How many has anyone ever seen that look like this?

PCGS# 6945 ESTIMATE: $11,000+

LOT 18

$1 1859 PCGS MS63 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH
ESTATE

WOW! For an 1859 this coin is SUPERB! We consider it an MS63+, however that does NOT mean PCGS will ever We have full respect for this date and how it does not come nice.

Superior surfaces are exceedingly clean and sleek. On the obverse you can see only one reeding mark. It takes a strong glass to see other microscopic scattered ticks. We unhesitatingly grade the reverse MS64. A strong luster beams well from all over. An original mix of light to moderate silver/pale reddish greenish gold colors swirl all over. Miss Liberty and the details are frosty and are sharply struck. The eye appeal is very pleasing!

PCGS 14, NGC 10, CAC 2. There are NO auction records of any PCGS CAC MS63's ever selling. The current Collectors Universe Value is $5,500. Again, this series has been unfairly overlooked price wise. With only 2 beaded in MS63, that proves how tough it is to find them nice. Opportunity knocks loud here!

LOT 19

$1 1859-O PCGS MS64+ CAC
ESTATE

One thing we know better than anyone-what a true GEM Mint State Seated Dollar should look like. We unhesitatingly call this coin GEM Mint State! We call it an MS64.9+ with out hesitation as well.

Incredible surfaces are exceedingly clean and smooth. All we can find (looking really hard with a loop) is a small patch of ticks at 10:00 on the obverse which is well hidden. There are NO other ticks. We grade the reverse a full MS65. There is a faint trace of semi-prooflike mirrors too. A moderate luster beams from all over. Both sides enjoy an even light totally original pewter color with splashes of olive/pale blue. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck and stand out. The eye appeal is that of a full GEM coin!

PCGS 30, NGC 22, CAC 6. PCGS has graded only 2 coins in MS64+ and 2 coins higher (one of which we placed in our Legend set back in 2004 for $85,000). We placed this coin with the Issaquah Collector in 2017. The last auction record for this date was from January 2017 when a coin fetched $10,575 (a different coin than this). We actually paid much more for this superb piece.

We know if you are a super picky buyer and need an 1859 O for your Mint State Seated set or a Type set, this coin will fit all of the toughest requirements. Opportunity can't knock any louder than it does here!

EX SHARE/LEGEND

Here is another HIGH END example of an underrated Mint State Seated Dollar. This coin came out of the little known but amazing Share Collection which was a complete GEM set and included ALL Patterns! For a long time, this coin was in our #1 set. It has not been offered on the open market in many years!

Virtually flawless surfaces are hard to beat. You can see only one reeding mark on the left reverse. Even when using a strong glass there are no other real marks to be seen. The surfaces do have a sleek appearance. A full luster booms boldly from all over. Both sides have a light original golden brown color. Miss Liberty and the details are fully struck and have delicate frost. The eye appeal is nice!

PCGS 27, NGC 16, CAC 8. PCGS has graded only 6 coins higher. The last PCGS CAC 1860 in MS64 to sell brought $9,462 in November 2016. We strongly feel virtually all price guides have this date and grade listed too low in value. Try and get another nice PCGS CAC coin-good luck! The last MS65 to sell brought $50,525 in March 2016. This coin will be a great fit for any VERY choice Mint State Set!

EX LEGEND

No question this coin is HIGH END. For a bigger coin, it lacks all the little museries you typically find. Also, this was a coin from our partner's original set!

Yet another fabulous quality piece from the Issaquah Collection. Obviously this coin did not see much of the outside world after it left the Mint. All ticks/lines are extremely light and well scattered. Even using a strong glass they are non issues. There actually is a decent visible luster. Both sides have an even moderate mix of original reddish gold/golden brown/blue/deep pewter colors. There are no discolorations anywhere. We grade the reverse MS64+. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck and do stand out. The eye appeal is great!

PCGS 27, NGC 24, CAC 8. The last PCGS CAC piece to sell in auction brought $6,463 in January 2018. That price seems ridiculously cheap to us. We placed this coin in the Issaquah Collection way back in 2007 for $7,000. This type of rarity deserves a much better appreciation than that! The last PCGS CAC MS65 we sold was back in 2013 and that was for $67,500. This will be a great coin for any choice collection!

HIGH END

Powerful semi-prooflike mirrors beam vividly from all over. The surfaces look smooth and really clean. You can see a few of the typical die polishing lines (Mint

to see some widely scattered

ticks. This coin has strong contrast. Both sides are a creamy off white with golden brown highlights. Miss Liberty and the details stand out with fully struck details and super thick frost. The eye appeal is tremendous!

PCGS 15, NGC 22, CAC 6. The last PCGS/CAC example to sell in auction brought $17,625 in August 2013. 6 years and no others have crossed the auction block? That is powerful proof as to the rarity of this Civil War date in choice/GEM condition. We're sure plenty of MS Seated collectors will vie for this super nice coin. Be ready and good luck!

Even though there are a few 1864's in MS65, this coin is really nice. We assure you, we have seen a 65 or two that does not look as nice as this!

Overall, the surfaces look clean and sleek to the naked eye. Only using a strong glass can you see some tiny scuffs and ticks (mostly on the left obverse). There is a bold glowing luster that is powerful and can be seen from a distance. The obverse also has faint traces of semi-prooflike mirrors when you tilt the coin. A beautiful and totally original mix of golden brown/reddish gold colors swirl all over. Miss Liberty and all of the details are fully struck and have light frost. The eye appeal is gorgeous!

PCGS 6, NGC 7, CAC 3. Here is a shocker, the last PCGS coin to sell in auction brought $20,700 in April 2008. The last NGC coin to sell in auction was back in 2007. THIS DATE IS EXTREMELY RARE IN MS64! Now this coin is perfect for someone who does not want an MS65! It has the looks, the rarity, and the freshness. We expect strong bidding here, so be ready!

$1 1921 PEACE, HIGH RELIEF. PCGS MS66

CAC

FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

We have never ever seen a 1921 Peace Dollar with real colors like this coin displays. Plus, the quality is SUPERB!

To the naked eye this coin appears clean and super frosty. However, when using a strong glass you can see some frost breaks and light ticks widely scattered around. The obverse has a stunning small crescent of iridescent gold-pale green colors. There is a small streak of toning (NOT A CUT) coming down from the L in Liberty on the obverse. The balance of the coin is original white with a pale shade of lavender. This coin is NOT dull or drab or even close. A surprisingly strong luster beams from all over. The Issaquah collector was extremely picky about the strikes on his Peace Dollars. You can easily see that on this coin. Miss Liberty and every detail are as well struck up as you will ever see. No need to imagine the "deep dish" look-its as bold as can be. The eye appeal of this coin fabulous!

PCGS 190, NGC 135, CAC 37. The last PCGS CAC piece to sell in auction brought $19,200 in January 2019. We would think with the color this coin has, it will easily bring more. If you want to build a totally different Peace Dollar set, start with this coin! Again, we have never seen an original toned example save for the Newman coin we bought in 2013 (it was NGC) for $16,450!

$1 1922 PCGS MS66 CAC

FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

Softly glowing satiny luster with a wisp of champagne toning are hallmarks of this superb gem. The surfaces are smooth and wholly unadulterated. With gorgeous mostly white patina this Peace is a prize to hold.

PCGS 860, NGC 1,458, CAC 304. Listed in the PCGS price guide at $400. Most recent auction for the date and grade was $528 in October 2018. A treasure for a high-end dollar set.

$1 1922-D PCGS MS66 CAC

FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

What a beautiful GEM MS 1922-D! Reasonably well struck for this issue with appealing light red gold highlights. Although plentiful up to MS65, superb gems such as this are elusive. The surfaces are engaging while the eye appeal is gratifying to view.

PCGS 232, NGC 232, CAC 90. Only 28 finer by PCGS. The PCGS price guide lists the value at $1,500. The most recent auction price realized was $2,160 in August 2018. This gem will likely end up in a first-rate collection.

PCGS# 7358 | ESTIMATE: $1,500+

$1 1922-S PCGS MS65 CAC
 FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

A superb GEM with a delicate champagne gold patina. An almost imperceptible scuff at the lower end of the eagle's tail feathers is the only notable mark on otherwise pristine surfaces and is the only conceivable reason why this coin is not in an MS66 holder (no guarantees). This mark is so small and unobtrusive, and the surfaces so supremely lustrous that we mention it only for accuracy.

PCGS 442, NGC 248, CAC 126. Listed in the price guide at $1,350. We last sold a PCGS CAC coin for $2,200 in August 2018. Destined for one of the finest Peace Dollar sets.

PCGS# 7359 | ESTIMATE: $1,500+

LOT 28
$1 1923 PCGS MS67
 FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

A wonderful CHOICE GEM Peace Dollar. PCGS was spot on grading this coin an MS67.

There are NO major problems anywhere. Overall, the surfaces are clean and satiny smooth. Using a strong glass, all you can find are an extremely tiny tick or two and a few small frost breaks. A full booming luster beams from all over. Both sides are a deep original white with pale gold on top. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck and have thick frost. The eye appeal is excellent!

PCGS 78, NGC 116, CAC 34. The last PCGS NON CAC to sell in auction brought $3,000 in August 2018. This coin will make a nice addition to any GEM set!

PCGS# 7360 | ESTIMATE: $3,000+

$1 1923-D PCGS MS66
 FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

Super satiny GEM with a pale olive-gold patina. Contact is tight and consistent with the grade and overall appearance. A tough date at this grade level. The details of Miss Liberty's flowing hair are well struck and contribute to the overall attractive quality of this coin.

PCGS 104, NGC 25. Only 12 MS66+, and 1 MS67. Listed in the price guide at $3,700, and the range of recent APR's is $2280-$3600. Superb gems are deceptively rare and in MS66+ the price jumps to $14-17,000. Take advantage of the spread and buy this lovely coin.

PCGS# 7361 | ESTIMATE: $2,500+

$1 1923-S PCGS MS65 CAC
 FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

This is a lovely HIGH END GEM.

Only a few widely scattered but tight frost breaks/small scuffs can be seen. There are no hidden problems. The surfaces enjoy a thick satiny texture too. The luster is exceptionally strong and beams from all over. Both sides are mostly original white with some areas of reddish brown toning. Miss Liberty and the details are frosty and are sharply struck. The eye appeal is excellent!

PCGS 164, NGC 80, CAC 15. The last PCGS CAC piece to sell at auction brought $3,600 in June 2018. This coin will be a great addition to any GEM set!

PCGS# 7362 | ESTIMATE: $3,250+

ISSAQUAH ESTATE COLLECTION

LOT 31

$1 1924 PCGS MS65 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

Sharply struck and exceptionally lustrous, both sides have a swirling luster and bold orange-gold peripheral toning. A lovely GEM!

PCGS 3628, NGC 8257, CAC 213. While the CU value is $150, this GEM, with its great look will certainly bring more than that.

LOT 33

$1 1924 PCGS MS67 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

One look and you can easily tell this coin has been carefully stored since it left the bank 95 years ago. The quality is HIGH END!

Outstanding surfaces have only a frost break or two. The surfaces are satiny smooth too. If you use a strong glass, there are no surprises. A bold glowing luster beams from all over.

Both sides are also evenly covered by a typical pale shade of original gold color. It's mostly a creamy white coin. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck and loaded with thick frost. The eye appeal is great!

PCGS 40, NGC 93, CAC 27. PCGS has handled only one coin finer than the MS68 which we placed in a major set. The last PCGS CAC piece to sell in auction brought $7,810 in January 2019. The current Collectors Universe Value is $8,000. This will be a wonderful addition to any GEM set.

$1 1925 PCGS MS67 CAC
 FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

This is a seriously above average coin. It's a great example that shows how picky the Issaquah collector had been.

Save for one tiny tick and a microscopic scuff, this coin is really perfect. We even used a strong glass and looked carefully all over and found nothing hidden. The surfaces have a satiny yet sleek texture. A strong glowing luster beams from all over. A pale original golden brown color evenly covers both sides. This is NOT a dull or drab coin. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck and stand out boldly. The eye appeal is superb!

PCGS 121, NGC 97, CAC 47. The last PCGS CAC piece to sell in auction brought $3,760 in July 2018. Overall, GEM MS67 CAC Peace Dollars are tough to find no matter what date. For sure this piece will be a wonderful addition to any GEM Peace Dollar Collection! With so many people seeking MS67's that are PCGS CAC, expect to pay a stronger premium. Good luck!

OUR ESTIMATES

The estimates you see published in this catalog are based on HAMMER. Keep in mind that a coin could be either low or high end for the grade, have stunning color or be dull, all of which radically affect a coin's value. Yes, there can be huge price differences within a grade, and we offer estimates as a guide so Collector's can have a better idea of value. One thing we will never do is offer low ball estimates in order to claim stronger sales.

These published estimates represent what Legend Rare Coin Auctions determines to be an approximate high wholesale value for the coin. The numbers are based upon current market values, similar trades, auction prices, published prices, and a consideration of the coin's quality. There is no guarantee that the estimated prices are minimums or are exactly what you can expect to get if you attempt to resell them wholesale.

We always advise you to view the coins you are interested in and calculate what you'll pay using as much information as possible. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask us. We are here to help you!

LOT 36
$1 1925-S PCGS MS65 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

Legend Auctions and Legend Numismatics unhesitatingly consider this coin to be one of the BEST MS65's we have ever seen. We consider it very high end! If you did not see the S, you'd swear it was a common date!

We believe the only issue keeping this stunning piece from a higher designation is a small scuff on Miss Liberty's neck. To start, the coin's surfaces are superior to most. They are ultra clean and satiny smooth. A light layer of reddish gold frames mostly the rims all over. The centers are an original creamy white. The colors are enlivened by a full booming luster. Miss Liberty and the details are above average in strike and display wonderful frost. The eye appeal is great!

PCGS 43, NGC 51, CAC 8. PCGS has graded none higher. The last 1925-S PCGS CAC to sell via auction brought $23,500 in December 2015. We can factually state with a CAC pop of only 8, finding another will be tough to impossible! You do not see these ever offered. We expect strong bidding here, so be prepared! Good luck!

$1 1926 PCGS MS66 CAC
 FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

While common in all grades up to and including MS65, this date is quite scarce in MS66 and RARE finer. High end lustrous surfaces are truly a delight to behold. Sharply struck and beautifully preserved.

PCGS 264, NGC 52, CAC 73. Going back to 2008, the average PCGS MS66 CAC sold for $2,507- the most recent bringing $2,880 in October 2018. The finest graded at PCGS are all MS66+. This delightful SUPERB GEM is worthy of a premium bid and placement in a spectacular collection.

Superb surfaces have a tiny frost break/tick or two visible but there is nothing that stands out. The reverse is clearly MS66+ quality. A full booming luster enhances the crisp white surfaces and there are no spots or discolorations visible. Miss Liberty and the details are well struck and have thick frost. The eye appeal is really nice!

PCGS 103, NGC 34, CAC 14. All CAC-approved examples have brought well in excess of the current Collector's Universe value. The most recent brought $7,800 in the 2019 FUN auction, and prior to that the last one brought $6,463 in the 2015 ANA auction. EXTREMELY RARE any finer, just two in 66+ and two in 67.

A GEM example of this conditionally RARE issue. Bold, brilliant mint luster blooms all over and the surfaces are devoid of any serious contact. The eye appeal is very high end. Remember these are VERY RARE any finer PCGS 429, NGC 128, CAC 70 We had two sell last year; one for $1,870 and one for $1,880. Prior to that we sold one in October 2017 for $3,055. Worthy of a strong bid from a very picky collector.

FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

Here is a vibrant and lustrous GEM 1927-D Peace dollar. A pale iridescent, golden hue is brought out by a frosty mint luster. Sharply struck and original, this GEM has a real nice look, enhanced by patches of rich coppery orange tone by the date on the obverse and at 12 00 and 6 00 on the reverse

PCGS 216, NGC 76, CAC 53. The most recent PCGS/CAC example to sell in auction realized $6,300 in February 2019 and prior to that, there was a record for one in February 2018 for $3,840 and one for $5,280 in the 2018 FUN auction. The current PCGS Price Guide value of $4,000 is influenced by the lower prices for non-CAC approved coins.

ESTATE

A lovely GEM with bold luster and a touch of wonderfully original peach-gold and icy blue that sets this example apart from the typical example of this conditionally rare date. A couple of tiny ticks and lines are noted on Liberty's cheek, which is what we think prevented CAC approval. However, the eye appeal is quite pleasing PCGS 90, NGC 76. Here is another issue that has a very wide range of recent APRs. The most recent sold in March 2019 for $5,040 and one sold a month earlier for $7,200. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $8,000. Just a dozen coins are graded finer, making this a very difficult date to get in a higher grade.

PCGS# 7372 | ESTIMATE: $5,000+

$1 1928 PCGS MS65 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

A beautiful, GEM example of this important KEY date. High end and premium quality in every way, from the strong luster to the bold strike. Soft pearly iridescent accents on both sides enhance the visual allure. The fields are exceptionally clean and just a few tiny stray ticks can be seen on Liberty's neck; these are totally unobtrusive, and perfectly appropriate for the assigned grade. The eye appeal is very high end for the date.

PCGS 370, NGC 104, CAC 80. The most recent example to sell in auction realized $5,758 in March 2019 in our RA31 and prior to that, $4,818 in our September 2018 Regency Auction on an estimate of $3,000 to $3,300. Prior to that, one sold in June 2018 for $4,080. The current Collectors Universe value is listed at $3,500 and that does not take into account this coin's great eye appeal and quality for the grade. Remember this date is VERY RARE any finer with 66s valued into the $25,000-$30,000 range!

PCGS# 7373 ESTIMATE: $4,400+

$1 1928-S PCGS MS65
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

While the mintage was considerably higher at San Francisco than Philadelphia in 1928, the 1928-S is much rarer in GEM grades.

The present MS65 had to have been stored in an old paper envelope at some point in time. Its lustrous surfaces are bathed in l.a.c. pewter, rose, and gold iridescent toning. The devices are sharply impressed on both sides. A strong gloss reveals a few minor marks and ticks here and there, which may have prevented this GEM from attaining a CAC bean, but they are mostly hidden under the toning and do not distract the eye.

PCGS 62, NGC 41. The most recent non-CAC PCGS coin to sell in auction realized $16,800 in February 2019. Prior to that, the last one sold in April 2017 for $16,450. The current PCGS value is listed at $24,000. Only five coins are graded finer at PCGS, the most recent of which was a PCGS MS65+ CAC that brought $55,813 in our March 2019 Regency Auction. This is a important opportunity for any advanced Peace Dollar collector who only wants GEMS in their set. We anticipate very strong bidding here.

LOT 45

$1 1934 PCGS MS66 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

Superior surfaces are super clean and smooth overall. Only if you use a strong glass wheel, you find a hidden tick or two. The luster is above average and both sides are an original white with a pale golden iridescent sheen. Nothing distracts the eye, but we do note for full disclosure traces of an ancient fingerprint on the reverse, attesting to the originality. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck and stand out. The eye appeal is refreshing and for the date, this coin is clearly above average.

PCGS 208, NGC 38, CAC 68. The last PCGS/CAC piece to sell in auction brought $3,173 in our May 2018 Regency Auction, as part of the Crow River Collection. We expect strong bidding for this really sharp and good looking piece!

FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

Bold, satiny, and highly lustrous with a hint of pale gold and iridescent pearly tone. Sharply struck devices and silky smooth surfaces define this brilliant GEM. The eye appeal really is exceptional! A conditionally RARE issue, these become incredibly difficult to locate any finer. High quality CAC-approved examples are very difficult to find--don't let the population figures fool you.

PCGS 206, NGC 7+, CAC 86. The most recent CAC-approved 34-S dollar was graded by NGC and sold in June 2018 for $13,200. The last PCGS/CAC coin sold in October 2017 for $9,075. The Collector's Universe value is $8,500 and these are VERY rare finer. What a great coin for the advanced Peace dollar collector!

LOT 48

$1 1935 PCGS MS66 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

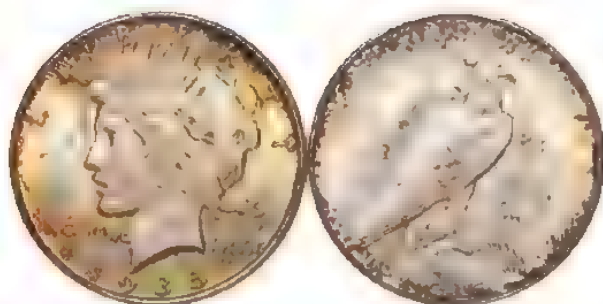

A real GEM! Truly a high end MS66 example with a sharp strike and blowy, brilliant, satiny luster that beams all over. The luster brings out the vibrancy of the original silver surfaces that grace this unquestionably high-end Peace Dollar. The eye appeal is exceptional, and very pleasing overall.

PCGS 266, NGC 70, CAC 113 The most recent example to sell in auction realized $1,800 in the 2019 FUN auction, prior to that, we sold one in our August 2018 Premier Session for $2,530. This one is worthy of a premium bid.

$1 1935-S PCGS MS66 CAC
 FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

A lustrous GEM example with a wonderful look imparted by a somewhat dappled, yet very attractive coppery-orange and sky blue iridescent toning. Sharply struck and free of any distracting marks, this is a great example for anyone working on a set of toned GEM Peace dollars.

PCGS 183, NGC 62, CAC 59. RARE any finer. The last two PCGS/CAC coins sold in the 2018 ANA auction, one for $3,240 and the other for $5,760. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $3,750. Just 20 are graded finer, the majority of which are in MS66+. What a great coin for the collector.

What a magnificently toned 22-D. A vivid band of rainbow toning occupies the upper left reverse rim. We rate the color as an 8.5 on our 10-point scale. Well struck for the date. There are some marks appropriate for the grade but they do not detract from the outstanding eye appeal of this impressive toner.

LOT 53

$1 1924-S PCGS MS63 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

Beautifully toned obverse and reverse. Golden-copper blends with soft rainbow hues on both boldly lustrous sides and have just a few traces of contact marks that account for the more modest grade, but they do not detract from the outstanding eye appeal. Worthy of a very strong bid!

LOT 54

$1 1928-S VAM-3 DOUBLED MOTTO. PCGS MS64 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

One of the FINEST graded examples of this TOP 50 VAM variety. Delicate iridescent toning caresses the bold, satin lustrous surfaces and we cannot see and serious flaws, even when using a glass. Exceptional striking definition is seen on both sides, the doubling is visible with a loupe.

PCGS 13, NGC 5, CAC 313 (no distinction for the variety). The last PCGS/CAC MS64 1928-S of any variety brought $1,020 in February 2019 and the current Collector's Universe value is listed at $1,050. NONE ARE FINER, so if you collect varieties, be sure to bid on this one.

END OF ISSAQUAH COLLECTION

LOT 55

$1 1803 SMALL 3. PCGS VF25 CAC

This is NOT your typical VF Bust dollar. This coin clearly was saved in an old cardboard album, as evidenced by the bold peripheral rainbow toning that frames the obverse. The moderately worn devices are a light silver-gray with some deeper gray in the fields. The technical quality is very pleasing for the assigned grade and the visual allure is off the charts!

PCGS 45, NGC 37, CAC 5. The most recent example sold in the 2019 FUN auction for $2,640 but that was your typical dull, gray-silver kind of coin. This coin last sold in December 2013 for $4,120 attesting to its SUPERB eye appeal. We have estimated it more in line with current market values, but you must realize how special this coin is. Bid accordingly!

LOT 56
$1 1847 PCGS MS65
 Ex Rod Sweet Collection.

Tied for FINEST graded of this important early No Motto Seated Dollar.
 This GEM is from the famed Rod Sweet Type set sold in July 2005.

Flashy mint luster gleams all over with a bold swirling satin finish on both sides. Brilliant silvery surfaces are billowing around well struck devices. The surfaces show off some minor traces of contact. There are also some mint made die lines and a short, thin die crack that comes up from the rim to the date, stopping at the lower loop. Only minor traces of light toning in the fields around the Liberty cap. The details are fully rendered and the eye appeal is nice overall.

PCGS 5, NGC 1. This coin last sold in 2005 for $23,000, and more recently we sold a PCCS/CAC example in October 2014 for $88,125, with the current PCGS value listed at $85,000. This important coin is worthy of a neat type set or date run of Seated Liberty dollars. With none graded finer, this unimpressive MS65 is sure to see active bidding from both date and type collectors alike.

PCGS# 6934 | ESTIMATE: $35,000+

LOT 57*$1 1855 PCGS MS62

A scarce date to begin with, as only 26,000 were struck and precious few were saved at the time of issue, the 1855 Seated Dollar is truly RARE in any Mint State grade.

Struck with the typical weakness seen on the wings, this lustrous coin has a great look. The grade in our opinion is spot on, with just a few light lines that keep it from a full CHOICE grade. The surfaces have a pearly-silver luster with a pale, shimmering iridescent type of look that is better than decent.

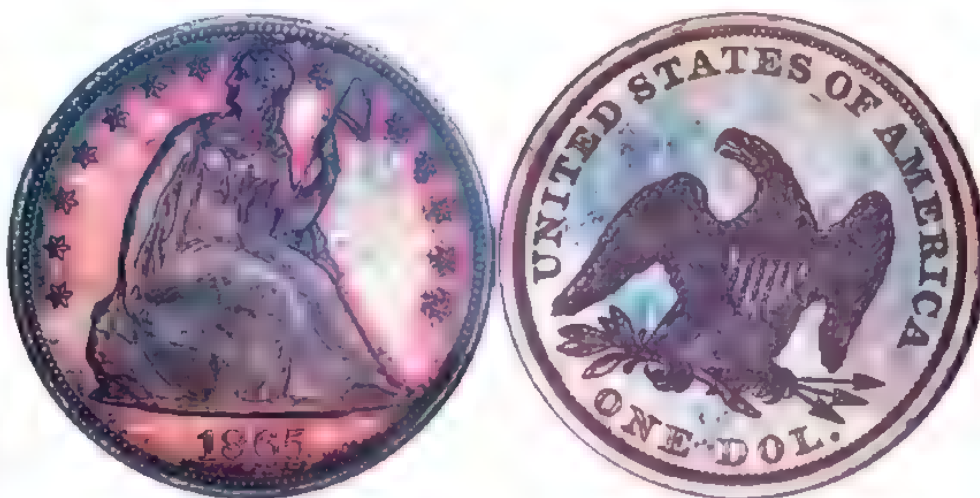

PCGS 12, NGC 6. This coin sold in our November 2018 Regency Auction for $14,688. Our buyer has changed directions in collecting and this nearly CHOICE coin no longer fits in his cabinet. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $16,500 and keep in mind these are VERY RARE any finer! Remember how hard this date is to find finer, only 8 are so graded and the most recent coin was a six-figure MS64 that sold in June 2014--nearly five years ago! If you are looking for Mint State Seated dollars, do not let this one slip your grasp.

PCGS# 6943 ESTIMATE: $14,000+

LOT 58*$1 1865 PCGS PR65 CAM CAC

This is a gorgeous, totally original, GEM that is tied for FINEST CAMEO graded at PCGS. Flashy watery reflective mirrored surfaces gleam from under multicolored, beautiful toning. Antique shades of blue, gold, and coppery orange come out when rotated in a light. The sharply struck details are frosted and stand out against the wonderful quality fields. Using a strong glass we are unable to locate any lines or marks of any kind that would affect the grade. The eye appeal is excellent and totally original.

Only 500 Proofs were struck. PCGS 9, NGC 3, CAC 8. The most recent example to sell in auction realized $17,038 in our December 2015 Regency Auction, and more recently we sold a PR64+ CAM CAC for $17,038 in our May 2018 Regency Auction. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $27,500 and there are NONE finer at PCGS. A great coin with a great look, bound for a great cabinet!

PCGS# 6950 ESTIMATE: $12,500+

LOT 59*T$1 1881 TRADE PCGS PR65 CAC

We really do love this coin. Its quality is unbeatable and we do rank the coin VERY high end.

Extremely deep and really flashy mirrors beam from all over. Using a strong glass a.l we can see is one light reading mark. When the coin is twirled, it looks like the mirrors are watery. A delicate but medium layer of deep lavender/pale violet/rose/tangerine is evenly spread out. This is NOT a dull or drab coin. The flash is really strong and you can see light contrast. Miss Liberty and the details are all thickly frosted and are fully struck. The eye appeal is SUPERB!

PCGS 38, NGC 36, CAC 8. Do NOT let the pop of 960 fool you. Many of these made it into circulation in the Far East so survivors like this are few. The current Collectors Universe Value is $6,750 The last PCGS CAC piece to sel. at auction brought $9,400 in August 2011. We are pleased to have been consigned this wonderful coin. It will make a great addition to any GEM collection!

PCGS# 7061 ESTIMATE: $5,750+

LOT 60*$1 1878 8 TAIL FEATHERS. PCGS MS66

Highly lustrous and brilliant, this GEM is bright silver white with a bold mint frost. Boasting a satiny glow on both sides. Sharply struck, the devices are fully rendered and are frosty, with just a few minor traces of contact, mostly hidden among the details of Liberty's hair curls, otherwise the surfaces are generally clean and free of too many distracting marks. To say the eye appeal is decent would be an understatement.

PCGS 122, NGC 25. The current PCGS Price Guide value is $5,000 and the two most recent examples to sell brought $3,840 in the 2019 FUN auction. There are only 10 finer, making them prohibitively rare for most collectors. Worthy of a strong bid.

PCGS# 7072 ESTIMATE: $3,000+

LOT 61*$1 1878 8 TAIL FEATHERS. PCGS MS66 CAC

Ex Vanderbilt Collection.

A very high end looking GEM with flashy, almost Prooflike luster in the fields. The sharply struck devices are frosty and give this GEM a great look. The radiant cartwheel effect is extremely brilliant and the eye appeal is very high end. We love the look of this one. The first of many different Red Book varieties struck in this most popular series. The first reverse type was struck with the eagle having 8 tail feathers--which is not accurate, as bald eagles have 7 tail feathers. After the ornithological error was pointed out, the reverse was redone to make it correct. 699,300 examples of the 8 Tail Feather reverse were struck, and this one is a very rare HIGH GRADE survivor--typically these are seen in MS65 or lower.

PCGS 127, NGC 25, CAC 28. The most recent PCGS/CAC example of this date to sell realized $9,400 in our May 2018 sale of the P.F.M. Collection. Prior to that, one sold for $5,875. The current PCGS Price Guide value is $5,000 and we know this coin will exceed that amount. EXTREMELY RARE any finer, PCGS has graded just 10 finer, the finest being a 68. We have had the pleasure of selling some of those finer examples, all for much more than what this beautiful MS66 is going to bring! Worthy of a world class set!

PCGS# 7072 ESTIMATE: $5,000+

LOT 62*$1 1878 7/8 TF WEAK. VAM-44. PCGS AU58 CAC

This is a nearly Mint State example of this famed and important TOP 100 VAM Morgan dollar variety that features the tripling at the cotton blossom in Liberty's headband. This is a very rare variety, one whose demand far outpaces the available supply.

The present coin is reflective with essentially fully Prooflike surfaces. A touch of friction keeps the coin out of the Mint State category. Sharply struck and visually appealing, a rarity for the VAM specialist.

PCGS 8, NGC 1, CAC 2 (all VAM varieties). The other example realized $6,196 back in September 2013. More recently, two PCGS AU58 without CAC realized $4,994. Mint State coins are VERY RARE and this coin will see spirited competition for this important variety! Good luck.

PCGS# 7070 ESTIMATE: $4,000+LOT 63$1 1878 7/8 TF. STRONG.*PCGS MS66

With just a single MS66+ graded higher, this Morgan variety is tied for second FINEST GRADED at PCGS, and it is a truly remarkable specimen for any collector vying for a high ranking set.

Obviously the first thing that catches your eye is the wonderful, old time collector envelope toning that enriches the lustrous surfaces on both the obverse and reverse. Shades of amber-orange and aqua-teal dominate, with traces of tan, olive, pewter-silver and pale gold. The four tail feather fragments of the original 8 stick out boldly from below the corrected 7 tail feathers. Nicely struck, Liberty and the eagle have fully formed and crisp details in the hair curls, cotton, wheat, and leaves as well as the breast and wing feathers. Generally clean and satiny lustrous surfaces gleam from below the patina, giving this coin a great and unique look.

PCGS 28, NGC 4. This beauty sold in March 2014 for $8,813 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $10,000. With just a single MS66+ graded finer, this marvelous GEM will make an awesome addition to any high ranking PCGS Registry Set. We anticipate very strong bidding here, good luck.

PCGS# 7078 | ESTIMATE: $8,500+LOT 64$1 1878 7 TAIL FEATHERS. REVERSE OF 1878 PCGS MS66

This is a lustrous and frosty GEM with bold cartwheel luster in the fields. Sharply struck and devoid of any serious contact; indeed, save for a couple of ticks hidden in the hair details, and they do not have an effect on the GEM eye appeal.

PCGS 73, NGC 25. The last one to sell realized $2,760 in July 2018 and another brought $2,880 in June 2018. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,650. RARE any finer, just 12 MS66+s have been graded finer, with a Collector's Universe value listed at $25,000. Worthy of a premium bid from the Morgan dollar specialist.

PCGS# 7070 ESTIMATE: $2,300+

LOT 65*$1 1878 7TAIL FEATHER, REVERSE OF 1879. PCGS MS66

Very RARE in this grade, this GEM is very visually appealing. Brilliantly lustrous on both sides with a vibrant cartwheel luster. Sharply struck and frosty devices stand out against the smooth fields. Minor traces of contact can be seen on the cheek with a glass; they do not effect the naked eye appeal. The eye appeal is quite nice.

PCGS 37, NGC 12. There is a wide range of APRs, the last three sold between December 2018 and March 2019 from $4,320 to $7,200. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $8,000. EXCESSIVELY RARE any finer, PCGS has graded just 2 in MS66+ and 1 in MS67, none of which have ever sold in auction. Worthy of a very high ranking PCGS Registry Set of Morgan Dollars, and we anticipate strong bidding from the advanced collector. Good luck!

PCGS# 7076 | ESTIMATE: $4,000+

LOT 66*$1 1878 7TF REVERSE OF 1878. PCGS MS65 DMPL

A sharply struck and highly reflective GEM DMPL of this first year of the Morgan dollar series. The mirrors are deep, bold, and highly flashy in the fields. Both sides have a light silver-white iridescence that graces both sides. The sharply struck devices are clean and fully frosted, this beauty has a great, fully cameo-like contrast. There are a few minor signs of contact, which are exaggerated by the deep, 8" mirrors.

PCGS 28, NGC 9. We sold the most recent example in November 2018 for $4,700 and this one has a better look overall. Prior to that, one sold for $5,520 in the 2018 FUN auction. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $7,500. EXCESSIVELY RARE any finer, with just two coins graded finer in the DMPL category.

LOT 67*$1 1878 7TF REVERSE OF 1878. PCGS MS66 DMPL

This is the SOLE, UNIQUE, FINEST graded DMPL example. At first glance this coin looks like a full CAMEO PROOF and it is VERY HIGH END for the assigned grade. Our consignor tells us he tried almost TEN TIMES to get this coin into a 66+ holder, it is that fabulous! We have looked it over, and do not understand what is preventing CAC from approving this impressive DMPL that is a truly SUPERB GEM.

Deep, beaming mirrored fields are exceptionally clean and offer a bold clarity that reflects back 8+++ clearly. The devices are crisply and boldly rendered with a full, thick frost that is snowball fresh. Totally untoned, even a strong glass fails to show anything but the tinnest of microscopic ticks. The eye appeal of this POP TOP is tops! What a stunning coin!

PCGS 1, NGC 0. The current PCGS Price Guide lists a value of $35,000 and this coin has not been in auction previously. With its stunning, SUPERB eye appeal, this POP TOP coin is very special and will see fierce bidding break out to bring it home to the FINEST of Morgan dollars. Prepare for this coin to bring a RECORD price!

PCGS# 97075 ESTIMATE: $30,000+

LOT 68
$1 1878-CC PCGS
MS66+ CAC
FROM THE CORONET
COLLECTION II

WOW! What a fabulous SUPERB GEM 1878-CC dollar! This coin is the real deal MS66+! Sensational surfaces are silky smooth and are ultra clean, with a strong glass, just a few pinpoint ticks can be found. A bold, glowing luster (luminescence) the frosty white surfaces all over. Miss Liberty and the details all stand out with full strikes and thick frost. Her cheeks are really clean and will delight even the pickiest of old timers!

PCGS 409, NGC 206, CAC 66. PCGS has graded 52 in MS66+ and just six graded finer. The most recent PCGS/CAC example sold in our January 2018 Regency Auction 30 for $14,100. The current PCGS value is listed at $12,500 and this gorgeous, lustrous, SUPERB GEM should bring a bid close to that level, it is very high end!

LOT 69
$1 1878-S PCGS MS67
Ex Magnificent Morgans
noted on the insert

Despite a huge mintage of 9,774,000, very few survive in SUPERB GEM grades, unlike the San Francisco Mint issues of 1879-1882. Blast white and sharply struck, there is a bold, rolling cartwheel luster that beams brilliantly on both sides, particularly on the reverse. The surfaces are clean with zero contact marks of any consequence to be seen anywhere, even with a strong glass. Even the cheek is clean and frosty, imparting a bold eye appeal.

PCGS 35, NGC 31. The current Collector's Universe price is $10,000 and we sold the most recent example for $7,931 in our July 2018 Regency Auction. Just three coins are graded higher: 2 in 67+ and 1 in 68, making this 78-S a great coin for any Registry Set.

PCGS# 7082 ESTIMATE: $7,000+

LOT 70

$1 1878-S PCGS MS67 CAC

Ex Vanderbilt Shrine Set noted on the insert.

This is truly a SUPERB example, no doubt one of the FINEST graded. The eye appeal is VERY HIGH END! An arc toning frames the upper obverse rim with a delicate earth-toned rainbow coloration. The lustrous surfaces have intense, rolling cartwheels that enliven the stunning, defect free surfaces. The devices are sharply struck with all the details wonderfully crisp and frosty. There is a moderate contrast on both sides. This well pedigreed SUPERB GEM has an eye appeal worthy of those two great collections and it will look great in your set too!

PCGS 35, NGC 31, CAC 16. Only five PCGS/CAC coins have sold in auction, the most recent in the 2018 CSNS auction for $10,800, but prior to that these were bringing $14,000+. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $10,000. Just three are graded finer, 2 in 67+ and 1 in 68. This is a condition census level 78-S worthy of any great Morgan dollar collection.

PCGS# 7082 ESTIMATE: $10,000+

$1 1879 PCGS MS66+ CAC

Ex Vanderbilt Collection, as noted on the insert.

A SUPERB example with a vivacious mint brilliance that shines boldly on both sides. Well struck with frosty devices, Ms. Liberty's cheek is smooth, clean, and unmarred by any marks or scuffs. The eye appeal is exceptional!

PCGS 297, NGC 83, CAC 61. There are 49 graded MS66+ and only six coins are finer. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $3,850 and examples have sold in the $3,000 to $4,000 range. Keep in mind that a 67 is valued at $45,000, so this lovely GEM is among the finest you will be able to add to your set!

PCGS# 7084 ESTIMATE: $3,200+

$1 1879-CC PCGS MS63 CAC

What a high end MS63 this coin is. We are still wondering why PCGS did not designate this coin PL, the reflective mirrors are bright and beaming. The devices are fully frosted and form a near CAMEO appearance. Mostly full details show just some weakness in some of Liberty's hair strands. The reverse shows some minor die grease on the reverse, as made at the mint. We note a few tiny ticks that keep this coin limited to the assigned MS63 level, but the eye appeal is outstanding!

The 79-CC is a classic key date issue, with just 756,000 struck. The date is scarce in lower Mint State grades, and RARE finer than MS64.

PCGS 787, NGC 317, CAC 125. The last three sold for $7,140 and $7,200. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $7,250 and this CHOICE example will entice strong bidding activity from the collector.

PCGS# 7086 ESTIMATE: $6,000+

LOT 73*$1 1879-CC CAPPED DIE. PCGS MS65+ CAC

This particular piece has one been one of Legend Numismatics favorite CC's. For a Capped Die, this coin is exceptional in EVERY respect! It also happens to be TIED FOR FINEST at PCGS!

Capped Dies are much softer in strike and appearance compared to a regular GEM 79-CC. This coin has remarkable clean super clean and satiny smooth surfaces. To the naked eye the worst you see is a few small frost breaks. Even when using a strong glass there are NO distractions to be found. Both sides are a superb original creamy white. Miss Liberty and the details are thickly frosted and have crisp bold strikes. Her cheek is super clean and wld please any picky grader.

The eye appeal is magnificent!

The Capped Die variety is avidly sought, and the name is a bit of a misnomer, some catalogers more accurately call it "CC over CC" Listed as a Top 100 variety in the VAM series, it is a popular Red Book listed issue.

In the past, the Capped Die was thought of as "a poor man's 1879-CC," but modern research has proven how rare this issue is!

PCGS 16, NGC 7, CAC 6. There are five coins graded in MS65+ and NONE are finer! Only one has ever sold in auction, a non-CAC coin that sold in March 2019 for $52,800; the MS65 CAC sold in the Ralph and Lois Stone Collection brought $50,000 in May 2018. Collector's Universe lists a value of $62,500 and it would not be a shock if this GEM realized well in excess of that amount! We would like to congratulate the winning bidder in advance for adding a stunning world class 79-CC to their set!

PCGS# 7088 | ESTIMATE: $50,000+

LOT 74*$1 1879-S PCGS MS68*CAC

Ex Vanderbilt and Shrike Collections, as noted on the insert.

This coin is SHEER PERFECTION! Really this is a beyond SUPERB GEM! This should be the model of what a Mint State Morgan dollar looks like.

A bold, rolling cartwheel luster radiates on both the obverse and reverse. The devices are fully rendered and fully frosted. The surfaces, both the devices and fields, are smooth and totally free of all but the most tiny, insignificant ticks or marks of any kind. Untoned, save for the most delicate pearly hue. The eye appeal is very high end.

PCGS 131, NGC 169, CAC 84. The most recent example sold for $5,575 in a December 2018 internet only auction, and prior to that, one sold for $5,405 in our July 2018 sale of the RanJack Collection. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $6,850. Just 10 MS68+s have been graded higher. This is a real prize for any Morgan dollar collector, and with a great pedigree like this you know it has to be high end.

PCGS# 7092 ESTIMATE: $5,000+

LOT 75*$1 1879-S REVERSE OF 1878. PCGS MS65+

Tied for second FINEST graded with just possibly two others and, just two are finer. Brilliantly lustrous throughout, the fields have a semi-reflective flash with bold cartwheels that roll smoothly over the clean fields. Sharply struck, fully detailed devices are frosty and stand out with moderate contrast. The eye appeal of this brilliant silver GEM is very bold, and even with a strong glass, we do not know why CAC did not bean this coin.

PCGS 3, NGC 0. None of these have sold in auction. The last two PCGS MS65 (no +) sold for $7,800 in January and February 2019. The current Collector's Universe value in MS65+ is $10,500. Only two coins are graded finer, the last MS66 sold in August 2011 for $43,125. This GEM has huge potential for the advanced collector. We have a feeling this coin could run away and bring a very strong bid from the specialist collector. Bound for a very high ranking PCGS Registry Set.

PCGS# 7094 ESTIMATE: $7,500+

LOT 76*$1 1880 PCGS MS66+ CAC

This is a marvelous, high end GEM that is tied for FINEST graded. To start, this piece looks more like an 80-S. Extremely clean and satiny smooth surfaces are all over. When using a strong glass you get even more impressed. A full glowing luster beams boldly from all over. Both sides are a GEM white. Miss Liberty and the details are fully struck and are frosted. Her cheek is above average in cleanliness too. The eye appeal is fabulous!

PCGS 230, NGC 40, CAC 29. There are just 25 graded MS66+. We sold a non-CAC example for $6,169 in July 2018 and the most recent CAC-approved example realized $6,000 in December 2018. NONE are graded finer, this impressive GEM will certainly exceed the current PCGS value of $4,500. We love the look of this 1880 dollar and you will too. If you demand the finest, look no further.

PCGS# 7096 | ESTIMATE: $4,500+

LOT 78*$1 1880-CC VAM-6, 8/LOW 7 PCGS MS66 CAC

Here is a very attractive GEM example of this Top 100 VAM, noted for the low placement of the underlying 7 under the second 8 in 1880. Sharply struck devices are boldly frosted and stand out against the vibrant, rolling cartwheel luster. There are a few tiny hints of contact, which account for the grade, but none are singularly distracting or affect the bold eye appeal.

PCGS 62, NGC 18, CAC 24. Prior to the one we sold in January 2018, the most recent example to sell in auction realized $3,055 in the 2016 ANA auction, but the most recent PCGS-graded 8/Low 7 sold for $4,800 and was NOT CAC. The current PCGS value is listed at $3,500. Bound for an impressive collection of Morgan dollar varieties, this GEM is worthy of a very high ranking PCGS Registry Set.

PCGS# 7104 | ESTIMATE: $2,500+

LOT 77*$1 1880 8/7, VAM-9 STEM, PCGS MS65

A TOP 100 VAM. Boldly lustrous and generally well struck, this is a very nice .880 regardless of variety. The 8/7 overdate was discovered in 1968 by Ted Clark, and traces of the mostly effaced 7 under the second 8 can be seen within the loops.

PCGS 15, NGC 3. The last one sold in the 2019 FUN auction for $960 and we sold the PFM coin in May 2018 for $1,528 (was CAC). Scarce finer and a popular variety for the specialist collector.

PCGS# 41097 | ESTIMATE: $700+

LOT 79*$1 1880/79-CC REVERSE OF 1878, PCGS MS66

Frosty mint luster blooms all over with a bold satiny sheen and moderate cartwheels, especially on the reverse. Brilliant silver white, the well struck devices have a thick white frost and the surfaces are generally clean, free of any serious marks. The eye appeal is quite nice.

PCGS 105, NGC 22. There is a wide range of APRs, two of the three most recent examples selling for $3,840 and $4,080 (October and July 2018 respectively). The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $5,750. Only a dozen are graded finer, all MS66+. A coin like this is popular and will see many interested bidders.

PCGS# 7108 | ESTIMATE: $3,500+

LOT 80*$1 1880-O PCGS MS64 CAC

A well struck, lustrous and visually very appealing coin that at first glance has the eye appeal of a GEM. Traces of contact can be seen in the fields, but they are generally very clean for the more modest grade and the devices are nicely frosted. A bold looking MS64!

PCGS 1532, NGC 924, CAC 232 PCGS CAC coins have sold in the $1,264 to $1,939, going back to the 2017 FUN auction. The current PCGS price is $1,350 and keep in mind this date is RARE any finer. Good luck!

PCGS# 7114 | ESTIMATE: $1,000+

LOT 81*$1 1880-O PCGS MS64+ CAC

This sharply struck and highly lustrous 1880-O is a true borderline GEM. The luster radiates with a strong brilliance on both sides. The surfaces are smooth and generally clean, with just a few scattered traces of contact, which do not detract from the great eye appeal.

PCGS 1699, NGC 948, CAC 232 The most recent PCGS-graded coin was not CAC and realized $3,841 in March 2019. Prior to that, we sold one in January 2019 for $3,055 and another sold in the FUN 2019 auction for $3,840. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,750. RARE in GEM, and always in demand! This is a great collector oriented grade with a strong eye appeal.

PCGS# 7114 | ESTIMATE: $3,000+

LOT 82*$1 1880-S PCGS MS68 CAC

Ex Vanderbilt Collection, as noted on the insert.

Wow! This blast white, brilliant silver SUPERB GEM borders on perfection. The technical and visual qualities are totally in your face!

Amazingly clean and smooth surfaces stand out with a strong silver vibrance. The crisply struck up devices are fully frosted and the surrounding fields have a bold, radiating cartwheel luster. The blast white appearance of this exceptional 80-S dollar is ultra high end, even for a coin of this lofty grade, and was clearly carefully chosen for this collection.

PCGS 237, NGC 283, CAC 176. The most recent example to sell in auction was in our recent Regency Auction 32 sale, realizing $5,170 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $5,650. This coin is certainly high end for the grade and the price realized will certainly reflect that!

PCGS# 7118 | ESTIMATE: $4,500+

LOT 83*$1 1881 PCGS MS66+

A brilliant GEM that looks as vibrant and fresh today as it did when it fell from the dies in 1881. Nicely struck and exquisitely preserved, this beauty has just a touch of pearly gold iridescent toning at the rims. Traces of contact can be seen with a glass, but Liberty's cheek is smooth and frosty. The eye appeal is quite nice for the grade.

PCGS 29, NGC 1 RARE any finer. The average APR for non-CAC MS66+ PCGS coins is $3,777 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $4,150. Anything finer is valued well into the five figures, making a coin like this seem like a good value to us.

PCGS# 7124 | ESTIMATE: $3,500+

LOT 84*$1 1881 PCGS MS66+ CAC

Ex Vanderbilt Collection.

Truly a high end piece! Exceptional quality all the way! Vivid mint brilliance gleams from all over, with a very eye arresting glow. The stunning eye appeal is aided by a sharp, complete strike on both sides; the devices have a thick, frosty texture that stands out against the fields. A strong glass reveals very few stray, insignificant traces of contact, all fine for the assigned grade. Untoned, save for a dusting of pearlescent-champagne color on the reverse.

PCGS 265, NGC 52, CAC 36. There are 29 in MS66+ and just six finer. LRCA has had the honor of selling the last two PCGS MS66+ CAC examples, the RawJack coin in July 2018 for $4,700 and another in September 2018 for $4,348. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $4,150 and the value jumps to over $20,000 in MS67. This coin is perfect for a SUPERB set of Morgan dollars and will see fierce bidding.

PCGS# 7124 | ESTIMATE: $4,000+LOT 85$1 1881-CC PCGS MS66+ CAC

We love the look of this very high end and mint fresh 1881-CC dollar! This exceptional GEM has a lot to offer any collector! Conspicuously struck and thickly frosted reliefs stand out against the vibrantly lustrous fields. A teeny graze is all that keeps this stunningly brilliant silver-white GEM from an even higher grade.

PCGS 2072, NGC 816, CAC 458. There are 345 graded MS66+ at PCGS and the most recent PCGS/CAC coins that have sold in auction realized between $1,440 and $1,821 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $1,900. RARE any finer this is a great coin for anyone collecting Carson City dollars, or putting together a high quality set of Morgan dollars on a more modest budget. LOT 86*$1 1881-CC PCGS MS67+ CAC*FROM THE CORONET COLLECTION II.

Bag fresh! This remarkable SUPERB GEM has a killer look and everything about it screams high end quality!

The surfaces are essentially perfect with nary a trace of contact to be found anywhere, even using a strong glass. A stunning, satiny sheen yields to a brilliant cartwheel when rotated in a light. Morgan's ever popular design elements are razor sharp on both sides and the devices are nicely frosted, especially Liberty's cheek. A tiny tick or two may be revealed with a powerful glass, but none detract from the SUPERB eye appeal this amazing 81-CC possesses!

PCGS 265, NGC 146, CAC 64. There are only 20 graded MS67+ at PCGS. The most recent PCGS/CAC MS67+ sold for $26,400 in the 2019 FUN auction, and before that one sold for $20,400 in December 2018. PCGS lists a value of $21,500 in their current Price Guide. Only five are graded finer, including the MS68 Coronet coin which we sold in June 2015 for $67,564. This is a real prize for anyone building a world class Morgan set and will see stiff bidding competition for the honor of putting in their collection. Good luck!

LOT 87*$1 1881-O PCGS MS65 CAC

An untoned sharply struck GEM with excellent details for this date. The appealing satiny luster that flows from the gleaming minimally marked surfaces adds to the pleasing eye appeal. Although readily available in the lower grades, the date is a condition rarity in gem or better.

PCGS 818, NGC 467, CAC 101. An NGC CAC coin sold at auction in November 2018 for $1,620. A truly deserving addition to a better set of Morgan Dollars.

LOT 88*$1 1881-O PCGS MS66

Ex Vanderbilt and Gold River Collections, as noted on the holder.

Magnificent in every way! Stunning mint luster makes you think this is an 81-S and not an 81-O. Vibrant cartwheel luster swirls with a vivid brilliance on both sides. The devices are sharply struck on both sides. The eye appeal is enhanced on the reverse by a band of rainbow toning at STATES OF. There are a few tiny ticks, which might be why CAC did not bean it, but the eye appeal is stunning.

PCGS 45, NGC 9. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $8,500 and there is a wide range of APRs, mostly in the $6,000-$8,000 range. There are just eight coins graded finer, all MS66+. This is a great coin for the advanced collector looking for a great collection of Morgan Dollars. We like the look and quality, and you will too!

PCGS# 7128 ESTIMATE: $6,000+

LOT 89*$1 1881-O PCGS MS66 CAC

This is truly a high end 1881-O Morgan. Very pleasing and brilliantly lustrous with elegant, satiny surfaces. Well struck for the date, the details are sharply impressed. There are only a few tiny marks and ticks seen here and there, but they do not have any negative effect on the stunning visual allure of this PQ GEM.

PCGS 45, NGC 9, CAC 9. The most recent PCGS/CAC MS66 was a toned example in an OGH from the Stone Collection, sold in May 2018, which realized $16,250; prior to that, one sold in the 2017 CSNS sale for $16,450. There are just 8 in MS66+ as the finest graded for the date, making this a prime example for anyone building a set. Very pleasing and high grade, we know that the Morgan specialist will love this coin!

PCGS# 7128 | ESTIMATE: $8,000+

$1 1881-S PCGS MS65

Let's call this one "Spotlight on Liberty." The toning pattern is very cool with a wider band of color from about 1:00 to 7:00 on the obverse, and a narrower one along LIBERTY, both of which show exceptionally vibrant rainbow tones. The remaining surface has just a touch of the lightest sky blue that looks like a spotlight shining down across Liberty's face. We rate the color an 8.5 on our color scale, and the eye appeal is very high end.

$1 1881-S PCGS MS66 CAC

Deeply but beautifully toned on the obverse. A violet-rose dominates across the central portions, while accents of teal-green and aqua-blue blend throughout. While the color is on the deeper side, we still rate it a 9 on our ten-point color scale, and we do really like the look. You will too!

FROM THE CORONET COLLECTION II.

Blazing, brilliant, bold, swirling cartwheel luster rolls strongly across the exceptionally clean surfaces. The well struck devices are fully and deeply impressed by the dies, leaving the reliefs with a wonderful, white frost. The fields and design elements are virtually flawless, and the surfaces are pristine, showing only one or two tiny ticks. The luster has a slightly reflective accent to it, not fully Prooflike, but adding to the amazing eye appeal. This SUPERB GEM 82-CC dollar looks as fresh today as it did when it came off the dies. By good fortune, this coin was carefully stored prior to being certified ages ago, when the green tag holders were en vogue.

PCGS 99, NGC 57, CAC 26. Only six are graded finer. This is the Ralph and Lois Stone Collection coin that sold for $15,000 in May 2018. This coin is certainly worthy of a very strong bid again, its stunning eye appeal rivals that of an even higher grade. We sold a 67+ in our September 2016 for $18,800. The original Coronet Collection coin was also a 67, but did not look like this one! This one is worthy of the FINEST of Morgan dollar collections and we anticipate very strong bidding to take this one home. Be aware, it will not be cheap!

PCGS# 7134 | ESTIMATE: $15,000+

LOT 93*$1 1882-CC PCGS MS66+
DMPL CAC

WOW! What a fantastic DMPL 82-CC dollar! The beating, reflective mirrors are stunning quality! What a great coin, and clearly the quality is off the charts! Tied for second finest graded, there is just a single MS67 DMPL graded finer at PCGS.

The fields are flashy and banding with bold and deep Prooflike mirrors in the fields. The fields offer a strong clarity with clear reflection at 8++++. The devices are fully struck and highly frosted, creating a CAMEO like appearance. Any of ticks are very small, totally insignificant, but they do get exaggerated by the reflective and frosted textures of the fields and devices. The eye appeal, technical quality, and everything else are all high end and very desirable!

PCGS 84, NGC 3, CAC 8. There are just five in 66+ DMPL at PCGS, and the only one to sell was the one in the February 2014 Long Beach auction for $16,450. The collector's Universe price is $19,000 and keep in mind the sole MS67 DMPL sold in our October 2015 Regency Auction for $27,025 and is NOT CAC, making this SUPERB GEM tied for FINEST at CAC. What a great coin for the advanced collector and worthy of a very strong bid.

PCGS# 97135 | ESTIMATE: $15,000+LOT 94$1 1882-S NGC MS68* CAC

A blazing fireball of vivid mint brilliance on both sides of this EXCEPTIONAL QUALITY jewel. The surfaces are pristine with zero imperfections anywhere. Lovely toning graces both sides, the obverse is awash in pale blue, light violet-purple, and honey-tangerine hues and the reverse has a ring of blue and orange tone framing that side. The color rates an 8 on our 10-point scale for color, and the eye appeal is certainly worthy of NGC's coveted "Star" designation.

PCGS 67, NGC 117, CAC 61. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $8,000 but prices are all over the place. This coin should bring a premium over similar graded coins for its outstanding eye appeal.

PCGS# 7140 | ESTIMATE: $4,000+

LOT 95*$1 1882-S PCGS MS68+ CAC

What else can we say but "WOW"? Actually, this coin is worthy of multiple "WOWS"! This PRISTINE GEM is tied for FINEST graded at either service, and the eye appeal is simply beyond reproach! Everything about this coin is spectacular.

A bold, rolling, cartwheel luster blooms on both sides with a strong and vibrant mint brilliance. The absolutely amazing quality surfaces show off a touch of delicate reflection that makes the sharply struck devices really pop. Ms. Liberty and the details are complete and crisp, with nice frosty texture. Both the devices and the fields are smooth and free of any distractions anywhere; the technical quality really stands up to close visual inspection with a strong pass. The obverse features a patch of beautiful rainbow toning with the neon colors brought out by the brilliance of the luster. Otherwise, the surfaces are an untuned, brilliant silver that is just exceptional.

PCGS 76, NGC 122, CAC 61. There are just 9 graded MS68+ at PCGS, none of which have ever sold in auction. The current PCGS Price Guide lists a value of $45,000. The only dates in PCGS MS68+ to sell in auction were 1880-S and 1881-S. If you are building a set of the HIGHEST GRADED Morgans, do not miss this beautiful 82-S.

PCGS# 7140 ESTIMATE: $25,000+

LOT 96*$1 1883 PCGS MS67

Here is a lustrous and attractively toned SUPERB GEM. The obverse is draped in a predominantly atbergine-purple color that blends to teal, gold, sky blue, and brilliant silver. We rate the color an 8 on our color scale. The reverse is brilliantly lustrous. The details are well struck and the eye appeal overall is quite nice. One tiny mark is all that kept this coin from getting a CAC bean but the color takes the prize on this one.

PCGS 167, NGC 131. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $2,250 and this one will appeal to many collectors and we can see it bringing a similar price.

PCGS# 7142 ESTIMATE: $1,500+

LOT 97*$1 1883 PCGS MS68

This is a gorgeous, highly lustrous, essentially PRISTINE SUPERB GEM example of a common date in an extremely uncommon state of preservation. Over 12 million Morgan dollars were churned out at the Philadelphia mint in 1883, but few were saved. Above MS66+ this date becomes scarce, and the population is tiny at this lofty grade level, with just four so graded currently and one finer.

Satiny luster radiates from the exceptionally smooth and defect-free surfaces. Ms. Liberty and all the details have complete strikes and the reliefs are nice and frosted. Close inspection with a strong glass shows one or two of the most insignificant ticks, which is the only reason we can see that CAC did not bean this beauty. The eye appeal is exceptional.

PCGS 4, NGC 4. The last non-CAC PCGS graded coin sold nearly a decade ago. Even the last PCGS/CAC coin sold in the 2011 FUN auction, those records are too ancient to be relevant today. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $37,500. The sole finest is the Coronet MS68+ that we sold in June 2015 for $49,938. This coin has a great look and is bound for the finest of Morgan Dollar collections. We anticipate strong bidding from serious collectors to bring home this beauty.

PCGS# 7142 ESTIMATE: $18,000+

LOT 98*$1 1883-CC PCGS MS67 CAC

FROM THE CORONET COLLECTION II.

This SUPERB GEM is from our May 2018 sale of the PFM Collection, where we said:

"Brilliant and satiny with a full radiating mint luster. Totally original silver surfaces are clean and beaming with a totally smooth cheek. Ms Liberty, the eagle, and all the details are fully embossed on both sides, and the details have a wonderful frost and the cheek has zero marks or lines to distract the eye."

PCGS 229, NGC 125, CAC 87. The most recent example sold for $5,040 in a February 2019 auction and prior to that, we sold on for $5,405 in our January 2019 Regency Auction 30. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $4,750 and this one will exceed that level when it crosses the block. Good luck!

PCGS# 7144 ESTIMATE: $4,200+LOT 100$1 1883-O PCGS MS66+ CAC

What an impressive, essentially SUPERB GEM! A bold swath of rainbow toning covers about 40% of the obverse while the remaining surface is brilliant silver with a touch of the palest, icy blue. The rainbow toning is beautiful and offers a very cool look, especially the vibrant magenta and orange that crests over Liberty's nose and the vivid blue that arcs through her hair. We rate the color 9 on our scale.

Aside from the color, the technical quality is all there and then some. The surfaces are frosty with a rich luster and are very clean and the devices well struck.

The eye appeal is so exceptionally high end that this marvelous Morgan dollar sold for $6,463 in our September 2018 Regency Auction, on an estimate of $4,000-$5,000.

PCGS# 7146 ESTIMATE: $5,000+LOT 99$1 1883-CC PCGS MS66 DMPL

Sharply struck from freshly prepared dies, the fields show deeply reflective mirrors from die polishing. The design elements are all fully frosted, imparting a great, cameo-like look. A tiny break in the cheek's frost is the only "flaw" worthy of mention. The eye appeal is exceptional and high end—a true GEM!

PCGS 162, NGC 36. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $2,800 and the most recent non-CAC records are from $1,860 to $2,115. VERY RARE finer, with just a dozen so graded. This highly appealing GEM is worthy of a serious bid from the serious DMPL specialist.

PCGS# 97145 | ESTIMATE: $2,000+

LOT 101*$1 1883-O PCGS MS67

A superb GEM boasting a magnificent strike with bold details more typical of a proof, and pleasing contrast between the frosted devices and fantastic satiny fields that captivate the viewer. One wonders why there is no CAC sticker affixed (no guarantees), as the eye-appeal is truly amazing.

PCGS 85, NGC 42, only 10 finer (67+). Listed by PCGS in the price guide at $4,000. We last sold a PCGS coin in our January auction where it realized $5,523. A condition rarity suitable for a silver dollar connoisseur.

LOT 102*$1 1883-O PCGS MS67

Ex Vanderbilt and Shrike Collections.

This is a wonderful, brilliantly lustrous 83-O. Superb surfaces glow with a vivid satiny bloom. The devices are well struck for a date that is often pancake flat. A gentle touch of gold adds to the visual allure.

PCGS 85, NGC 42. There are auction records all over the place, in 2019, three have sold, one for $2,040, one for $3,120, and one for $5,523 (this last one sold in our January 2019 Regency Auction). The current PCGS value is $4,000. Keep in mind only 10 are graded finer, all MS67+. A great Morgan with a great pedigree!

LOT 103*$1 1884 PCGS MS67+*CAC

Exceptional quality and eye appeal! We love the look of this pristine 1884 dollar. These are RARE this nice!

The surfaces are very high end quality on both sides, free of any serious marks or lines. The luster oozes from the fields and radiates boldly as you rotate the cartwheels in a light. The strike is as crisp and sharp as you could ever hope. While the obverse is untoned, the reverse shows a narrow band of rainbow color at the right periphery, suggesting it was pressed up against the bag. This is another stunning coin that is from the Vanderbilt Collection and one that will delight any advanced Morgan specialist.

PCGS 76, NGC 33, CAC 26. There are 15 graded in 67+ and with just three in 68, there is the possibility that the same coin was resubmitted multiple times in hope of a higher grade. The most recent PCGS/CAC coin sold for $8,400 in March 2019 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $9,500. Keep in mind that the last 68 sold in February 2018 for $45,600, so this spectacular, SUPERB GEM represents great value in our opinion! We know the Morgan aficionados will be out in force bidding on this beauty.

A twin to the previous lot, and truly a marvelous "second chance" to take home one of the FINEST 1884 dollars. If you missed the other one, don't let this one get away!

Brilliantly lustrous surfaces really boom with radiant silver v. brance on both sides. Sharply struck with full frosty definition to the devices. Devoid of anything more than the slightest touch of contact on both sides, the eye appeal is quite high end.

PCGS 76, NGC 33, CAC 26. There are 15 in MS67+ and the most recent MS67+ CAC sold for $8,400 in March 2019. The current PCGS value is listed at $9,500 and only three are graded in 68, with the most recent selling for $45,600. This is an important opportunity for the advanced collector.

CAC

Ex Vanderbilt and Horseshoe Collections as noted on the PCGS insert.

Exceptional quality for an 84-O. Bold, satiny lustrous surfaces are brilliant with a thick mint frost on both sides. For a date that often comes poorly struck, the present coin shows only the slightest touch of central weakness. Virtually untoned, there is just a touch of pale gold at the upper rim of the reverse.

The surfaces are clean and free of any distracting marks; there is just a single reeding mark on the rim that keeps this SUPERB GEM from an even higher grade.

PCGS 167, NGC 128, CAC 73. PCGS has graded just seven in MS67+ and a single MS68 finer. The only PCGS/CAC coin to sell in auction brought $6,375 in our August 2017 Premier Session. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $7,800. UNIQUE finer, the MS68 has never sold in auction, so this is the BEST you can reasonably hope to add to your high ranking Registry Set. Good luck!

PCGS# 7154 ESTIMATE: $5,000+

LOT 106*$1 1884-O PCGS MS67 DMPL

This is the second finest graded and is more than worthy of this lofty designation. We really do not understand why CAC did not bean the coin we see nothing wrong

Exceedingly deep 8" + mirrors explode from all over. At first glance they resemble proof mirrors. Only a few extremely microscopic ticks can be found using a strong glass. Most important, the mirrors have crystal clear clarity (NO HAZE). When you twirl the coin the mirrors have that "liquid" rolling look. Miss Liberty and the details are all fully struck and look 3D with thick frosting. The eye appeal is tremendous!

PCGS 1, NGC 1. Hard to believe, but PCGS has graded one coin finer—the ex Jack Lee MS68 DMPL. This coin has never been sold via auction. Yet again, we question how Collectors Universe picked its value of $16,500 on this coin. We figure it for much more. If your building a top DMPL Collection, you need this beauty!

PCGS# 97155 | ESTIMATE: $17,500+LOT 107$1 1885 PCGS MS67 CAC

Superlative quality in every respect. The luster is vivacious and blazing with a strong cartwheel. The surfaces are exceptionally clean, even for a 67, with just the most insignificant traces of contact in the field in front of the portrait. Liberty's cheek is clean and frosty and the devices on both sides are crisply struck. The most gentle dusting of pearlescent gold aids the very high end and SUPERB eye appeal.

PCGS 173, NGC 205, CAC 97. The most recent example to sell was from our January 2019 sale of the Star City CAC Morgan Dollar Set, which realized a very strong $2,703 on a $1,500-$1,800 estimate. The current PCGS Price Guide value is $2,500 and this date is very rare any finer.

PCGS# 7158 | ESTIMATE: $2,200+LOT 108$1 1885 PCGS MS65+ DMPL CAC

Truly a high end GEM DMPL Morgan dollar. Exceedingly deep mirrors nearly blind you from all over. We don't really see deeper mirrors on most 1885's. While the mirrors enjoy amazing clarity, they do reveal some very tiny and scattered ticks (as you would expect). Miss Liberty and the details are thickly frosted and are fully struck. There is great contrast between the devices and the fields, giving this coin a near CAMEO look when you rotate it in a light. Needless to say, the eye appeal is stunning!

PCGS 371, NGC 196, CAC 45. The last PCGS MS65 DMPL CAC sold in our October 2018 Premier Session for $1,100 and a 66 DMPL CAC in our November 2018 Regency Auction for $2,820. The current PCGS Price Guide value is $1,000 and know this coin will sell for more! A great looking coin for the DMPL specialist.

CAC

FROM THE CORONET COLLECTION II.

You know from proven history, when the Coronet Collector buys anything that is a Dollar, it has to be at the very top of quality. We did send this in to PCGS hoping for a +. They were just mean that day!

We can only see ONE tiny tick by the face that could be keeping this coin back from a 67+ or even MS68.

Overall, the surfaces are flawless and have a wonderful satiny texture. Even using a strong glass will not disappoint you. A full luster beams boldly from all over. Both sides enjoy fresh white virgin color. Miss Liberty and the details are fully struck and have dreamy thick white frost. Her cheek is as good as it gets too. The eye appeal is amazing!

PCGS 96, 121, CAC 33. This is the coin that brought $5,000 at Sotheby's in May 2018. From what we have seen of all MS67 1885 CC's, we rank this in the top 5%. We doubt you will ever see many as great as this coin! Expect strong bidding here. Opportunity knocks loud!

$1 1885-O PCGS MS66+ DMPL

This remarkable GEM is tied for second FINEST certified at PCGS, with only a single coin finer.

Deeply mirrored fields and frosty white devices are remarkably free of any marks or lines that would distract the eye. It truly is a deep, beaming DMPL that borders on the SUPERB category. While the 85 O is a very common date in Mint State, and only moderately scarce in DMPL grades through MS65 DMPL, it is VERY rare in MS66 DMPL or finer.

PCGS 6, NGC 1. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $8,250 and the only non-CAC example sold back in April 2014 (five years ago) for $5,288 (that coin has since been CAC-approved and most recently sold in our July 2017 Regency Auction for $6,463. We think this one is worthy of a strong bid by the specialist collector. Good luck!

Bold reflectivity dazzles the eye and draws the viewer to this super satiny white GEM. Surfaces are smooth, lustrous and devoid of notable marks. Lightly frosted devices provide a nice contrast to the glittering fields. There is no doubt this coin is high-end and deserving of a home in a top Registry set.

PCGS 83, NGC 12, only 6 finer. There is a wide range of recent APRs, but the current PCGS price guide lists the value at $4,500. The date is scarce at this grade level and nearly unavailable any finer; as such this coin should elicit strong interest.

Bold strike and satiny smooth alluring surfaces characterize this impressive mostly white GEM with a hint of golden toning in the nicely defined centers. The details and design elements of Miss Liberty's Phrygian cap, cotton and wheat are striking and stand out vividly. Scarce and desirable in this lofty state of preservation.

PCGS 479, NGC 910, CAC 375. Listed in the price guide at $900. We last offered a PCGS CAC coin in our January 2019 auction where it realized $2,468. Keep in mind a ++ will more than double the value and one grade higher will increase it times 10! A great type coin or addition to a fine Morgan Dollar set in this superb grade.

Not dark, but the color is a rich aubergine purple that blends with rose, blue, emerald, orange, and gold hues that really pop when the lustrous surfaces are rotated in a light. We rate the color a 9 on our 1-10 point scale. Worthy of a strong bid and placement in a nice collection of toned Morgan dollars.

Ex Magnificent Morgans, as noted on the holder.

The pedigree on the tag is very appropriate for this marvelous SUPERB GEM—it is truly magnificent in every way!

Boldly lustrous with a vivacious cartwheel bloom and frosty devices, this is a grand 1886 dollar. A tinge of gold tone hugs the extremes of the peripheral detail. Sharply struck, the design elements stand out with a bold effect.

PCGS 560, NGC 934, CAC 372. There are 87 graded in MS67+, and the most recent SUPERB MS67+ CAC to sell in auction realized $2,880 in February 2019, just prior to that one, we sold one for $3,878 in our Regency Auction 30. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $2,500 and keep in mind that any MS68 is worth around $20,000. This coin will see stiff bidding competition and will find itself at home in a SUPERB set.

LOT 116*$1 1886 PCGS MS67+ CAC

This is a lovely toned SUPERB GEM. We think this coin may be an end-roll toner, the angular pattern of the obverse color suggests the angles of the paper folds. Sky blue, rosy-pink, gold, and aquamarine hues blend wonderfully together, we rate the color as a 9 on our 10-point scale. The eye appeal is wonderful and the technical qualities are all there and then some!

PCGS 569, NGC 936, CAC 376. There are just 91 in MS67+ and 15 finer. We sold a non-CAC coin in our March 2019 Regency Auction for $5,053 with similar color. This CAC approved one should sell for more.

LOT 117*$1 1886-O PCGS MS63+ CAC

VERY CHOICE! Were it not for a tiny line on Liberty's cheek, this coin would have graded a 64 for sure! Fully vibrant, the fields have a bold, rolling cartwheel luster. Sharply struck devices really stand out, and this date is notoriously poorly struck. This one has a nice, frosty cheek and crisply rendered details. Even the hair curls above Liberty's ear are sharply defined! Only the slightest hint of tone can be seen anywhere, but this alluring borderline 64 will fit wonderfully in any set of untoned high grade Morgan dollars.

PCGS 704, NGC 326, CAC 64. The last PCGS CAC MS63+ to sell in auction realized $5,523 in March 2016. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $3,750, and for a high end CAC-approved example like this, that level is way too low! A coin like this will definitely bring a strong bid!

PCGS# 7168 | ESTIMATE: $4,500+

LOT 118*$1 1886-O PCGS MS64

The 86-O is one of the classic condition rarities in the Morgan Dollar series. Over 10.7 million were struck, and the vast majority went right into circulation where they would remain for many years. Others were likely stored in bags in the treasury vaults and melted down in 1918 under the terms of the Pittman Act. Today, this date is scarce in lower Mint State grades, RARE in Choice, and exceedingly rare in GEM.

Sharply struck for the date, with just a touch of weakness in the hair curls above Liberty's ear. The luster is bold and brilliant, much better than what is typically seen. PCGS got this one right on, with just a few minor ticks seen on the obverse. There are traces of contact on the frosty cheek. Perhaps there is just one minor tick that keeps CAC from approving it - the eye appeal is spectacular.

PCGS 241, NGC 81. The last PCGS MS64 to sell realized $6,600 in February 2019, the same as one that sold in the 2018 ANA auction. Two others sold in October 2018 for $6,000 and $8,400. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $9,500. There are 28 coins graded finer, most are in 64+. We believe there is a lot of duplication with the same coin submitted multiple times, hoping to get a 65, of which there are just two coins so graded, with a value of around $150,000-$180,000! A very pretty, high end looking near-GEM seems like a great value in comparison!

LOT 119*$1 1886-S PCGS MS66+ CAC

Ex Vanderbilt Collection.

A truly SUPERB example, a condition census example of this lower mintage date Morgan with only 750,000 struck. This remarkable survivor ranks among the top dozen graded, and there are only FIVE coins at PCGS that grade finer.

Offering a brilliant, rolling cartwheel luster on both sides, this 86-S looks like an 82-S. Sharply struck on both sides, the devices offer a strong frosty look. The surfaces are totally smooth and show just the barest trace of delicate tone dusted on the reverse.

PCGS 54, NGC 14, CAC 17. There are 8 coins graded MS66+ at PCGS. Two have sold in auction, both CAC-approved, one in the 2018 ANA auction for $10,200 and the other being the RanJack Coin in our July 2018 Regency Auction at $12,925. The current PCGS value is $13,000. Only five are graded finer, and one would cost $50,000 or more if you can find one! Bound for the greatest of Morgan dollar sets, you know this one will bring a very strong price!

PCGS# 7170 ESTIMATE: $10,000+LOT 120$1 1887 PCGS MS65 CAC

A beautifully toned GEM 1887 dollar. The entire obverse is richly colored with rainbow hues. Violet and blue hues dominate with bands of gold, teal, orange, and rose that are brought out by a satiny mint frost. We rate the colors as a 9 on our 10 point scale. The surfaces are clean and the eye appeal is excellent. This GEM is bound for a great collection of toned dollars.

PCGS# 7172 ESTIMATE: $1,250+LOT 121$1 1887 PCGS MS67

With a mintage of over 20,000,000, you would think this coin would be more common in SUPERB GEM. It is actually surprising how low the MS67 population figures are. This is a boldly and brilliantly lustrous SUPERB GEM has a strong, vibrant cartwheel effect. The devices are crisp and frosty and the surfaces are generally very clean, and a tiny tick or two on Liberty's cheek is all that keeps this coin from CAC approval. Despite that, the eye appeal is quite nice.

PCGS 179, NGC 337. The last one sold for $1,200 in February 2019 and prior to that there was one at $1,440 in the 2019 FUN auction. The current PCGS value is listed at $1,650. EXTREMELY RARE FINER, there are just 17 graded higher, with a single MS68 as finest, this coin is bound for a set of attractive dollars.

PCGS# 7172 | ESTIMATE: $1,000+

LOT 122*$1 1887 PCGS MS67+ CAC

One of the FINEST KNOWN survivors from a mintage that was well in excess of 20 million. After nearly 34 years of operation, PCGS has graded just a SINGLE MS68 finer.

Bold, swirling cartwheel luster rolls over satiny surfaces. The fields are icy smooth and the devices are sharply impressed and frosty, offering a bold, problem-free look. The peripheral areas have a delicate frame of multicolored toning that contrasts against the brilliance of the shimmering, original silver that dominates. What a great-looking coin!

PCGS 195, NGC 345, CAC 73. There are just 16 graded MS67+ at PCGS and the last one sold in October 2018 for $6,600. Prior to that, one sold for $5,520 in April 2018. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $7,500 and they list the sole finest at $30,000! Worthy of a world-class Morgan set and will see strong bidding when it crosses the block.

PCGS# 7172 | ESTIMATE: $5,000+

LOT 123*$1 1887-O PCGS MS65+ CAC

Ex Magnificent Morgans, as noted on the holder.

Here is another date that despite a large mintage (over 11.5 million), a precious few were saved in GEM grades and the majority of the date either went into circulation or were stored in treasury vaults and melted pursuant to the Pittman Act of 1918.

This GEM has a wonderful golden hue around the rims on both sides, fading to pearly silver in the centers. Well struck for the date with essentially full definition of the devices. Liberty's cheek is smooth and rounded with a lovely frost. The surfaces show only the barest traces of contact, with the only marks seen being totally appropriate for the assigned MS65+ grade. The eye appeal is bold for sure.

PCGS 454, NGC 82, CAC 48. There are 60 MS65+ coins graded at PCGS and the most recent CAC approved example sold for $4,583 in our July 2018 auction of the RanJack Collection. The current PCGS value is listed at $4,250. Only 15 coins are graded finer at PCGS, and keep in mind that the sole MS66 endorsed by CAC sold in the 2019 FUN auction for $43,200! Seems like this GEM represents a great value for the collector!

PCGS# 7176 | ESTIMATE: $4,000+

LOT 124*$1 1887/6-O 7 OVER 6 PCGS MS63

Soft glowing luster blankets the mostly white surfaces suffused with pale red-gold overtones, and light contact is consistent with the grade. Traces of the 6 to the right of the base of the 7 are visible with magnification. This desirable overdate is really a neat coin.

PCGS 3467, NGC 147. The PCGS price guide value is listed as $2,000. The most recent auction for the date realized $1,560 in February 2019. A popular Red Book variety from the New Orleans Mint that is much scarcer than its Philadelphia Mint counterpart. In this grade, this coin is accessible for even the casual Morgan Dollar collector.

PCGS# 7178 | ESTIMATE: $1,400+

LOT 125*$1 1887-S PCGS MS66 CAC

Ex Sunnywood-Simpson-Vanderbilt Collections

An old friend, that we last offered as lot 166 in our October 2014 Regency Auction. This is a beautifully toned was purchased originally from the Heritage March 2004 Mid Winter ANA auction where the cataloger described it as:

"No 1887-S Morgan dollar in recent memory can compare to the appealing originality and Superb technical merits of this outstanding representative. The obverse is overlaid in mottled iridescent shades while bright coppery toning frames the otherwise brilliant reverse."

The eye appeal of this PQ GEM is unique is off the charts. Clearly this totally original 87-S was stored at the top of an original roll where it was able to acquire the great color

PCGS 30, NGC 6, CAC 13. This coin sold for $9,106 in our Regency Auction IX. Nothing remotely similar has sold since then so the other APRs do not reflect this coin's status as being a real toned 87-S with is a rarity on its own. Good luck!

PCGS# 7180 | ESTIMATE: $7,500+LOT 127$1 1889 PCGS MS64 CAC

Ever see the wrappers for Fruit Stripe Gum? If you have, that is exactly what pops into mind when you look at this uniquely toned 1889 dollar. Vertical stripes of violet, rose, gold, sky blue/teal, and magenta colors cross the obverse. The reverse has a band of color that highlights the entire left half of that side. Blue, gold and amber hues are seen. The eye appeal is quite unique and is a delight to behold. This coin will bring a lot of attention when it crosses the block-we think its really cool!

PCGS# 7188 | ESTIMATE: $1,000+LOT 126$1 1888-S PCGS MS66

What a lovely, lustrous, high-grade GEM. Swirling cartwheel luster blooms with a vibrant brilliance on both sides of this untuned, PQ GEM. The frosty devices are well struck with nicely defined central design elements. The eye appeal is unmarred by any distracting marks, and we are not exactly sure why CAC did not bean this GEM. The mintage of Morgan dollars dropped to 657,000 in 1888, only the lowest output of dollars at the San Francisco mint until 1893, and the third lowest mintage from that facility in the entire series.

PCGS 37, NGC 11. We sold the most recent PCGS example that was not CAC approved in our May 2018 sale of the P.F.M. Collection for $5,288. Prior to that, one sold for $7,200 in the 2018 FUN auction. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $7,500. VERY RARE any finer, only seven have graded finer, and the recent auction records for those all are in excess of $23,000

Ex Vanderbilt Collection, as noted on the holder. This is a SUPERB, untuned brilliant GEM that looks as fresh today as it did when it first came off the dies. Nicely struck and wonderfully preserved, this essentially flawless beauty has a bold silver luster that rolls boldly on both sides

PCGS 498, NGC 195, CAC 106. PCGS has graded 58 in 66+ and is VERY RARE any finer. The most recent example to sell in auction was in our recent Regency Auction 31, realizing $2,938. Prior to that, one sold in the 2019 FUN auction for $2,880. PCGS lists a current value of $3,000 and it jumps dramatically to $22,500 in 67. Nothing finer has been endorsed by CAC, so if you are looking for the highest graded CAC coins, this is certainly among them! Good luck.

PCGS# 7188 | ESTIMATE: $2,800+

LOT 129*$1 1889-CC PCGS MS64 CAC*FROM THE CORONET COLLECTION II

We think this coin is so HIGH END, we sent it in for a +. We were shocked when it did not happen. This is one heck of an 1889-CC!

If this were any other date it could possibly make MS65. Overall, the surfaces are extremely clean and satiny. Only when using a strong glass can you see super light ticks/lines. There are no scuffs or marks that stand out anywhere. A surprising full cartwheel luster beams from all over. This coin does not look like it was ever dipped or messed with (yes these do come naturally white like this). Even more amazing, Miss Liberty and the details are exceptionally well struck and clearly show off light frost. There is no question, to us at least, that the reverse is a MS64+. The eye appeal is awesome for an 1889 CC!

PCGS 32 NGC 42, CAC 6 Please pay VERY close attention. the last PCGS CAC coin to sel. in auction brought $117,500 SEVEN YEARS AGO, in August 2012. Do NOT compare this to a NON CAC coin. It is our strong opinion, this coin is easily now worth $150,000. There are ONLY 6 CAC pieces which are obviously in strong hands. Plus, we invite you to inspect this coin to confirm it is as high end as we are telling you. We think a white PCGS CAC MS65 (which doesn't exist) would fetch and easy $500,000. We expect strong bidding and multiple bidders here. We are putting what we believe is a HIGH WHOLESALE estimate on this piece. Remember the Coronet collector only buys the VERY Best!

PCGS# 7190 ESTIMATE: $125,000+

LOT 130*$1 1889-O PCGS MS64 CAC

Vibrant frosty luster radiates from surfaces that are mostly white with a trace of golden highlights. The contact marks that are ever present on these large coins are consistent with the assigned grade. Light scuffs blend into the surfaces yet do not detract from the overall quality aesthetic.

PCGS 1,886, NGC 977, CAC 228. Listed in the price guide at $675. Availability of this date drops off dramatically in MS65 or better, accounting for a substantial differential in price that makes this coin an interesting value that must be considered.

PCGS# 7192 | ESTIMATE: $650+

OUR ESTIMATES

The estimates you see published in this catalog are based on HAMMER. Keep in mind that a coin could be either low or high end for the grade, have stunning color or be dull, all of which radically affect a coin's value. Yes, there can be huge price differences within a grade, and we offer estimates as a guide so Collector's can have a better idea of value. One thing we will never do...offer low ball estimates in order to claim stronger sales.

These published estimates represent what Legend Rare Coin Auctions determines to be an approximate high wholesale value for the coin. The numbers are based upon current market values, similar trades, auction prices, published prices, and a consideration of the coin's quality. There is no guarantee that the estimated prices are minimums or are exactly what you can expect to get if you attempt to resell them wholesale.

We always advise you to view the coins you are interested in and calculate what you'll pay using as much information as possible. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask us. We are here to help you!

LOT 131*$1 1889-O PCGS MS66+

Ex Vanderbilt Collection, as noted on the insert

After 30+ years of certification, this coin is tied for the FINEST graded at PCGS. One look and you will fully agree.

The technical and visual qualities are off the charts! You name it, this coin has it. The surfaces are free of all but the most microscopic marks that violate this coin's awesome satiny surfaces. A thicker satiny like luster beams from all over. The cartwheel luster booms brilliantly and both sides are untuned. Miss Liberty and the details are frosty and are well struck. Her cheek is perfect- something you do not hardly ever see. The eye appeal is crazy great!

PCGS 2, NGC 0. The other MS66+ was the PFM Collection coin we sold in May 2018 for $43,475 against an estimate of $25,000-$30,000. Back then Collector's Universe had not yet established a value; today, the listed value is $55,000! Tied for FINEST, this coin belongs in another SUPERB set of Morgan dollars. If you are building a top ranking Registry Set, bid liberally to take this one home!

PCGS# 7192 ESTIMATE: $35,000+

$1 1889-S PCGS MS66+
 Ex Vanderbilt Collection

Tied for second FINEST graded! A truly impressive, SUPERB coin! You know it is deserving of its lofty grade.

A brilliant luster flashes in the fields, and the sharply struck devices stand out. Only the smallest, most insignificant marks can be detected with a strong glass. The eye appeal is beyond impressive!

PCGS 13, NGC 0. There is just a single MS67 finer. The last one to sell was the RanJack coin we sold in July 2018 for $4,818 and the current PCGS price is listed at $5,500. The sole 67 has never sold in auction, and the price guide value is listed at $35,000. This very pleasing GEM will delight any advanced Morgan dollar collector and it will see very spirited bidding to take it home.

$1 1890-CC PCGS MS64 CAC

Vivid silver luster has bold, satiny, rolling cartwheels. Frosty devices are blunt in areas and crisp in others. Minor traces of contact account for the assigned grade on this wonderful near-GEM piece.

PCGS 2401, NGC 987, CAC 237. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $1,400 and the most recent PCGS/CAC coin to sell in auction realized $1,440 in November 2018. The 90-CC becomes quite scarce in 65 and RARE any finer.

PCGS# 7198 | ESTIMATE: $1,000+

$1 1889-S PCGS MS66+ CAC

Tied for second FINEST graded! One look at this impressive SUPERB coin, and you know it is truly deserving of its lofty grade. A strong luster rolls with a bold vibrance and visually captivating cartwheels, accenting the pleasing a-burn-like toning. The slightest touch of golden patina forms a halo around the obverse rim, while the reverse is richer toned with orange, gold, and violet hues. Sharply struck devices stand out with nice frosty texture and the surfaces are very clean.

PCGS 110, NGC 32, CAC 24. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $5,500. These used to bring five figure prices in auction, although more recently they have brought less. A non-CAC example from the RanJack Collection brought $4,818 in our July 2018 Regency Auction, and a CAC-approved PCGS coin sold for $8,813 in July 2017. Just a single MS67 is graded higher, a coin that based on our data has never sold in auction, making this gently toned ball of luster one of the FINEST available 89-S dollars on the market! We know this beauty will bring serious bidding when it crosses the block and is bound for the finest of Registry Sets.

PCGS# 7194 | ESTIMATE: $5,000+

$1 1890-CC PCGS MS65+

A truly vivacious and satiny lustrous MS65+. Boldly and pleasingly original, this mostly untoned GEM is a brilliant silver, save for some light bushes of pale iridescence. The strike is bold and essentially complete, save for a touch of weakness in the hair curls above Liberty's ear and the feathers of the eagle's breast. The surfaces have a brilliant flash and are unimpeded by any serious marks, lines, or frost breaks.

PCGS 47, NGC 0. The most recent example to sell in auction realized $7,200 in November 2018 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $10,500. Just 20 MS66s are graded finer at PCGS, making this lovely MS65+ a great coin for anyone looking to add this date, or upgrade their set. Good luck!

PCGS# 7198 | ESTIMATE: $6,000+

LOT 136*$1 1890-CC PCGS MS66

Wow! This is a super satiny GEM with mostly smooth untoned surfaces that beam with a vivid luster in all directions. The assigned grade is completely consistent with this coin's sharp strike and outstanding eye appeal. A minute scuff at the left obverse is noted for accuracy and might be a factor in the lack of a CAC sticker. The date is scarce in high Mint State grades, and a condition rarity at this level.

PCGS 20, NGC 3, Three are NONE graded finer! Listed in the PCGS Price Guide at $35,000. The last PCGS graded coin sold at auction in April 2017 for $32,900. The present coin would be really tough to improve upon and is a prime candidate for the finest advanced Morgan Dollar set.

PCGS# 7198 ESTIMATE: $28,000+

LOT 137*$1 1890-CC PCGS MS64 DMPL CAC

Deeply mirrored fields contrast nicely with frosted devices but tend to magnify the scattering of light contact marks typical of these large silver coins. Only a tiny fraction of the 2.3 million minted, of which only approximately 6% are DMPL, survive in this lofty state of preservation.

PCGS 227, NGC 112, CAC 49. Listed in the PCGS price guide at $3,250. Last auction recorded a price of $3,360. Very rare any finer, only 36 DMPL's are numerically better, with the top 4 coins rating MS65+, but those trade for 2-3 times the price of MS64. The present coin represents solid value for the collector.

PCGS# 97199 | ESTIMATE: $3,200+

LOT 139*$1 1891-CC PCGS MS64+ CAC

What a neat looking, borderline GEM. Brilliantly satiny with a thick frost, this coin has a great eye appeal. Well struck for the date.

PCGS 4098, NGC 1179, CAC 403. There are 194 currently listed as MS64+ at PCGS, 24 at NGC. Scarce in GEM. The last three PCGS/CAC MS64+s to sell brought between $1,080 and $1,200 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $1,650 and jumps to $3,500 in MS65. A great looking coin for the collector.

LOT 138*$1 1890-S PCGS MS66+ CAC

Ex Vanderbilt Collection.

What a lovely, superb GEM BU 90-S Morgan! A brilliant cartwheeluster swirls with a stunning radiance on both sides of this impressive example. Nicely struck throughout, and extremely rare finer. Tied for second finest graded, there are only 8 coins graded higher. Untoned on both sides and the smooth, clean surfaces are devoid of any distracting marks or ticks.

PCGS 284, NGC 60, CAC 96. There are 50 coins graded MS66+ and only 8 finer. Generally these have sold in the $4,000-$5,000 range, the last one selling in 2019 FUN auction for $3,840. Prior to that, we sold one in our November 2018 Regency Auction for $4,465. The current PCGS Price Guide is $5,200 and keep in mind that the last 67 was NOT CAC, and realized nearly $17,000!

PCGS# 7202 | ESTIMATE: $3,500+

LOT 140*$1 1892 PCGS MS65+ CAC

What a great looking GEM example of this lower mintage, conditionally scarce date Morgan. Just over 1 million were struck, and most went into general circulation or were melted in 1918. Lustrous and well struck, this coin has a great look, and the quality is well deserving of the MS65+ grade PCGS assigned. There is a touch of pale white iridescence over brilliant, shimmering, lustrous surfaces.

PCGS 416, NGC 103, CAC 63. PCGS has graded 54 in MS65+. Only 10 are graded MS66, so we think the population figure might be inflated due to re-submissions hoping for a 66 grade. The last PCGS-graded example to sell in auction realized $5,040 and was not CAC approved. The most recent PCGS MS65+ CAC that we sold realized $6,169 in our December 2016 Regency Auction XIX. The current PCGS value is listed at $5,500. Keep in mind a 66 is worth $45,000-$50,000. This coin has a lot to offer and will see fierce bidding. Good luck!

PCGS# 7212 | ESTIMATE: $4,000+

LOT 141*$1 1892-CC PCGS MS64 CAC

A brilliant, satiny near-GEM example of this late Carson City dollar. The surfaces are clean and free of all but the most insignificant marks or ticks, none of which detract from the eye appeal.

PCGS 1720, NGC 937, CAC 226. The most recent example to sell brought $3,000 in March 2019 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,000. Worthy of close examination from the specialist, this coin has a great look.

PCGS# 7214 | ESTIMATE: $2,200+

LOT 142*$1 1892-O PCGS MS65

A boldly lustrous and well struck silver-white gem. We note a much crisper than average strike, with fuller details in the central portions than usually seen. A pleasing example of this scarce date and grade.

PCGS 272, NGC 76. The last non-CAC PCGS graded coins have sold in the $2,600-$3,600 range and the current Collector's Universe value is listed at $3,250. This date becomes quite RARE any finer.

PCGS# 7216 | ESTIMATE: $2,400+

LOT 143*$1 1893 PCGS MS64+ CAC

Rich underlying luster glows brilliantly on both sides, under the delicate, dappled toning on both sides. Sharply struck and the surfaces are generally clean. This is a very popular grade for this better date Morgan.

PCGS 1411, NGC 674, CAC 142. There are 80 graded 64+ at PCGS and the most recent just sold in our March 2019 Regency Auction for $3,408. This coin is at a great price point for most collectors, so we know there will be strong demand. Good luck.

LOT 144
$1 1893-CC PCGS MS65 CAC
FROM THE CORONET COLLECTION II.

This is the coin from the original Coronet #1 set of Morgans. We were able to buy it back in 2018. Here is the original description from the auction:

"This is a really nice piece, especially for a date that is famous for not coming in nice condition. You'll typically see them flat or hacked up, but this coin is far from either. You can see just a few tiny, scattered ticks, but no scuffs or serious lines. The reverse is easily an MS65+. An intense luster shows off beautiful, snowy white surfaces. Miss Liberty and the details are frosted and sharply struck with no flatness on the reverse. The eye appeal is fantastic!"

PCGS 12, NGC 7, CAC 3. The last PCGS MS65 piece to sell at auction was in 2001 and we find it hard to believe that there is a PCGS population of twelve. We think it's closer to seven or eight. Legend-Morphy sold the lone MS66 in 2013 for $161,000 and even an NGC non CAC sold for $70,500 in 2014. This is an extremely rare opportunity to buy a real gem 1893-CC. Opportunity knocks! "

This coin was sold in a heated bidding war in 2015 for $129,950. We bought it back last year for slightly more. Legend Numismatics, our sister company, has long felt this was more of a stopper than a 1889-CC (which every one knows you either get no bean or a lesser coin). It has been more than 30 years since PCGS has started grading. The pops in the past 3 years may have gone up by 2, but the CAC pops have stayed the same-3. If you are building any type of CC or Morgan set, this is the coin for you! Here too, the Coronet Collector did all the hard work!

PCGS# 7222 | ESTIMATE: $120,000+

LOT 145*$1 1894 PCGS MS63+ CAC

Although the mintage is just 10,000 more than the 1893 S, more 1894 silver dollars were saved at the time of issue in Mint State, making this date scarce in all grades, but not a major condition rarity.

Bright, shimmering, satiny mint luster blooms with a bright vibrance on both sides. Minor weakness at the hair curls above the ear are sharper than normally seen. The surfaces are generally clean, devoid of any serious marks, with just a few light traces of contact that do not detract from the excellent eye appeal.

PCGS 403, NGC 226, CAC 43 The current PCGS

Population in 63+ is 12. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $5,750 and the most recent examples sold in January 2019, one for $5,040 in the FUN auction, and the other in our RA30 for $5,640. RARE finer, this is a great coin for the collector!

PCGS# 7228 | ESTIMATE: $4,500+

LOT 146*$1 1894-O PCGS MS63 CAC

Satiny and lustrous surfaces glow with a silvery brilliance on both sides. The rims show delicate blue and crimson toning that frames the obverse and reverse peripheries. Bluntly struck, as usually seen for the date, the central portions of the design are flat. A few minor marks are noted, none too serious and are accounted for in the assigned grade.

PCGS 354, NGC 173, CAC 28 The last PCGS CAC coin to sell in auction realized $4,818 in the 2017 ANA auction. Prior to that, one sold for $6,756 in September 2016. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $4,500. A neat collector grade coin that is totally original.

PCGS# 7230 | ESTIMATE: $3,600+

LOT 147*$1 1895-O PCGS AU58 CAC

The mintage of 450,000 was low by Morgan dollar standards, and is a result of the effects of the Panic of 1893. Most known examples are lower grade, and are very rare in Mint State. A pleasing AU58 like this is the highest grade that most collectors can hope to own. Frosty luster blooms on both sides like a Mint State coin, in fact the wear is limited to the barest trace of friction. Pearly with a hint of gold gives this coin a great look.

PCGS 514, NGC 661, CAC 52 The most recent sold in March 2019 for $4,320 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $4,500. NOTE any Mint State coin is going to carry a five-figure price tag.

PCGS# 7236 | ESTIMATE: $3,600+

LOT 148*$1 1895-S PCGS MS64*CAC

A lovely example of this key date issue that boasts tons of eye appeal. Miss Liberty and the eagle are fully struck up and nicely frosted, standing out against semi-reflective, boldly lustrous fields. A very subtle dusting of clear gold is noted, attesting to the total originality of this near-GEM. A few insignificant scuffs are noted and account for the assigned grade.

PCGS 423, NGC 213, CAC 74. The most recent example realized $8,112 in June 2018 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $8,750. RARE any finer, this is a great coin for the serious Morgan dollar collector looking for a high end example.

Ex Simpson Collection, as noted on the insert.

There is remarkable, then there is this outrageous SUPERB GEM. Save for one microscopic planchet flake on the jaw, this coin could have graded MS68. Yes, WOW indeed!

The exceptionally remarkable quality surfaces absolutely rank among the cleanest you will EVER see. Even using a strong glass and looking hard all over, you will become more impressed. The surfaces have a thick satiny type of texture. A full glowinguster beams vividly from all over. There is a stunning totally original thin crescent of royal blue/violet/gold that hugs the rims only. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck. The eye appeal is jaw dropping!

PCGS 268, NGC 68, CAC 77. PCGS has graded 30 in MS67+ with just 2 MS68's. We can assure you, this piece absolutely ranks in the top 5% plus for the grade. The last PCGS CAC MS67+ to sell in auction brought $7,050 in September 2018. This piece stopped us dead in our tracks when we first saw it many years ago. We liked it so much we placed in the greatest collection ever—the The Simpson Collection. We think there will be really strong bidding here, so be prepared, this coin is really as good as it gets!

$1 1896-O NGC MS63+

Another famous Morgan dollar condition rarity, the 96-O saw 4,900,000 struck and the majority either disappeared into circulation, or into the furnace after the passage of the Pittman Act in 1918. This date is RARE in MS63 and EXTREMELY RARE any finer. This is a really pleasing example with really pretty and totally original multicolored toning on the obverse. Sea-green and amber-gold are the predominant hues, but the light picks up some more subtle shades as the lustrous surfaces are rotated in a light. The devices are really well struck for this notoriously poorly struck date, and the satiny luster really shimmers all over. For a 63+ the surfaces are generally clean, and there are no serious marks, just some minor ticks. We have looked up and down this coin from all angles throughout, we cannot understand why CAC did not bestow this pleasing, fully CHOICE 1896-O dollar. Take a look at this one, you will know that the quality is all there and then some.

PCGS 19, NGC 3. NGC has graded just 14 finer. None of the NGC MS63+s have ever sold in auction, but a PCGS example sold for $7,800 in March 2019. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $10,000. EXTREMELY RARE any finer, this is a very important coin for the advanced collector.

$1 1897 PCGS MS67 CAC

Tied for second FINEST graded at PCGS, and one casual glance you can see why! This SUPERB GEM has a great look.

Bold, rolling cartwheel luster blooms vividly on both sides. The satiny sheen is nothing less than fully brilliant and totally untinted! The strike is bold throughout and the eye appeal is absolutely superb! Every detail is fully rendered and crisply embossed on both the obverse and reverse.

PCGS 38, NGC 11, CAC 8. We sold the last two PCGS MS67 CAC coins: the RanJack coin in July 2018 for $7,638 and the PFM Collection coin in May 2018 for $7,931. The current PCGS value is listed at $9,000 and keep in mind that there are only 2 graded MS67+ finer, the only one to sell realizing $23,500 in April 2017. It is hard to imagine a finer example.

Ex: Green Collection

This near-GEM is mostly untinted with some golden highlights. Full mint frost blankets surfaces that are lightly marked consistent with the assigned grade. The details are sharp and engaging to the eye. This date is much scarcer than might be suggested by its mintage of 5 million pieces, many of which were likely melted and never released.

PCGS 497, 196, CAC 73. The PCGS price guide lists the value at $5,400. The two most recent CAC approved coins to sell at auction realized $4,812 in January 2019 and $5,520 in August 2018. The price for this date more than doubles in MS65 making this well above average example an excellent value for the Morgan date collector.

LOT 153*$1 1897-S PCGS MS65+ PL CAC

At first glance we thought this GEM was a DMPL. The Prooflike qualities of this coin are off the charts, and if the reverse mirrors were just a little deeper we could see this coin in a DMPL holder. The sharply struck devices are fully frosted and stand out against the mirrored fields with a full cameo contrast on the obverse. The eye appeal is amazing for a PL with very minimal traces of contact.

PCGS 163, NGC 103, CAC 17 There are just 8 graded MS65+ PL. The only one to sell realized $1,998 in June 2017 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $2,000. RARE finer and this GEM is worthy of a strong bid

PCGS 298, NGC 186, CAC 110. The most recent example sold in February 2019 for $4,080, though most examples have realized between $1,800 and $2,200 and the current Collector's Universe value is listed at $1,900. There are currently two dozen graded finer, all MS67+, which recently have been selling in the $11,000-$12,500 range in our recent Regency Auctions.

Clearly worthy of its lofty grade! The frosty devices and impeccably struck devices stand out and are the epitome of cleanliness and flawlessness. The cartwheel luster has a vibrant satiny glow that is dusted by the palest of original iridescent gold hue and the eye appeal is truly SUPERB! A powerful glass will reveal a tiny tick, the only thing that keeps it from likely a higher grade. This amazing coin sits at the apex of the Population and will delight any demanding collector looking to build the BEST quality Morgan dollar set PCGS 326, NGC 188, CAC 110. We have had the pleasure of offering one in each of our last three Regency Auctions, selling between $10,869 to $11,456. Ex Magnificent Morgans, as noted on the insert.

This is a beautiful Premium Quality, SUPFRB GEM that is totally original and vibrantly lustrous. High end in every way, the eye appeal is enhanced by the ever most subtle dusting of pastel golden iridescent tone. For an 1899 O, the central devices are nicely struck and frosty, while the fields are aglow with a rich satiny luster. While common in grades up to MS66, this date is VERY scarce in MS67 and extremely rare finer.

PCGS 184, NGC 113, CAC 70. The most recent example to sell realized $3,360 in the 2019 FUN Auction. Prior to that, we sold the PFM coin in our May 2018 Regency Auction for $3,643. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $2,850, which seems low for a CAC approved coin. Remember only 20 are graded finer, making this a great coin for any collector seeking a very high grade example, without a five-figure price tag. Good luck!

PCGS# 7260 ESTIMATE: $2,800+

LOT 157*$1 1899-O PCGS MS67+ CAC

It is our opinion, PCGS could have graded this coin an MS68 (we make NO promises). It's as nice of an O Mint as we have ever seen.

Remarkable surfaces are the epitome of perfection. Even when using a strong glass you will only become more impressed. The surfaces have an ultra smooth light satiny texture. A full booming luster beams from all over. This coin is a gorgeous bone white original color. Miss Liberty and the details are fully struck and have delicate frost. There is a microscopic tick or two on the face (you need a glass to see), which could be what is keeping this coin from MS68.

PCGS 184, NGC 115, CAC 71. PCGS has graded 20 in MS67+. We'd bet this coin has been in more than once. The current Collectors Universe Value is $12,500. The current MS68 Collectors Universe Value is $36,500. We mention that only because this coin is so close to MS68 (again, no promises).

PCGS# 7260 | ESTIMATE: $8,500+

LOT 158*$1 1899-S PCGS MS64

Impressive strike with excellent details and satiny surfaces that exhibit pleasing red and pale olive toning. Contact marks are light and unobtrusive and the coin has a high-end look for the assigned grade.

PCGS 1,393, NGC 680. Listed in the price guide at $900. Recent APR's range from $660 to $900. Consider this one carefully as the price differential doubles from MS64 to MS65; this coin represents an excellent value.

LOT 159*$1 1899-S PCGS MS66+ CAC

Extremely lustrous and vibrant with a bold rolling cartwheel effect on both the obverse and reverse. Well struck devices are nice and frosty. Pale gold toning dusts the reverse. There is just a touch of contact that are noted for accuracy, none of which are distracting to the naked eye. The eye appeal is quite appealing.

RARE any finer, fewer than a dozen are graded higher, and the last PCGS/CAC MS67 sold for $49,938. This PQ GEM will bring a strong bid and will be placed into an awesome collection of Morgan dollars. Good luck!

With a pedigree like this, you know it is going to be a quality, eye appealing SUPERB GEM. First it is totally original and boldly lustrous. The satiny surfaces glow all over with a fantastic vibrance. Sharply struck devices have a pleasing frost. A delicate iridescent hue on both sides attests to the originality, but this satiny SUPERB GEM will fit nicely into any high end untuned set.

PCGS 79, NGC 50, CAC 32. The most recent example realized $6,600 in the 2018 ANA auction, and before that, one sold in the 2016 FUN auction for $6,463. This exceptional coin is worthy a bid above the current Collector's Universe value of $4,750. There are just eight coins graded finer, and the most recent one sold for $45,600 in March 2019. This is a great coin for any high end Registry Set or any collection of Morgan dollars and we anticipate strong bidding.

Simply BRILLIANT! Bold, swirling cartwheel luster blooms all over on both sides. A dusting of pale gold can be seen on the obverse, but generally the surfaces are a shimmering, untoned, vibrant silver-white. The devices are very sharply struck for the date, and the eye appeal is exceptional. With a pedigree like this, you know the eye appeal is high end.

PCGS 104, NGC 77, CAC 45. The most recent PCGS/CAC MS67 sold for $5,040 in the 2019 FUN auct.on; prior to that, we sold the Jack-Lee PFM coin for $4,113 in our May 2018 Regency Auction. This coin is going to sell for a strong price and is bound for another WORLD CLASS set!

Just under the top of the pop is this gorgeous GEM 1900-S dollar. Just four coins have been graded finer, making this a contender for a great Morgan dollar set. This amazing GEM has a great look imparted by a resplendent, brilliant luster. Sharply struck, with crisply defined details in the devices, even the hair curls are fully rendered. This must have been the final coin in a roll, as the reverse has a ring of peripheral tone. The eye appeal is gorgeous.

PCGS 144, NGC 24, CAC 33. PCGS has graded just 17 in MS66+. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $6,500 and the last two sold for $6,350 and $7,050. We think this GEM will delight even the pickiest of collectors. Note with just four finer, this coin will see stiff competition from bidders. Good luck!

Like the 1884-S, 1886-O, and 1896-O dollars, the 1901 dollar is common in circulated grades, but rare in Mint State. This nice, nearly CHOICE example has full luster and just a few small contact marks. Pretty peripheral toning graces the rims on both sides adding to the highly pleasing visual affect of this coin.

PCGS 303, NGC 213, CAC 26. The last one to sell brought $4,935 and this coin realized $6,463 in 2013. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $4,850. VERY RARE finer.

A truly high end CHOICE example of this conditionally RARE date. While the Philadelphia mint churned out nearly 7 million Morgan dollars, any Mint State example is a true prize for the collector. At the MS63 level, this date is VERY RARE!

Brilliant, satiny luster beams from all over, highlighting a delicate, pastel rose gold hue. Typical for the date, there is a touch of striking softness, but the strike is better than what is usually seen. The surfaces are not abraded or chopped up in any way and the total originality of the eye appeal is high end for the assigned grade.

PCGS 150, NGC 92, CAC 31. The most recent PCGS/CAC coin to sell in auction realized $16,800 and the average of the seven PCGS/CAC coins that have sold in auction is $18,202. VERY RARE any finer and bound for a quality focused Morgan dollar set.

PCGS# 7272 ESTIMATE: $12,500+LOT 165$1 1901-O PCGS MS66+ CAC

An exceptionally vibrant, satiny, and brilliant lustrous GEM. Light iridescent patina graces both sides, brought out by the light but this GEM will fit in perfectly in any toned set. Well struck, there are no distracting marks anywhere, as you would expect for a CAC approved example in this grade. The eye appeal is wonderful.

PCGS 626, NGC 522, CAC 156. The most recent example we sold was in July 2018 for $2,291, and another sold in October 2018 for $3,840. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $2,750 and this one should bring close to that. Extremely Rare any finer, with just 8 graded between MS67 and MS68 at PCGS.

LOT 166*$1 1901-O PCGS MS67

AMONG THE FINEST GRADED! The 1901 O is EXTREMELY RARE in such a high grade! While over 13 million were struck and many were stored in mint bags that were distributed in the 1950s and 1960s, very few survive in MS67 grade.

Well struck and frosty devices stand out on the satiny, lustrous surfaces. The design elements are crisply rendered and fully formed on both sides. The fields show a radiating luster, with semi-reflective flash. A single mark is seen on the frosty check, but otherwise the surfaces are defect free. The eye appeal is quite nice.

PCGS 6, NGC 20. The most recent example to sell in auction brought $19,975 in March 2015 and prior to that a CAC-approved example sold in the 2011 FUN auction for $37,375. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $25,000 and we would not be shocked if this one came close to that figure. Just 2 coins are graded finer at PCGS, a 67+ and a 68, so this coin is bound for one of the FINEST sets. Good luck!

PCGS# 7274 ESTIMATE: $18,000+

LOT 167*$1 1901-O PCGS MS66+

Regardless of designation, this AMAZING Prooflike 1901-O ranks among the FINEST of the date, bested by just a handful of non-PL examples.

Both sides have bold, flashy, distinctly reflective luster in the fields that are the ultimate in terms of clarity and icy smoothness. Not only are the fields clean, but the frosty devices are sharply struck and unmarred by any marks of consequence, indeed the only one that we will mention is a reeding mark on the reverse under the right wing. For an O-mint, the strike is really sharp and the eye appeal is exceptional!

PCGS 29, NGC 18, CAC 5. PCGS has graded 2 in 66+ PL, and this coin is tied for the finest in the PL designation with the "Perfection Collection" coin (this one is smoother). No DMPL has been graded finer than MS65 at PCGS, and the last one of those sold in June 2011 for $10,350. In 66+ PL, Collector's Universe lists the value at $9,500, but we think that is too low for a high end example like this. This is a great coin for a very high end collection of Morgan dollars the opportunity this coin presents should not be taken for granted.

PCGS# 7275 ESTIMATE: $12,000+

LOT 168*$1 1901-S PCGS MS66

Extremely lustrous! The cartwheels of brilliance radiate boldly around the GEM quality surfaces. Well struck on both sides, the eye appeal is wonderful with just a few minor traces of contact seen on either side, none of which are distracting to the eye, nor are they unexpected for the assigned MS66 grade.

While the mintage of 2,284,000 was moderate, clearly these were released to commercial channels and stored in treasury vaults, where they would meet the great silver dollar melts authorized by the 1918 Pittman Act. Any Choice Mint State or finer 1901-S is scarce, and indeed RARE in GEM grades.

PCGS 33, NGC 5. Only 9 coins are graded finer. The last one sold for $5,520 in October 2018. Prior to that, one sold for $6,600 in July 2018. Collector's Universe lists a value of $8,500 in the current Price Guide. Anything finer is going to be a five figure rarity. Demand for high grade examples for Registry Sets far exceeds the supply, and we anticipate strong bidding here.

Ex Vanderbilt Collection, as noted on the holder

Once considered one of the rarest dates in Mint State in the entire Morgan series, thanks to a treasury release in October 1962, several hundred thousand fresh, Mint State examples were released. To give an idea, the 1962 Red Book listed Uncirculated 1903-O dollars at $1,500--the highest price for any Morgan dollar date. Dave Bowers notes that circulated 03-O dollars are quite difficult to find, the majority of the mintage of 4,450,000 were melted during the 1918 Pittman Act. This is a pleasing SUPERB example, with a rich, frosty luster that blooms boldly on both sides. Well struck for a New Orleans dollar, the details are very nicely defined. The palest dusting of clear gold tone graces both sides, and we suspect this coin is from one of the original bags released in 1962.

PCGS 95, NGC 50. The most recent example sold in March 2019 for $2,880 and one sold in the 2019 FUN auction for $3,120. We sold the PFM coin in May 2018 for $3,995 and the current PCGS value is listed at $3,850. Just 2 are graded finer at MS67+, neither of which have ever sold in auction. What an exceptional GEM! Well struck for the date, with only a slight weakness at the centers; otherwise details are excellent. Untoned satiny iridescence is pleasing, and the surfaces are mostly smooth but for a bit of chatter that blends neatly in to the lower reverse. This coin is not lifeless or drab as can be common for the date. The eye appeal is quite pleasant.

PCGS 47, NGC 6, only 6 finer. The last one we sold realized $6,463 in our September 2018 Regency Auction. Listed in the price guide at $7,500 and worthy of a strong bid based on its place among the very best known for this date. A condition rarity, this late date Morgan dollar is meant to be included in a high-end collection.

There are MS66 1904-O DMPL's and then there is THIS 1904-O DMPL MONSTER! It is as close to a MS67 DMPL as we have ever seen. Sorry, didn't really care for the MS67 04-O (which is not beamed).

For an 04-O, the mirrors are way beyond what you typically see. These are legit super deep 8"++++ mirrors (the reverse looks full 10"++). The mirrors have great clarity and are ultra clean. When you twirl the coin the mirrors look like those you would find on a proof coin. Plus, they do roll around like liquid mercury. This piece is untuned and unmessed with. The contrast is crazy bold. Miss Liberty and every detail are fully struck and have iridescent silvery frost. The eye appeal is totally jaw dropping!

PCGS 22, NGC 9, CAC 4. PCGS has graded 3 in MS66+ DMPL. We have never seen any of the others. This is the only one that has ever sold in auction, bringing $12,338 in our July 2018 Regency Auction. The current PCGS Price Guide value is $15,500 and just one is finer, a coin that has never been in auction. PCGS# 7296 | ESTIMATE: $500+LOT 180$1 1921-D MORGAN. PCGS MS66+ CAC

This is a VERY HIGH END 21-D Morgan! The ONLY Morgan dollar issued by the Denver m.m.t. The present exceptiona. GEM has a billowy, satin luster that graces both sides. The slightest trace of light gold at the rims and the surfaces show exceptional clean mess and are free of any distracting marks, line, or any other distractions that would impact the eye appeal.

PCGS 557 NGC 297, CAC 226. There are 80 examples graded in MS66+ with only 11 coins graded finer. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $2,500 and the most recent comparable example sold for $3,600 in December 2018. We expect this marvelous beauty to bring considerable bidding from the Morgan dollar specialist!

PCGS# 7298 | ESTIMATE: $2,500+*OUR ESTIMATES

The estimates you see published in this catalog are based on HAMMER. Keep in mind that a coin could be either low or high end for the grade, have stunning color or be dull, all of which radically affect a coin's value. Yes, there can be huge price differences within a grade, and we offer estimates as a guide so Collector's can have a better idea of value. One thing we will never do is offer low ball estimates in order to claim stronger sales.

These published estimates represent what Legend Rare Coin Auctions determines to be an approximate high wholesale value for the coin. The numbers are based upon current market values, similar trades, auction prices, published prices, and a consideration of the coin's quality. There is no guarantee that the estimated prices are minimums or are exactly what you can expect to get if you attempt to resell them wholesale.

We always advise you to view the coins you are interested in and calculate what you'll pay using as much information as possible. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask us. We are here to help you!

LOT 181*$1 1921-D MORGAN PCGS MS67 CAC

Ex Coronet and Vanderbilt Collections as noted on the holder.

From our October 2015 Regency Auction that featured the Coronet Collection which was cataloged as "This sensational piece shows only a single frost break. There are no hits or other impairments to be found. The surfaces are as velvety smooth as you'll ever see and a strong luster illuminates crisp, creamy white, pale gold colors. The strike is amazingly bold. Miss Liberty and the details are frosted, and needle sharp, something unusual for a 1921-D. The eye appeal is tremendous!"

After a hiatus of 17 years, the mint produced record numbers of Morgan dollars at all three remaining mints, including the Denver mint--1921 represents the only year this facility struck Morgans.

PCGS 10, NGC 12, CAC 6. This coin realized $30,550 in our October 2015 Regency Auction. There is just a single MS67+, which has never sold in auction. A high end coin that is from two WORLD CLASS collections and is destined for another!

PCGS# 7298 ESTIMATE: $20,000+

LOT 182*$1 1878 7 TAIL FEATHERS. REV. OF '78 PCGS PR65 CAC

This is a very high end, totally original, wonderful GEM of this early Morgan dollar Proof issue. The eye appeal is truly unique and visually alluring.

Rich, deep, watery mirrored fields are smooth and beaming with a wonderful flash. The surfaces are generally clean and clear of any distracting marks, lines, or stains of any kind. The totally original patina is a warm blend of olive-russet, pewter, champagne-gold, salmon-pink, and coppery amber-orange that gently caresses both sides of this GEM! The design elements are sharply impressed on both sides, adding to the outstanding visual allure.

Experts have contested the number of Proof examples of this variety struck, with the estimate being between 200 and 300. Today, we can tell that the number of survivors is much lower, many were likely unsold at the mint and melted, and others lost to ravages of time.

PCGS 6, NGC 14, CAC 3. The last PCGS/CAC coin to sell in auction was in our December 2014 Regency Auction where an example realized $19,975. The current PCGS value is listed at $18,500 and we know a coin like this will far exceed that level when it crosses the block. Keep in mind the PCGS Price Guide lists a value of $45,000 in PR66. Good Luck!

PCGS# 7312 | ESTIMATE: $22,000+

LOT 183*$1 1880 PCGS PR67 CAM CAC

Everything about this coin is awesome. We have been mesmerized by the great eye appeal and deep mirrors!

This SUPERB GEM Proof Morgan has ultra clear, clean, and dramatically reflective mirrors that are totally “in your face”! Essentially blast silver, there is a delicate touch of golden toning that frames the rims. Miss Liberty and the details have needle sharp strikes and thick, creamy white frost. The cheek is especially thick with frost and is extremely smooth. The eye appeal is awesome!

PCGS 15, NGC 22, CAC 6. Remarkably, our records show ZERO CAC-approved PR67 CAM examples sold in auction either graded by PCGS or NGC. The most recent PCGS graded example was NOT CAC and sold in our September 2018 Regency Auction for $15,863. Remarkably 10 coins are graded finer, and a non-CAC PR68 sold in our May 2017 Regency Auction for $31,750. We love the look of this SUPERB GEM and it is truly worthy of a bid well in excess of the Collector's Universe value of $20,000!

PCGS# 87315 | ESTIMATE: $18,000+

$1 1881 PCGS PR64 CAM CAC

Truly a very pretty, essentially GEM Proof 1881 Morgan. Indeed in the days before professional coin grading, this would have been called a full GEM grade. Highly reflective, deep, clean, and clear mirrors beam from all over on both sides. Sharply struck and fully frosted devices stand out boldly from the mirrored fields with dramatic cameo contrast that arrests the eye. Pretty peripheral coppery gold toning graces both obverse and reverse. A few minor lines can be seen, but none are distracting to the otherwise superb eye appeal for a PR64 CAM Morgan.

Only 984 Proofs were struck. PCGS 27, NGC 12, CAC 10. The last one to sell was in our July 2018 Regency Auction, realizing $5,170, prior to that, one sold in June 2018 for $4,320, and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $5,500. Scarce any finer, and this one has a great look, that will delight any collector. Good luck!

LOT 185*$1 1890 PCGS PR67 CAM CAC

WOW! This is an AMAZING and pristine beauty! Everything about this coin is very high end and very eye appealing!

Deep, ultra reflective mirrored fields beam from all over. They are the epitome of clarity and cleanliness. You really need a pair of dark sunglasses to view the blinding reflection of this SUPERB GEM. The frosty devices are sharply impressed and have a thick, white, frosted texture, showing a bold, dramatic black and white CAMEO contrast. The eye appeal is quite vivid, exceptional, and SUPERB!

Only 590 Proofs were struck. PCGS 5, NGC 14, CAC 2. No CAC approved example as ever sold in auction. The most recent non-CAC coin sold over seven years ago, realizing $18,630 in February 2012. More recently we sold a non-CAC PR66+ for $17,037 in February 2015. Clearly the current Collector's Universe value of $20,000 is too low and based on outdated information. We can see this coin selling for $25,000+. Only 1 is graded PR68 CAM and the DCAMs are excessively rare. Worthy of the FINEST sets of Proof Morgan dollars and a strong bid to take it home.

PCGS# 87325 | ESTIMATE: $22,000+

LOT 186*$1 1926-D PCGS MS66+
CAC

Sharply struck and very eye appealing, this is a GEM "PLUS" example and boy does it have a great look! The details are very crisp in definition and the surfaces are generally clean with just a few teeny frost breaks seen. The luster is bold and frosty, with a lovely satin texture. Light iridescent toning can be seen with a glass. Premium quality all the way!

PCGS 286, NGC 103, CAC

91. PCGS has graded 20 in MS66+ and there is a wide range of APRs for these. The most recent sold for $15,601, but prior to that, one sold in June 2018 for $7,200. The current PCGS value is listed at $7,500 and this gorgeous coin is worthy of a very strong bid. The last MS67 CAC sold for $47,000 in the 2015 ANA auction. There is fierce demand for a superb coin like this, and we anticipate very strong bidding to take this beauty home.

PCGS# 7368 ESTIMATE: $6,500+LOT 187$1 1934 PCGS MS66+
CAC

This is a very pretty, SUPERB GEM 1934 dollar. If you are looking for a high end example for your set, your search can end here.

A bold, brilliant luster beams all over with the palest of iridescent golden overtones. The mint brilliance really accents the sharply struck devices. Even under powerful magnification, we are unable to find any serious marks or ticks of any kind.

The eye appeal is exceptional in every way.

PCGS 243, NGC 39, CAC 68. There are 33 in MS66+ with just six finer. The most recent MS66+ sold in our March 2019 Regency Auction 31 for $11,750 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $7,850. Only one MS67 has ever sold in auction, the Anne Kate coin that brought a record $108,000 in the 2018 ANA auction. This is a great coin for the Registry Set collector, and we expect another strong price for this one when it crosses the block.

PCGS# 7375 ESTIMATE: $6,500+

LOT 188*$1 1934-S*PCGS MS66

Just over a million 34-S dollars were struck, making this one of the KEY dates to the series, especially in GEM grades. In MS66, as here, this date is exceptionally RARE and is bested by just a single coin in 66+

The present

PQ example is well struck with a bold, satiny luster. The design elements are very sharply rendered with crisp definition on both the obverse and reverse. Pearlescent silver hues gleam on both sides. A strong glass reveals a few tiny ticks that are acceptable for the assigned grade. This coin has a great look and will fit nicely in any GEM set.

PCGS 32, NGC 13. The last two PCGS-graded examples sold for $26,400, the most recent in March 2019 and the other in the 2018 ANA auction. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $42,500 and there is just a single MS66+ graded finer, a coin that has never yet sold in auction, thus this is one of the finest available on the market today. Good luck!

PCGS# 7377 ESTIMATE: $22,000+

LOT 189*U.S. PHILIPPINES. PESO. 1904 PCGS MS65

Few people know this, but in the early 20th Century, the U.S. engaged in an imperial expansion. During the War with Spain, the U.S. not only captured Cuba and Puerto Rico, but also took over the Philippines. The U.S. began striking coins for circulation in the newly obtained territory in 1903. In 1904, only 10,000 were struck, making this a very scarce issue. Most of these have circulated and Mint State coins are quite scarce, and GEMS rare. Listed in the Red Book, this coin is often collected along side other territorial-related world coins, like those struck in 1883 for the Kingdom of Hawaii and the 1895 Spanish struck coins of Puerto Rico.

Bold underlying luster accents the pewter blue, pale gold, russet-tan, and soft olive tones. Sharply struck devices show a walking figure of Liberty striking a hammer on an anvil and a smoking volcano in the background. The reverse shows an eagle surmounted on the union shield. This GEM's eye appeal is exceptional.

PCGS 17, NGC 9. The most recent example sold for $4,320 in February 2019 and prior to that, one sold in January 2016 for $3,995. This is a very interesting and important coin that will delight advanced U.S. collectors or world coin collectors alike.

THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION

The Wolverine Collection was put together over many years, one precious coin at a time, with a special emphasis on later 19th century and very early 20th century coins that were either top population or near top-pop. Focus was placed on rare Proof Indian Head cents where the inspiration and passion came from his coin collecting in the 1950's and early 1960's, when he would find the very infrequent Indian cent in his change as a child sparking great delight. Given the rarity and infrequency of finding Gem Proof Indian head cents in both Cameo and red designation condition, this collection is indeed an infrequent opportunity to improve your collection. The current owner's hope is that the new owner will find as much pleasure in the collecting experience as he had over the years.

LOT 190
1C 1859 PCGS PR66 CAM CAC
 FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION

This is a GORGEOUS, Premium Quality GEM Proof example of the first year of the Indian cent design. This coin is among the absolute finest of this short lived subtype.

Highly reflective surfaces are wonderfully toned with sky blue, pinkish-rose, and olive overtones over the original tan-gold of the Copper-nickel planchet. The mirrors are deep and flashy and they contrast against the frosted and razor sharp devices that stand out with bold cameo effect. There are no sizable flecks, carbon, or any distractions that have an impact on the SUPERB eye appeal. The quality is very high end, as evidenced by the dual endorsement of CAC and the Eagle Eye Photo Seal.

Only 800 Proofs were struck PCGS 8, NGC 3, CAC 3. The only CAC-approved example to sell realized $18,800 in the 2013 FUN auction. This coin appears to be the amazing GEM that sold for a record $27,600 in the February 2006 Long Beach auction. Just a single PR66+ CAM is graded finer, which has never come to market. This is the type of coin that you need to ignore the recent comps and price guides and realize what an amazing opportunity this SUPERB GEM presents the Registry Set collector. If you are building a high ranking set of Proof Indian cents, let this important coin be the start to your set. Good luck!

COPPER-NICKEL, PCGS
PR66 DCAM
FROM THE WOLVERINE
COLLECTION, Ex Richard
Collection, as noted on the insert

This is an exceptional DCAM Proof GEM. We are astounded by the deeply reflective copper-nickel surfaces. The mirrored fields are the epitome of cleanliness and clarity, and are icy smooth, with nothing more than a tiny reverse punchet flake, a single thin

lint mark, and a few tiny specks seen here and there. The devices are sharply struck up and boldly frosted, standing out in full 3-D effect against the deep mirrored fields. The eye appeal is outstanding!

Only 370 Proofs were struck, the lowest mintage of the copper-nickel cents, before switching over to the bronze planchets.

PCGS 4, NGC 2. Don't let the populations fool you, this is the ONLY PCGS-graded example that has ever sold in auction. Its most recent appearance was in July 2014, realizing $12,925 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $16,500. There are NONE finer in the designation. This is a very important opportunity for the Registry Set collector seeking the FINEST of the fine.

LOT 192
1C 1864 BRONZE. PCGS
PR66RD CAM
 COLLECTION

Among the very FINEST known of this popular variety, missing the L on the ribbon. The surfaces are blazing, original RED with lively, deep, beaming, highly reflective mirrors that offer the most awesome clarity you can imagine on a bronze Indian Head cent Proof especially of this early era.

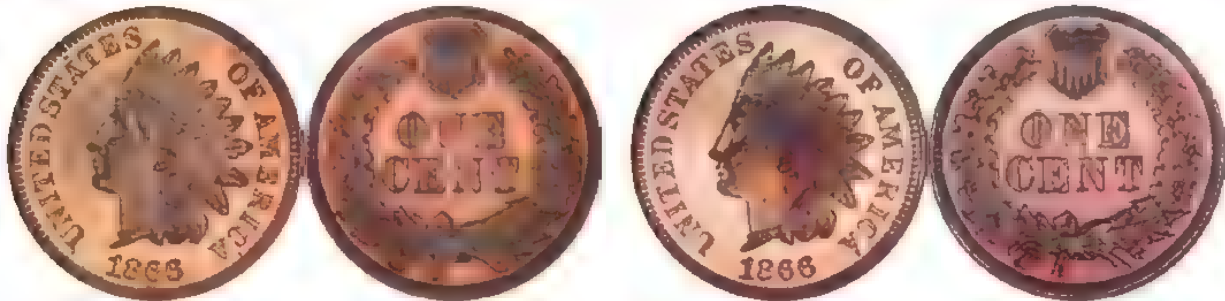

The devices are razor sharp in definition and are fully frosted throughout with dramatic contrast against the mirrored fields. Iridescent coppery-gold blend into rich orange that show off traces of deeper crimson. The eye appeal is very high end.

This transitional variety saw a mintage of approximately 300 pieces, the vast majority of these are brown or red brown with only slight traces of red. Fully red examples are real prizes among aficionados of this series.

PCGS 2, NGC 0. This is the most recent example to sell in auction, bringing $19,975 in the 2015 ANA auction. The only other one to sell in auction brought $28,750 back in the 2004 FUN auction. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $25,000 and we expect this dramatic looking GEM to fetch a very strong bid. Bound to be added to a very high ranking set of Proof Indian Head cents. Good luck!

PCGS# 82278 | ESTIMATE: $18,000

LOT 193
1C 1866 PCGS PR66RD
 FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION

Tied for FINEST in the RD category. This is an ultra reflective GEM with fully red surfaces that beam from all over. The mirrors are deep and very flashy with radiant brilliance. Delicate iridescence dusts over the wonderful GEM red surfaces. Every detail is deeply embossed and fully defined. The eye appeal is exceptional.

Only 725 Proofs were struck. PCGS 4, NGC 3. The most recent two APRs are for the same coin, which brought $3,713 and $3,995, but this coin last sold in February 2012 for $6,900. The current PCGS value is listed at $5,000. You will not find a finer RED than this one, and it will bring a strong bid for sure. Bound for a very high ranking Registry Set of Indian Head Proofs.

LOT 194
1C 1866 PCGS PR65RD CAM
 FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION.

This is a very reflective GEM Proof. Deeply mirrored fields beam throughout. The razor sharp devices are highly frosted and offer a bold cameo contrast against the rich mirrored fields. The yellow gold and red tones have a great look. A streak of deeper crimson is seen across Liberty's head. Truly unique looking and easily traced.

Only 725 Proofs were struck. PCGS 8, NGC 0. This coin most recently sold for $1,800 in the 2018 FUN auction. This coin's first auction appearance was in July 2004, realizing $4,600. One sold in the 2016 ANA auction for $3,760. The current PCGS Price Guide value is $3,500. Anything finer has a Price Guide value in the five figures. Good luck!

THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION

LOT 195

1C 1868 PCGS PR66RD

CAC

FROM THE WOLVERINE
COLLECTION

This is a stunning GEM, the only PR66 RD graded at PCGS and the single FINEST graded in this color designation.

Deep, beaming mirrors glow with a flashy, brilliant gleam in all the fields. The devices are razor sharp in definition and has a wonderful frost. At certain angles, there appears to be a near cameo contrast

Deep RED color is glorious and totally original, this immaculate GEM is very high end and an amazingly eye appealing beauty! There were 600
Proofs originally struck and approximately half are estimated to have dramatically rotated reverse die orientations like this one, adding interest to this impressive SUPERB GEM.

PCGS 1, NGC 3, CAC 1 This is NOT the Rollins Estate - Gene Gardner Collection coin, which has since been upgraded to PCGS PR66 RD CAM
CAC. The current PCGS Price Guide value is $20,000 and this is the one the sold for $14,950 in April 2009. Off the market since then, this coin is bound to see fierce bidding competition from advanced Proof cent collectors. This coin will find itself in a WORLD CLASS collection! Good luck!

CAM CAC

COLLECTION.

Ex Perfection 2, as noted on the holder.

Tied for FINEST graded in the CAMEO designation, this is an AMAZING GEM Proof example of this early date Indian cent. Brilliant orange-red color shows the slightest mellowing, but it does not change the stunning reflection of the fields. All the devices are fully struck up with razor sharp crispness and are fully frosty, creating exceptional cameo contrast with the fields

The reverse is rotated about 170 degrees, a feature that Rick Snow points out is found on roughly 15% of Proof issues. Unlike many 1868 Proof cents, this coin does not have a streaky toning; it has nothing but exceptional and high end eye appeal!

Only 600 were struck. PCGS 4, NGC 0, CAC 2. Prior to this coin selling in the 2016 FUN auction for $9,400, a NON-CAC coin sold in the 2011
ANA auction for $15,525. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $12,500. As one of the FINEST examples for the date, this coin will get included in another WORLD CLASS collection. Please note the line on image is on the holder and not on the coin. Good luck!

LOT 197

1C 1869 PCGS PR66RD
COLLECTION

Deep red toning gives this GEM a great look. The mirrors are bold and highly reflective, shimmering when rotated in a light. Both sides have a wonderful brilliance from under the rich red toning with shades of orange and delicate olive and gold accents. The definition is crisp and sharp from a forceful strike. The quality is all there and then some with a bold aesthetic and impressive technical qualities that impart a bold visual allure that captivates the viewer. Housed in an old green tag holder

Only 600 Proofs were struck and Proofs of this era were not particularly well made, with the polishing taking place after the dies were hardened. This anomaly in the die preparation process explains why this GEM is so special.

PCGS 3, NGC 5 This coin has been off the market for over a decade, last selling in July 2008. The current PCGS Price Guide lists a value at $9,500. NONE are graded finer at PCGS, and this old holdered GEM is worthy of a world class set. We anticipate strong bidding for this one when it crosses the block. Good luck!

CAM
COLLECTION

This reflective RED GEM Proof is tied for FINEST graded in the CAMEO category, and with no DCAMS graded, this is one of the FINEST of the date you can hope to obtain on the market.

The mirrors are bold, offering a strong depth and clarity, especially so on the obverse. The devices are frosty and well struck, and stand out with a bold contrast to the surrounding fields. The surfaces are smooth, showing just a couple of insignificant flecks and some minor iridescent "haze" on the reverse, attesting to the originality of this eye appealing GEM.

PCGS 4, NGC 0. The last two coins to sell were CAC approved, one realizing $8,400 in the 2019 FUN auction and the other for $6,463 in the 2016 FUN auction. The last non-CAC coin sold nearly four years ago, since then, the market seems to have gotten stronger for Proof Indian cents. The current Collector's Universe value is $8,250 and with NONE FINER, this coin is ideal for placement in an upper tier Registry Set. Good luck!

WOW! Rarely do early Indian Head cent Proofs come this vibrant, flashy, and with so much fresh mint RED. Currently tied for second FINEST graded at PCGS, there is just a single PR66+ RD finer in the designation.

The mirrored fields are magnificent and highly reflective and the devices are crisply struck up with a bold frost. A couple of ancient flecks attest to the wonderful originality of this Premium Quality GEM, the eye appeal is stupendous!

PCGS 4, NGC 3, CAC 2 This coin was recently sent in to CAC, and it last sold in September 2010 for $8,050 as a non-CAC coin. Indeed, prior to now, no CAC example has sold in auction. Here is another wonderful RED GEM Proof Indian cent from this collection. Flashy, watery, reflective mirrors beam from all over. They are clean and have a gleaming clarity that is undisturbed by all but the most insignificant flecks generally seen on the reverse. The devices are sharply unpressed and stand out with a great look.

PCGS 6, NGC 3, NONE ARE FINER at either service. Non-CAC examples sold in the wide range of $7,050 to $12,925, and the current PCGS Price Guide value lists a value of $11,500. What an important opportunity for the advanced Proof Indian cent collector to add one of the FINEST graded 1872s to their set. Good luck!

Whoa! This GEM is so high end and Premium Quality! Ultra deep mirrors beam brilliantly and are fully RED. They are flashy and offer a strong, coppery glow that captivates the eye. The surfaces are smooth, free of any distracting flecks, or carbon spots, lines or marks. There is a pair of lint marks on the reverse, evidence of the full polishing the dies received before striking. Sharply struck, the devices have a nice frost. The highly original RED surfaces show traces of violet accents that greatly add to the visual allure. Among the FINEST graded, this magnificent GEM has a superb look that will entice even the most jaded of collectors!

PCGS 3, NGC 2, CAC 1. This marvelous GEM sold in February 2014 (prior to being CAC) for $15,275. The current PCGS price Guide value is listed at $12,500. This is such a high end example we can see it selling for more today. It is bound for a world class collection and worthy of a strong bid. Good luck!

At first glance this highly contrasted coin looks conservatively graded, and the eye appeal stands up to close inspection. The mirrors are deep and bearing with just a touch of iridescent overtones. We note a single fleck on the the first feather of the headdress. Other than that, only a few light lines are seen, using a strong glass. The eye appeal is really nice for the modest grade. This is a rare date in CAMEO, with just six total at PCGS.

Only 700 were struck. PCGS 1, NGC 0. This coin sold for $646 in July 2017. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $800 and this is a neat coin for the budget minded collector.

LOT 203

1C 1875 PCGS PR66RD
COLLECTION

Among the FINEST graded in the RD designation, this gorgeous PR66 has a SUPERB look. The deeply reflective, brilliant RED mirrors dance and beam with a vivid flash on both sides. Richer red iridescent toning is gently dusted over the bright, orange-gold coppery color. The sharply struck devices stand out with near cameo-like contrast on both sides. We see only a tiny planchet flake on the reverse under a strong glass. The surfaces are slightly "mellowed" which may be why CAC did not sticker this otherwise exceptionally beautiful GEM.

PCGS 3, NGC 0. The last time this coin sold was a decade ago, selling for $11,500 in March 2009. Prior to that, one sold in July 2008 for $14,950. Today, the Collector's Universe value is listed at $14,000 and we suspect that this beautiful, SUPERB example will bring close to that. We expect a strong bidding war to erupt when this one crosses the block and is bound for a very high ranking PCGS Registry Set. Good luck!

This GEM has a bold visual allure that comes from deeply reflective surfaces with highly frosted devices that combine to create a nearly cameo effect. The surfaces are a wonderful original red with just the ever so subtle trace of iridescent yellow-green hues in the rims. There is a tiny mark that will forever serve to identify this GEM, there is a single tick on the chin. The eye appeal is quite nice. A popular issue from the centennial year.

PCGS 11, NGC 4. This coin has been off the market for nearly a decade, realizing $4,600 in July 2009. The most recent coin sold for $3,055 back in the 2016 FUN auction and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $4,000. This impressive coin will see spirited bidding, there are NONE finer. Good luck!

Deep, original, brilliant RED mirrors beam with a bold, vibrant flash in the fields. The surfaces are sleek, clean, and the reflection is stunning and very eye appealing. The devices are crisply and boldly impressed, with thick original red frost that contrasts very nicely against the icy smooth mirrors. We note one tiny toning dot and a small contact mark on the reverse. The color is rich with some minor traces of violet that add to the exceptional visual allure. Truly the eye appeal is exceptional.

PCGS 8, NGC 1. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $6,000 and the most recent PCGS graded example sold over three years ago, a CAC-approved coin that brought $4,700 in February 2016. With NONE graded finer at PCGS in the CAM designation, we know this GEM will excite the advanced Registry Set collectors looking for the highest grade cameo Proofs for their sets. Good luck!

An exquisite SUPERB GEM Indian Head cent! Luminous mirrored fields are exceptionally flashy, bold, and highly reflective with bold clarity and they are ultra clean. The devices are fully struck with razor sharp definition throughout and accents of frostiness that create a slight contrast between the reliefs and icy fields. Both sides show off a warm iridescent overtone in shades of emerald and ruby that complement the otherwise deep brick red coloration. The eye appeal is stupendous and adding to the allure is the old green tag holder.

PCGS 6, NGC 4. This coin has been off the market since April 2009, when it brought $4,025. Since then, one sold in the 2010 FUN auction for $3,738 and one sold in February 2018 for $10,800. The current PCGS Price Guide is listed at $8,500 and we would not be surprised if the realized price comes close. Only two coins are graded finer, both PR67+ RD and the only one of those to sell in auction brought $11,750 in our Regency Auction 31. We like the look of this coin a lot. Worthy of a strong bid indeed, and placement in a high ranking PCGS Regency Set! Good luck.

FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION.

Earlier ex. Eliasberg and Simpson Collections, as noted on the holder. This is an amazing, SUPERB GEM dime that traces its pedigree back to the year of mintage. Its distinctive, fully Prooflike look led the cataloger in 1996 to opine that this coin was possibly a branch mint Proof. Fully flashy mirrors are deep, contrasting against sharply struck and frosty devices. Brilliant in every way, with a pearly iridescent silver dominating with some pale, pastel toning. The devices are fully frosted and have bold, crisp strikes. With the aid of a strong glass we note some light wisps of contact, nothing that would detract from the amazing eye appeal.

Walter Breen noted 1893-O dollars that were struck in Proof in his Proof coin Encyclopedia, he does not mention other denominations, but it is entirely possible that there were Proof dimes struck. This coin was bought by J.M. Clapp from the June 1894 William Friesner Sale (likely acquired directly from the mint the previous year). The Clapp Collection was sold, en bloc to Louis Eliasberg in 1942 by Stack's. This was lot 1246 in the May 1996 Bowers & Merena sale of the Eliasberg collection. It then went into the famed Law Collection, via Legend Numismatics in 1998; to Bob Simpson Collection, via Legend Numismatics. Ex Bob Simpson Collection, Legend Rare Coin Auctions' December 2014 Regency Auction, lot 63.

This is an old friend, a coin we had the pleasure of selling in our December 2017 Regency Sale of the Bubbabeis Collection, where it was described as "TIED for the FINEST Proof 1871 half dime at PCGS. This coin is SUPERB in every way. Extremely reflective, watery mirrored fields beam in the light, contrasting against the frosted reliefs. Both sides are very attractively toned with shades of blue and amber-gold toning that grace the flawless fields and nicely struck devices."

PCGS 6, NGC 7, CAC 7. PCGS has only graded 2 in PR67+ CAM and none finer. This coin realized $4,700 in our December 2017 auction. The eye appeal is excellent and this SUPERB GEM is great for any type or date set of half dimes. Bound for a serious bidding war.

close scrutiny with a strong glass. The surfaces are PRISTINE with a bold, brilliant luster. Both sides have a lovely iridescent mix of original pale green, pewter, and lilac that accent the sharply struck devices. Every detail is fully rendered and crisp. In all, this pedigreed beauty has an exceptional eye appeal and high end technical quality.

PCGS 4, NGC 1, CAC 5. This is a remarkable opportunity for the advanced Barber dime collector. Since 2000, there have been only three appearances in auction, two of which are for this coin, which last sold in our July 2017 Regency Auction for $5,875; prior to that one sold for $6,756. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $7,000 and with NONE finer, this coin belongs in a top tier set of Barber dimes!

PCGS# 4837 ESTIMATE: $5,500+

10C 1906-S PCGS MS67

FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION.

Tied for the FINEST graded, this magnificent SUPERB GEM is formerly from the Lily Nicole Collection. Rich, satiny mint luster glows with a strong brilliance on both sides. The brilliant surfaces are suffused with soft traces of russet-tan and gold, that blend with icy blue on both sides. Well struck and truly an eye appealing coin with essentially pristine surfaces.

PCGS 4, NGC 2 This coin sold for the same amount the last two appearances in auction, most recently selling for $7,638 in July 2016. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $8,500. Finer than the Simpson coin, which was only a MS66-this coin is worthy of placement in another world class set.

LOT 231

10C 1907-S PCGS MS66 CAC

FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION.

Ex Simpson Collection, as noted on the holder

An old friend, which is tied for FINEST GRADED, that we described in December 2014 as:

"If this coin had a tad more color it would probably be an MS67+, but technically, it is all there and then some. Flawless surfaces are slightly semi-prooflike and offer a strong luster, while a moderate to deeper mix of original navy/gold/blue/purple swirls all over Miss Liberty and the details are fully struck. The eye appeal is pleasing."

PCGS 8, NGC 1, CAC 5 The most recent example sold in November 2017 for $5,040 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,750. With NONE finer, this richly toned GEM is bound for the FINEST of Barber dime sets! Good luck!

PCGS# 4845 | ESTIMATE: $3,500+

10C 1908 PCGS MS67 CAC

FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION.

Ex Simpson Collection, as noted on the insert

This AMAZING SUPERB GEM was formerly part of the Bob Simpson Collection, which was the #1 all time set of Mint State Barber dimes. We had the pleasure of describing this coin in our May 2016 Regency Auction as:

"Absolutely flawless surfaces are velvety smooth in texture. Even using a strong glass and looking really hard will yield no imperfections. A "thick" luster shows off areas of moderate golden brown/champagne/greenish colors. Miss Liberty and the details are frosty and have crisp full strikes. The eye appeal is very nice!"

PCGS 3, NGC 3, CAC 4. This coin realized $5,170 three years ago, and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $5,750. With NONE finer, anyone building the top set will need to add this SUPERB GEM to their set. Good luck!

THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION

10C 1908-D PCGS MS67+ CAC
FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION.

Ex Lily Nicole Collection, as noted on the holder.

This is the SOLE FINEST KNOWN 1908-D dime and has the honor of being from the John Hugon and Dr. Steven L. Duckor Collections before becoming part of the Lily Nicole set. With a provenance like that you can only come to the conclusion that it is SUPERB both in terms of technical and visual quality!

Adorned with a gentle dusting of golden olive iridescent toning with accents of pearlescent silver all over, the subtle differences in hues are brought out by a vivid and bold mint luster. The eye appeal is amazing.

PCGS 8, NGC 4, CAC 7. This is the ONLY MS67+ graded, and sold for a record of $5,170 in November 2015. With several people vying for #1 Barber dime sets on the Set Registry, this coin will exceed that amount when the hammer finally falls on this lot. Good luck!

PCGS# 4847 | ESTIMATE: $4,500+

10C 1908-S PCGS MS67 CAC
FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION.

Tied for the absolute FINEST graded at PCGS and NGC. This beautiful coin was once a part of one of the greatest type sets ever assembled, that of Oliver Jung. Its beautiful, iridescent blue, gold, and magenta hues are brought out with a vivid and brilliant mint luster that beams all over the SUPERB surfaces. The eye appeal is amazing in every way!

PCGS 3, NGC 1, CAC 4. We think the pops are inflated. This amazing coin sold in November 2017 for $15,000; an indication of its superlative, high end quality and stunning eye appeal. The current Collector's Universe value is $11,500 and we think this one will sell for close to what it brought in 2017. Nicer than the Simpson coin for sure.

PCGS# 4849 | ESTIMATE: $10,000+

10C 1908-O PCGS MS67 CAC
FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION.

Ex Simpson, as noted on the insert.

Tied for FINEST GRADED! A SUPERB GEM with well above average quality and certainly high end in terms of eye appeal! The lustrous surfaces are ultra smooth and not flat or dull like a typical New Orleans mint issue. The strong, brilliant luster enhances the original iridescent pale olive-green, golden-tan, and soft steely blue hues. The devices are extra sharp and overall the eye appeal is very high end!

PCGS 5, NGC 3, CAC 5. The last one sold in November 2018 for $3,600 and prior to that, one sold for $3,878 in May 2016. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $4,750. Bound for another world-class set of Barber dimes!

PCGS# 4848 | ESTIMATE: $3,500+

10C 1911-S PCGS MS67 CAC

FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION.

Among the absolute finest graded by PCGS, there is just one MS67+ graded finer, and this coin is SUPERB in every possible way!

Frosty luster has a vibrant glow throughout, both sides have a pearly, silver-gold iridescent hue in the centers, while they deepen to an amber and a brilliant Caribbean Sea hue of blue. Every detail is very well struck and fully defined throughout. The eye appeal is exceptional. The 11-S saw a generous mintage of over 3.5 million, but few were saved at the time of issue; GEMS are scarce, and extremely RARE in SUPERB grades.

PCGS 10, NGC 5, CAC 7. Only a single MS67+ is graded higher. While the more recent example sold for only $2,585 in December 2015, this world class example brought $4,818 in September 2015. The Simpson coin is the 67+, which last sold in our July 2017 Regency Auction for $4,935. This is a prime contender for an advanced, high ranking Registry Set and is worthy of a very strong bid again! Good luck!

PCGS# 4859 | ESTIMATE: $3,400+

LOT 237

10C 1915 PCGS MS67

FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION

Tied for FINEST graded at PCGS. This is a superb GEM with an almost prooflike luster on the obverse and a frosty, satin sheen on the reverse. Delicate toning graces both sides, accenting the sharply struck devices and smooth surfaces. The eye appeal is very nice.

PCGS 4, NGC 1. These are just too cheap! The most recent example brought only $1,200 in March 2019. Prior to that, one sold for $2,115 in July 2017. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,000. For a coin that is tied for FINEST, we think this is just too low. Bound for a high ranking Registry Set.

PCGS# 4868 | ESTIMATE: $1,500+

10C 1916 BARBER. PCGS MS67 CAC

FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION.

This SUPERB GEM has a gorgeous, radiant, satin glow throughout. The well struck devices are frosty and all the surfaces are in PRISTINE condition, devoid of abrasions or lines. Mostly brilliant, original silver lustrous surfaces show off a tinge of the faintest champagne tone. The eye appeal is exceptional, a truly PQ example of the final year of the Barber dime.

PCGS 9, NGC 7, CAC 9. The most recent example sold for $2,760 and the current PCGS value is listed at $2,500. Just two MS67+ are graded finer, making this a prime example for any top tier Registry Set and worthy of a strong bid!

PCGS# 4870 | ESTIMATE: $2,500+

THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION

LOT 239

25C 1893-O PCGS MS67

CAC

FROM THE WOLVERINE
COLLECTION

This is a VERY HIGH END beauty!

The 93 O had an original mintage of well over 3.25 million, but very few were saved; indeed, it is a very rare date any finer. The present SUPERB GEM is among the finest graded! Frosty mint bloom beams from all over. When you rotate the coin in a light, you can clearly see a subtle reflection in the fields that provide a stunning look! A brilliant, nearly cameo like appearance is eye catching! A pearly-iridescent toning graces both sides, a little deeper on the reverse. A great coin for any high end collection!

PCGS 3, NGC 2, CAC 1 This is the only PCGS coin to sell in auction, realizing $10,869 in our May 2018 Regency Auction. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $13,000. Just a single PCGS MS68 (the Eliasberg coin) is graded finer, and that coin is locked up in the FINEST set of Barber quarters. This SUPERB GEM was in that collection, until the Eliasberg coin became available. Bound for another WORLD CLASS set of Barber quarters!

PCGS# 5605 ESTIMATE: $9,000+

25C 1899-S PCGS MS67

FROM THE WOLVERINE
COLLECTION.

One of the FINEST 1899-S quarters that survives from a relatively low 708,000 mintage. Satiny smooth surfaces show off a brilliant luster on both sides, showing off a pristine quality. Even using a strong glass we are unable to locate any flaws, no matter how minor or microscopic. Original toning is somewhat mottled, but attractively so-this coin is not spotty or stained in its toning pattern. Shades of yellow-gold, olive, lavender, and silver-gray patina blends beautifully on both sides, especially so on the obverse. The devices are sharply struck with fully frosted reliefs, imparting a superb eye appeal.

PCGS 3, NGC 4. This is the most recent example to sell, bringing $5,640 in April 2017 and prior to that, one sold for $6,463 in the 2016 ANA sale. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $10,000 and keep in mind there are just two coins graded finer. If you are working on a high ranking PCGS Registry Set, this coin is worthy of any high end collection. Good luck!

PCGS# 5624 ESTIMATE: $5,000+

25C 1896 PCGS PR68 DCAM CAC
FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION.

You really need a pair of sun glasses to view this GLOWING boldly contrasted seductive SUPERB GEM!

First, the overall state of preservation is AMAZING. Completely clean and free of any hairlines or other distractions even under a strong glass, you do not see anything but a microscopic mint made die line. This coin's mirrors are deep and have a rich chrome like reflection. They are clean, smooth, and extremely icy. The devices have a razor sharp strike and snowy white frosty surfaces. A touch of the clearest gold patina at the extreme peripheries add depth and character to this visually stunning coin.

Only 762 proofs were struck and this date is often considered the APEX of the proof minting process. Looking at the high end survivors of all denominations in silver and gold, you can tell extra care was taken in preparing and striking proof coins for collectors.

PCGS, NGC 8, CAC 5. Remarkably there is a single PCGS PR69 DCAM finer. The most recent PCGS PR68 DCAM CAC sold for $19,500 in a December 2018 Internet only auction and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $18,500. The single PCGS PR69 DCAM, now put away in a major collection, sold for $41,125 in our Regency Auction XIX in December 2016. This coin will be a wonderful highlight for any top notch Barber quarter collection!

PCGS# 95682 | ESTIMATE: $16,000+

LOT 242

50C 1829 PCGS MS64
FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION.

O-1.2. A near-GEM quality example with a bold luster that brings out variegated pewter, azure, tan-brown, lilac, and icy steely silver toning on both sides. Sharply struck from this die marriage that is identified by the patch of die lines near star 13. A visually appealing CHOICE Mint State Capped Bust half dollar.

PCGS 55, NGC 37. We sold one in our January 2017 Regency Auction for $2,468. This coin sold last over three years ago for $2,585. The current PCGS value is listed at $4,500. An affordable, high grade early type coin for the collector.

PCGS# 6154 | ESTIMATE: $2,500+

50C 1864-S NGC MS63
FROM THE WOLVERINE COLLECTION.

The Queller coin. A lovely lustrous, fully CHOICE example of this Civil War era Seated half. Although 658,000 coins were struck for circulation, the total combined PCGS and NGC population in all Mint State grades is a mere 30 coins! Lustrous and well struck both sides have a lovely gold and iridescent pastel tone. Well struck and very eye appealing.

PCGS 6, NGC 4. This coin has been sold several times in the last few years. Prior to selling in our December 2017 Regency Auction, the most recent coin sold in auction realizing $4,700 in February 2015. A coin like this should see strong demand from collectors of Seated halves or Civil War era coins in general. With its important provenance, collectors will enjoy this CHOICE example.

PCGS# 6312 | ESTIMATE: $3,000+

LOT 244

1/2C 1834 PCGS MS65BN CAC

Deep, ebony-brown surfaces still offer an abundance of mint luster on both sides. Sharply struck from clashed dies, Maney State 3.0 of the C 1 variety, the only one of the year. The obverse and reverse are both free of any significant contact marks and the eye appeal is exceptional. A lovely GEM example of the type.

PCGS 29, NGC 22, CAC 10. The most recent two PCGS/CAC coins sold for $1,440, in March and August 2018 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $2,000. None graded finer at PCGS in the BN color classification.

PCGS# 1165 ESTIMATE: $1,250+

LOT 245

1/2C 1814 PLAIN 4. PCGS AU50 CAC

S-295. A late die state with an arching die crack from between the dentil under the left of the 8 through the lowest curl and through to the rim crossing at the bottom of star 11. The dentils at the upper obverse rim are also missing.

Smooth, hard, deeply toned brown copper surfaces show light wear. A few tiny marks can be seen with effort, but the visual allure is unaffected. A neat type coin, dating from the final year of the "early" large cents.

PCGS 18, NGC 6, CAC 2. The other CAC coin sold for $3,290 in December 2015, which was ex Jules Reever Collection. This pleasing coin is fresh to the market and should see bidding bring it to similar level. This is a great coin for a budget minded type set or pleasing AU date set.

PCGS# 1576 | ESTIMATE: $2,500+

LOT 246

1/2C 1837 SMALL LETTERS.

PCGS MS65+RB CAC

Attention Large Cent collectors! If you seek the highest graded Guide Book varieties, take a look at this 1837 Small Letters!

This is the sole finest RB graded at PCGS, the next highest graded is MS64+ RB. Not only did PCGS and CAC agree this is the finest graded, but it is very pretty as well! The obverse is awash in a warm, glowing mint red that mellows to a rose and violet brown as you rotate the lustrous surfaces in a light. Traces of rose can be seen in the reverse legends, blending to steely-blue, olive-tan, and soft brown patina. A neat die state with an arching die crack on the obverse. Showing the typical strike, with bold details, in the centers, but some minor weakness in the stars. A few tiny flecks can be seen under close scrutiny with a strong glass, none of which are distracting. The eye appeal is excellent, and sure to delight any advanced E.A.C. collector.

PCGS 1, NGC 0, CAC 2 (clearly this coin is counted twice). The closest APR is for a MS64 RB that brought $4,348 in June 2015. In 64+ RB, the current Collector's Universe value (the highest grade listed), is $6,000. Bound for a great type set or collection of Large cents!

PCGS# 1733 ESTIMATE: $6,000+

LIC 1848 PCGS MS65BN CAC

Fantastic chocolate brown surfaces show ample tinges of original mint red with a dusting of violet, as evidenced when rotated in a light. Fully struck, Ms. Liberty's hair curls are needle sharp as are the leaf details in the wreath. Very smooth fields are fully GEM quality and there are no marks or flecks to describe. Very pretty

PCGS 47, NGC 19, CAC 26 This GEM is about as nice as you can expect for the assigned grade. Based on eye appeal alone, this GEM should sell for a very strong price. If late date large cents are your bail wick take a look at this superb piece! The CU price is $1,650

PCGS# 1883 | ESTIMATE: $1,400+

LIC 1852 PCGS MS65RB CAC

A sharply struck GEM with a bold, radiating luster that accents the traces of original red that clings to the protected areas of the devices. There are a few tiny marks that we note for accuracy, but they do not affect the very pleasing eye appeal.

PCGS 100, NGC 60, CAC 33. The last PCGS/CAC coin to sell in auction realized $1,293 in the 2017 ANA auction and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $1,500. RARE any finer, this is a great value point for any budget minded collector looking for an attractive GEM large cent.

PCGS# 1899 | ESTIMATE: $1,100+

LIC 1853 PCGS MS65BN CAC

Rich medium brown with hints of blue and significant original red please the viewer and set Miss Liberty's face aglow. Satiny and lustrous surfaces grace both the obverse and reverse

PCGS 173, NGC 162, CAC 64 Listed in the PCGS price guide at $850. Last auction record for a PCGS CAC coin was $810 in November 2018. Difficult to believe that a one hundred and sixty year old coin in this state of preservation could potentially be purchased at under $1000. Great type coin!

PCGS# 1901 | ESTIMATE: $850+

LOT 250

1C 1857 FLYING EAGLE.

PCGS MS65+ CAC

This is one of the most beautifully toned GEM Flying Eagle cents we have had the pleasure of selling!

Clearly this coin is fresh to the market and was lovingly preserved in an ancient album prior to being submitted to PCGS for grading. The lustrous surfaces are framed on both sides by amazing rainbow toning. Every shade of the spectrum from red to blue, gold to green, rose to violet all come out as you rotate the coin in the light. The centers are a brilliant copper-nickel, tan-gold color. Both sides have crisp and fully defined devices, with just the slightest trace of weakness on the eagle's breast and tail. Even under close inspection, a strong glass reveals a tiny tick or two, which is why this high end, visually impressive GEM is "only" graded MS65+, it does have the initial appearance of an even finer grade (no guarantees it will upgrade). Not only is this coin approved by CAC, but it is also endorsed by the Eagle Eye Photo Seal

PCGS 226, NGC 215, CAC 63. There are 28 graded MS65+ with just 23 MS66s graded finer. Just three PCGS/CAC examples have ever sold via auction, and none of them looked like this! This coin will bring a premium bid, far exceeding the current Collector's Universe value of $6,000 and may well bring close to the last APR for a 66 ($15,600) based on its intense eye appeal, high end quality, and beautiful originality!

PCGS# 2016 ESTIMATE: $8,000+

OUR ESTIMATES

The estimates you see published in this catalog are based on HAMMER. Keep in mind that a coin could be either low or high end for the grade, have stunning color or be dull, all of which radically affect a coin's value. Yes, there can be huge price differences within a grade, and we offer estimates as a guide so Collector's can have a better idea of value. One thing we will never do is offer low ball estimates in order to claim stronger sales.

These published estimates represent what Legend Rare Coin Auctions determines to be an approximate high wholesale value for the coin. The numbers are based upon current market values, similar trades, auction prices, published prices, and a consideration of the coin's quality. There is no guarantee that the estimated prices are minimums or are exactly what you can expect to get if you attempt to resell them wholesale.

We always advise you to view the coins you are interested in and calculate what you'll pay using as much information as possible. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask us. We are here to help you!

LOT 251
1C 1856 FLYING EAGLE, PCGS PR65 CAC

This is a beautifully toned example of the first small cent issued by the mint. By the early 1850s, a rising price of copper forced the mint to begin experimenting with new alloys and reducing the size of the large cent. Various patterns and proposed compositions were tested, and in 1856, a limited quantity of small-sized copper-nickel Flying Eagle cents were struck. While the final mintage is still unknown, it was indeed small, just enough to test the dies, show the concept to Congress, and it is thought they were restruck up to 1860.

Scarce in all grades, this date is RARE in GEM, with CAC endorsed GEMs hotly contested when they appear in auction. This one has a warm coppery orange overtone with accents of violet and olive surrounding the well struck devices. The devices are frosty and depending on the angle, the reflective fields provide a flashy contrast. The eye appeal is exceptional, a gorgeous, high end example that will delight type or date collectors alike.

Long considered one of the "blue chips" of numismatics, a group of coins that is always in demand, regardless of the market conditions, in all grades, the 1856 Flying Eagle cent is a truly historic coin.

PCGS 58, NGC 33, CAC 22. The current Collector's Universe Price Guide value is $35,000 and the last three CAC endorsed coins have sold in the $30,550 to $31,200 range. This coin should see active bidding and we think this one will sell for more than the recent APRs. EXTREMELY RARE any finer, with just a half dozen graded finer at PCGS.

PCGS# 2037 | ESTIMATE: $30,000+

1C 1864 BRONZE. PCGS MS66+RD CAC

Truly a marvelous RED GEM! Struck from the first year that small cents were struck in a bronze, rather than copper-nickel alloy. The resulting coins appear brilliant RED when first struck, rather than a golden tan like the previous type. The present coin is an astonishing survivor, with just 3 coins graded finer in the RED category at PCGS. Struck during the bloodiest year of the Civil War, this date has long been popular, with three major cent varieties: those struck in copper-nickel, those struck in bronze, and those struck in bronze with Longacre's signature "L" on the ribbon of the headress. Blazing red luster glows with a fiery brilliance on both sides. Sharply struck, every detail is crisply embossed by the dies and stands out. Struck from clashed and rotated dies, the reverse is approximately 20° off of its normal axis. The eye appeal is simply SUPERB and a real prize for any advanced Indian cent collector, demanding the FINEST!

PCGS 46, NGC 29, CAC 20. There are just 3 in 66+ RD at PCGS and none of these have ever sold in auction. The last PCGS MS66 RD CAC sold for a record $9,600 in the 2018 ANA auction. In MS66+ RD, the Collector's Universe value is listed at $8,500, and this SUPERB GEM will bring a very strong bid. Keep in mind none of the 3 MS67 RDs graded at PCGS have ever sold in auction. This is a great coin for anyone working on a top flight set of Indian cents!

PCGS# 2078 | ESTIMATE: $4,500+

LOT 254

1C 1872 PCGS MS65RD

The 1872 is one of the famous conditionally rare Indian cents in RED. Tied for second FINEST at PCGS, this date truly is incredibly RARE in such a lofty state of preservation. Fully and blazingly bright red color is accentuated by the richness of the original mint luster. The sharply struck devices stand out against GEM quality surfaces with just a few tiny ticks and a fleck or two, none of which are visible to the naked eye, nor do they stand out in any way. The eye appeal is very high end, and really we see no reason that this coin should not have stickered.

PCGS 19, NGC 4. The last two examples to sell in auction were in the 2018 ANA auction, and they were not nearly as red as this one is. A comparable example sold in the 2018 FUN auction for $16,800; prior to that, the Perfection 1 coins sold for $14,100 in the weak 2016 FUN auction. Collector's Universe currently lists a value of $7,000 in the Price Guide. Only 2 are graded finer, both MS65+ RD (though there are records from a decade ago for a 66 RD that seems to no longer be on the pop report). This is a very rare opportunity for the advanced Indian cent collector who demands a condition census level coin with a great look!

PCGS# 2105 | ESTIMATE: $10,000+

1C 1870 PCGS MS66+RB CAC

The single FINEST RB graded at either service. A strong, lustrous mint bloom glows all over in the fields with warm lilac-violet overtones on both sides. Both sides have a fully radiating cartwheel bands that accent the satiny smooth surfaces. Aside from a single microscopic fleck, this coin's surfaces are flawless and intensely eye appealing.

PCGS 22, NGC 12, CAC 4. This is the SOLE finest graded in the designation. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $4,500 in regular MS66 RB and unlabeled in 66+ RB. This impressive coin is destined for the FINEST of collections and is going to bring a very strong bid!

PCGS# 2098 | ESTIMATE: $4,500+

LOT 255

1C 1873 OPEN 3 PCGS MS65RB CAC

While Red and Brown is technically correct, much of the original mint red is intact on the obverse and the coin is truly pleasing to look at. Surfaces of this Open 3 variety are lustrous and free of notable marks. This coin was clearly well cared for and preserved.

PCGS 91, NGC 28, CAC 25 Only 9 finer by PCGS (65+ 1 66 8). Listed in the price guide at $1,550. Recent APR's range from $1,170 to $1,740. The present coin represents an outstanding value at this grade level

PCGS# 2107 | ESTIMATE: $1,500+

LOT 256

1C 1873 PCGS MS64RD

Brilliant, fiery RED luster shows off salmon-rose accents. A few ancient ticks are noted, as are some minor flecks that can be seen only at certain angles, in the light, and under magnification. Sharply struck and offering a decent look. Housed in a first generation PCGS holder.

PCGS 58, NGC 5. The current PCGS value is listed at $1,900 and the most recent example to sell realized $1,920 in March 2019. RARE any finer. PCGS has graded fewer than three dozen higher, and we think that there is duplication in the Population Report. A lustrous, CHOICE coin

PCGS# 2108 | ESTIMATE: $1,500+

1C 1883 PCGS MS66RD CAC

Splendid original RED luster radiates brilliantly on both sides. Glowing golden and red iridescent hues ring the periphery and the details are well struck with just some minor softness noted only for accuracy. Our strong glass cannot find any serious marks, lines, spots, or flecks. The eye appeal is quite nice.

PCGS 32, NGC 19, CAC 9 The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,500 and the most recent example brought $3,055 in October 2016. RARE any finer with just 8 so graded, the finest in 67+ RD Worthy of a premium bid and placement in a high end set!

PCGS# 2147 | ESTIMATE: $2,500+

1C 1887 PCGS MS66+RD CAC

WOW! This is an amazing, SUPERB GEM. Beaming with totally original, fiery mint red luster, this coin is exceptional in every way. The luster is intensely brilliant with a wonderful golden overtone. The devices are sharply impressed on both sides, with no softness anywhere. A tiny tick or two, and a few micro-flecks are all that keep this SUPERB coin from an even higher grade. Regardless, the eye appeal ranks among the very FINEST 1887 cents that survive!

PCGS 27, NGC 3, CAC 12. There are 6 in 66+ RD at PCGS, and the only one to ever sell realized $15,275 in our December 2015 Regency Auction and the current PCGS value is listed at $17,000. Just three are graded finer, and the most recent of those sold over a decade ago! We are certain that this is the FINEST that will be available to collectors anytime soon! Bid accordingly!

1C 1892 PCGS MS66RD CAC

A gorgeous coin that is essentially a twin to the one we sold in November 2018.

This is a pristine coin that has its full, original RED color and bold radiating luster. The surfaces are exceedingly clean and free of any imperfections anywhere. The details are nicely struck and the eye appeal is exceptional.

PCGS 20, NGC 4, CAC 8. The coin mentioned above brought $3,995 in our November Regency Auction and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,750. Just three are graded finer, making this a prime candidate for placement in a wonderful Indian Head cent collection, and is worth a premium bid!

This is a VERY IMPORTANT conditional rarity, and opportunity for the advanced collector. Prior to this sale, NO CAC approved example has ever sold in auction.

This vividly lustrous SUPERB GEM possesses a stunning, RICH RED coloration. The devices are sharply struck up and stand out against the pristine surfaces. The eye appeal is amazing!

PCGS 12, NGC 7, CAC 6. There is just a single MS67+ finer. The current Collector's Universe value is $9,500, but since no CAC approved example has ever sold, who knows if that is too low. Non-CAC coins have sold in the $6,000-$8,000. Worthy of the FINEST Indian Head cent collections and worthy of a record bid!

PCGS# 2216 ESTIMATE: $8,000+

LOT 261

1C 1908-S PCGS MS66RD
CAC

Brilliant and billowy Mint RED luster swirls on both sides of this wonderfully fresh and original GEM. Both sides are remarkably free of any serious marks or ticks, and only under the closest inspection with a strong glass can a few tiny flecks be spotted. The strike is bold and full throughout. A very pretty KEY date GEM for any advanced collector.

PCGS 59, NGC 25, CAC

20. The last PCGS/CAC coin to sell realized $6,600 in July 2018, and prior to that, one sold in the 2018 FUN auction. The current PCGS value is only $4,750. This GEM should bring a strong price because of its great look and high end quality.

CAM CAC
 WOW! This SUPERB GEM CAMEO 1863 cent has an amazing look! It is tied for the FINEST graded and has a stunning visual allure!

Icy smooth and flashy reflective mirrors beam wildly all over. The fields offer the epitome of cleanliness and clarity, the reflection unmarred by any sort of haze or toning. Sharp, well struck devices are fully frosted and there is exceptional contrast between the devices and the fields. A strong glass will reveal a few tiny flecks that we note for the sake of accuracy. The eye appeal is stunning.

Only 460 were struck, PCGS 14, NGC 6, CAC 7. There are just 2 in PR66+ CAM and NONE FINER. We sold one of the more recent regular PR66 CAMs for a record $1,5275 in our May 2018 Regency Auction. The current PCGS Price in PR66+ CAM is $20,000. Who knows what this coin will bring when the hammer falls, but if you collect Civil War era coins, or stunning CAMEO Proof Indian cents, this beauty is worthy of a world class collection and we can see very fierce bidding for this one!

PCGS# 82262 | ESTIMATE: $10,000+

1C 1864 BRONZE. PCGS PR67RB
 Tied for FINEST graded in all color categories, in PR67 there are 2 in BN, 2 in RB, and 1 in CAM. This coin certainly is very high end with extremely bold eye appeal.

Way more original. RED color is seen on both sides of this stunning SUPERB GEM. The mirrors beam boldly and brilliantly with a bold icy smoothness and deep reflection. The sharply struck devices have a thick frost that contrasts the fields, and at certain angles give an almost cameo-like visual effect. A gentle overtone of pale lime-green is what keeps this coin from a full RED designation. The quality holds up to very close inspection with a strong glass; no lines, flecks, nor carbon spots are visible anywhere. The eye appeal, as you would expect, is outstanding!

Only 150 Proofs were struck. PCGS 2, NGC 2. The last non-CAC coin sold back in 2003! More recently the Perfection 2 coin, which was CAC approved, sold for $15,600 in November 2017. The current Collector's Universe for this, the highest grade in the RB designation, is $20,000. This is as grand opportunity to acquire such a great looking 1864 Bronze cent. Do not let it pass you by!

1C 1867 PCGS PR65RD CAM

Early Cameo Proof Indian cents are, as a class rare birds indeed. They are always eagerly sought when they appear in auction. Ultra deep MINT RED mirrors shine against the frosty reliefs. The devices are crisply struck and the surfaces are exceptionally clean showing off a beautiful and rich red color that is brilliant and mint fresh. There are stripes of a deeper red hue that cross the obverse, attesting to the originality.

Only 625 Proofs were struck. PCGS 8, NGC 4. The most recent example sold in our September 2016 Regency Auction for $4,348. That was more than eight years after the previous non-CAC coin sold. Clearly these do NOT appear with any frequency. Only 3 PR66 RD CAMs are finer, and none have sold in 15 years! A very important opportunity not to be missed by the advanced collector! Good luck!

1C 1876 PCGS PR67RB CAC

In the RB category, this coin is the SOLE FINEST graded and it is a borderline RED. In fact, there are NONE graded PR67 in ANY other category: BN, RD, or CAM. The current PCGS Price Guide value is $5,000, and is based on speculation and a decade old APR for an NGC graded coin. The true value of this AMAZING Proof Indian cent will only be determined when the hammer falls, after what we believe will be a protracted bidding war to bring this coin home.

The mirrors are full and deeply beaming on both sides, and there is a great amount of contrast between the frosted reliefs and wonderfully mirrored fields, nearly fully cameo at certain angles. Mostly original RED color with traces of apple-green, gold, and traces of violet-magenta that really are amplified by the beaming brilliance of the mirrors. Sharply struck devices have razor sharp definition. The eye appeal is simply stunning.

PCGS 1, NGC 3, CAC 1. This coin has never appeared in auction, and there has not been an NGC-graded example since November 2008 a decade ago!

1C 1873 CLOSED 3. PCGS PR66+BN CAC

This is the SOLE FINEST graded by PCGS in the BN category, and we know this coin is special! Wonderfully toned with violet, teal, blue, and golden overtones and rich reddish-brown surfaces do not have any affect on the stunning reflection of the flashy mirrors. They are bold, and beaming and are SUPERB in every way. There is no question why this coin is the FINEST graded in this color.

PCGS 4, NGC 2, CAC 1. This is the only PR66+ CN graded at either service and is the only CAC coin in PR66 BN. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,000 and it could well bring well in excess of that amount! Good luck!

This is NOT a dull or lifeless coin, in fact, it is the complete opposite of that. Offering an exceptional array of iridescent colors, both sides are a kaleidoscope of color. The eye appeal is amazing and totally original.

PCGS 23, NGC 6, CAC 5. The last one to sell did not have the vivid color of the present SUPERB GEM and it realized $2,860 in our September 2018 Premier Session auction. The current PCGS value is listed at $3,500 and this one is worthy of a strong bid! Good luck!

1C 1883 PCGS PR67+BN CAC

This coin is absolutely beyond amazing! It is the epitome of perfection.

One look and you will agree, this coin is totally FLAWLESS. Even using a strong microscope will yield NO flecks, lines, or ticks anywhere. The mirrors are deep and beam strongly. You do not have to imagine them. When you twirl the coin, the mirrors resemble a sheet of ice. Both sides enjoy a super original even mix of brown/pale blue/pale purple colors. Miss Liberty and every detail are needle sharp in strike. The quality and eye appeal of this SUPERB GEM are off the charts!

PCGS 24, NGC 19, CAC 7. This coin is tied with 5 others in PR67+ BN. There is nothing higher. The last one to sell in auction brought $4,400 in April 2018. Remember, this is a 135 year old copper coin that is perfect! It is remarkable this coin even survived. If you seek perfection and pretty color, here you go!

A truly marvelous GEM whose colors do not merit the BN category. The vivid, flashy mirrored fields show a bold reflection, the razor sharp devices are nicely frosted, and both are awash in violet, teal, and magenta patina. Truly an exceptional Bronze Indian Head cent with a very colorful eye appeal.

PCGS 33, NGC 19. The last one sold in July 2018 for $1,020 and it was no where close in terms of color to this beauty. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $950, and this one should bring a premium bid for its outstanding eye appeal.

PCGS# 2348 | ESTIMATE: $800+

1C 1888 PCGS PR67BN CAC

Tied with just a single coin as the FINEST in the BN designation. The mirrors are very reflective, and though the surfaces are nicely toned, the flashy Proof surfaces are unobstructed. Very pleasing teal and rose overtones on smooth, chocolate brown with soft red-clay hues. The eye appeal is exceptional.

PCGS 2, NGC 4, CAC 2. Neither PCGS coin has appeared in auction. This is not the NGC/CAC PR67 that sold in July 2011 for $2,530. This coin is housed in a 15 year+ old holder, and is fresh to the market. We know it will surpass the $2,500 value that is currently listed by Collector's Universe, and is bound for a great collection! Good luck!

WOW! This is one of those coins that prove that the three color designations do not suffice for some coins! Indeed, we see very little actual brown on the surfaces of this coin! Rich teal blue and ample traces of original orange-red drench the orange-peel textured surfaces. The mirrored fields really flash in the light and the razor sharp devices stand out boldly from the surrounding surfaces. The eye appeal is exceptional in every possible way!

PCGS 11, NGC 2, CAC 1. The only PCGS/CAC to ever sell in auction brought $1,998 in the 2017 FLN auction. There are NONE finer at PCGS in the BN designation. If you collect beautifully toned Indian Head cents Proofs, this is your 1892!

Ex Perfection 2, as noted on the insert

A SUPERB GEM Proof with full, fiery RED beaming mirrors that flash all over. The devices are sharply struck and they stand out with a wonderful 'glossy' finish. The fields show a great orange-peel texture and spectacular color. The eye appeal is quite high end and very seductive!

PCGS 11, NGC 4, CAC 6.

Prior to this coin selling in the infamously poor market timing of the 2016 FUN auction, one sold in February 2015 for $17,038. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $8,500 and just 2 coins are graded finer. The sole PR68 RD sold for $37,600 in the January 2017 FUN auction. What an important opportunity for the collector who demands the finest quality. We know today, this coin will be hotly contested when it crosses the block!

LRCA has had the pleasure to sell several MS66 RBs in the past, and we only offer those that are "oh so close" to full RED. This is another one of those coins! Indeed, looking this GEM over closely the original red color dominates with just some gentle mellowing to the color. Shades of rose and magenta blend with that blazing original copper-RED color on both sides, giving this famed KEY date issue a vivid, very high end look. Sharply impressed details and generally clean surfaces add to the outstanding eye appeal.

PCGS 79, NGC 44, CAC 26. The most recent example sold for $7,000 in an internet only auction in November 2018, while we sold one in May 2018 for $7,150. Just two examples are graded finer in the RB designation, this is a very pleasing coin for any collector.

1C 1917-S PCGS MS65RD CAC

An exceptional quality GEM, one of the FINEST certified examples of this conditionally challenging San Francisco mint Lincoln cent.

Fiery RED satin luster on both sides. The devices are well struck up and offer fully defined details. The one or two tiny ticks that can be seen do not detract from the GEM quality surfaces. The eye appeal is quite nice and worthy of the CAC accolades for quality. This date is EXCESSIVELY RARE any finer!

PCGS 26, NGC 2, CAC 1. No CAC-approved MS65 RD has ever sold at auction. The most recent PCGS-graded coin brought $7,200 in the 2019 FUN auction that coin had records of $20,000+ earlier. Only three coins are graded finer at PCGS, none of which have ever sold in auction. This coin is worthy of a world class Lincoln cent collection and worthy of a strong bid. We think this GEM will bring a strong price.

We are proud to offer one of the FINEST graded 20-S cents!

Satiny RED mint surfaces have an ember-like glowing luster throughout the surfaces. Well struck on both sides, except the lower reverse, which may have been struck through dirt and grease, which filled in the d.e somewhat (like the 1922 No D). The surfaces are totally original with soft iridescent overtones that are light enough to keep this coin in the Red category. This coin is very high quality, attested to by its status as the ONLY CAC-approved MS65 RD

PCGS 16, NGC 10, CAC 1. This coin has not appeared in auction. There were three non-CAC examples sold between the 2017 ANA auction and the 2019 FUN auction, realizing between $10,800 and $17,625. Prior to that, there are auction records of $34,500 in December 2008 and $44,063 in July 2013. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $15,500. There is just a single MS65+ RD finer. We know this coin will fit into any very high end set of Lincoln cents, and will face stiff bidding competition from the advanced collector.

1C 1926-S PCGS MS65RB

The 26-S is one of the great condition rarities of the series, and here is a certified GEM. It is amazing these were NOT saved at the time of issue, and all GEM grades are extremely rare, with a PCGS MS65 RD being a SIX FIGURE coin! The fact any gems exist is by pure accident!

Mellow red luster shines through variegated shades of purple on both sides. Lincoln's portrait is very well struck up, a feature that does elude many of the early dates. Melting to a soft chocolate brown and hints of an ancient fingerprint we note for accuracy. Overall this does NOT affect the pleasing eye appeal of this very rare cent.

PCGS 18, NGC 30. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $7,500 and the most recent non-CAC example to sell in auction was in September 2016, bringing $6,756 in our Regency Auction XVIII. Worthy of a great set, especially for someone who does not wish to spend six-figures for a RED example.

1C 1941 DOUBLED DIE OBERSE. PCGS MS66RD CAC

This totally gorgeous mint RED 1941 Doubled Die Obverse Lincoln cent boasts immaculate surfaces. They are blanketed with a full frosty red color that draws the eye from a distance. The die doubling occurred primarily in the obverse legends. It is most clearly visible in 'TRUST' and 'BER' of 'LIBERTY'. This stunner will be tough to improve upon. Truly one of the finer examples of the variety with fully defined devices that are brought out by the brilliant, fiery orange coloration. While a well known variety among collectors, these do remain quite rare and are difficult to find in such high grade. We do note a single fleck just below the 1 in the date for accuracy, however the eye appeal is unaffected.

PCGS 32, NGC 13, CAC 21. The most recent example to sell in auction realized $4,465, and the current Collector's Universe value is $5,000. This is a real prize for the collector and we know it will bring a strong price. Bound for a very high end collection of Lincoln cents!

1C 1948-S PCGS MS67+RD CAC

TIED FOR FINEST GRADED at either PCGS or NGC and clearly a contender for a top ranking Lincoln cent Registry Set!

This frosty SUPERB GEM has an amazing blazing and fiery RED luster that captivates the viewer. Well struck and flawless to the naked eye it would truly be hard to imagine a finer piece! (We do note a tiny spot hidden in a wheat ear on the reverse visible only under a strong glass).

PCGS 311, NGC 596, CAC 42. PCGS has graded 28 in MS67+ RD with NONE finer. While the current Collector's Universe value is listed at $1,050, a coin of this quality really is worth more than that! This SUPERB GEM is worthy of the finest of sets!

PCGS# 2767 | ESTIMATE: $750+

1C 1992-D PCGS MS69RD

Sheer PERFECTION! The brilliant, blazing RED surfaces are flawless and the devices are sharply struck. Using a strong glass we are unable to find any lines or ticks. Tied for FINEST GRADED and there has not been one sold in more than half a dozen years.

PCGS 8, NGC 0. The last one sold in March 2012 for $5,175 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $4,000. We cannot wager a guess as to what this PERFECT coin will bring.

PCGS# 3101 | ESTIMATE: $3,500+

1C 1913 PCGS PR65RB CAC

A lovely GEM RB with exceptionally sharply struck devices. Satiny matte surfaces gleam all over accenting the lovely toned surfaces. Reddish golden brown surfaces have a great look. Overall the eye appeal is top notch.

PCGS 96, NGC 46, CAC 36. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $1,200 and Prices in auction for both non-CAC and CAC-approved coins have brought as much as $1,320. This coin has a great eye appeal and is worthy of a strong bid.

PCGS# 3316 | ESTIMATE: $1,000+

1C 1913 PCGS PR66RB CAC

This is a glorious 1913 Matte Proof cent! Essentially full RED on the obverse the reverse has mellowed with accents of violet that add to the wonderful and totally original eye appeal. Sharply struck up on both sides, and the matte surfaces have a beaming luster. The eye appeal is AMAZING.

PCGS 50, NGC 25, CAC 23. The last one sold for $2,040 in March 2019 and prior to that, one sold in December 2018 for $2,640. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $2,100. The PR66+ RB CAC brought $3,410 in our April 2018 Premier Session. This coin is high end and worthy of a strong bid.

PCGS# 3316 | ESTIMATE: $2,100+

1C 1936 BRILLIANT PCGS PR66RD

A very attractive GEM Brilliant Proof. Boldly reflective mirrored surfaces retain their original mint red color. When twirled under a light, this coin beams brightly and brazenly. The Philadelphia Mint resumed production of proof cents for sets after a twenty-year break (the only way to obtain a proof cent at that time was to purchase the set).

PCGS 63, NGC 13. Listed in the PCGS price guide for $5,000. The two most recent auction results were $3,840 in March 2019 and $4,800 in January 2019. PCGS has graded 5 PR66+ and 2 PR67, placing the present coin among the finest available.

PCGS# 3335 | ESTIMATE: $3,800+

1C 1940 PCGS PR67RD CAC

This SUPERB GEM is tied for FINEST of the designation. Deep, flashy, red mirrors beam from all over, with nearly full cameo contrast on the obverse. The mirrored fields are glassy, deep, and fully red with an exceptional clarity. The coin is essentially FLAWLESS, a strong glass shows a single mirco-fleck that can be seen under magnification. The eye appeal is amazing.

PCGS 18, NGC 8, CAC 8. The most recent PCGS/CAC coin sold in the 2019 FUN auction for $4,320. The current PCGS price is $4,250 and NONE are finer in the designation.

2C 1864 LARGE MOTTO. PCGS MS65RD

This is a totally original GEM! Fiery RED color mellows to the periphery with shades of violet and orange that accent the sharply struck devices. The luster is bold and there are no serious marks that distract the eye. Housed in an old green tag holder.

PCGS 283, NGC 115. The most recent non-CAC coin sold in the 2018 ANA auction, realizing $.080 and the current PCGS value is listed at $1,100. This is a beautiful example, wholly original, and worthy of a close look!

PCGS# 3578 | ESTIMATE: $850+

LOT 300

2C 1865 FANCY 5. PCGS MS66RB CAC

This is a very pleasing example for the grade. The fiery red lustrous surfaces have lightly mellowed, showing deeper, orange-brown patina. The eye appeal is enhanced by exceptionally well preserved surfaces and crispy struck devices. The obverse die has an impressive break from the rim above the second T in TRUST, arching down through the tip of the ribbon to the rim at 2.45.

PCGS 9, NGC 0, CAC 42 (all varieties together). The most recent example to sell realized $.213 in April 2018 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $1,400. Only a single MS66+ RB is finer in the category.

LOT 301

3CS 1854 PCGS MS66+
CAC

An amazing SUPERB GEM 1854 3CS! Even though there are two finer (the MS68 is impounded in the #1 Simpson Collection Legend built), we fully rank this coin as one of the FINEST 1854's that exist!

The near-perfect surfaces are simply amazing, we even used a strong glass and looked multiple times for problems and found none. We can't imagine how this coin lasted for 164 years in such a remarkable virtually untouched state of preservation. A full, satiny, booming luster can be seen from across the room. Outstanding cartwheels swirl all over. Only the lightest traces of toning can be seen. We do not see these so needle sharp in strike as this coin is. This is way superior to the majority of 1854's in GEM we have ever seen. The eye appeal is super!

PCGS 18, NGC 4, CAC 13. Only two are graded MS66+. Of course, this coin has never been sold in auction. PCGS has graded only one 67 and the lone MS68 (which sold for $64,625 in 2014). We doubt you will be able to improve this coin and ever get a better one. The other MS66+ was the Ipswich Collection coin we sold in our January 2018 Regency Auction for $7,638 and the current Collector's Universe value is listed at $9,000. Bound for a great set of this popular, obsolete series.

3CS 1865 PCGS PR67
CAM

Our sister company Legend Numismatics has built the #1 and #2 FINEST Proof 3CS sets. So they know and we know what a true GEM should be. We think this coin is VERY HIGH END. It has been submitted to CAC. We do not see what is holding it back from a bean

Stunning deep mirrors beam boldly from all over. The mirrors are deep and clean. The clarity is refreshing (no smoke or dusk). When you twirl the coin the mirrors reflect like a river of flash. They almost have that "liquid" look. We used a strong glass and saw ZERO problems of any size. Areas of moderate to deep original toning are in a semi "spider web" type of pattern. Every detail is razor sharp in strike and stands out with thick silver frost. The eye appeal is super flashy!

PCGS 2, NGC 6, CAC 1. There are no auction records for this coin in this lofty grade. There is a Collector's Universe Value of $13,500. We very much consider this SUPERB GEM to rank among the epitome of PR Indians! We expect strong bidding for this piece. Its a miracle this piece has survived the Civil War and the 154 years that followed. If you are a 3CS or Civil War Collector, check this coin out!

3CS 1872 PCGS PR65 CAC

This is a beautiful GEM Proof! From the ultra flashy, reflective mirrors that beam with a bold depth and clarity. They are smooth and icy and do not lose any flash with the gentle dusting of iridescent rose, gold, and lilac toning. The eye appeal is very high end for the assigned grade.

Only 950 Proofs were struck. PCGS 45, NGC 39, CAC 20. The last one to sell in auction realized $1,440 in the 2018 ANA auction. We sold a non-CAC coin for $1,540 in our January 2018 Premier Session. The current PCGS value is listed at $1,750. A really neat type coin or a great GEM for a full set.

3CS 1873 PCGS PR65+ CAM CAC

Only 600 examples were struck during this Proof-only final year of this obsolete denomination. High end, GEM+ quality surfaces have a deep, exceptionally reflective mirrored finish to the fields. They are clean and have a huge clarity. The devices are razor sharp and they are highly frosted, creating a highly attractive CAMEO contrast on both sides. Pleasing periphery, golden toning on the obverse and reverse. The eye appeal is exceptional and borders on a SUPERB look!

PCGS 24, NGC 15, CAC 16. There are 3 in PR65+ CAM, and none have ever sold in auction. The most recent PCGS/ CAC PR65 CAM sold for $3,643 in our November 2018 Regency Auction and the current PCGS Price Guide value in PR65+ CAM is listed at $3,950. What a great capstone to your high end GEM set.

3CN 1880 PCGS PR67 CAM CAC

What else needs to be said except that this coin is ULTRA high end for the grade and a beautiful SUPERB GEM?

SUPERB, icy mirrors beam from all over contrasting against the frosted, well struck reliefs. The eye appeal is exceptional!

PCGS 10, NGC 6, CAC 11. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $3,650. Prior to this coin selling in our May 2018 auction, the most recent PCGS PR67 CAM CAC to sell in auction brought $3,055 in the 2016 ANA auction. Prior to that, two examples sold in 2013 for $4,406 and $3,819. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $4,750. Only two examples are finer, with the most recent PCGS MS67+ selling for $9,400 in June 2014. Opportunity knocks for the advanced Registry collector.

OUR ESTIMATES

The estimates you see published in this catalog are based on HAMMER. Keep in mind that a coin could be either low or high end for the grade, have stunning color or be dull, all of which radically affect a coin's value. Yes, there can be huge price differences within a grade, and we offer estimates as a guide so Collector's can have a better idea of value. One thing we will never do is offer low ball estimates in order to claim stronger sales.

These published estimates represent what Legend Rare Coin Auctions determines to be an approximate high wholesale value for the coin. The numbers are based upon current market values, similar trades, auction prices, published prices, and a consideration of the coin's quantity. There is no guarantee that the estimated prices are minimums or are exactly what you can expect to get if you attempt to resell them wholesale.

We always advise you to view the coins you are interested in and calculate what you'll pay using as much information as possible. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask us. We are here to help you!

WOW! This amazing SUPERB GEM is eye popping! By the mid-1880s, the mintages went up dramatically, but the quality of striking did not. Very few survive with full DCAM contrast, and this one is tied for FINEST of those precious few. The deep, icy mirrors shine through the reflective surfaces and the reliefs are fully struck and highly frosted. The mirrors offer such deep and impressive clarity! The quality and eye appeal are AMAZING.

PCGS 2, NGC 0, CAC 4. There is something strange with the Population figures. There is only 1 PR67+ DCAM on the Population Report, but this is NOT the one that sold in the 2017 ANA auction for $15,275. If you are building the FINEST set of DCAM 3CN, this should be your 1884! Good luck!

 We could not see this SUPERB GEM ever grading anything less than PR67 CAM. Somehow, this 129 year old coin has survived in top condition. We consider that amazing!

Bold mirrors have lots of flash with bold clarity and reflection. There is a faint hint of original lilac/gold colors. Sharply struck and frosty with a neat contrast and total original surfaces, imparting a great look.

PCGS 25, NGC 11, CAC 20. The most recent PCGS CAC coin to sell in auction realized $1,560 June 2018. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $1,200. Only five are finer, with a single PR68 CAM finest. This will be a great coin to add to any GEM set!

What an impressive SUPERB GEM! Fully struck, frosty devices offer strong details. The surfaces are highly lustrous and have semi reflective tendencies when rotated in a light. Light, pale golden and pastel hues add to the SUPERB visual allure. First year issue of Liberty Head Nickels and always in demand as the only date in the series to utilize the No Cents design.

PCGS 66, NGC 60. The PCGS Price Guide lists the value at $1,800 and the last PCGS coin sold at auction brought $2,000 in a December 2018 internet-only auction. This superb coin will elicit spirited bidding from discriminating collectors.

5C 1907 PCGS MS67 CAC

WOW! This is a true MONSTER 1907 nickel! EVERYTHING about it screams SUPERB GEM! In fact, we're surprised PCGS did not + it (but this is what a real MS67 looks like).

Incredible surfaces are mind boggling to behold. Even using a strong glass you will find NO imperfections of any size (zero flecks). The surfaces have thick satiny texture. A bold glowing luster beams from all over. Mother Nature did an awesome job on this coin. She bathed it evenly with light flowing original colors of pale plum, lilac and rose. No one ever tops Mother Nature's work! Every detail is pinpoint sharp in strike. The eye appeal is phenomenal!

PCGS 3, NGC 0, CAC 1. There are no price records of any sales for any coin. There are NO price guides either (that are correct). We compared it to a 1910 (PCGS pop 2). The last one of those sold $25,760 in 2008! The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $18,500. Legend Auctions is proud to offer this magnificent Mint State Liberty Nickel. It is worthy of the finest Type or Nickel Collection.

5C 1895 PCGS PR68

Truly a SPECTACULAR Proof Liberty nickel. The sole FINEST graded at PCGS and with its stunning rings of rainbow toning around the rims on both sides, this SUPERB GEM is bound for the FINEST of sets.

We marvel at the ultra-high end visual allure. Rich, reflective mirrors have a smooth and flashy texture. The peripheral toning is gorgeous with bold rainbow patina around bold, nickel-silver surfaces at the centers. The devices are sharply struck and frosty. The eye appeal is simply AMAZING.

PCGS 1, NGC 1. Unpriced in the PCGS Price Guide in PR68 but listed at $6,500 in PR67+. As the SOLE FINEST graded at PCGS, anyone building the highest ranking PCGS Registry Set of Proof Liberty nickels needs this stunner. We can see it bringing a record price for the date and designation when the hammer falls. Good luck!

5C 1904 PCGS PR67 CAC

A remarkable and totally original SUPERB GEM that is tied for FINEST graded at PCGS in the non-CAM designation. Bold, reflective, glassy fields have a soft iridescent gold and icy blue overtone that adds to the outstanding eye appeal. Sharply struck the devices are frosty, and there is a touch of contrast, though not deep enough for a CAM grade.

PCGS 9, NGC 13, CAC 7. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $4,000, and the most recent example that we sold was in September 2018 for $4,113. Only one coin is graded numerically higher, a PCGS PR67+ CAM that sold for $23,500 back in the 2015 FUN auction. This is a great coin for the collector who demands the very finest in their set, and this one will certainly fit that bill.

5C 1927-D PCGS MS66

Bested by just a single MS66+ at either service, this GEM 27-D nickel is as fine as any collector can ever hope to acquire for their herd.

The surfaces shimmer with a bold, glowing luster that enlivens the fields on both sides. The smooth fields and the devices are well struck. Lovely golden toning with iridescent rose, apricot, and pale emerald toning graces both sides. The eye appeal is very nice, and we really do not understand why this coin did not CAC, as the surfaces are high end and the strike is bold. Perhaps they didn't like the color, but we do.

PCGS 10, NGC 6. A PCGS/CAC recently sold for $31,200 in March 2019. The last non-CAC example sold for $19,388 in September 2016. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $26,000. There is just a single MS66+ finer, and CU estimates a value of $55,000. This is an important opportunity for any Buffalo nickel collector, and it should not be taken lightly. Bid accordingly!

This is quite the high end GEM 28-S nickel. Icy silver-nickel surfaces are vibrantly lustrous and delicately toned with a frosty sky blue dominating, with just some gold and rose highlights. The eye appeal is excellent.

PCGS 97, NGC 43, CAC 29. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $5,250. The one that sold in our April 2017 Premier Session sold really cheap, bringing $2,970—prior to that, non-CAC coins brought $5,170 in February 2016 and $4,739 in December 2015. Keep in mind a 66 will cost around $13,000 for a CAC-approved example. We see a lot of value here! Good luck!

Tied for FINEST GRADED! Like other 1931-S issues, the mintages were lower, due to the lack of economic need in the depths of the Great Depression. Only 1.2 million were struck and is extremely rare in such a lofty grade.

Satiny luster blooms in the fields and devices. The strike is bold. There are a few light traces of contact. Pretty gold toning blends with some pale iridescent pastel hues. There is a natural planchet flake on the reverse at 3 o'clock that we note just for the sake of full disclosure. The eye appeal is totally original and pleasing.

PCGS 11, NGC 2. The last one to sell brought $16,800 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $23,500. Prior to that one, the last non-CAC coin sold for $21,738 in October 2016. If you are working on a top ranking Buffalo nickel set, don't let this one get away.

Magnificent! No question this amazing SUPERB GEM has been tucked away since its early life. We more than agree with the +.

Immaculate surfaces reveal no flaws. The surfaces have a thick matte texture. The super sharp luster beams from all over. The obverse has gorgeous original golden brown/violet/green colors that frame the rims and open into pastel lilac gold/pale purple. The reverse has slightly deeper (NOT dark) shades of gold/pale lilac pale reddish gold. There are NO spots or discolorations anywhere. Every detail is needle sharp in strike and stands out. The eye appeal is incredible!

PCGS 55, NGC 37, CAC 41. PCGS has graded only 15 coins PR67+. The last PCGS CAC piece to sell in auction brought $9,694 in March /2019. Prior to that, one similar to this brought $15,275 in September 2018. Yet again, we want to remind everyone this coin has been off the market for many years (do not let the new holder fool you). This will be a great addition to any GEM set. At today's prices, it is also a great coin just to own!

This coin has killer rainbow toning on both sides that is totally original. We do not ever see these with both color and high end quality like this!

Glutting and bright, with lovely delicate rose, violet, pearl green, golden tints of toning. The surfaces are pristine and free of any distracting contact. Even if you use a strong glass, you will find not even a microscopic dot. The eye appeal is awesome, matching the quality of this tough first year of issue in Proof. A scant 1,520 pieces were struck, and this is one of the finer ones certified. Late in 1913, the reverse design was changed to place the bison on a more linear and defined piece of ground, making an orphan issue of the Type 1 coins. Collector demand has always been high when a splendid example like this comes up for auction.

PCGS 69, NGC 37, CAC 27. Recent auction price of $6,463 in March 2019 is a number we consider low as the earlier records are just below $10,000 for this date and grade. Why not take advantage of this temporary market softness and buy up some of these condition rarities while they are on sale--unless you would rather pay full retail when the market recovers!

This coin will be a powerful addition to any GEM toned set!

This coin is magnificent! It is loaded with SUPERB GEM color and quality.

Impeccable surfaces are exceedingly clean. The thick matte texture is easily visible all over. Even if you use a strong glass there is not a single imperfection or dot/spot to be found anywhere. A surprisingly intense luster beams from all over! Heart pounding totally original shades of Greenish gold/gold/faint blue cover the obverse. The reverse has the same plus some violet color. The eye appeal is phenomenal!

PCGS 93, NGC 68, CAC 63. The last PCGS CAC piece to sell in auction brought only $3,600 in January 2019. We assure you, it was nowhere near the quality or had the eye appeal (colors) like this coin does. In Northern Lights terms, we rank the color easily a full 9! The current Collectors Universe value is $4,000. Still too low for this piece (in our opinion).

Earlier FORSYTHE II

This "wild child" of a Proof Buffalo sold back in 2013 for $9,200. You know for it to be in a Northern Light Collection it has to be super special and have bold color. The quality here is SUPER HIGH END!

This piece is more than deserving of its + designation. It sure is all there and then some. The surfaces are as good as you can ever find on any Matte Proof nickel. You do not have to imagine the matte texture. Using a strong glass you will find not even a microscopic imperfection or dot. Both sides have a strong glowing luster. An exquisite and totally original golden/rose mix of colors blankets the surfaces. The eye appeal is gorgeous!

PCGS 66, NGC 33, CAC 41. PCGS has graded 12 pieces in PR67+. The last PCGS CAC piece to sell in auction brought $6,300 in October 2018. That coin was not even close to this in terms of color or quality. Good luck!

Look what we have here! We recognize this as one of the top 1916 Proofs ever graded. Yes, there are 68's graded (many did not CAC) and this coin does best them!

Absolutely flawless surfaces adorn both sides. You can look and look and you find NO imperfections anywhere. The coin also displays a bold matte proof texture. An intense luster makes the coin stand out. Both sides enjoy natural colors of lilac/gold/pale lime/rose colors which are spread out all over. Every detail is needle sharp in strike and stands out. The eye appeal is amazing!

PCGS 101, NGC 51, CAC 21. PCGS has graded only 3 in PR67+. The last (and only) PR 67+ PCGS CAC sold for $17,625 in June 2016. This year, we sold a pretty PCGS PR68 NON CAC for $30,550. With only 1 PR68 CAC'd, this coin is the best you can get. We strongly advise if you are building a top set to come and see this killer piece. It belongs in one of the best collections! We have no idea why CAC did not bean it. The quality and color look fine.

Immaculate surfaces hold no surprises. We used a strong glass and looked all over multiple times and found NO imperfections of any size, anywhere. A bold glowing luster beams vividly from all over. A thick ring of original and dusky golden brown/green/violet circles the obverse and opens into lilac centers. The reverse has the same but is a little thinner. Every detail stands out with a sharp strike. The eye appeal is stunning!

PCGS 47, NGC 29. The last NGC piece to sell in auction brought $4,080 in March 2019. No way it had the killer colors like this coin does. We expect strong bidding here!

Mother Nature sure put on one heck of a show here! We are disturbed that PCGS would not cross the coin (we tried once). We fully categorize this coin as a monster. It is typical of the type of Morgans the Northern Lights collector used to own. In Morgan terms, we rank this coin a full 10 on our 1-10 color scale (10 is the best)!

You can easily see the full brilliant surfaces and the fact they offer zero imperfections. A bold and intense luster beams from all over. The colors are clearly neon electric and are totally original. Circles of golden brown/violet, pearl green/gold swirl all over and create one heck of a show. Every detail is well struck and looks awesome with the colors. When Mother Nature puts on a show-she means it! The eye appeal will make your eye balls jump out and roll around!

OUR ESTIMATES

The estimates you see published in this catalog are based on HAMMER. Keep in mind that a coin could be either low or high end for the grade, have stunning color or be dull, all of which radically affect a coin's value. Yes, there can be huge price differences within a grade, and we offer estimates as a guide so Collector's can have a better idea of value. One thing we will never do is offer low ball estimates in order to claim stronger sales.

These published estimates represent what Legend Rare Coin Auctions determines to be an approximate high wholesale value for the coin. The numbers are based upon current market values, similar trades, auction prices, published prices, and a consideration of the coin's quality. There is no guarantee that the estimated prices are minimums or are exactly what you can expect to get if you attempt to resell them wholesale.

We always advise you to view the coins you are interested in and calculate what you'll pay using as much information as possible. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask us. We are here to help you!

ULTRA HIGH END and totally amazing everything. Now this IS Legend Auctions type of quality! This coin is more than worthy of being tied for second FINEST graded for the date. Hard to believe PCGS actually has graded two in PR69 (one is in the monster #. Forsythe Collection).

Sensational satin surfaces are smooth and are remarkably clean. Even using a microscope, you will find NO impairments. A really strong luster boldly illuminates the totally original rainbow colors Mother Nature has spread all around the peripheries. You do NOT have to tilt this coin to see the color (and the colors are NOT dusky). Every detail is pinpoint sharp in strike. The eye appeal is wild!

PCGS 3, NGC 1. The only one to ever sell was the CAC-approved coin that brought $13,513 in our September 2016 Regency Auction--that was almost 3 years ago now. The eye appeal of this rainbow-toned SUPERB GEM is even better (and is better than the NGC PR68+* that sold in the 2015 ANA sale for $12,339. LM-10. This coin is the real deal for an MS64+. When we first saw it we were impressed, then we examined it and fell in love with it.

Superb, borderline GEM surfaces are a joy to behold. Only when using a strong glass can you see one microscopic line. We can't stress enough the cleanliness of this coin. A surprising above average luster beams from all over. The obverse is covered by a median mix of totally original champagne/pale golden brown. There is just a wisp of toning on the reverse. One look and it is easy to see why this SUPERB GEM is tied for FINEST graded. We used a strong glass and found only one light frost break that could be keeping this coin from MS68. The surfaces are clearly pristine. The luster is strong and is growing in nature. You can see some super light hints of toning on the obverse. Miss Liberty and the details are frosty and are sharply struck. You do not need a glass to see the fullness of the strike. The eye appeal is fabulous!

PCGS 14, NGC 15, CAC 9. PCGS has graded only 4 in MS67+ with NONE higher. NO MS67+ have ever been sold via auction. The current Collectors Universe Value is $20,000. We marvel at being able to own a 166 year old obsolete coin-a tiny coin at that in the ultimate and top condition. We can see this coin being worth over $25,000 soon. New and fresh, examples certainly are not being found at all. Opportunity knocks loud here for sure!

Everything about this coin is SUPERB. The surfaces are "beyond pristine" and stand up to the test of being examined with a strong glass. The obverse does have a slight trace of semi-proof like mirrors. There is a decent luster that beams from all over. Both sides are a GEM original mix of moderate olive/reddish gold-pewter colors. Miss Liberty and the details are so sharply struck up you do not even need a glass to see them.

Here you have a 160 year obsolete coin in the nearly the ultimate condition. We doubt there are a dozen beamed in MS67+. It's not like you can go to every show or auction and buy one. We think the opportunity and potential here are amazing. Why sit with junk? This coin is well worth dumping the stuff for!

PCGS 30, NGC 12, CAC 18. There are 17 in MS67+ (we think there is an error here). The last one to sell realized $5,405 in our May 2018 Regency Auction. This beautiful jewel will bring a strong bid for sure.

Prior to 1858, when the mint began striking Proofs for collectors of the general public, the mintages were often unrecorded and we have to go by estimates put forth by scholars. PCGS CoinFacts estimates 50 Proofs were struck, very few survive in such a lofty state of preservation, and fewer still come with CAMEO contrast. The present GEM offers frosty, well struck devices that stand out against the watery-reflective fields. The fields are smooth and free of any distracting marks and the original toning is alluring.

PCGS 1, NGC 2, CAC 2. This is the NGC/CAC coin that has sold three times previously, ranging from a high of $7,638 to a low of $4,700. We think that most recent figure is just too cheap for a coin of this rarity. Keep in mind that a non-CAC PCGS coin brought $11,750 in January 2014! Only 886 Proofs were struck. PCGS 38, NGC 54, CAC 10. The last CAC approved coin to sell was graded by NGC and sold for $1,058 in June 2016. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $1,150. The market really has battered this great series down, when you can buy coins in PCGS/CAC with mintage under 1,000 for around that level, you know that has to be a good deal!

PCGS# 4783 | ESTIMATE: $1,000+

10C 1888 PCGS PR67+ CAM CAC

This SUPERB GEM is unbeatable in every respect. It has superior quality and is really rare. Deep mirrors beam boldly from all over. The mirrors are crystal clear, clean, and are loaded with nearly blinding flash. When you twirl the coin, the mirrors look like a flowing river of flash. Both sides are white with a trace of nearly invisible gold on the reverse. Miss Liberty and every detail are crisply struck and stand out with thick frost. The eye appeal is wonderful!

ONLY 832 were minted. PCGS 5, NGC 6, CAC 6. This is one of just two PR67+ CAMS graded as FINEST in the designation. The other example brought $8,700 in April 2018 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $8,000. This icy SUPERB GEM is amazing for a type or date set.

PCGS# 84785 | ESTIMATE: $7,000+

10C 1891 PCGS PR65+ DCAM CAC

A high end GEM from the final date of this series.

Deep mirrors beam vividly from all over. The mirrors have great clarity, cleanliness, and of course offer a bold reflection. Even when using a strong glass there are no real imperfections to see. This coin is fully contrasted and looks like a .10C Liberty you would dream of. Miss Liberty and the details stand out with thick creamy white frost and are fully struck. The eye appeal is gorgeous!

ONLY 600 were minted. PCGS 2, NGC 0, CAC 1. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $2,750. The most recent "comp" was a PCGS PR66 DCAM CAC that sold for $4,230 in the 2017 FUN auction. This is a rare coin so fine.

PCGS# 94788 | ESTIMATE: $2,500+

10C 1893 PCGS PR67+ CAC

This is the way SUPERB GEM Barber dime Proofs should look! This borderline cameo has deep, crystal clear, remarkably clean, highly reflective mirrors that beam from all over. Both sides are awash with cobalt, aqua-teal, and rosy-pink toning that impart a terrific eye appeal.

PCGS 18, NGC 22, CAC 16. There are just 4 in PR67+ and just four finer. The last one we sold brought $4,465 in our May 2018 Regency Auction. This coin should bring somewhere around that amount. Good luck!

PCGS# 4877 | ESTIMATE: $3,500+

10C 1901 PCGS PR65 CAC

A beautiful GEM that has an intense reflection on both sides. The mirrors are deep and bold, and the devices, while also glossy with bold reflection also have a touch of contrast. The rims are ringed in a wonderful golden tone that creates a lovely halo effect around the razor sharp strike. The eye appeal is great for the grade.

Only 813 Proofs were struck. PCGS 34, NGC 44, CAC 10. The most recent example to sell in auction was the Blue Moon Collection coin sold in March 2017 for $1,293. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $1,000 but this one should bring more than that when the hammer falls. How much cheaper can GEMS like this be? Take advantage of the lower values.

PCGS# 4885 | ESTIMATE: $1,200+

10C 1912 PCGS PR66 CAC

Needle sharp strike with exquisite details and squared rims. Mirrored surfaces glitter with reflected light. A delicate blue gold russet toning is a sign of long-term careful storage.

Only 700 Proofs were struck. PCGS 25, NGC 16, CAC 8. Only 21 finer. The PCGS Price Guide lists the value as $1,350. A great value for a top quality coin.

PCGS# 4896 | ESTIMATE: $1,100+

10C 1915 PCGS PR66 CAM CAC

A SUPERB GEM Proof example of the final year of Proof production. Truly a memorable coin boasting a needle sharp strike, as well as lovely contrast between the frosted devices and glowing mirrors of the fields. A delightful blend of multi-hued toning blankets both sides. Among the finest graded from a Proof mintage of only 450 pieces.

PCGS 3, NGC 2, CAC 5. The last one sold for $2,938 in our September 2018 Regency Auction, and there is another record from June 2014 that brought $4,406. The current PCGS Price Guide value is $3,200. Just three coins are finer in the CAMEO category.

PCGS# 84899 | ESTIMATE: $2,800+

10C 1916 MERCURY. PCGS MS67FB CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE.

Vibrant, brilliant luster beams all over on this SUPERB GEM example from the first year of the Mercury dime. Pleasing and colorful toning graces both sides. Icy blue, light gold, and soft tangerine hues. The devices are sharply struck and the eye appeal is exceptional.

PCGS 168, NGC 82, CAC 104. The PCGS Price Guide value is $1,100 and the last two PCGS/CAC coins sold for $780 and $900. A great type coin or start to a collection of Mercury dimes.

PCGS# 4905 | ESTIMATE: $700+

LOT 362

10C 1916 MERCURY. PCGS MS67+FB CAC

This is a HIGH END and totally original! SUPERB GEM. Highly lustrous, underlying the multicolored toning that graces both sides. Sharply struck devices stand out and this coin has a great look!

PCGS 199, NGC 85, CAC 105. This coin sold for $3,290 in the 2017 FLN auction. More recently we sold one for $3,630 in our July 2018 Premier Session and the current PCGS value is listed at $3,000. Just 15 are graded finer at PCGS, all MS68 FB. What a great looking coin that is a great start to a set of Mercury dimes!

PCGS# 4905 ESTIMATE: $2,000+

10C 1917-D PCGS MS66FB

An impeccable GEM! The strike is sharp with excellent details and clearly defined full bands. A lovely iridescence blankets the entire surfaces. Some toning decorates the surfaces increasing the visual appeal. From a mintage of 9.4 million, so few have survived in this extraordinary state of preservation.

PCGS 12, NGC 5. Only 4 finer (66+) at PCGS. Listed in the PCGS price guide is listed at $7,750 and we can find no recent auction records for this grade (the most recent are from 2016 in the $5,640 to $7,638 range). A special coin worthy of consideration for a high-end set.

PCGS# 4913 ESTIMATE: $5,000+

LOT 364

10C 1917-S PCGS MS65FB CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE.

A sharply struck, boldly lustrous, high end GEM. Free of any distracting marks, the surfaces are HIGH END for the assigned grade. Premium quality all the way!

PCGS 127, NGC 27, CAC 13. The most recent PCGS/CAC example to sell in auction realized $881 in February 2016 and prior to that, one sold in October 2015 for $1,058. The current PCGS value is listed at $1,150.

PCGS# 4915 ESTIMATE: $900+

LOT 365
10C 1918 PCGS MS65FB CAC
 FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE.

A beautiful, paste, toned GEM early Mercury dime. Sharply struck and warmly lustrous surfaces are enhanced by lilac-rose and icy lavender-sky blue iridescent toning. The eye appeal is exceptional!

PCGS 114, NGC 67, CAC 11. The most recent PCGS/CAC coin sold in November 2017 for $1,800 and prior to that they were selling between $1,000 and $1,175. The current PCGS value is listed at $1,000 and this one will sell for well in excess of that amount, the eye appeal is very high end!

PCGS# 4917 | ESTIMATE: $1,000+

LOT 366
10C 1923 PCGS MS67

A delicate champagne gold patina provides outstanding eye appeal. Strike is sharp with excellent detail and the upper and lower reverse bands are fully spent; the center band very nearly so. The orange peel texture is graceful and even adding to the unmistakable virtue of this classic Mercury Dime.

PCGS 4, NGC 6, None higher. The PCGS price guide lists the value at $1,150. No auction records within the last 2 years. A thoroughly lovely coin for the high-end date or type collector. With none graded finer, this coin represents great value for this ever popular series.

PCGS# 4938 | ESTIMATE: $900+

10C 1928-S PCGS MS67+FB CAC

Less than a year after we sold the only other 28-S in 67+ FB, we are proud to offer this simply lovely, original, and high end SUPERB example.

Bold, brilliant luster has a bold satiny luster, glowing from below a blend of olive, gold, pewter, lilac, and coppery-orange. The details are razor sharp in strike, with fully defined design elements on both sides. The surfaces are essentially flawless and pristine in their preservation, this cataloger was unable to turn up any mark anywhere using a strong loupe. The eye appeal is simply stunning!

PCGS 14, NGC 1, CAC 7. There are only three coins graded MS67+ FB, only one of which has ever sold in auction, realizing $49,938 in our July 2018 Regency Auction. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $50,000. We believe this SUPERB GEM, with its great and original visual allure, will bring a similar price. Bound for the FINEST of sets! Good luck!

PCGS# 4971 | ESTIMATE: $40,000+

10C 1929 PCGS MS67+ CAC

This is the single HIGHEST graded example in the non-FB designated coins. Fully lustrous, exceptional surface quality is smooth and frosty. Every detail is fully rendered, the exception being the central band which is not split. The eye appeal is excellent.

PCGS 9, NGC 11, CAC 4. This is the ONLY MS67+, none are finer in the designation. This coin sold two years ago in the 2017 FUN auction for $1,293 and the current PCGS Price Guide is $1,350. This coin should see active bidding from the collector.

PCGS# 4972 | ESTIMATE: $1,200+

10C 1929-D PCGS MS67FB

Superb strike and luster with bands that are nicely rounded and fully split. The reverse is white while the obverse is mostly white with iridescent golden highlights. The eye appeal is particularly nice. A tiny nick on the cheek is non-distracting and noted only for accuracy.

PCGS 52, NGC 3, Listed in the PCGS price guide at $2,100. Recent APR's ranged from $1,410 to 3,840. The coin is in an early PCGS green label holder and worthy of a premium bid.

PCGS# 4975 | ESTIMATE: $1,600+

10C 1930-S PCGS MS66FB CAC

Brilliantly lustrous with totally original, iridescent toned surfaces. Sharply struck and satiny smooth, this PQ GEM has a great look. The surfaces are clean and free of any distracting marks and the eye appeal is quite nice.

PCGS 94, NGC 14, CAC 42. The most recent example to sell in auction realized $1,800 in September 2018 and the current PCGS Price Guide lists a value of $2,150. Very scarce any finer.

PCGS# 4981 | ESTIMATE: $1,500+

10C 1934-D PCGS MS67 CAC

Superb satiny surfaces absolutely glow with luster. A super picky grader may have focused on a very slight weakness on the center band, but we can envision this coin designated as Full Bands (no guarantees). This untoned superb gem is as near to perfection as one will see in a Mercury Dime.

PCGS 26, NGC 14, CAC 11, only 5 finer. Listed in the PCGS Price Guide at $500. Last PCGS graded coin (non CAC) to sell at auction brought $528 in February 2019. An outstanding type coin or addition to a top date set.

PCGS# 4990 | ESTIMATE: $450+

LOT 372

10C 1936 PCGS MS68FB

Wonderfully preserved and very eye appealing. Totally original toning graces both sides of this nearly flawless and well struck SUPERB GEM

The obverse has a touch of golden orange and the reverse is awash in orange and olive gold hues. There is a tiny contact mark hidden on the reverse. The eye appeal is excellent

PCGS 20, NGC 11. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $4,000 and this coin should see bidding hit that level or more. The last PCGS, non-CAC sold in November 2017 for $3,840. Just three coins are graded finer all MS68+ FB. Bound to end up in a great set of Mercury dimes.

PCGS# 4999 ESTIMATE: $3,600+

10C 1942 PCGS MS68FB CAC

Arguably the FINEST 1942 dime, as it is the only MS68 FB that is approved by CAC.

The flawless surfaces are awash in multi-hued pastel patina on both sides. Fifty shades of iridescent toning in pale blue, aquamarine, clear gold, light violet, magenta-rose, emerald and olive green all blend together, and are made all the more vivid by a bold, brilliant original luster. Clearly Mother Nature's paintbrush did some marvelous work here. The eye appeal is spectacular.

PCGS 11, NGC 2, CAC 1. This is NOT the NGC/CAC coin that sold back in November 2013, nor is it the Hallett Coin we sold in September 2018. Both of those beautifully toned coins realized $5,288 and $5,523 respectively. The current PCGS Price Guide value is $6,500 and THERE ARE NONE FINER! Bound for the FINEST of Mercury dime sets.

PCGS# 5035 ESTIMATE: $5,500+

OUR ESTIMATES

The estimates you see published in this catalog are based on HAMMER. Keep in mind that a coin could be either low or high end for the grade, have stunning color or be dull, all of which radically affect a coin's value. Yes, there can be huge price differences within a grade, and we offer estimates as a guide so Collector's can have a better idea of value. One thing we will never do is offer low ball estimates in order to claim stronger sales.

These published estimates represent what Legend Rare Coin Auctions determines to be an approximate high wholesale value for the coin. The numbers are based upon current market values, similar trades, auction prices, published prices, and a consideration of the coin's quality. There is no guarantee that the estimated prices are minimums or are exactly what you can expect to get if you attempt to resell them wholesale.

We always advise you to view the coins you are interested in and calculate what you'll pay using as much information as possible. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask us. We are here to help you!

LOT 374
10C 1942/1-D PCGS MS66+FB CAC

A truly spectacular example of this popular overdate variety tied for second highest graded at PCGS, and ultra high end quality both in terms of technical and aesthetic quality!

A bold, brilliant luster blazes with strong cartwheels that roll across the smooth, problem free surfaces. The strike is as crisp and complete as you would expect for a SUPERB GEM and the blast white silver surfaces are of Premium Quality!

The Denver mint 42, is scarcer overall than its Philadelphia counterpart, and the under digit is not as bold as either. That is likely the reason why the Philadelphia mint overdate was discovered in 1943, while the 42/1-D was not discovered until the early 1960s! However, by some miracle, there are a small number of GEM survivors for collectors to bid on, fewer still in this ultra lofty grade. GEMs are ALWAYS in demand- especially when CAC approved!

PCGS 15, NGC 4, CAC 10. PCGS has graded only 3 in MS66+ FB and just a single MS67 FB finer. Another example sold for $72,000 in the 2019 FUN auction, and that was the first MS66+ FB to sell since June 2013. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $75,000 and it jumps to a theoretical $120,000 for the sole MS67 FB. This is a true prize for the FINEST of Mercury Dime collections. Ownership of this SUPERB GEM in your sell will vault it to world-class status!

10C 1942-S PCGS MS67FB CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE.

A beautiful, sharply struck, SUPERB GEM that boasts pale green, lavender, and golden toning that enhance the bold, satiny lustrous and high end quality surfaces

PCGS 206, NGC 96, CAC 72. When this coin last sold in June 2004, the Population was 10, none finer and sold for $884. Today, there are two dozen graded MS67+ and MS68. The current PCGS Price Guide value is $425 and this one should sell for more.

PCGS# 5043 ESTIMATE: $400+

LOT 376

10C 1945 PCGS MS66FB

While one of the most common of all Mercury dimes in Mint State (the original mintage was well over 159 million), this is a MAJOR RARITY with fully struck bands. In GEM full band grades, this is a coin that is in constant demand from advanced collectors.

Glossy brilliant mint luster shows a vibrance that is not often seen on full band examples of this date. The strike is bold with full separation on the bands. The eye appeal is exceptional and there are no serious marks anywhere, just a few minor lines that we note with a strong glass.

PCGS 19, NGC 9. The most recent example sold for $13,200 in the 2019 FUN auction, and the current Collector's Universe value is listed at $18,000. EXCESSIVELY RARE any finer, just five have been graded higher.

PCGS# 5057 ESTIMATE: $13,000+

LOT 377

10C 1937 PCGS PR67+ CAC

Flashy, beaming fully brilliant mirrors. Pristine quality surfaces are blinding in their reflection. No significant or distracting flaws anywhere, the eye appeal is exceptional.

PCGS 306, NGC 203, CAC 156. There are 23 in PR67+. The two most recent examples to sell realized $900 in January and March 2019 and the current CU price is $1,250. RARE any finer!

PCGS# 5072 ESTIMATE: $800+

LOT 378
10C 1965 PCGS MS68FB

WOW! What else can you say about this amazing dime? The quality and eye appeal are simply stunning! Sharply struck, frosty lustrous and awash in beautiful rose and gold toning with arcs of teal, magenta, and pale blue throughout F.D.R.'s hair lines. The surfaces are PRISTINE and the eye appeal is beyond compare!

This is tied for FINEST graded, from an original mintage of over 1.65 BILLION. The first year of the new composition, this coin is an important first year of type coin.

PCGS 3, NGC 6. The only PCGS MS68 to ever sell in auction brought $3,819 back in March 2013—that was half a dozen years ago. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $4,150. NONE are finer at PCGS, and this is worthy of the FINEST of sets. We can see this coin bringing a RECORD price when the hammer finally falls. Good luck!

PCGS# 85130 | ESTIMATE: $3,500+

20C 1875-S PCGS MS67

This is a wonderful example of this odd denomination in SUPERB GEM. Clearly this coin has been lovingly cared for nearly 150 years!

Both sides are wonderfully lustrous with a lovely pearly hue that is dusted delicately over smooth fields and sharply struck devices. A band of gold, tan, olive, and russet hues grace areas of the periphery imparting a totally original look. While there is a touch of weakness, as usually seen on the reverse, the definition is much stronger than usually seen on examples of this date. The surfaces are of impeccable quality, and the eye appeal is spectacular for the type!

PCGS 6, NGC 8. The last one to sell realized $19,200 in October 2018 and prior to that, one sold in September 2018 for $33,600. The current PCGS value is listed at $27,500. Just a single MS68 is graded finer at PCGS, a coin that most recently sold for $52,875. This coin is one of the FINEST and worthy of a SUPERB type set.

THE PUG COLLECTION

The PUG Collection is from a long time customer who loves Bust material and has owned many neat coins over the years including a 1794 $1 PCGS AU58 and some neat Early $10 pieces!

Originally he had contacted us looking for some Bust coins. After talking to him and hearing he was involved with bad dealer we began working with him to clean up a mess of coins he had acquired that were less desirable. Once that task was finished he had the bug to build some kind of Bust Collection. He wanted our advice as to what area was out of sight and not too crazy expensive per coin. So we settled on Mint State early Bust Quarters. The timing was right as a few major collections (Newman, Gardner, etc) were being sold. We were able to acquire some special coins like the 25C 1804 PCGS MS63+ and the 25C 1796 PCGS AU50 Gold sticker which came from a Legend customer. He also enjoyed doing through research on every coin—he was one of the best coin detectives we've met! Not wanting all his eggs in one basket, we started a 1880-1889 $3 set (never got to complete it) in MS64 as a diversification. That led to his pride and joy coin the Mint Directors personal $10 1907 Wire edge!

Going back to his early years of collecting Bust coinage. In the beginning, we help the PUG collector locate 3 remarkable Bust Dollars. Those same 3 are opening the Dollar day segment!

With retirement looming, his financial advisor is in the process of making him liquid so he and his wife (and 2 Pugs) can enjoy life with no worries. While he is sad his main collection must go, he found another series he can buy coins just to have fun with. So he is not ending his collecting. We look forward to placing all his coins into good homes and working to continue PUG's collecting journey. We sincerely thank the Pug collector for allowing us to be his dealer the last few years.

THE PUG COLLECTION

25C 1796 PCGS AU50 GOLD CAC
FROM THE PUG COLLECTION.

What a great way to start off this AMAZING set of early quarters. This coin more than proves that AU coins can have way more appeal than some Mint State coins! This coin is a SUPERB GEM AU, conservatively graded, and truly a marvel to behold. We cannot positively trace this old holdered beauty, but it is one that will delight any fastidious collector and is heads above what you would normally see for any 1796 quarter.

B-1. Fully reflective fields give this distinctive coin a bold Prooflike flash in the fields on both sides. Clearly this was an early striking from the dies, while the polish was still fresh. Despite the barest trace of friction, the reflection does not break anywhere in the fields. The highest points show just minor wear, and the devices are essentially fully rendered by the dies. Robert Scott's design elements are nice and frosty, and the obverse has an almost cameo contrast. Both sides are awash in aqua, teal, lilac, and golden-tinged pewter color that is rich, and totally original. The Prooflike surfaces exaggerate any of the minor points of contact, but these are all toned over and none distract the naked eye. Some mint made adjustment marks are seen in the central obverse, again, these do not take away from the AMAZING, seductive visually allure-we have seen Mint State coins that do not have the life and stunning eye appeal of this SUPERB coin!

The establishment of the United States mint came by way of the April 12, 1792 act of congress. This act called for the building, staffing, and requirements of the coinage system. Aside from a few patterns and 1,500 half dimes that were struck in 1792, coinage for circulation did not begin inside the walls of the first U.S. Mint until 1793, when half cents and cents were struck. No silver or gold coins could be struck until mint officials were able to post surety bonds. These were not posted until 1795, when the first half dollars, dollars, $5 gold and $10 gold coins were struck. There was no demand for quarters until 1796, when 6,146 quarters were struck, utilizing two pairs of dies. B-1 as here is slightly less common than the B-2, and is easily identified by the lower placement of the 6 in the date. This tiny mintage satisfied demand for the denomination until 1804. This is a one year only type with the small eagle reverse, by the time 1804 came around the mint was striking coins with the heraldic eagle reverse design. A coin that combines both first year of issue, and one year only status, the 1796 quarter is a classic "blue chip" rarity, in demand from collectors in all grades, and in all markets.

PCGS 9, NGC 4, CAC 3. This is the only GOLD CAC 1796 quarter in any grade. The most recent PCGS-graded example was a dull, gray coin that sold back in July 2005! We sold a PCGS/CAC AU53 coin in our July 2018 Regency Auction for $76,375. That coin had nowhere near the colorful or vivacious look that this SUPERB GEM AU50 has. Indeed, this coin is nicer than the PCGS/CAC AU55 that sold in January 2015 for $96,938. Our consignor bought this coin from an old Legend Numismatics customer in November 2015 for $87,500 and based on its outstanding eye appeal, we have no doubt that price will be met when the hammer falls. Good Luck!

PCGS# 5310 ESTIMATE: $70,000+

LOT 381
25C 1804 PCGS MS63+ CAC
FROM THE PUG COLLECTION.

Legend Rare Coin Auctions is proud to offer this very high end example of this KEY Draped Bust quarter issue. While the mintage of 6,738 quarters in 1804 is nearly identical to the 1796, fewer high grade examples were saved at the time of issue. Most surviving pieces are lower grade, usually below VF. Any Mint State coin is a treasure and this richly toned MS63+ is in the Condition Census for the B-1 variety, listed as #4 in the Rea, Koenigs, Haroutunian Census, and #3 in the Tompkins Census.

Flashy, almost reflective lustrous fields have a vivacity not commonly seen on any of the precious few Mint State survivors, which usually have a frosty luster. Rich cobalt, teal, olive, and tan patina blanket a steely-silver gray surface. There is some very minor striking weakness in some of the star centers, but the central devices are boldly rendered by a forceful blow from the screw press. Struck from die state with dramatic clash marks that can be seen on the obverse. These marks make up the most of what is seen in the fields. We do also note some minor mint made planchet adjustment marks that are seen at the lower obverse.

A strong glass reveals a few minor traces of contact that are all well hidden, and not found with the naked eye. This is a very important coin for the advanced collector, especially one with outstanding visual appeal.

This coin was the Richard Jewell Collection coin, sold in the 2011 ANA auction for $184,000. Prior to that, it was in Heritage's May 2005 auction, lot 6841; ANR's March 2004 sale, lot 531; Bowers & Merena's November 1998 auction, lot 99; Superior's February 1992 auction, lot 1242, and Paramount's session of Auction '79, lot 102.

PCGS 2, NGC 1, CAC 2. This is the only MS63+ graded and just three are graded MS64 at PCGS, including the Huggy-Bareford-Pogue coin that sold in $211,500. In 63+, the Collector's Universe lists a value of $195,000. This is a real prize for anyone looking to upgrade their example of this KEY date condition rarity and will see very strong bidding. Keep in mind that it is doubtful a finer example will be found anytime soon!

THE PUG COLLECTION

---

LOT 382

25C 1805 PCGS MS64+ CAC

FROM THE PUG COLLECTION.

This is likely the FINEST KNOWN 1805 B-3 quarter, a coin that ranked at the top of the Walter Breen's 1992 update of Ward Browning's The Early Quarter Dollars of the United States, 1796-1838; and is listed as Condition Census #1 in the Rea-Koenigs-Haroutunian Census and #1 in the Tompkins' Census.

This satiny, frosty near-GEM is struck from a very late die state with multiple bold die cracks and clash marks that add character to the otherwise smooth surfaces. The devices are crisply embossed by a forceful blow from the screw press. The details are highlighted by a glowing, ember-like luster that clings to the recesses and protected areas of the Draped Bust design type. Olive tinged pewter-silver with richer lilac-violet at LIBERTY. The reverse has an aqua teal and soft gold at the periphery, similar pewter-silver and gold. We do not see any real traces of contact, even under a careful inspection with a strong glass. The eye appeal is, as you would expect for the FINEST KNOWN, very high end. We had a hard time putting this one down.

PCGS 7, NGC 3, CAC 4. There are two in MS64+, the other one sold in our December 2016 Regency Auction for $52,875. The current PCGS value is listed at $60,000 and there are just 2 coins finer at PCGS, both MS65. Bound for a great collection! Whether you are a type collector, or a specialist in early quarter die varieties, or anything in between, this coin is sure to please! Don't let this amazing, essentially FULLY GEM quality early quarter pass you by!

PCGS# 5313 ESTIMATE: $45,000+

25C 1806 PCGS MS64+ CAC
FROM THE PUG COLLECTION.

Among the VERY FINEST 1806 B-2s known. This gorgeously toned example ranks high in the Rea, et al census, which is 65,65,64,63,63. We cannot trace it to any of the previously published auction recorded coins, and may be a new addition to the census.

Satin mint bloom glows in the fields surrounding the devices. Areas of striking weakness, as typical for the date, are noted, but in general the strike is bold. The eye appeal is enhanced by a rich, original peripheral, album tone that frames both sides. Coppery-golden amber blends with gunmetal and slate blue, gray and olive russet tone around the brilliant silvery centers. Struck from a late state of the dies, with the reverse shattered with two cracks that bisect that side. Planchet adjustment and roller marks can be seen in the central portions of the design elements.

Truly a beautiful near-GEM Draped Bust quarter, a superb coin for the type.

PCGS 12, NGC 13, CAC 7. There are two in MS64+ and just three are finer. The other MS64+ sold for $58,750 in June 2017. As said, this coin does not match any of the Condition Census coins published by Rea, Koenings, and Haroutunian or Tompkins. Our consignor bought this coin privately back in March 2013 from Legend Numismatics, and its previous pedigree is unknown. The current PCGS value is listed at $50,000 and keep in mind that the Stickney-Swan-Jung-Pogue MS64 sold for $54,344. We think this coin will sell around that amount. The only MS65 to sell realized $102,000 in the 2018 FUN auction, so this near GEM presents a great value for the collector who wants a Condition Census level coin without spending high five or low six figures. Bound for a WORLD CLASS collection of high end GEM type. Good luck!

LOT 384

FROM THE PUG COLLECTION.

This is a gorgeous, pearly-lustrous borderline GEM that has a stunning look. Nicely struck, we note just some minor weakness of the dentils at the periphery. Bold, satiny silver luster blooms with a vivid brilliance that you rarely see on an early quarter. A touch of champagne gold glows all over. There are minimal traces of contact, visible only with the aid of a powerful glass.

This is a reuse of the 1805, B-4 die marriage, where the already used obverse die had a 6 punched over the original 5, which was not effaced. This GEM has a great look, and the eye appeal is amazing! We cannot trace the provenance for this amazing coin, though it has a similar look to the Petry-Clapp-Elasberg coin (not the same); and is better struck than the R.L.Miles coin (last listed as having sold in Stack's Session of Auction '80). It is clearly not the Col. Green- Eric Newman Oliver Jung, Randall-Garrett, or other coins listed in the Rea-Koenings-Haroutian Census.

PCGS 5, NGC 3, CAC 3 PCGS has graded 2 in 64+ and NGC has graded 1. The other 64+ sold for $42,300 in June 2016 and the Randall-Garrett-Gardner MS64 PCGS/CAC sold for $55,813 in June 2014. The Elasberg coin sold for $60,375 as an NGC MS64 (no CAC) in November 2011. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $55,000. Only three coins are graded higher at PCGS, and they all would likely carry six-figure prices if they were to appear in auction today. This is a world class example of this very popular overdate, and a great coin for any type, date, or variety set! We know this coin will see stiff bidding competition when it crosses the block! Good luck!

PCGS# 5315 ESTIMATE: $45,000+

25C 1807 PCGS AU58 CAC
FROM THE PUG COLLECTION.

This is a beautifully patinated GEM AU that was sold uncertified in the January 1997 Stack's sale of the Empire State Collection, where it was described as:

"Brilliant Uncirculated. Deep frosty silver lustre contrasts with pleasing clear red-gold. Bold die clash is especially visible in the stars over the eagle on this softly glowing specimen of the Draped Bust date."

We think PCGS may have been a tad conservative when this B-1 was graded. It is in a PCGS "Gen 4.0" holder, which was used from 1998 to 2002, so this coin was last graded at least 17 years ago. To the Stack's description we add that that wear PCGS notes is very minor, we have seen Mint State coins with less luster, less life, and more flatness of the devices. Pewter, slate, and battleship hues blend with clear gold and rose that are brought to life by the vivid surviving luster. A GEM quality AU58 that has a SUPERB visual appeal.

PCGS 15, NGC 8, CAC 4. Surprisingly scarce in lower Mint State grades, and RARE in Choice or finer Mint State grades. This coin sold in Part IV of the Gene Gardner Collection (October 2015) for $11,750. The only other PCGS/CAC example to sell in auction was in our Regency Auction XXI (May 2017) for $11,750 as well. This one has a better look overall and has been in just two auctions in the last 22+ years, thus is not a retread and should bring serious consideration from the "everyman" set collector, or anyone who loves really high end type coins. Good luck!

LOT 386

25C 1821 B-1. NGC MS65 CAC
FROM THE PUG COLLECTION.

Ex Col. E.H.R. Green and Eric P. Newman Collections.

A spectacularly toned GEM from one of the all-time most fabled collections ever assembled-Col. E. H. R. Green. The obverse exhibits rich blue, gold, and reddish-gray toning around light silver at the center. The reverse is mostly brilliant light silver with peripheral splashes of gold and blue. Like many of the coins in the collection, it was perhaps lightly dipped generations ago, before naturally retoning the Newman envelopes. Like all early coinage, this date is RARE in GEM and excessively so any finer.

This beautiful coin served as the plate coin in the original Ard Browning book on early quarters, and ranks #1 in the Rea Koenigs Haroutunian Census. The Col. Green Collection is one of the most famous of the early 20th century collections. Upon his death, much of the collection was sold to a partnership of Burdette Johnson and Eric P. Newman, one of the great American numismatic scholars and collectors. His collection, long on display at Washington University in St. Louis, was sold off in a series of auctions from 2013 to 2018.

PCGS 6, NGC 6, CAC 2. This coin sold in the November 2013 sale of the Eric Newman Collection for $30,550. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $28,500. NGC has graded just three coins finer, and it is doubtful they have the colorful beauty of the presently offered GEM.

PCGS# 5331 ESTIMATE: $28,000+

LOT 387

25C 1804 PCGS F15 CAC

A truly wholesome B-1. An important KEY date early quarter. Bold definition to the design elements stand out against high end for the grade quality surfaces. Hints of pale blue can be seen on the even light gray surfaces. The eye appeal is very bold for the date and grade. Only 6,738 quarters were struck, most disappearing into early U.S. federal period commerce. Most survivors today are not just heavily circulated, but have serious condition flaws like cleaning, tooiling, etc. This wonderful example shows only honest, even, and wholesome wear, making it a highly desirable piece for the early type collector.

PCGS 27, NGC 8, CAC 7. Prior to this one selling for $8,800 in our December 2018 Final Premier Session, the last one sold for $10,350 in the 2012 FUN auction. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $9,500. For the modest grade, the eye appeal is exceptional and anything finer is a five figure coin! A great coin for the budget minded early quarter collector.

PCGS# 5312 ESTIMATE: $8,000+

LOT 388

25C 1854 ARROWS.

PCGS MS65+ CAC

We have seen a few MS65 With Arrows 25C, but this is the first one we have really liked that was graded MS65+, in fact, we grade it MS65 9! If you are a serious student of this type, then you will know how genuinely rare this date and grade are. Do not be fooled by the pops, these are not easy to find looking as this coin does!

PCGS showed this coin no mercy by only designating it a MS65+. The surfaces are ultra clean and smooth. A wonderful rich and totally original mix of deep pewter/pale navy colors cover both sides. This is not a dull or drab coin. Miss Liberty and the details are fully struck (hard to find like that) and do stand out. The eye appeal will make any MS Seated purist collector smile!

PCGS 22, NGC 20, CAC 8. PCGS has graded only 2 MS65+ with possibly 5 coins higher. The other PCGS MS65+ CAC piece sold for $9,000 in April 2018. The current Collector's Universe Value is a paltry $13,500. The last MS66 (a non CAC of course) sold for $33,600 in April 2018. We are horrified how badly the market has spanked a great coin like this.

If you are a Type or Standing Liberty quarter specialist, this coin represents tremendous opportunity and value. Plus, as we all know, NOW is the time to be buying ANY GEM MS Seated coins you can. If you have any dupes from another series, why not trade them in for this terrific coin? After all, how many GEM 1854 25C have you seen in the past year or so? We have NOT seen many at all (actually one heck of a MS66 we did see). Once this coin is sold good luck finding another!

PCGS# 5432 ESTIMATE: $10,000+

25C 1854 ARROWS. PCGS MS67

This is a glorious SUPERB GEM, tied for FINEST graded of this two year type. Exceptionally high quality and wonderfully preserved.

A bold, brilliantuster blooms with a strong, vivid glow. The obverse and reverse are awash in exceptional, totally original toning. Shades of peach-gold, apricot-rose, olive-tan, and teal-blue toning comes to life when the highly lustrous surfaces. The devices are sharply struck up and stand out from the surrounding, pleasing, clean surfaces. The eye appeal is exceptional in every way. What a great type coin!

PCGS 7, NGC 2 NONE ARE FINER. The most recent one to sell in auction was the Gardner coin, which was CAC approved and sold for $45,531 in October 2014. Prior to that the only one sold this decade was the Newman NGC MS67* that brought $38,188 in November 2013. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $42,500. There are none graded finer for any of the other dates in the short lived With Arrows subtype. Worthy of the FINEST of type sets and a SUPERB GEM that will see fierce bidding! Good luck!

LOT 390

25C 1858 NGC PR66+ CAM

This is the FINEST Cameo Proof 1858 quarter graded by either of the services, and it is a vividly toned beauty!

The first thing that catches your eye is the AMAZING multicolored toning that envelopes both sides. Shades of purple, teal, icy-blue, rose, and emerald-green toning surround bold orange/golden centers. Below the toning, the mirrors are vibrant, watery, and highly reflective.

A strong glass reveals numerous tiny lint marks, evidence of the strong polishing the dies received. The devices are razor sharp in definition on both sides, and they are fully frosted, creating a wonderful contrast on both sides.

1858 saw the first year that Proof Sets were available to the public. The mintage has long been debated among numismatists, ranging from a low of 80 to a high of 300. The current population in all grades at PCGS and NGC is 143 coins, suggesting that perhaps the actual number was between 150 and 200. Most of these are in PR63 and PR64, above PR64 this date is a formidable condition rarity.

PCGS 0, NGC 1. No PR66+ in any designation has ever been sold in auction. Only one PR66 CAM (no +) has ever sold in auction, back in the October 2015 sale of the Gardner Collection for $9,988. More recently an NGC (non-CAM) PR67 sold for $21,150 in October 2016. Auction appearances are very few and far between at this grade level, and any time the eye appeal looks like this, it is a nearly UNIQUE opportunity for the advanced collector. We wish you good luck when bidding, we know it will be a fierce battle to bring this beauty home!

PCGS# 85554 | ESTIMATE: $15,000+

25C 1863 PCGS PR64+ CAM CAC

A truly impressive CAMFO Proof of this RARE Civil War date Seated quarter. Highly reflective, watery mirrors beam from all over. Strong clarity and flash make the frosty and sharply formed devices stand out with bold contrast. A dusting of light iridescent toning graces both sides providing a rich, attractive, original look.

Only 460 Proofs were struck. PCGS 24, NGC 12, CAC 8.

Only five are graded PR64+ CAM. The only one to ever sell in auction sold for $2,520 in June 2018. No CAC-approved PR65 CAM has ever sold in auction. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $2,750. Very rare any finer, but the market has truly and unfairly put a serious discount on these. Take advantage of the situation, it may not last forever!

PCGS# 85559 | ESTIMATE: $2,400+

25C 1865 PCGS PR66+ DCAM CAC

What a SPECTACULAR SUPERB GEM! Wow! We really have been unable to put this 1865 quarter down, the eye appeal is hypnotic!

The deep contrast is breathtaking! This is what a DCAM Proof quarter should look like. The mirrors are deep, beaming, fully "back" and icy smooth that have a bold and clean clarity to the reflection. The devices are razor sharp and thickly frosted that have a stunning deep cameo contrast that is totally eye arresting. The barest traces iridescent tone can be seen when rotating in a light, but essentially this coin is a superb black and white coin that looks as fresh today as it did when it came off the dies during this popular Civil War date.

Only 500 Proofs were struck. This one is the second FINEST graded at PCGS. PCGS 3, NGC 0, CAC 2. PCGS has graded just a single PR67 DCAM finer. There are NO records for anything finer than PCGS PR65 DCAM ever selling in auction. NGC-graded PR66 and PR68 UCAMs have sold, none in the last half dozen years, their APRs are useless today. The current PCGS Price Guide is $22,000 and we think that level is low for this stunning coin. Bound for the FINEST of No Motto Seated quarter Proof Collections. Good luck!

25C 1875 PCGS PR65 DCAM CAC

An exceptional DCAM 1875 Proof Quarter. This coin boasts dramatic ultra deep, clear, and flashy mirrored fields that offer a superb contrast against the crisply struck and fully frosted devices. The contrast is bold black and white with only the slightest hint of indolent hues the periphery. The fields show some minor lines visible only with the aid of a powerful loupe and none detract from the absolutely high end visual allure.

Only 700 Proofs were struck. PCGS 3, NGC 1, CAC 2. The other PCGS/CAC coin sold way back in January 2011 for $4,888. There has not been a DCAM in ANY grade sold since 2013, clearly these are very rare and infrequently seen. Collector's Universe lists a $7,000 value and with such a dearth of APRS, we do not know until the hammer falls if that level is high or low. What we do know is that bidding will be fierce.

PCGS# 95576 | ESTIMATE: $4,200+

25C 1876 PCGS PR68

This is one of the FINEST of all Seated Proof Quarters, truly in rarified company with precious few at such a lofty grade designation.

This is a stunning quality SUPERB GEM. Offering bold, deep, watery reflective mirrors that sparkle and shine on both sides. The flash is dramatic in the icy smooth fields. The design elements are sharply struck with all of the most intricate of the details fully and crisply rendered. The reverse shows a die line that crosses the side, this is not a scratch. The surfaces are free of any post mintage signs of handling, only mint artifacts are seen, including some die rust marks on the reverse. The toning is rich, but not thick or dark. An original blend of copper, lavender, salmon-rose, champagne, and aqua-teal hues that come out as you rotate the ultra reflective surfaces in a direct light source. This SUPERB GEM is tied for FINEST GRADED at PCGS, and is a real contender for the highest ranking set of Proof Seated Quarters. Centennial year coins have long had a special cache. While some Mint State coins show signs of special handling, the 1,150 Proofs struck were not coined in any different way from prior years' Proof issues. Indeed, this quarter's reverse die was left over from 1872.

PCGS 2, NGC 2. Neither PCGS coin ever sold in auction. A non-CAC NGC coin sold for $10,281 in October 2015 and a CAC-approved NGC coin sold five months prior for $32,900. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $19,500. With no other 1876 graded so fine in any category, this one is going to see fierce bidding from Registry Set collectors demanding the FINEST graded examples.

25C 1886 PCGS PR66 CAM CAC

This is a super flashy fully cameo GEM Proof. The quality is all there and then some! Super deep mirrors beam from all over. The mirrors have great clarity, cleanliness, and are intensely reflective. Even using a really strong glass you can not find any imperfections. Miss Liberty and the details are fully struck and have GEMMY snowy white thick frost all over. Only a faint trace of gold can be seen by the rims. The eye appeal is mind boggling! Only 886 pieces were minted.

PCGS 9, NGC 14, CAC 4. It is a crime as to how badly this series has been overlooked. We think a coin like this is simply "too cheap"! The current Collector's Universe Value is $2,750-but they can be bought for a tad less. You won't be unhappy at all with this great piece!

PCGS# 85587 | ESTIMATE: $1,800+

25C 1897-O PCGS MS66+ CAC

One of the ABSOLUTE FINEST graded and KNOWN to exist. Just two coins are graded finer, and this one has an AMAZING, totally original old collectible look!

An iridescent layer of pleasing, old time collectible patina is really brought out vividly with a bold, satiny underlying luster. Emerald, rose, and gold tones blend with aqua and lilac, the subtleties of the shades brought out in a light. Well struck with nearly full, crisp definition on both sides. Even using a strong glass, you will have a very difficult time trying to locate even the slightest flaw. The eye appeal is wonderful!

PCGS 12, NGC 5, CAC 6. There are 2 coins graded MS66+ at PCGS, none at NGC and only three coins are graded finer. The only one to sell in an auction was this coin, in our May 2018 Regency Auction, as part of the Premier Barber Quarter Collection. Our consignor has recently acquired a finer example, so he has consigned this one back to our sale. An example sold in the 2018 ANA Auction for $13,200 and the current PCGS price is $14,500. We can see this coin selling for a strong bid, as it is among the FINEST of this popular date. Good luck!

Be warned, you WILL need a pair of Ray Bans to view this MONSTER with. The coin is also SUPER HIGH END!

If this had been in a PR66 DCAM holder we would not have flinched. PCGS really showed NO mercy on this coin. The mirrors are deeper than most other DCAM coins and intensely beam from all over. They are crystal clear and super clean. Only using a really strong glass can you find a few stray lines. The contrast is way off the charts! Miss Liberty and every detail are fully struck and are thickly frosted and iridescent white. It looks like the features were carved from a frozen block of ice. The eye appeal is insane!

PCGS 4, NGC 1, CAC 3. PCGS has graded only this coin in PR65+ DCAM, and it sold via our November 2018 Regency Auction for $4,935, well exceeding our estimate. Another interesting note: NO PR66 DCAM has ever been sold via auction. The current Collector's Universe Value is only $3,300. We know the market will set the price for this MONSTER. The intense Black and White look matches what you see on PR68's! Seeing is believing. Good luck!

25C 1898 PCGS PR69 DCAM

HOLY COW! Even calling this coin PERFECT and flawless does not even begin to describe the technical and aesthetic qualities of this immaculate beauty. This coin really is a marvel of survival-everything from the mirrors, to the reliefs, to the toning is simply AMAZING!

Exceptionally deep, beaming mirrors are blinding at every angle. They are of course clean and flawless; and they are the epitome of clarity. The devices are fully frosted, and they do stand out in full 3D effect from the icy mirrors; they look like they were carved out of a single piece of ice.

Both sides are beautifully toned with rich cobalt-azure and amber-rose colors that extend from brilliant silver centers. Needless to say this amazing GEM looks more like a 1998 Proof quarter than an 1898. This is an amazing beauty worthy of the FINEST COLLECTION of Barber quarter Proofs.

Only 735 Proof were minted, PCGS 1, NGC 8. For the type, just one other PCGS PR69 DCAM has ever been graded and neither has ever sold in auction. This is an order blue tag holder, so it is not one of the NGC coins that sold in recent years crossed over. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $75,000 and we expect that bidding will exceed that level when the hammer falls. Good luck!

Only 846 Proofs were struck. PCGS 9, NGC 4, CAC 4. Listed in the PCGS price guide at $1,900. With only 4 CAC approved coins, it is not surprising that there are no recent auction records. A premium coin for the type collector or builder of a top set.

This coin was love at first, second, and EVERY sight! The quality is VERY high end and is borderline Deep Cameo too.

Superior deep mirrors beam boldly from all over. The mirrors are super clean and have remarkable clarity. There is not a hint of haze, anywhere, and of course there is a huge reflection. If you twirl the coin, the mirrors are like a freshly made sheet of glass. The contrast on this coin is bold. Miss Liberty and every detail are fully struck and stand out with thick frost. The eye appeal is breathtaking!

ONLY 846 minted. PCGS 6, NGC 8, CAC 8 (obviously there was a resubmit). PCGS has graded only 2 coins in PR67+ CAMEO. NO PR67+ CAMEO has ever been sold via auction. If you think about it, having only 4 graded over 30+ years is nothing (Legend has placed 2 of the 4 so far). We see no reason why this date and grade, especially with this coin looking so neat, would be worth any less than $7,500 today. Only time will change that. There certainly is NO supply of GEM black and white Proof Barbers available today! This coin will be a fabulous addition to any GEM set.

A true GEM with wholly untuned reflective fields that contrast nicely with the frosted central devices. Surfaces are pristine although some light polishing can be seen with magnification. The mirrors radiate brightly when rotated under a light. For the collector of totally white coins, the eye appeal is terrific!

PCGS 17, NGC 10, CAC 8. The last auction price realized for a CAC-approved PR66 CAM was $2,585 in January 2015. More recently a non-CAC brought $4,320 in November 2017. is an exceptionally pretty SUPERB CEM.

Ultra watery mirrors gleam with a bold reflection from below a lovely and totally green, and golden hues all blend over the extremely smooth mirrored fields.

Sharply struck devices are frosty. The eye appeal is superb.

PCGS 8, NGC 5. NONE are finer in the designation. These have generally been selling in the $8,000-$10,000 range going back to 2012. The current PCGS value is $11,000. Destined for a very high end set!

The 1914 Proof quarter is a tremendously undervalued, exceedingly rare, high quality coin. Superior mirrors are deep, with awesome clarity, cleanliness and bold reflectivity. Miss Liberty and the details are needle sharp and stand out with thick, creamy white frost. The eye appeal is truly jaw dropping!

Only 380 Proofs were struck - the lowest mintage of the series. PCGS 11,

NGC 11, CAC 14. There are 6 reported in PR66+ CAM, which we believe is an inflated number. The more recent example sold in our March 2019 Regency Auction for $7,638. Keep in mind there are just six finer, so it is highly likely that the number in 66+ is inflated hoping for a higher grade. The values are all messed up in the Price Guide, PCGS estimates the value in 66+ CAM at $4,750, even though all the records going back to 2012 are well in excess of that amount. This coin is so high end and attractive it will sell for a strong bid. Good luck!

LOT 405
25C 1919-S PCGS AU58

A classic looking AU58. A glossy luster blooms on both sides. Well struck with peripheral gold toning. The surfaces show some minor lines and friction, typical for the date and grade. The eye appeal is decent.

PCGS 98, NGC 33. The last one to sell brought $900 in the 2018 ANA auction and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $1,650. Scarce in lower Mint State, this lower mintage issue saw most examples go directly into circulation.

PCGS# 5732 | ESTIMATE: $1,000+

25C 1923-S PCGS AU58

Another slider grade better date Standing Liberty quarter. The 1923-S saw a lower mintage, and they usually do not come in high grade. AU58s are often the best most collectors can afford. This one is pleasing, matching nicely to the other AU58 better date examples offered in this auction. No serious marks can be seen and the wear is limited to just a trace of high point friction. The eye appeal is nice.

PCGS 108, NGC 59. The most recent example to sell brought $1,998 in October 2016 and prior to that, one sold for $2,233 in July 2016. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $2,450. Scarce in Mint State, this is a great coin for an "everyman" set of Standing Liberty quarters.

PCGS# 5744 | ESTIMATE: $1,800+

25C 1927-D PCGS MS66+ FH CAC

A very high end and beautifully preserved SUPERB GEM that is tied for second FINEST graded by PCGS and is the highest graded endorsed by CAC. The 27-D is a well known condition rarity in the series, especially with fully defined head details.

Shimmering, satiny luster glows in the fields and recesses of the design.

The luster brings out the subtle touches of color that grace both sides, the reverse offering a very delicate pastel iridescent toning. The devices are wonderfully and deeply embossed by a forceful impression from the dies, indeed, only a couple of the brads on the shield are not fully rendered. A strong glass fails to reveal any significant marks or lines.

The eye appeal of this SUPERB GEM is amazing!

PCGS 21, NGC 10, CAC 8. PCGS has graded just 3 in MS66+ FH, and just a single coin finer. This Registry Set contender is one of the ABSOLUTE FINEST. Only one other PCGS MS66+ FH CAC has sold in auction, realizing $31,200 in April 2018. This is NOT that coin. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $25,000, and we think it will be adjusted upward when the hammer finally falls and this coin is added to a world class collection of Standing Liberty quarters. The single MS67 FH is NOT CAC, and has never sold in auction. This eye appealing SUPERB GEM will delight any advanced collector.

PCGS# 5763 | ESTIMATE: $22,000+

25C 1927-S PCGS AU58

Delicately toned on both sides with a pleasing originality. Well struck throughout, except for the head which is always weakly struck-examples with full head definition are VERY RARE, indeed this is the rarest date to feature that detail. Lustrous surfaces accent the soft iridescent tone. The eye appeal is nice and this is a great coin for an "Everyman" Registry Set.

PCGS 50, NGC 25. We sold a CAC-approved example for $4,180 in July 2018 and prior to that, a non CAC coin sold in June 2018 for $6,600. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $4,500 and this date is RARE in Mint State. This choice AU represents a good value

PCGS# 5764 | ESTIMATE: $3,000+

25C 1930-S PCGS MS67FH CAC
 FROM THE CORONEI
 COLLECTION II.

A stunningly beautiful example of this final Standing Liberty quarter! Fully lustrous surfaces gleam with a striking brilliance on both sides. Sharply struck and virtually pristine, the surfaces are of amazing quality, and the eye appeal is extremely high end. The surfaces are kissed with the most subtle of iridescent patina that give the eye appeal just a little something extra! An essentially PERFECT example.

PCGS 29, NGC 30, CAC 26. We sold two of the most recent examples in September 2018, one for $6,169 and the other for $6,325. This coin will bring a premium bid for its great eye appeal. Good luck!

PCGS# 5781 | ESTIMATE: $5,500+

25C 1932-S PCGS MS64 CAC

A pleasing very CHOICE example of this KEY issue. Only 408,000 were struck, and these are RARE any finer. Satiny luster blooms on both sides in smooth fields accenting the original golden iridescent hues. Pleasing eye appeal, and quality for the grade.

PCGS 1220, NGC 562, CAC 185. The most recent sold in March 2019 for $660 and prior to that, the last PCGS/CAC sold in $990 in the 2018 ANA auction. The current PCGS value is listed at $900. A great coin for the budget minded collector.

PCGS# 5792 | ESTIMATE: $650+

25C 1952 PCGS MS67+ CAC

Tied for FINEST! Not only is this SUPERB GEM all there and then some when it comes to the technical grade, the aesthetic quality is magnificent! Beautiful magerne-rose and peach gold toning grace the obverse and the reverse is brilliant untuned silver. The eye appeal is excellent.

PCGS 123, NGC 166, CAC 52. The last two examples sold in June 2017 and February 2018 realizing $1,645 and $1,560 respectively. PCGS lists a value of $2,150 and this beauty is worthy of the finest of sets.

PCGS# 5849 ESTIMATE: $1,350+

25C 1964-D PCGS MS68 CAC

Washington quarter Registry Set collectors have a UNIQUE opportunity here! Presented is the SOLE FINEST PCGS GRADED 1964-D quarter, and it is a marvelously toned SUPERB GEM! Everything about this coin screams out to the viewer, its exceptional visual allure captivates the eye. Classic mint set hues blend on both PRISTINE sides, its variegated colors amplified by a bold, radiating mint luster. Sunset orange, rich violet, emerald, olive green, and rose patina come to life while rotated in a light. Even with a strong glass, this coin looks essentially PERFECT with no marks or lines detected anywhere.

PCGS 1, NGC 1, CAC 1. PCGS has not listed a value for the date in MS68, but for the type. Collector's Universe lists a generic value of $5,250 in MS68. As the sole finest example for the date, we know that anyone working on the #1 PCGS Registry Set of Washington Quarters needs this coin! With the recent results of Pop Top and finest known coins off the charts, we know this coin will shatter records. The record holder for the date was for an MS67 sold in March 2010 for $6,900. Bound to see fierce bidding.

PCGS# 5877 ESTIMATE: $17,000+

LOT 413

25C 1978 PCGS MS67+

This is the SINGLE FINEST graded 1978 quarter graded. While the mintage of over 500 million is sizable, very few were saved at the time of mintage and the date is still often seen in commercial channels. This lustrous and well-struck Superb GEM is exceptional with lovely iridescent toning and exceptionally clean surfaces. The eye appeal is amazing for a clad Washington quarter.

PCGS 1, NGC 0. There are no comps and Collector's Universe does not list a price in this grade. The 1977 (also pop 1) is listed at $2,500 (also no APRs). While this is considered a modern issue, in this lofty grade it is UNIQUE and important for the Registry Set collector.

PCGS# 5904 | ESTIMATE: $1,700+

25C 1940 PCGS PR67+ CAC

Totally original and very high quality. The surfaces are free of any distracting marks. Highly reflective, watery mirrored fields and glossy reflective devices are both dusted with an iridescent gold, white, and pale sky blue hue. Pleasing eye appeal.

PCGS 285, NGC 212, CAC 104. PCGS has graded 73 in 67+. The last one sold in November 2018 for $864 and one sold before that in the 2018 ANA auction for $1,080. The current PCGS value is listed at $1,100. PCGS has graded just seven finer, and the price jumps dramatically for a 68. A great coin for a short set of early Proof Washington quarters, 1936-1942.

PCGS# 5979 | ESTIMATE: $800+

LOT 415

50C 1807 LARGE STARS. PCGS AU58 CAC

O-114 Brilliant and frosty surfaces on both sides show a vibrant luster that glows from all over. The lightest of friction keeps this coin out of a Mint State holder. The central devices are sharply struck from clashed dies. A glass fails to reveal anything but the lightest friction lines. The eye appeal is excellent.

PCGS 5, NGC 24 (all varieties), CAC 3. The only AU58 sold in the 2014 FUN auction, it was NOT CAC, where it realized just shy of $10,000. A

PCGS AU55 GOLD CAC sold in the 2016 ANA auction as part of the Hamilton Collection. A non-CAC MS62 sold in the 2019 FUN auction for $19,200. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $13,000 and the eye appeal of this impressive coin is worthy of a great collector grade set of Bust halves. We know this coin will see strong bidding for sure.

PCGS# 6088 | ESTIMATE: $12,500+

OUR ESTIMATES

The estimates you see published in this catalog are based on HAMMER. Keep in mind that a coin could be either low or high end for the grade, have stunning color or be dull, all of which radically affect a coin's value. Yes, there can be huge price differences within a grade, and we offer estimates as a guide so Collector's can have a better idea of value. One thing we will never do is offer low ball estimates in order to claim stronger sales.

These published estimates represent what Legend Rare Coin Auctions determines to be an approximate high wholesale value for the coin. The numbers are based upon current market values, similar trades, auction prices, published prices, and a consideration of the coin's quality. There is no guarantee that the estimated prices are minimums or are exactly what you can expect to get if you attempt to resell them wholesale.

We always advise you to view the coins you are interested in and calculate what you'll pay using as much information as possible. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask us. We are here to help you!

LOT 416

50C 1825 PCGS MS65+

Solidly ranking toward the TOP of the Condition Census for this Rarity-3 variety, and is perhaps the FINEST KNOWN O-15. Wonderful GEM quality surfaces show off a vibrant, radiating, cartwheel luster that serves as a bold back light for the iridescent toning. Blue-green, rose-gold, and lilac dove hues come to life as the lustrous surfaces are viewed under a light. The strike is bold, with nicely defined details on both sides. The surfaces are generally pleasing with just one or two tiny ticks and the eye appeal is wonderful.

PCGS 4, NGC 1. The only two PCGS MS65+s that have ever sold were both CAC and sold for $17,625 and $18,800. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $22,500. Worth of a strong bid and placement in the finest of Overton variety sets.

PCGS# 6142 | ESTIMATE: $11,000+

50C 1827 SQU ARE 2. PCGS MS64 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE.

This is a beautifully toned, Condition Census level O-135. Stunning, lustrous surfaces give off vibrant eye appealing teal, cobalt, amber, and rose toning. Sharply struck, from an early die state, the details are still mostly sharp and the letters and stars are not yet drawn to the edges. The eye appeal is amazing.

PCGS 104, NGC 59, CAC 27. The most recent PCGS/CAC coin sold in our sale of the Konstantine Collection, September 2018, that realized $3,643. Prior to that, one sold for $4,700 in April 2017. The current PCGS Price Guide is $6,000. This beauty is worthy of a strong bid.

PCGS# 6144 | ESTIMATE: $3,500+

50C 1834 SMALL DATE, SMALL LETTERS. PCGS MS64 CAC

This is an exceptionally lovely mid-condition census level O-11. Rich pewter and slate tones come to life when the light captures the vivid underlying luster. The devices are well struck and boldly rendered, giving this near-gem a great look.

PCGS 75, NGC 11, CAC 20. The most recent PCGS/CAC sold for $2,950 in a February 2019 internet only auction. Prior to that, the two most recent sold for $3,600. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,500. This is a great type coin for any collection.

PCGS# 6166 | ESTIMATE: $2,800+

50C 1837 REEDED EDGE. PCGS MS63 CAC
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE.

This is such a neat coin! We love the look. While it is “only” a 63, the eye appeal is great. Totally original toning is quite beautiful. There is mostly a rich gold throughout the surfaces with traces of blue and green in the peripheries. Well struck details are brought out by exceptionally lustrous surfaces. Wow again!

PCGS 121, NGC 102, CAC 19. We sold one in our April 2017 Premier Session for $2,310 and another sold in the 2017 ANA auction for $2,400. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $2,750. We can see this one bringing a strong bid from the type or date collector.

PCGS# 6176 | ESTIMATE: $1,800+

LOT 420
50C 1838 REEDED EDGE. PCGS MS64
FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE.

Classic old collection type toning graces both sides of this near-GEM 1838 half dollar. A glowing satiny luster accents the variegated, dappled iridescent toning. Pewter-lilac, steel blue, and tan-olive accents, likely imparted by long term storage in an old envelope grace both sides. Well struck throughout, the reverse die was shattered with multiple large die cracks spanning that side, and the obverse shows some light clashing. Mint made roller marks can be seen but do not detract. There are just a few minor ticks that we see under a strong glass. Housed in an older blue tag holder, this coin is fresh to the market from this estate collection.

PCGS 61, NGC 67. In the last four years there has been a wide range of APRs, from $3,480 to $7,050. The current PCGS Price Guide suggests a value of $8,250. RARE any finer, this is an important type coin and worthy of a cool type set. Good luck.

PCGS# 6177 | ESTIMATE: $3,500+

50C 1877-S PCGS MS66+
CAC

With an original mintage of over 5.3 million, the 1877 S half dollar is common in all grades through MS64, making this date a great one for type purposes. In GEM this date becomes scarce, and in 66+ as here, it is tied for second FINEST graded.

The present GEM is beautifully toned and the surfaces are very clean with just the most microscopic traces of contact. The satiny lustrous surfaces have a touch of semi-reflective flash, especially around the reverse devices. Golden-tan toning blends with pale lilac pewter silver hues. The sharply struck devices are fully frosted and have full and complete definition throughout. The eye appeal is stunning.

PCGS 35, CAC 16, CAC 8. There are just three graded MS66+ and there is a single MS67 graded finer at PCGS. No MS66+ has ever sold in auction, but a PCGS MS66 CAC sold for $5,040 in February 2018 and a PCGS MS67 CAC sold for $18,800. In 66+, the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $8,500, and it is entirely possible that this PQ SUPERB GEM brings a price in excess of that amount! A great type coin or example of the 77-S for a GEM date set. Either way, this is truly a special example of the date.

PCGS# 6357 | ESTIMATE: $6,000+

LOT 422

50C 1879 PCGS MS67

After the passage of the Bland-Allison Act, which passed Congress in 1878 and authorized the striking of millions of Morgan dollars, the mintages for minor silver coins, especially quarters and half dollars dropped dramatically. Most dates in this era have mintages below 10,000; in 1879 only 4,800 were struck for circulation.

This SUPERB GEM is one of the finest graded. PCGS has graded just four coins higher. Exceptionally vivid lustrous surfaces have a watery-like, semi-reflective texture to the fields. The devices are sharply rendered by a bold impression from the dies, leaving the reliefs with a wonderful frost. Both sides show off a delightful teal-olive overtone on the obverse and cobalt-teal that surrounds a vibrant orange-rose-gold patina on the central reverse. The obverse shows traces of an ancient fingerprint, attesting to the originality, but may be why CAC chose not to bear this otherwise amazing looking SUPERB GEM.

PCGS 16, NGC 8. There has not been a non-CAC example sold in auction since July 2015, realizing $9,988. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $12,000. Keep in mind that any of the four coins graded finer will cost double. This wonderful 1879 half dollar will make a great addition to any date or type set.

PCGS# 6361 ESTIMATE: $9,000+

LOT 423

50C 1870 PCGS PR67

This is a beautifully toned, SUPERB GEM Proof example that is tied for FINEST numerically graded for the date.

Flashy mirrored fields beam with icy smoothness. They really are the epitome of cleanliness. Well struck with just some softness on the highest points of the obverse, but otherwise the devices are sharply rendered and frosted. Both sides have a lovely patina with blues, golds, and roses that are brought out by the highly reflective mirrors. The eye appeal is exceptional, and we have studied the essentially flawless surfaces, and cannot understand why CAC did not bear this superb GEM.

PCGS 2, NGC 3. The only PCGS coin to sell in auction brought $9,600 in September 2017. More recently the Jenks-Kaufman-Gardner NGC/CAC coin sold for $18,600 in March 2019. The current Collector's Universe value is $12,000. What a great looking Proof and the finest graded of only 1,000 struck! Great for the type or the date, and will see strong bidding when it crosses the block.

PCGS# 6428 ESTIMATE: $9,000+

50C 1873 ARROWS PCGS PR66 DCAM CAC

Not only is the FINEST Deep Cameo 1873 With Arrows, it is the ONLY Deep Cameo graded! This coin is more than worthy of its grade and then some!

Ultra deep mirrors blaze from all over. They are as deep as deep can be. The mirrors are crystal clear and super clean. The reflection is so powerful the astronauts on the Space Station can see it when it hits the sun. The contrast is crazy intense. When you twirl this coin all you see is blinding flash. There is no toning or any hint of haze. Miss Liberty is heavily frosted and looks like she was carved from a fresh and frosty block of ice. Every detail is fully struck. The eye appeal is so powerful your jaw will not just drop, it will lock!

ONLY 550 were minted. PCGS 1, NGC 0, CAC 1. This coin has never been sold at auction. How Collectors Universe can come up with any number on it (they show $42,500) is crazy. This coin's correct value will be established here at auction. This is NOT the NGC PR67 UCAM that sold for $47,000 back in 2013. Being what it is, we predict a runaway price. This is it for DCam 1873's!

PCGS# 96434 | ESTIMATE: $45,000+

50C 1884 PCGS PR66 CAM

An exceptional GEM Cameo Proof Seated half dollar that has an exceptional black and white contrast between the mirrored fields and frosted devices. In fact, at first glance you might mistake it for a DCAM.

Bold, beautiful flashy reflective mirrors are smooth and icy, with just a few minor ancient lines in the fields. The devices are sharply struck with just stunning white frost. The folds in Liberty's gown show just a few breaks in the frost and reflective texture, rather than more frost. A few ancient, light lines can be seen with a strong glass, but the eye appeal is unaffected. We are not sure why CAC did not endorse this beauty.

Only 875 Proofs were struck. PCGS 15, NGC 4. The last one sold three years ago, realizing $3,055 and prior to that, these have sold in 2015 between $3,525 and $4,465. The market has really beaten this series down unfairly. The current PCGS value is listed at $5,250. Only four are graded finer, making this a superb coin for any collector. Good luck!

PCGS# 86445 | ESTIMATE: $3,000+

50C 1892 PCGS MS67

A wonderful SUPERB GEM example of the first year of the Barber series.

Offering a sharp strike on both sides, the devices are crisp with barely any weakness visible anywhere. The surfaces are generally clean and free of any distracting marks, lines, ticks or anything, even using a strong glass they appear to be free of any issues. An exceptionally bold luster enlivens the iridescent toning in shades of teal, aqua, and amber rose hues that complement the stunning surfaces wonderfully. Needless to say, this impressive

SUPERB GEM is among the FINEST KNOWN and is certainly one of the most beautiful we have had the pleasure of handling.

PCGS 10, NGC 6. The most recent non-CAC example brought only $6,600 in November 2017, prior to that, one sold for $7,638. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $10,500. Just five coins are graded finer, 3 in 67+ and 2 in 68. What a great coin that will fit in any type or specialized set of Barber halves. We can see strong bidding to take it home.

PCGS# 6461 | ESTIMATE: $7,000+

50C 1904 PCGS MS65

Ex Friend Collection.

A highly attractive GEM with a great pedigree, Dale Friend. Dale hand selected this coin for his set for its highly lustrous surfaces and sharply struck devices. There are only a few tiny lines and traces of contact, nothing that harms the visual allure of this GEM. While nearly 3,000,000 examples were struck, it is surprisingly rare in GEM grades. The eye appeal is very nice.

PCGS 16, NGC 6. This coin has been off the market since January 2009, where it sold for $4,313 in the FUN sale. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,750 and with only nine coins graded finer, this one will delight the collector. While Barbers have come down in value, a coin like this will attract considerable bidding competition when it crosses the block.

PCGS# 6498 | ESTIMATE: $2,500+

50C 1906-O PCGS MS65 CAC

Both sides of this GEM are very lustrous and satiny with a bold visual allure. The surfaces glow all over, especially in the protected areas of the design, along the outlines of the well struck devices. A hint of iridescent golden toning is amplified by the exceptional luster. A strong glass reveals a few minor lines, which are totally acceptable for the assigned grade and they do not affect the high end visual allure.

The 1906-O is underrated in GEM Mint State grades. There are a number of Superb coins known, but they are indeed VERY RARE.

PCGS 6, NGC 6, CAC 3. The last one to sell was in the 2014 ANA auction, realizing $4,700. Prior to that, one sold in February 2014 for $5,581. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $6,000 and these are RARE any finer with just 12 so graded. This is a very pleasing coin that is deserving of placement in a GEM set, and we know bidding will be strong for this one.

PCGS# 6506 | ESTIMATE: $4,000+

50C 1907-D PCGS MS65

Summery, brilliant satiny luster blooms on both sides of this pearly GEM. Well struck devices have a lovely frost and there is a delicate dusting of clear gold on the reverse. A few tiny ticks are noted with the aid of a strong glass, none of which are distracting to the unaided eye. Housed in an old green tag PCGS holder.

PCGS 23, NGC 17. RARE finer. The most recent example sold in February 2018 for $1,740 and prior to that, examples have sold in the $1,500-$2,200 range. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $2,150. Bound for a strong type or date set.

PCGS# 6509 | ESTIMATE: $1,500+

50C 1906-S PCGS MS66 CAC

A beautiful example. Rich, pearly, frosty, satin luster shines on both sides of this impressive GEM.

Exceptionally vibrant and high end, every detail is crisply struck up and fully formed. The eye appeal is great and this one does rank high among the grading population.

PCGS 3, NGC 3, CAC 3. The most recent example sold in our July 2018 Regency Auction realizing $5,288 and prior to that, one sold for $6,490. This one sold for $7,475 in August 2011. The current PCGS value is listed at $5,500 and anything finer is very rare and expensive. A great coin worthy of a premium bid.

PCGS# 6507 | ESTIMATE: $4,500+

50C 1907-D PCGS MS65

This is a satiny, pearlescent GEM with traces of delicate golden iridescent tone. Flashy luster blooms in the light and glows in the fields. Sharply struck devices stand out with nice frosty texture. There are no marks visible to the naked eye. The eye appeal is nice, and we do not see why this GEM would not fit in to any type or date set.

PCGS 23, NGC 17. The most recent sold in auction for $1,740 in February 2018. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $2,150. RARE any finer, just .6 are graded higher at PCGS, with the finest graded MS67+. Worthy of a strong bid, we are not sure why this coin didn't CAC, it certainly has good eye appeal.

PCGS# 6509 | ESTIMATE: $1,500+

50C 1909 PCGS MS66+ CAC

Ex Duckor/Akers as noted on the PCGS insert.

This Premium Quality GEM has one of the best pedigrees for the Barber half dollar series, David Akers and Steven L. Duckor. This beautiful GEM is also tied for FINEST graded. This GEM is very well struck for the date with full, sharp, crisp definition on both sides. The luster is very satiny with bold frost and nice cartwheels that roll on both sides. The pearly-silver surfaces show the slightest trace of champagne gold tone. We can see only a few tiny ticks noted under the aid of a strong glass. The eye appeal is extremely bold for the date and grade.

PCGS 17, NGC 5, CAC 9. There are five in MS66+ and none finer. When this coin first sold in the 2010 ANA auction, it sold for $9,775. WOW did the market spank this series! This coin sold for only $4,100 in a March 2016 Internet Auction. In the three years since, all the big collections of Barber halves have been absorbed into collections, this coin will again bring a strong price. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $4,750 and with NONE finer this one is bound for a high end collection.

PCGS# 6516 | ESTIMATE: $4,000+

50C 1913-D PCGS MS65 CAC

A low-mintage date with only 534,000 struck and this is a wonderful, high quality GEM. Brilliant, satiny luster glows in the smooth fields and on the frosty devices. Sharply struck on both sides, with fully defined details on the obverse and reverse. Totally original surfaces add to the strong visual allure of this GEM.

PCGS 16, NGC 14, CAC 7. The last one to sell realized only $2,880 in June 2018, prior to that, one sold in April 2016 for $3,408. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,850. RARE any finer with just eight coins graded between MS65+ and 67. A great coin for the collector who wants a great looking, original GEM. We anticipate a strong bid here.

PCGS# 6528 | ESTIMATE: $2,500+

50C 1911 PCGS MS66 CAC

This is a highly desirable PQ GEM with a great original look. Highly lustrous, satiny surfaces glow with a bold mint brilliance in the fields, giving life to the iridescent golden patina that graces the obverse and reverse. Both sides show crisply struck devices that are fully defined. The eye appeal is very nice.

PCGS 15, NGC 7, CAC 4. Only three CAC approved coins have ever sold in auction- this coin sold for $5,750 in August 2011, but the most recent sold in the 2015 ANA auction for $4,702, the most recent PCGS-graded coin to sell in auction was the Forman 1 Collection coin we sold in January 2019 for $6,169 (not CAC). Only one coin is graded finer at MS66+. Bound for a superb Registry Set of Barber halves. Good luck!

LOT 435
50C 1915-S PCGS MS65 CAC

Lovely! This is a very visually pleasing example of this final Barber half dollar date. Glowing luster blooms on both sides with a brilliant mint vibrance. The palest of golden tone graces the obverse and reverse that comes out when rotated in the light. The surfaces are clean and free of any serious marks, and the eye appeal is exceptionally high end for the assigned grade.

PCGS 52, NGC 43, CAC 9. The most recent PCGS/CAC coin to sell in auction brought a very strong $4,800 in November 2017. Prior to that, one sold in July 2016 for $1,763. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $1,850 and this coin will bring in excess of that amount. This high end example will bring serious bidders for sure!

PCGS# 6534 | ESTIMATE: $1,500+

LOT 436

50C 1908 PCGS PR64

A kaleidoscope of color including red, gold, olive, violet, blue and indigo soothes the eye of the viewer. Some faint lines consistent with the grade can be seen with a strong glass. Given the rainbow of color and smooth proof surfaces, the eye appeal is brilliant. A notable CHOICE Brilliant Proof from one of the lowest mintage with just 545 pieces struck.

PCGS 33, NGC 36. Listed in the price guide at $1,350. This date and grade have not appeared at auction in the last 2 years so take advantage of the opportunity to acquire this pleasing type coin, it may be awhile before one like this hits the block again.

PCGS# 6555 | ESTIMATE: $1,200+

50C 1916 PCGS MS66 CAC

FROM THE ISSAQUAH ESTATE

A lovely example of this first year of issue Walking Liberty Half Dollar with super frosty and satiny mint luster radiating from the surfaces of this gem. A delicate golden patina blankets both the obverse and reverse and is suffused with deeper gold and blue toning towards the rims. A premium coin that is a tiny tie or two from superb gem designation but has all the eye appeal to delight even the most discerning Walker collector.

PCGS 106, NGC 60, CAC 34. PCGS Price Guide value is $5,000. We sold a PCGS CAC coin in our Regency 28 auction where it realized $5,288, and the present coin certainly matches the quality of that one. This coin will be a great addition to a top Walker or type set.

PCGS# 6566 | ESTIMATE: $4,000+

50C 1916-D PCGS MS66 CAC

This coin no question belongs in the finest set! The quality is VERY high end!

Remarkable SUPERB surfaces are virtually flawless. They also are super satiny smooth in texture. We think this coin has just sat somewhere and toned with no human hands ever touching it. There are no spots or discoloration and most important, Miss Liberty and the details are frosty and have crisp sharp strokes. You can clearly see the split thumb without a glass. The eye appeal is wonderful!

PCGS 76, NGC 36, CAC 26. The last one to sell in auction brought $4,080 in the 2018 ANA auction. The current Collectors' Universe Value is $5,000. We expect strong bidding from Walker enthusiasts here!

50C 1916-S PCGS AU58 CAC

This coin looks Mint State! Fully lustrous with smooth, problem free surfaces. Nicely struck and well detailed, this coin would have no doubt been called BU in the days before PCGS and NGC grading. PQ and very eye appealing.

PCGS 172, NGC 73, CAC 20. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $1,600 and the most recent sold for $1,821 in the 2015 ANA auction. This super-slider AU is high end and worthy of a high end "everyman" set.

This is a wonderfully ORIGINAL, GEM quality example, the first of the San Francisco Walking Liberty half dollars. A brilliant, satin mint luster glows with a bold vibrancy on both sides. There is a light, dappled toning of gold and slate on the obverse, while the reverse is lightly enrobed in an iridescent gold and olive patina. The devices are all crisply struck and stand out in bold relief against the smooth, PQ surfaces. The eye appeal is very original and very pleasing.

PCGS 127, NGC 63, CAC 29. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $6,250 and the most recent PCGS/CAC example to sell in auction realized $7,500 in February 2019. Prior to that, the APRs are all over the place with examples selling between $5,760 and $19,975. VERY RARE any finer with fewer than 20 graded higher at PCGS. A wonderful GEM for any high end set!

A beautiful, original GEM example housed in an old green tag holder. The surfaces are lustrous and devoid of any serious contact. The devices are sharply struck and frosty. The eye appeal is spectacular, and we have seen higher grade coins that do not look this beautiful.

PCGS 112, NGC 40, CAC 29. The most recent PCGS/CAC example to sell realized $5,288 in our September 2018 Regency Auction and one before that sold for $4,200 in the 2018 FUN auction. This exceptional GEM is worthy of placement in a great collection. Good luck!

LOT 442
50C 1918 PCGS MS65

This date is often struck weakly and is surprisingly elusive in high grade with only 18 examples graded MS66 and none higher. A well-detailed and thoroughly pleasing gem with bright white surfaces and blazing mint frost. The eye appeal is quite pleasing.

PCGS 121, NGC 112. PCGS Price Guide value is $4,250. When available, MS66's trade in the $20,000 range. The unobtrusive light contact marks that account for the grade of this coin make it an excellent value. Opportunity is knocking loudly on this one.

PCGS# 6574 | ESTIMATE: $3,200+

50C 1919 PCGS AU58 CAC

Only a trace of friction appears on the highest points of the design. Fewer than a million half dollars fell from the dies in Philadelphia in 1919 and the vast majority of these went directly into commerce. High end AU and Mint State coins are RARE, and have been classic KEY issues in this perennially popular series. Bathed in a lovely, original iridescent tone with nicely struck devices imparting great eye appeal.

PCGS 64, NGC 38, CAC 11. The last one sold in the 2016 FUN Auction for $1,998, and prior to that, one brought $2,070 in June 2011. More recently, a non-CAC coin sold for $3,120 in an October 2018 auction. This coin will see active bidding from the "everyman" Registry Set collector. Good luck!

LOT 444

50C 1919-D PCGS AU58 CAC

Oh so close to Mint State! Even pewter-silver toning with hints of olive, gold, and tan in the devices is enlivened by a soft satin luster. Very well struck most of the details in Liberty's hand and gown are defined. We note a tiny mark here and there, but none distracting and blend in nicely. This is one of the KEY condition rarities of the long Walking Liberty series that is always in demand in high grade. Even in GEM AU, as here, these examples create quite the stir when they appear.

PCGS 74, NGC 49, CAC 24. This highly original coin sold for $4,583 in our December 2016 Regency Auction. More recently one sold for $3,960 in our December 2017 Premier Session, but this coin is more original and not showing signs of dipping. The current Collectors Universe value is $4,850. This early date Walker is RARE in Mint State, making this high end AU58 a very attractive example for the collector.

Frosty mint luster beams from attractively toned smooth surfaces. The coin is essentially mint state with only the faintest of friction on the very highest points of the design. If originality is your objective, this coin will more than satisfy.

PCGS 91, NGC 49, CAC 17. PCGS Price Guide value is $1,600, and the most recent PCGS/CAC example sold for $1,560 in the 2019 FUN auction. The date is most often encountered in the lower circulated grades and is scarce in AU or better. A pleasing coin for the Walker collector.

A stunning GEM! The bright and brilliant mint luster is blinding. Satiny fields are vibrant and the sharply struck devices are nicely frosted and stand out. This 27-S is very high end with just a couple of tiny ticks that are scattered about, none that are visible to the unaided eye. About as lustrous and brilliant white silver as the day it was minted, this coin has a SUPERB look and is housed in an old green label holder.

PCGS 77, NGC 37, CAC 27. The current Collector's Universe value is $9,500 and the two most recent PCGS/CAC coins sold for $7,800 and $8,400; however, LRCA has had the pleasure of selling one in our September 2018 Regency Auction for $8,519, as well as one in our May 2018 Regency Auction for $9,694. Just 16 coins are graded finer and none are finer than MS66 which would cost about $30,000 if you could find a CAC approved one! Worthily of a strong bid!

This coin is magnificent! Truly very high end and totally original SUPERB GEM 29-D half!

Rich, satiny mint frost with a strong, glimmering glow in the fields. A gentle dusting of iridescent toning can be seen on both sides imparting a wonderful, original look. Sharply struck throughout, every detail is crisp and fully rendered with Liberty's thumb fully outlined. This high end 29-D half is truly an impressive SUPERB GEM that will delight any collector working on a superb set of Walking Liberty halves.

PCGS 76, NGC 15, CAC 28. There are only six graded 66+ and a mere two coins graded higher. There have been five PCGS/CAC MS66+ sold in auction going back the last four and a half years with an average APR of $11,174 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $11,750. Keep in mind that a 67 is worth $40,000+ and we sold the sole FINEST MS67+ in September 2018 for $82,250! This coin is bound for a fantastic set of Walkers and will see very strong bidding for sure!

WOW! This 33-S looks about as brilliant and vibrant as the day it was struck. Indeed, were it not for a teeny bag mark on the eagle's wing we would have thought this SUPERB GEM was just removed off the dies.

Shimmering, satiny mint luster radiates from all over. The sharply struck devices stand out with full, complete details. All the lines in Liberty's drapery and flag are separated and the thumb is fully outlined. Totally untoned, this coin is simply beautiful in all regards.

PCGS 16, NGC 5. Just 2 coins are graded finer, both MS67+. In our January 2019 Regency Auction, the first non-CAC MS67 sold since 2015 and it realized $14,688. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $15,500. Neither of the 67+s have ever sold in auction. This coin will delight any high end Walker collector.

There is no question this high end Walker sat undisturbed from the day it left the Mint. Impeccable blazing silver mint brilliance is luminous with a slightly off silver white glow. There is a very delicate iridescent sheen that can be seen at certain angles. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck throughout, and the eye appeal is wonderful!

PCGS 208, NGC 119, CAC 104. Only 22 are graded MS67+ at PCGS with just three coins finer. A similar looking coin sold for $3,643 in our November 2018 Regency auction, two toned pieces have sold recently for $4,465 (March) and $3,840 (JUN) 2019. The current PCGS value is listed at $3,500. None of the MS68s have been sold in auction since August 1990--the odds are very slim that anything finer will appear in auction anytime soon! A great coin for the advanced collector looking for the FINEST grades available!

Pastel pink, rose, emerald, pale blue, and salmon-orange iridescent toning blend together like a tie-dyed Easter egg. A vivid and billowing mint luster grows in the SUPERB GEM fields, bringing out the subtle differences of the exceptional toning and totally defect free surfaces. The eye appeal is simply stunning and very high end

PCGS 9, NGC 25. A pretty, but not as vibrantly toned example sold in the 2015 ANA auction for $8,225 and more recently a blast white coin sold for $9,000 in the 2019 FUN auction. With NONE FINER at either service, this SUPERB coin belongs in the finest toned Walker set. We know lots of collectors who will be competing to add this beauty to their collections.

Dazzling bright white mark-free surfaces with plentiful cartwheel luster delineate this superb gem. For a date that can come a bit soft in strike, this coin is well struck with the details of Miss Liberty's face clearly defined. In our opinion the coin is deserving of a CAC sticker (no guarantees) and may not yet have been submitted.

PCGS 122, NGC 82, only 32 finer. The PCGS Price Guide lists the value at $700. Although this date is plentiful in the lower grades, it is much less available at this level and represents great value for an attractive type coin. If you're building a nice Walker set, this coin is for you

50C 1952 PCGS MS67+FBL CAC

Legend Rare Coin Auctions is proud to offer this SUPERB GEM 1952 Franklin half dollar. It is tied with exactly ONE coin for FINEST graded for the date at the very peak of the Population Report.

A strong, frosty mint luster blooms on both sides. The surfaces show a pearly silver undertone with much multi-hued iridescent, original mint set toning that graces both the obverse and reverse. Every detail is well struck up and we note only the most minute ticks hidden under the pale blue, coppery-amber, gold, and lilac color in the fields. The eye appeal is very high end.

PCGS 33, NGC 6, CAC 13. There are just two graded finer at PCGS, none at NGC. The other coin recently sold in our January 2019 Regency 30 Auction for $42,300 on an estimate of $21,000-$23,000. The current PCGS Price Guide value is now listed at $45,000 and with TOP POP Franklin half dollars breaking records in our auctions, we expect that this SUPERB GEM will bring a very strong bid from the advanced Franklin half dollar specialist collector building a world class set. Good luck!

The color and eye appeal of this superb gem are amazing. A delicate champagne patina transitions to deeper reds, blues, and gold towards the obverse rims while the reverse is blanketed in a shimmering iridescent rainbow of color. This well struck coin boasts immaculate satiny surfaces with incredible toning from careful storage in an album or paper wrapper.

PCGS 72, NGC 32, CAC 34. Only 1 finer (MS67+). Listed in the price guide at $400, and last sold at auction in November 2018 for $400. The exquisite toning of this superb gem is sure to attract numerous bidders. Good luck!

Essentially pristine, this SUPERB example is among the FINEST graded by PCGS. Warm lilac, pewter, gold, and rose patina suggest long term storage in an original mint set. Well struck throughout and boldly lustrous surfaces impart a wonderful totally original eye appeal.

PCGS 22, NGC 4, CAC 11. This coin sold for $2,233 in the 2017 ANA auction and we sold a similar looking coin for $3,643 in our January 2017 Regency Auction. The current PCGS price is listed at $3,250. Just two coins are graded finer, both 67+ FBL, and the only one to ever sell was the monster toned coin we sold in September 2018 for $129,250. This pleasing coin is worthy of a high ranking set. We anticipate strong bidding for this one. Good luck!

We love the look of this marvelous toned GEM Franklin half dollar. Both sides have a wonderful Easter-egg, pastel patina that is accented by the bold underlying luster. Shades of hot pink, pale green, brilliant gold, bright orange-peach, and soft lilac mint set toning gives this coin a stunning look. We rate the color as a 9 on our 10-point scale. A few traces of contact, perhaps from a coin coming loose in the old mint set holder, can be seen with a strong glass, but do not harm the exceptional eye appeal.

PCGS 2181, NGC 741, CAC 51. The value of this coin is based solely on this coin's outstanding visual allure, so you can basically toss out the Price Guides and prior auction records.

As a rule, Franklin half dollars in Proof are notorious for how poorly the cameo contrast comes out and the 1960 is no different. Care was not taken as they struck the nearly 1.7 million proofs and few have the bold, deep, black mirrors and the highly frosted reliefs that this SUPERB coin does. Keep in mind that CAC is very tough on CAMs and DCAMs, they have to be all there! The mirrors are JET black and the frosty reliefs are fully struck and frosty white. The fields and surfaces are flawless! Even with a strong glass we fail to detect anything of note.

PCGS 99, NGC 72, CAC 40. The last one sold for $1,920 in the January 2018 FUN auction. Keep in mind only 16 are finer. This eye appealing SUPERB GEM is worthy of a strong bid.

THE S.S. CENTRAL AMERICA COLLECTION

Gold, shipwrecks, sunken treasure. Hearing these words has always sparked vivid images and dreams of riches in people's imaginations since ancient times.

Legend Rare Coin Auctions is proud to offer some of the FINEST gold shipwreck coins from the September 1857 wreck of the S.S. Central America. These coins came from the second and final round of coins recovered from this famous shipwreck. The historical importance of this offering cannot be understated. First, if it were not for the time capsule that the depths of the Atlantic Ocean off the Carolina Coast doing a wonderful job preserving the surfaces of these coins, and the skill of the team who recovered and conserved the coins, these coins would not be here for collectors. The fact they remain in pristine condition, and in some cases are the absolute finest known examples for their respective issues. This gives you a combination of quality and provenance in a way that few coins ever can. When the original legal case ended, it was one of the biggest numismatic news stories, especially in 2000 when the coins began to hit the market. The first round of coins was absorbed by collectors. In 2014, more coins were salvaged and conserved. These were not the bulk shipment coins (1856-S and 1857-S double eagles), but were more random denominations and dates, a time capsule if you will of what was circulating and may have been the coins that were held by the crew that embarked on that fateful voyage. The lots that follow are just a small sampling of those, and in some cases being offered for the very first time in public auction.

The coins themselves are tangible connections to this tumultuous period in American history. Manifest Destiny and westward expansion were stoked by the discovery of gold in the America River in 1848, leading to one of the greatest migrations of people in history. At the same time, in the east, the northern industrial and commercial based economy was booming, in what would become an increasingly fragile bubble, caused by rampant speculation in railroads and insurance companies. When this bubble finally burst in 1857, the Panic of 1857 began, with a run on banks. The gold being transported on the S.S. Central America was being shipped to commercial centers in the east to help stabilize the economy. When the ship ran into a monster hurricane, all that gold crashed to the ocean floor (and the economy went with it). The sectarian differences between north and south intensified, and this was a direct economic cause of the Civil War, as this low simmer became a roaring boil by December 1860 when South Carolina led the way for 13 southern states to break away, form the Confederacy and begin the bloody Civil War.

The grand highlight is the SUPERB GEM "SUPERNOVA" but each one of the coins that follows from the "Ship of Gold" are very special and important historical and numismatic relics, and a prize for anyone collecting high end gold coins, ship wreck coins, or any "trophy."

From the second recovery of gold coins from this famed shipwreck. While in this second round many double eagles were salvaged, small gold coins, many of which were earlier issues appear to have been what the ill-fated passengers and crew were carrying with them. LRCA is pleased to have been consigned a trio of coins from this second recovery encapsulated with a pinch of California gold dust.

This Type 2 gold dollar had quite the adventure in its existence. It went from the mint in Philadelphia and made its way around, either to California, Panama, or Cuba before being in someone's pocket when the S.S. Central America hit a massive hurricane, faltered and sank to the bottom of the ocean. Light circulation is seen on the surfaces, but there is a wonderful surviving mint luster that glows on both sides. Free from any serious abrasions, we just see some minor lines from its brief time in commercial channels.

A very historic piece and would make a very cool addition to any collection of gold coins, or a specialized collection of shipwreck coinage (this is a very interesting pursuit).

From the second round of recovery from the Ship of Gold, the S.S. Central America.

This truly is a wonderful example from the shipwreck recovery. Regardless of where it came from, the 56-S is a very scarce date coin with a mintage of only 24,600.

This highly circulated coin was recovered after spending 157 years on the floor of the Atlantic Ocean off the Carolina coast. Surprisingly clean surfaces do have only a few extremely light ticks and giggles. There are no problems that are eye catching. A bold luster beams from all over. Both sides are a brilliant yellow gold color. There are no spots or discolorations. Miss Liberty and the details are incredibly struck and do stand out. The eye appeal is super sweet!

These are in a class all their own. PCGS has graded all the coins from the 2014 recovery, and only 5 1856-S gold dollars recovered graded AU58+, and there are only 17 coins graded finer. Regardless of whether it was from the S.S. Central America or not, no AU58+ has ever sold via auction. The last regular AU58 to sell was NOT CAC approved and sold for $5,400 and it has been 18 years since the last MS61 sold! This is a very rare opportunity to acquire a coin that likely was in the pocket of one of the passengers of the ship, not one of the coins that was weighing down the cargo hold. The eye appeal is awesome and this is a wonderful historic relic!

This is one of the rarest gold dollars you can collect, and it is the second finest known. When we were offered this coin, we jumped and bought it. Great coin, can't beat the provenance, and great quality! If someone did not tell you it had been under the sea for 150+ years, you really would not know it. They did a wonderful job of conservation here.

The surfaces are pretty clean overall. Just a few frost breaks/light ticks that you need a glass to see are detectable. A surprising die crack is on the right obverse. Overall, the surfaces appear satiny smooth and the luster is bold and glowing. Both sides are a brilliant yellow gold color. Remarkably, Miss Liberty and all of the details are pinpoint sharp in strike. The eye appeal is tremendous!

From the Shipwreck this is the only MS64+ with the just one coin finer. In real life, PCGS 3, NGC 5, CAC 6 (that includes this coin). It is important to also know the only PCGS MS64 that sold in auction brought $41,125.00 January 2016. Today, we estimate that coin at $50,000-$60,000 and that is a NON Shipwreck and NO +. You can not get another in this grade. The only one finer would cost you well into six figures (we are talking $175,000.00 +-). How often can you buy one of the very finest coins that is also from a genuine historical treasure ship? If you are building a real top set, this coin belongs in it! No question this is a once in a lifetime opportunity.

It is not hard to see why this is one of the absolute finest 1856-S quarter eagles that survives to this day. The quality is SUPERB! What is surprising is that after spending 155 years on the ocean floor, it can exist in such a pristine state of preservation.

Just a few tiny ticks keep this coin from a full MS65 designation. Overall, the surfaces are pretty clean. A full, booming luster beams all over. Both sides are a brilliant gold color. There are NO spots or discolorations (remember this coin had sea floor crust all over it). Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck and do stand out. The eye appeal is great!

The PCGS Ship Wreck pop for this coin is 1 with only 2 higher. The regular PCGS pop is 0. CAC has beamed a total of 4 coins (Ship wreck and non ship wreck included). The extreme rarity of this date and grade are more than proven.

Forget about this coin being a treasure ship find; regardless it is tied for being the FINEST 1857-S $2.50!

This date and grade are as rare as any classic rarity. The quality is absolutely stunning!

Surprising fully prooflike surfaces have deep mirrors that beam all over. Only under a strong glass can you see a little roughness of the planchet from where they took off 155+ years of muck. The color is a deeper orange gold and there are NO discolorations. Miss Liberty and the details are so sharply struck they look sculpted. The eye appeal is jaw dropping for sure!

The Ship Wreck pop is 2, none higher. The regular NON Ship Wreck pop is 1 in MS64 with NONE higher. CAC has beamed 2 in MS64 (obviously this coin is one). The rarity of this date can not be disputed. Its amazing this coin even exists. If you are building a great $2.50 Collection, this coin is a "must buy". For its rarity, there really is no premium. The other MS64+ is in the #1 Ship Wreck Type set that is being shopped around for insane money and will be sold only as a set. Once this coin is sold, you will never find another

It is interesting to contemplate this GEM. Think about its travels, and clearly it must have been in the pocket of one of the passengers of the ill-fated side wheel steamer--it made its way from Philadelphia the year before to someone in San Francisco (or perhaps Panama or Havana, Cuba, we really will never know for sure), and was making its way back to the east coast.

A fully CHOICE, nearly GEM-quality 1856 Lib five, this was the finer of only two examples that were recovered in the second round of gold coins from the shipwreck. Full, satiny luster blooms brilliantly on both sides, accenting exceedingly clean surfaces for an example of this date. We do note a few tiny ticks and marks, but these are of little consequence and are appropriate for the assigned grade, even CAC agreed. The details are typical, meaning they are slightly blunt in areas, but overall definition is quite strong.

Not only is the finest from the shipwreck, but it ranks highly among all survivors and is clearly in the condition census for the date, with just two coins graded higher; the finest is the MS65+ that was once part of the famed Edward Milas Collection. The other MS65 has not appeared in auction since 1991!

PCGS 3, NGC 1, CAC 1. This is the only MS64+. Clearly the other MS64s have not been CAC approved. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $40,000 and that is what the last PCGS MS65 sold for 28 years ago! The Milas coin was graded NGC MS65 CAC and sold for $54,040 in April 2015 when it resold as part of the New Orleans Collection. This coin, with its provenance to the S.S. Central America, will surely attract lots of bidding attention. What a neat coin to contemplate and speculate its travels. This coin was handpicked out of a small group of 1857-S pieces. The quality is way above average. The surfaces have only light abrasions with some small and scattered ticks, you really need a glass to see them. In addition the surfaces are clearly prooflike on the obverse. The reverse is slight and is more satiny. All we can say is they did an amazing job curating the coin to the point that if you did not know they did it you would not have a hint. An intense luster beams from all over as well. Both sides are an even gold color with no spots or discolorations. Miss Liberty and the details are frosty and are fully struck. The eye appeal is flashy plus!

PCGS 3, with 46 graded higher in the Ship Wreck. It is important to note that prior to these being found, this date was one of the rarest of all $5 Liberty's. This is a truly gorgeous GEM example of this conditionally RARE No Motto $5 Gold, satiny luster sets the brilliantly lustrous surfaces afire with a strong cartwheel flash. A few ancient lines are scattered in the otherwise ultra clean surfaces and can only be seen at certain angles.

The fields have accents of a deeper, tangerine-rose gold color that contrasts with the brilliant gold that dominates. Struck from an obverse die that has a re-punched 7 in the d.e.s. The eye appeal is exceptional and the epitome of VERY HIGH END quality. It is a shock to think that this coin sat at the bottom of the ocean for so long!

Before the recovery of the S.S. Central America, this was nearly unheard of in Mint State. In fact, the Ed Milas coin, which was sold in May 1995, was called "Possibly the Finest Known" by Stack's and was NGC-graded MS61. With the recovery of the S.S. Central America, a few more Mint State coins came out, but is still a VERY RARE date in such a lofty state of preservation. David Akers wrote the grade most likely to be seen is only VF or EF, and Walter Breen said the date was "prohibitively rare above EF." Both these references were written before the S.S. Central America came up. Famed collections like Norweb and James A. Stack coins were cataloged raw and as being in the XF range. The Bass coin was ex Eliasberg and was graded MS61 by PCGS when sold in 2000.

PCGS 6, NGC 0, CAC 4 The second round of recovered coins has 3 in MS64. None have sold since the first round of S.S. Central America coins were sold at Christie's. One sold for $36,800 in December 2000.

This is the second FINEST example of the date known, and it is shocking that it sat for nearly 150 years on the floor of the Atlantic Ocean as part of this famous ship wreck. This highly lustrous GEM gleams with mint fresh brilliance on both sides accenting the high end quality surfaces. The strike is razor sharp, with fully defined devices seen throughout. A few tiny ticks are seen on both sides but the eye appeal is simply AMAZING.

Even after the recovery of the S.S. Central America, this date remains rare in Mint State. The mintage of 87,000 generally went into circulation and remained there until they were well worn. David Akers noted that "the grade most likely to be seen is only VF or EF."

The S.S. Central America cargo was generally $20 gold pieces and gold bars or ingots of various sizes and forms. The smaller denomination gold coins were likely not stored in the cargo hold, but in the pockets of passengers and crew. It is interesting to note that the FINEST KNOWN examples of this date, from MS64 to MS66 are all from the S.S. Central America.

PCGS 2, NGC 0, CAC 1. None of these have sold in auction. In fact, the finest to have ever sold was a pair of PCGS MS64s that were sold in the original December 2000 Christie's sale of the S.S. Central America treasure. The Collector's Universe value is $205,000. There is just a single MS66 finer than the currently offered coin. If you are working on the top ranking set of No Mottos $5s, you need this GEM. K-2, the long arrows type. Wow! We love all high quality territorial gold coins, the larger denoms are always impressive pieces. This high end AU58+ has a great look.

Sharply struck and well preserved, the coin barely circulated prior to being on board the S.S. Central America. Both sides are satiny and brilliant with a sumptuous mint luster that blooms all over. Typical to these large gold pieces there are some minor contact marks seen on both sides. Obviously gold is soft, and these are heavy, so contact marks are common. None of the marks on the present coin are distracting to the wonderful eye appeal.

There were 26 1854 Kellogg $20s from the second round of coins recovered from the S.S. Central America shipwreck, most of which were graded AU55 and AU58.

PCGS 22, NGC 44, CAC 6. The shipwreck had 2 graded AU58+ recovered. Whether from the S.S. Central America or not, no AU58+ has ever sold in auction. In fact, none of the S.S.C.A. coins sold in auction that we can see. The current PCGS Price Guide value for this coin is $40,000. K 1B, considered R 5. This is one of the FINEST KNOWN 1854 Kellogg $20s that exists and that it has the added provenance of being from the wreck of the S.S. Central America means that for most of the years of collecting rare coins as a hobby in the United States, this remarkable CHOICE coin was unknown and unavailable to every collector until now. It is estimated that approximately 300,000 were originally minted, but the vast majority of them were melted down once the federal mint in San Francisco was opened and federally issued double eagles were being produced. Today, these are known mostly in circulated grades, around XF grade being average. Coins with post mintage problems like cleaning, damage, etc are the norm.

Bold satiny mint frost glows in the fields of this well preserved beauty. Rich, orange gold color is brought to life by the vivid luster. As you rotate the coin in a light a touch of the lightest olive accents can be found. Every detail is sharply struck and stands out with razor sharp definition. There are a few minor ticks and stray lines that come to view with the aid of a powerful loupe, certainly none of them distract the eye or cause any issue with the absolutely amazing eye appeal.

PCGS 4, NGC 3, CAC 3. This is the ONLY MS62+ known and the FINEST example to come from the second recovery from the S.S. Central America. Finding APRs for such a stunning coin is difficult. Over a decade ago, the Madison Collection had a PCGS MS64 that brought $299,000. With its provenance that goes back to 1857, and making its first public auction appearance, this CHOICE Mint State Kellogg $20 is worthy of the FINEST of collections of Territorial gold. We know that it will see fierce bidding when it crosses the block. This coin encapsulates so much history from this important era of our nation's past—a real tangible connection to those days. Good luck!

These treasure ship coins are so wicked cool. The team did such an incredible job cleaning them up after sitting under water for 150+ years- you'd never know it save for the fact the holder says Ship of Gold. We do consider this coin a high end piece.

Outstanding surfaces are smooth and are clean over all. If you look really hard all you can detect are a few small frost breaks and a tiny tick or two- there is NOTHING that is eye catching. A full boominguster beams intensely from all over. The color is a brilliant gold. There are NO spots or discolorations. Miss Liberty and the details are frosty and are very well struck. The eye appeal is tremendous!

PCGS 1. In the regular pop listing PCGS has graded 16. The pop we listed for is ONLY from this dive- the last dive possible. The Collectors Universe value is $42,500. Do not be scared of any ship wreck premiums, as seen with the very first group sold, there are still dozens of market makers who have made sure the values remain firm or better. This is not flash in the pan marketing! Plus, in January 2018, we sold a coin from the first group in our auction for $35,250. It should be noted, any Type 1 $20 in Choice to GEM is very rare any way! This coin is housed in the bigger holder that contains a "pinch" of gold. This may be one of the few chances to buy any 1856-S $20 from this group.

We hand picked 2 coins out of all the 57-S MS66+ that exist. The 2 coins we picked were just phenomena! We absolutely rank this coin an MS66.9+! Considering this was covered with muck, the conservators did an incredible job! If it was not in a Ship Wreck holder we assure you, it would be impossible to know it was under the sea for 155+ years.

The surfaces shame all other coins-they are borderline perfect! Only when you use a strong glass can you find a minor frost break or tiny tick. You'd still expect that on a huge coin like this. A full booming intense luster can guide in the Space Shuttle! Both sides are a GEM Yellow gold color. There are NO spots or discolorations. Miss Liberty and the details are sharply struck and offer generous frost. The eye appeal is spectacular!

The Ship Wreck pop for this coins is 9 with only 4 higher. The regular NON Ship Wreck pop in MS66+ 0! CAC has beamed a total of 53 pieces in MS66. (They do not separate out + graded coins or Ship Wreck coins.) If you are building a GEM Type set, you know until this wreck surfaced, there was no such thing as a choice or GEM $20 1857-S. In MS66+ and MS67, its pretty much still that way. We can not stress enough the MONSTER quality of this SUPERB GEM. It is also $110,000 less than the MS67-even though it is that close to being one! In the 2014 dive (the final dive) 3154 coins were salvaged. All the coins are now graded and accounted for. This is a magnificent $20 as well as being a genuine historical piece of treasure!

EX. S.S. CENTRAL AMERICA

Legend Rare Coin Auctions is proud to present the most beautifully and amazingly colorful toned gold coin we have ever seen! This is the WORLD FAMOUS, gorgeously toned SUPERNOVA 1857-S double eagle. Used in all the early marketing for the second round of coins recovered from the S.S. Central America treasure, it has received worldwide attention for its truly remarkable beauty! Dubbed Supernova by the partners of the California Gold Marketing Group, who purchased and marketed the recovered treasures from the fabled S.S. Central America shipwreck due to its absolutely stunning toning. Needless to say, this SUPERB GEM is among the absolute FINEST 1857-S double eagles recovered and is truly UNIQUE in terms of its superlative patination.

The vivacious brilliance of the original luster flows through and highlights the stunning patination on both sides. Swirling bands of tangerine, crimson, aquamarine, violet, cobalt, peach, and yellow gold blend together and frame Liberty's portrait, accenting her facial details. Similar tones grace the reverse. Rotating this masterpiece in a light will cause the totally original colors to create a vortex that will hypnotize you. We have spent hours staring at it since it arrived in our offices. It is truly remarkable to contemplate how the cold, still waters of the depths of the Atlantic Ocean, off the Carolina coast reacted with the 90% gold alloy, the copper and trace elements that make up the remaining 10% as they took on a supernova of color.

Everyone has seen the photos of the piles of double eagles, stacked as they were stored in bags and boxes, sitting on the ocean floor, their brand-new surfaces gleaming from below the natural concretion and encrustation. This coin's patina stood out from the pack, instantly known to be a truly one of a kind, historic masterpiece of Mother Nature's palette. The devices are sharply struck up, with full, crisp definition, even in the most minute of details of James Longacre's classic design. All of Liberty's hair curls, all of the stars, and all of the eagle's feathers are razor sharp. Close inspection reveals a few trivial ticks, mostly hidden by the richness and boldness of the toning, and none of these can claim any effect to the awe inspiring and seductive visual allure of this SUPERB GEM.

The story of the sidewheel steamer Central America is well known among collectors ever since the treasure was discovered on September 11, 1988. After gold was discovered in the America River at Sutter's Mill, California in 1848, a mass migration of people went west, looking to stake their claims and reap fortunes in the gold fields. Those lucky enough to find gold needed a way to convert the raw gold into currency. The overland journey to the closest federal mint would take months, so enterprising businessmen established local assay offices and coining operations. Some of these were legitimate firms whose coins were widely accepted, while others were downright fraudulent.

THE S.S. CENTRAL AMERICA

Something needed to be done, so in 1854, a federal mint was established in San Francisco, tasked with churning out millions of gold coins per year from freshly mined ore, and gold from other sources (such as earlier territorial coins that were assayed and converted to federal coinage)

Travel was very primitive, with overland treks being taken in Conestoga and other covered wagons and coaches. Taking this route would involve lots of risks, including starvation, disease, and possible attacks from Native American tribes. The trip could take months over uninviting terrain and hostile areas. The other option favored by many was to take a steam ship steamship from San Francisco to Panama. A newly completed rail line crossed the isthmus at its narrowest point, and another ship would take passengers along the eastern route, through the Gulf of Mexico to Cuba, then to the Eastern coast of the United States

One of the ships that made the eastern leg was the side-wheel steamer, the S.S. Central America. The 272-foot ship had made the voyage 43 times before, and its September 1857 trip should have been routine. Carrying a massive cargo of gold, valued at over $1.2 million in 1857 dollars, and 578 passengers and crew members, it was heading to New York City. The gold was to be delivered in an effort to shore up eastern and northern financial institutions that had been caught in a speculative bubble involving railroads and insurance.

While sailing up the eastern seaboard from Havana, Cuba, the ship encountered a massive hurricane off the Carolina coast. On September 12, 1857, the ship foundered, taking on too much water that put out the fires in the boilers. The ship went down, taking with it all that gold and 425 souls. The loss caused a massive panic on Wall Street, with a major run on the banks. Without the precious cargo of gold coins, many banks had to close. The Panic of 1857 was one of the worst financial crises in the history of the United States. As the panic deepened, it further drove a wedge between the industrial and commercial interests of the north and the agrarian based economy of the south. Less than four years later, these differences led to the Civil War.

In the 1980s, a team of deep-water explorers using state of the art equipment searched for the wreckage of the S.S. Central America, and nearly 130 years to the day, they found the shipwreck. Within a year or two, three tons of gold had been recovered. The find proved to be an excellent time capsule, revealing much about the coins and ingots of gold that were used between banks, as well as what was in people's personal possessions. Awe inspiring amounts of gold, from sacks of gold dust, individual rare coins from various U.S., Territorial, and even foreign issues, to large quantities of double eagles direct from the mint, to gold bricks assayed by various San Francisco firms that weighed from a few to hundreds of ounces, were discovered. A long legal battle took place. The successor firms of those that insured the ship wanted to recover their payout. Finally, in 1999, the first coins and ingots hit the market in a December auction conducted by Sotheby's in New York City. A second sale conducted by Christie's and Spink America took place in December the following year. The remaining coins, mostly 1856 and 1857 double eagles from the San Francisco mint and private issued gold bars or ingots, were sold by a group of major dealers that formed the California Gold Marketing Group. A big splash was made at various numismatic conventions in 2000 with the Ship of Gold display, one of the most popular exhibits at that year's ANA convention in Philadelphia. After a short while the entire treasure inventory was sold to numismatists and non-collectors alike. In the aftermarket, whenever examples popped up in auction, these historic relics were eagerly bought.

Flash forward, another expedition took place in 2014. Again, after much legal drama, additional coins were brought up. These remarkable coins were conserved and graded by the experts at PCGS. This time, only 3,136 gold coins total were recovered. This coin made a huge splash when the reports of what had been recovered began hitting the press. According to the California Gold Marketing Group's managing partner, Dwight Manley, "This 1857-S $20 has been talked about more than any of the other S.S. Central America coins," and was the centerpiece of the 2018 edition of the Ship of Gold display on view at the Long Beach Expo.

While other coins from this second recovery have been offered on the market, SUPERNOVA is the POSTER COIN for the S.S. Central America coins, and as such, is a true NATIONAL TREASURE! This is the type of coin that attracts attention of numismatists and non-numismatists alike. The history, the amazing coloration, and pristine state of preservation will entice any collector of coins, art, or important pieces of Americana. This remarkable coin will bring a RECORD PRICE for any 1857-S $20 ever sold in auction and will forever be remembered as the most important $20 recovered from the Ship of Gold.

A wonderful, fully CHOICE AU example of the final Dahlonega mint quarter eagle that is totally original and really fresh looking! Having just come out of an old collection was put away decades ago and just recently graded.

Sharply struck and well made, this is a very high end survivor of the original small mintage of 2,244. Ample mint luster clings to the fields and inside the devices. The richness of color attests to its status as not having been conserved. A few ancient lines and ticks can be seen with effort which is appropriate for the assigned grade and none have any affect on the outstanding eye appeal of this really CHOICE 59-D quarter eagle.

PCGS 22, NGC 22, CAC 4. We think there is some duplication of submissions here, as these are very infrequently traded in auction, the last PCGS/CAC AU55 sold in the 2012 FUN Auction, realizing $4,600! If you seek a really cool piece of southern branch mint gold, take a look at this coin.

OUR ESTIMATES

The estimates you see published in this catalog are based on HAMMER. Keep in mind that a coin could be either low or high end for the grade, have stunning color or be dull, all of which radically affect a coin's value. Yes, there can be huge price differences within a grade, and we offer estimates as a guide so Collector's can have a better idea of value. One thing we will never do is offer low ball estimates in order to claim stronger sales.

These published estimates represent what Legend Rare Coin Auctions determines to be an approximate high wholesale value for the coin. The numbers are based upon current market values, similar trades, auction prices, published prices, and a consideration of the coin's quality. There is no guarantee that the estimated prices are minimums or are exactly what you can expect to get if you attempt to resell them wholesale.

We always advise you to view the coins you are interested in and calculate what you'll pay using as much information as possible. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask us. We are here to help you!

$2.50 1895 PCGS PR65 DCAM

This is a stunning GEM DCAM Proof quarter eagle!

The fantastic depth of reflectivity with the fields falling away from the frosted devices with ease and showing the familiar orange peel texture when studied with a glass. Considerable frost resides on the razor sharp devices, and in particular on Miss Liberty's face and neck. There is a wire rim around much of the obverse. To offer this extreme depth of Cameo contrast, this must have been one of the first of the 119 pieces struck this year in the proof format. There is a tiny mint made planchet flake in the left obverse field which we note for disclosure and it does not affect the overall GEM eye appeal.

John Dannreuther lists a single pair of dies used to coin the 119 Proofs struck, with perhaps 60-70 known in all grades, including the ones impounded in the Smithsonian, ANS, and other institutional collections.

PCGS 3, NGC 4. There has never been a PCGS PR65 DCAM sold in auction. An NGC PR65 UCAM sold in February 2019 for $19,800 and the last PR66 DCAM sold in 2012 for $29,900. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $24,500.

What a great, watery reflective, GEM Proof quarter eagle. One of only 197 struck, this date becomes quite rare any finer than the current PR65 grade. The fields and devices, are equally reflective with the fields having an amazing depth and clarity to the mirrored finish. The devices are sharply struck and every detail is razor sharp in definition. The eye appeal of this FLASHY GEM is very high end and looks comparable to some graded finer PCGS 22, NGC 11, CAC 9. The last one to sell realized $16,800 in November 2017, and that was the first PCGS/CAC example to sell since July 2013. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $17,500 and this is a beautiful coin worthy of any Proof gold type set or specialized collection of Proof Liberty Head $2.50. We are pleased to offer this Premium GEM 1905 Proof $2,500! This is a magnificently preserved and eye appealing example of this rarity, a nearly condition census coin from an original mintage of only 144 pieces.

Stunningly reflective mirrors have a bold depth. Traces of orange-peel texture in the fields add to the wonderful visual allure. Unlike the proofs prior to 1900, the devices on this 1905 are also highly reflective, rather than frosted-HOWEVER, there is a slight trace of contrast, depending on the angle you view this beauty. The surfaces are free of all but the most microscopic lines, that we only mention for the sake of full and complete disclosure. The eye appeal is simply stunning.

Only 44 Proof quarter eagles were struck in 1905, delivered on four different dates, and of these, John Dantreuther, in his new reference on Proof Gold coins, estimates that 80-110 survive in all grades.

PCGS 9, NGC 13, CAC 2. We think the populations are inflated, as these clearly do not appear with the frequency you would expect for a grade with these numbers. The last PCGS-graded coin sold in 2006 and the last NGC coin sold in 1990! The PCGS coin sold in September 2006 for $19,550. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $22,500. VERY RARE any finer, with just 7 coins finer at PCGS, PR67+ CAM the finest. What a great opportunity for the advanced collector of gold coins, we know there will be strong demand for this SUPERB GEM!

Totally unmessed with surfaces clearly show their natural state. Fully prooflike mirrors are at least 4" deep. You do not have to imagine them. As expected when you have deep mirrors you can see a few tiny ticks and lines NOTHING stands out. The mirrors also display surprising clarity. Both sides are an original yellow/pale orange gold color. There are NO spots or discolorations. Miss Liberty and the details are thickly frosted and are sharply struck.

ONLY 1000 were minted. PCGS 61, NGC 32, CAC 18. PCGS has graded 5 in MS64+. The last PCGS CAC MS64+ that sold in auction brought $8,225 in January 2017 (a weak auction). Do not be fooled by the pops, this is a date and grade we never ever see this nice. Opportunity knocks loud here!

LOT 515

$3 1881 PCGS AU58 CAC

FROM THE PUG COLLECTION

This coin is a really HIGH END SUPERB GEM AU58! No question it has never been messed with. What is a SUPERB GEM AU58? That is a coin that is as close to full Mint State as possible and has NO signs of visible wear. Both sides are graced by fully prooflike mirrors that have no major impairments. Only with a strong glass can you see a few scattered light lines-no real ticks or hits. The luster is strong and does bring out the beautiful original yellow gold color. There are NO spots or discolorations. Miss Liberty and the details are exceptionally struck. The eye appeal is fantastic!

ONLY 500 pieces were minted. PCGS 21, NGC 36, CAC 3. This is for sure is an UNDERrated date. Not many survive nice and unmessed with like this coin. The last PCGS CAC AU58 to sell in auction was way back in 2011! The current Collectors Universe value is $10,500. We expect really strong bidding on this killer coin!

PCGS# 8003 ESTIMATE: $10,000+

LOT 516

$3 1883 PCGS MS64+ CAC
FROM THE PUG COLLECTION

Now this date and grade absolutely are "silent" stoppers in the series. This coin is totally magnificent and is SUPER HIGH END!

Outstanding surfaces have mirrors so deep they resemble "proof" mirrors. Remarkably, there is nothing more than a microscopic tick or two. No real .mes to mention. The flash from the mirrors will almost blind you. Both sides are a gorgeous and totally original, deep yellow gold color with faint greenish gold highlights. There are NO spots or discolorations. Miss Liberty and every detail are so struck up they look 3-D. The details are thickly frosted. The eye appeal is a total WOW!

PCGS 22, NGC 12, CAC 4. This is the ONLY MS64+ graded at PCGS or NGC. It has never been sold in auction. We fully disagree with the Collectors Universe Value of $16,000. After consulting with our sister company Legend Numismatics, we believe this coin is worth around $20,000. The last PCGS/CAC MS65 to sell was way back in 2012.

Our sister company selected this coin specifically for the PUG Collection. All the hard work has been done for you!

PCGS# 8005 ESTIMATE: $18,000+

LOT 517
$3 1984 PCGS MS64 CAC
 FROM THE PUG COLLECTION

We strongly believe this coin has not been sent in for a + as it still is in an older blue tag holder. We can not imagine a more HIGH END GEM coin!

Only the most microscopic cuts can be detected with a glass. To the naked eye all looks perfect. Intense mirrors beam boldly from all over. The mirrors have great depth and clarity. At first glance they look like "proof" mirrors. Both sides are a flaming deep original orange gold color. There are NO spots or discolorations. We grade the reverse a full MS65. Miss Liberty and the details are thickly frosted and sharply struck. The eye appeal is crazy delicious awesome!

ONLY 1000 were minted. PCGS 21, NGC 6, CAC 5. The last PCGS CAC piece to sell in auction brought $19,000 in January 2019. We expect this outstanding GEM to bring that price or slightly more. Here too, as with the other coins from the PUG Collection, our sister company Legend Numismatics feels this date and grade are VERY underrated. We hardly ever see these unmessed with. This coin is totally refreshing!

 FROM THE PUG
 COLLECTION

We grade this coin
 MS64.8+! It is that close to full GEM.

Only one ultra tiny copper toning dot can be seen with out a glass. To the naked eye the surfaces look clean.
 With a glass all you can find are a few light and scattered ticks. This coin is fully prooflike. The mirrors are deep and have a bold reflection. There is no haze. We grade the reverse full MS65 (and is real close to MS65+) Both sides enjoy a beautiful and totally original deep yellow gold color. Miss Liberty and the details are frosted and are sharply struck. The eye appeal is terrific!

PCGS 75, NGC 38, CAC 14 PCGS has graded 7 in MS64+. The last PCGS CAC piece to sel. in auction brought $6,600. We can see this piece easily matching that or exceeding it! The current Collectors Universe value is $6,800 That value just seems too low. Opportunity knocks if you see a date different than a 1878 which has 56 graded in MS64+

PCGS 14, NGC 6. The most

LOT 520

$5 1840-C PCGS MS64

Legend Rare Coin Auctions is proud to offer one of the FINEST KNOWN 1840-C half eagles that survives from an original mintage of 18,992. One of the RAREST Charlotte Mint half eagle dates, most examples seen on the market are in VF or lower grades and is EXTREMELY RARE in any Mint State grades, of which perhaps 4-5 examples are known today.

The present CHOICE example ranks high in the condition census of known specimens, and this is probably one of the two examples discovered in July 2010 that David Hall talks about on PCGS Coin Facts. Well struck for the date, with just some weakness at the central portions of Liberty's portrait, and on the eagle's neck, but better than normally seen. Struck on a rough planchet, which is often seen on this date. While some may think this is harmful to the eye appeal, this cataloger believes the poorly produced planchet adds charm to this coin, which was struck under more rustic conditions than at the main mint in Philadelphia. The olive-gold toning on both sides is accented by a warm, frosted luster that graces both sides. The reverse die was shattered when this coin was struck, with a trio of die cracks converging from the rim to the central areas, this is a later die state than what is described as State II by Doug Winter. This 40-C $5 has a lot of Southern Charm, and is a wonderfully appealing, high grade example of this important southern rarity.

PCGS 1, NGC 2. This is NOT the NGC MS64 ex Pittman coin that last sold in the 2011 FUN auction. It appears to be newly graded. In 2018 a PCGS MS63 CAC sold for $48,000 and a MS64+ CAC sold for $120,000. In MS63 Collector's Universe lists a value of $60,000 and in MS64+ it lists a value of $120,000. We think this coin will sell on the higher side of our estimate, and will be a great addition to any WORLD CLASS collection of Branch Mint gold. We expect this coin to bring a very strong price when the hammer falls. Good luck!

PCGS#8196 | ESTIMATE: $65,000+

$5 1850-D NGC AU55

CAC

Here is a highly collectible, and very scarce southern branch mint half eagle. Anyone who has studied Dahlonega and Charlotte mint gold coins knows that they are extremely hard to find in ORIGINAL, uncleaned, dipped, and/or conserved condition. This is evidenced by the CAC population figures, as well as notes from David Akers, Doug Winter, and other authorities.

This nice AU55 has a great look overall, with great orange-gold coloration with accents of olive patination in the fields. Nicely struck up in most places, there is just a touch of weakness, as usual at the right left obverse periphery. There are some minor marks from its brief stay in commerce, none of which impede the wonderful eye appeal.

PCGS 16, NGC 28, CAC 4. This coin sold for $6,000 in November 2017 before selling in April 2018 for $5,520, as the ONLY CAC-approved AU55 to sell in auction, we think it really should sell for more; the current Collector's Universe value is $6,500. A very challenging issue that displays a look that even the pickiest of collectors will enjoy!

PCGS# 8245 ESTIMATE: $5,000+

$5 1852-D PCGS AU58

CAC

A very attractive 1852-D $5! Offering a bold eye appeal, this date, while available in lower grades with some frequency, in AU58 and higher grades, this date is quite rare; in over 30 years of operations, PCGS has graded just 10 coins in Mint State, none finer than MS63.

The present AU58 is very high end for the grade. Showing just the lightest hint of friction on the high points and in the fields, the surfaces are generally devoid of anything more than the slightest tiny traces of contact in the obverse fields. The strike is above average with decent definition to Liberty's hair curls and eagle's feathers, but the typical peripheral weakness is seen at the obverse rims. Nice, original honey-wheat gold color with olive accents adds to the lovely eye appeal.

PCGS 14, NGC 37, CAC 5. Prior to this one selling, the most recent example with CAC approval realized $6,600 in June 2018. Prior to that, a non-CAC coin sold for $7,800 in a November 2017 auction. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $7,500 and with this coin's great look, it would come as no surprise to us if it realized close to that amount. A very important opportunity for the collector of southern branch mint gold looking for a PQ example of this date. Good luck!

PCGS# 8252 ESTIMATE: $6,000+

$5 1853-D NGC AU53 CAC

Large D variety, which is not noted on the NGC encapsulation.

This is a very pleasing, honey wheat gold toned D-mint half eagle. A soft underlying luster remains in the fields, accenting the sharply struck devices. We note only a few light friction lines on both sides, which are visible only with a strong glass, there are no other marks of any kind. The eye appeal is superb for the grade, clearly worthy of the green CAC bean.

PCGS 41, NGC 34, CAC 4. According to our records, the only CAC approved example to ever sell in auction as a PCGS coin back in the 2011 FUN auction; a non-CAC NGC coin sold in April 2018 for $3,000 and the current Collector's Universe value is listed at $3,750. This is a great example for any collector seeking a single CHOICE, original Dahlonega mint $5 who is looking to stay below $5,000 in price, as such, we expect very strong bidding indeed!

PCGS# 8255 | ESTIMATE: $3,000+

LOT 524

$5 1878 PCGS MS64

Very attractive, deep orange-gold coloration graces both sides of this highly lustrous, CHOICE 1878 half eagle. Though not rare in lower Mint State grades, MS64 and higher grades are decidedly difficult to find from this original mintage of 131,720. Some minor contact marks can be seen, but none in the prime focal areas of the design. Sharply struck with full definition on both sides. An interesting variety with doubling on the first 8, though neither grading service recognize this variety.

PCGS 13, NGC 13. This coin has been off the market since April 2011 when it sold for $4,025. The last two non-CAC PCGS graded coins sold for $3,290 (April 2015) and $3,525 (2014 ANA). The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $5,000 RARE any finer with only 17 graded higher, and we suspect, based on auction records that there is some duplication in the population figures. A good coin for the collector of $5 Libs. Good luck!

PCGS# 8345 | ESTIMATE: $3,000+

$5 1885-S PCGS MS65

Rose gold and satiny luster define this appealing GEM. Miss Liberty is sharply struck and bathed in a sunny glow. The eye appeal is delightful. A tiny percentage of the 1.2 million minted survive in GEM condition, making the 1885-S rather scarce and difficult to locate in MS65 or better.

PCGS 86, NGC 108, only 14 graded higher by PCGS. Listed in the Price Guide at $2,150. This date has much lower availability than generic $5 Liberties and will be a stellar addition to an exceptional set.

PCGS# 8368 | ESTIMATE: $1400+

$5 1886-S PCGS MS65

A sharp strike in frosty rose gold and full cartwheel luster are highlights of this true GEM. Visually attractive with well-defined details, this Lib will satisfy the keen collector. The San Francisco Mint struck just over 3 million examples of this date. As a result, it is widely available up to MS63. The population begins to drop at MS64, and the date becomes surprisingly rare in MS65.

PCGS 25, NGC 51, none finer by PCGS. Listed in the PCGS Price Guide at $3,850. Don't be fooled by common date pricing, this date is anything but common in this grade. We expect stiff competition when this gem crosses the block.

PCGS# 8370 | ESTIMATE: $2,000+

LOT 527

$5 1895 PCGS MS65

Delightful rose gold with full frosty luster and wonderful eye appeal. Some light ticks in the obverse fields do not diminish from the attractiveness of this coin. This date is plentiful in the lower Mint State grades, but full GEMs are scarce and above MS65, the 1895 is decidedly rare.

PCGS 25, NGC 79, only 8 graded higher by PCGS. Listed in the PCGS Price Guide with a value of $3,500. A nice type coin or candidate for a better $5 Liberty set.

PCGS# 8390 ESTIMATE: $2,000+

LOT 528

$5 1897-S PCGS MS62 CAC

This coin is just about fully prooflike! Plus, it is SUPER HIGH END. Why PCGS didn't at least + it, is a wonder

You do not have to imagine the mirrors. They have powerful flash along with the strong luster. Surprisingly very few ticks or lines can be seen (when mirrors are this deep and clear you usually see everything) The contrast is quite strong. There are no spots or discoloration. Miss Liberty and the details are fully struck and have a strong pale pinkish frost. The eye appeal is neat!

PCGS 36, NGC 3+, CAC 5. The last PCGS CAC piece to sell in auction brought $1,485 in December 2018. This piece being so prooflike and eye appealing, we expect it to realize a much stronger price!

PCGS# 8395 ESTIMATE: $1,400+

LOT 529

$5 1898 PCGS MS65

Rich golden toning with gleaming soft satiny luster and appealingly smooth surfaces celebrate the overall pleasantness of this coin. Similar in strike to the much more available 1899, however 1898 is a sleeper date that is deceptively rare in gem mint state

PCGS 10, NGC 27, only 14 finer. Listed in the PCGS Price Guide at $3,500. The last PCGS MS65 to sell in auction was over 3 years ago for $2,820. A seldom-available opportunity not to be missed to acquire this date for a gem quality Liberty Half Eagle set.

PCGS# 8396 ESTIMATE: $2,700+

$5 1900-S PCGS MS65+ CAC

A very impressive, beautiful GEM example. While 329,000 were struck, and this date is available in some quantity up to MS64, any graded finer is quite rare and very infrequently seen!

The present MS65+ is among the finest known, though there are a couple of monster MS68 and MS69 graded examples. This coin is beautifully lustrous with bold frosty luster and satin smooth surfaces that are quite clean. There are some minor traces of contact which are totally acceptable for the assigned grade. The eye appeal is excellent.

PCGS 8, NGC 4, CAC 3. This is the only MS65+ and it sold for $12,650 in the 2012 FUN auction. A non-CAC MS66 sold in the 2018 FUN auction for $20,400. This GEM is worthy of any SUPERB holding of gold coins and will bring a very strong price to be sure! Good luck!

$5 1904 PCGS PR67+ CAM CAC

Our eyes are nearly blinded by this coin's extreme flash. It really is a borderline PR68 and looks more like a Deep Cameo!

Incredible mirrors are miles deep. The mirrors are also crystal clear (NO haze) and are super clean. When you twirl this coin the mirrors look like a freshly formed sheet of ice. The flash is powerful you can use this coin to light up NYC at night (not kidding). The contrast is incredible and is what you would dream any PR Gold coin should look like. Miss Liberty and the details are needle sharp in strike and have thick frost all over. For accuracy we mention two small copper toning dots on the reverse rims. They affect nothing. The eye appeal is both blinding and incredible!

Only 136 pieces were minted. PCGS 1, NGC 1, CAC 1. This is the only PR67+ graded. There are NONE higher. This coin has never appeared in auction and this coin has no Collectors Universe value. We did compare this to a similar numbered 1903 PR. They have a Collectors Universe of $90,000-yet none have traded either. We think this coin is worth around $100,000. Today, ALL high grade PR gold is extremely rare and we see none of it being offered in any frequency. Good luck!

$5 1909-D PCGS MS63 CAC

The originality of this coin is outstanding, with rich orange gold toning from decades of careful storage. The visual appeal is all there and then some on this quite handsome $5 Indian. This example of one of the most iconic and popular designs of all US coins is housed in an old PCGS green label holder.

The most recent PCGS CAC coin to sell at auction brought $950 in March 2019. Worthy of a premium bid for originality and a place in an attainable set.

PCGS# 8514 | ESTIMATE: $900+

$5 1909-D PCGS MS63 CAC

Full frosty mint luster and impressive orange gold toning combine for great eye appeal. The reverse of the holder is rather scuffed, but the surfaces of the coin itself are smooth and relatively free of marks. The originality of this 110-year-old coin is quite notable.

A recent auction recorded a price of $950 for a PCGS CAC coin. A thoroughly pleasing and attractive example for the type. A solid choice of this ever popular and desirable design.

LOT 534

$5 1909-S PCGS MS64+ CAC

The late numismatic scholar, David Akers wrote, "The 1909-S is one of the four or five rarest issues of the series. . . Mint State examples at any level are rare and in high Mint State grades, i.e. MS-64 or better, there are probably fewer than 20 specimens in all." Thirty years after his last revision, this fact is borne out by the grading services' population data: PCGS has graded 27 total from MS64 to MS67 and NGC has graded 12 from MS64 to MS66. No doubt both figures contain duplication of the same coin being submitted multiple times, crossed over, etc. Regardless, in such fine condition, this coin is a MAJOR CONDITION RARITY!

Typical for the date, both sides show razor sharp definition to the incuse design elements. Every feather is deeply impressed. A satiny mint luster accents the totally original surfaces, we see lots of rich, orange gold color. The totally original surfaces are slightly "dirty" and very eye appealing. A couple of minor marks on the field are all that keeps this impressive, near-GEM from an even loftier designation.

The two finest, the Brand-Duckor and the Norweb-Price-Simpson coins are both thought to have been acquired directly at mint at the time of issue.

PCGS 21, NGC 10, CAC 10. There are four graded MS64+ at PCGS, and just six finer. We had the pleasure of selling the most recent PCGS CAC example that realized $32,900 and the current Collector's Universe value is listed at $37,500. Exceptionally RARE any finer, and none of the ones graded finer have sold in auction since 2011, when a 65 and a 66 sold. This is a very important rarity for the advanced collector and is worthy of a great set of $5 Indians. We can see this totally original and visually alluring near-GEM sell for a strong price. Good luck!

PCGS# 8516 ESTIMATE: $28,000+

LOT 535

$10 1846/5-O PCGS AU53

A very scarce date, one of the scarcest of the decade, and this is a popular variety, that was called an overdate at one time, as there are defects in the die around the loop of the 6 in the date, which made early attributions believe there was an underlying 5. Dave Bowers and Mark Borekardt refute the overdate status in the October 1999 catalog of the Harry Bass Collection. PCGS now calls them 46/5.

Bright yellow gold surfaces show off the typical abraded surfaces on both sides. Well struck for the date, with just some minor weakness in the curls above Liberty's eye. The visual appeal is better than the typical 1846-O.

PCGS 7, NGC 9. The last one sold cheap in a September 2018 auction, realizing $3,480; prior to that, there was one that brought $4,465 in the 2017 ANA auction. That was the first time a PCGS-graded AU53 sold since 2009! The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $5,000 and anything finer is likely going to carry a five-figure price tag. This example provides a nice value to the collector.

PCGS# 8596 ESTIMATE: $3,600+

OUR ESTIMATES

The estimates you see published in this catalog are based on HAMMER. Keep in mind that a coin could be either low or high end for the grade, have stunning color or be dull, all of which radically affect a coin's value. Yes, there can be huge price differences within a grade, and we offer estimates as a guide so Collector's can have a better idea of value. One thing we will never do is offer low ball estimates in order to claim stronger sales.

These published estimates represent what Legend Rare Coin Auctions determines to be an approximate high wholesale value for the coin. The numbers are based upon current market values, similar trades, auction prices, published prices, and a consideration of the coin's quality. There is no guarantee that the estimated prices are minimums or are exactly what you can expect to get if you attempt to resell them wholesale.

We always advise you to view the coins you are interested in and calculate what you'll pay using as much information as possible. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask us. We are here to help you!

LOT 536

$10 1879-O PCGS AU55

The 1879-O $10 is a major rarity in the series, out of an original mintage of 1,500 pieces, perhaps 70-80 survive today, and is the 2nd RAREST New Orleans Mint eagle overall.

Frosty surfaces show only hints of the typical Prooflike luster that clings to the protected areas of the design elements. Some minor chatter is seen in the fields, but not hacked up like this date usually comes, and has not been cleaned or conserved showing off a neat, greenish-gold hue. The devices are sharply struck up and there is just a tiny trace of friction on the surfaces. The eye appeal is much better than usually seen for this VERY RARE date.

PCGS 6, NGC 7 Prior to the old holdered, CAC-approved Admiral Collection coin selling in February 2018 for $78,000, the last coin to sell was the Bass coin in the original October 1999 Bass sale. EXTREMELY RARE any finer, with just nine coins graded higher at PCGS, this is a real prize for the collector of important, rare date gold. Rarely offered, this AU55 will see very strong bidding.

PCGS# 8685 ESTIMATE: $30,000+

$10 1882-S PCGS MS63 CAC

Attractive original rose gold with a hint of pale orange toning. Lustrous satiny surfaces magnify what are otherwise light contact marks. The overall eye appeal is outstanding. The mintage of 132,000 is modest by $10 Liberty standards (in 1882 over 2 million pieces were minted in Philadelphia) and the survival rate at this grade level is low making this date and grade quite rare.

PCGS 17, NGC 22, CAC 2, only 6 finer. The PCGS Price Guide lists the value at $2,500. The last PCGS CAC coin sold at auction in August 2017 for $2,820. A seldom-offered opportunity for the $10 Liberty date collector and worthy of a strong bid when it hits the block.

PCGS# 8698 | ESTIMATE: $2,700+

$10 1886-S PCGS MS64

Gleaming rose and orange gold toning transitions to pale blue towards the rims for a halo effect. Fully frosted surfaces are relatively smooth and light contact marks are unobtrusive, and the overall eye-appeal is exceptional.

PCGS 39, NGC 14, only 15 finer. Listed in the PCGS Price Guide with a value of $2,750. We sold the Simpson/Hall PCGS MS64 in September 2015 when it realized $2,702. We noted that coin was tied for finest known until the Saddle Ridge hoard that included 4 GEMs of this date and mint surfaced (2 MS65+ and 2 MS66). Those coins are likely put away, making the present MS64 among the finest available to purchase. Don't miss this opportunity.

PCGS# 8709 | ESTIMATE: $2,400+

$10 1889-S PCGS MS64+ CAC

What a SPECTACULAR, high end example, this borderline GEM is tied for second FINEST graded at PCGS. Looking at this coin closely with a strong glass, and all we can say is "WOW!"

This coin is truly high end and powerfully lustrous. A bold, golden luster whorls around the surfaces giving life to the rich, orange-gold toned surfaces. Sharply struck devices stand out against the satiny fields. A strong glass reveals only some minor stray signs of contact which PCGS and CAC took into account with the assigned grade, none of which affect the outstanding eye appeal.

PCGS 24, NGC 9, CAC 8. PCGS has graded just three MS64+ and a single MS65+ finer. The only 64+ to ever sell in auction was an NGC coin sold in 2014 for $4,700. The MS65+ sold in November 2013 for $52,875. Today, the Collector's Universe value is $5,000, but that is likely too low. We can see this one bringing a very strong bid from the collector who demands the very FINEST! Good luck!

PCGS# 8716 | ESTIMATE: $5,000+

LOT 540
$10 1890 NGC MS62

Desirable rose and orange gold complement the typical light contact marks. Original mint luster glows from the surfaces. Relatively few mint state examples remain from a modest mintage of 57,980 pieces.

PCGS 106, NGC 56, only 25 finer. The PCGS price guide lists the value at $1,400. Recent APR's range from $780 to $1,645. The majority of the known examples of this date survive in MS60-62, in MS63 the date is rare, and nearly unobtainable any finer. MS63's bring $2,500 to $3,500, making the present coin an attractive value.

PCGS# 8717 | ESTIMATE: $800+

LOT 541
$10 1894 PCGS MS62

Full cartwheel, luster and deep orange gold toning scream originality. One of the more readily available Liberty Eagle dates that represents great value at current prices. With some marks and scuffs consistent with the grade, the eye appeal is pleasant and exemplar of this date and grade.

Note: If you are interested in owning and holding gold, purchasing vintage US gold coins is one of the best ways to accomplish your goals. The premiums over gold value are currently modest to low compared to historic price levels and represent a great value. The PCGS Price Guide lists the value at $800 for this coin celebrating its quasi-quintennial.

PCGS# 8729 | ESTIMATE: $750+

$10 1894 PCGS MS62 CAC

A pleasing, original toned $10 Lib with contact marks appropriate for the assigned grade, but a bold luster glows throughout, enhancing the eye appeal.

PCGS and NGC combined have graded over 25,000, but only 42 have been approved at CAC. The current Collector's Universe value is $785. Putting away gold coins? this is a great $10 Lib for any holding of CAC generics.

PCGS# 8729 | ESTIMATE: $725+

$10 1895 PCGS MS63 CAC

Attractive rose gold and orange surfaces with scattered light contact marks and full mint frost. This Lady Liberty is as charming and delightful as she can be. The majority of mint state examples are MS61-62 and the number begins to thin out at MS63, and drop decidedly in MS64. Full gem examples of this date are rare.

PCGS 739, NGC 1,973, CAC 19. Less than 1% of MS63's have been approved by CAC, and the last PCGS CAC coin to appear at auction sold for $1,265 in 2011. A pleasing coin that is a good value at this grade level.

PCGS# 8732 | ESTIMATE: $800+

LOT 544

$10 1896 PCGS MS63

Struck in lovely rose gold with some deeper orange gold highlights. Surfaces are smooth and frosty with some unobtrusive light contact marks. Decidedly struck, the details and denticles are well defined and exact. At 76,270 issued, this is the lowest mintage Philadelphia Eagle after 1890.

PCGS 180, NGC 247. Listed in the PCGS Price Guide at $1,300. A mere 50 total MS64's have been graded by PCGS and NGC and a single coin is listed in NGC MS65, making the present coin an outstanding value.

PCGS# 8735 ESTIMATE: $800+

$10 1899-S PCGS MS62

Despite a mintage of 841,000, this date has only modest availability in mint state, and should not be compared with the common 1899 Philadelphia Mint issue. The present coin is well struck in rich rose gold with a scattering of contact marks consistent with the grade. Overall this branch mint eagle is pleasing to the eye.

PCGS 161, NGC 182. Listed in the PCGS Price Guide at $1,100. The most recent auction recorded a price of $840. A scarcer date that is worthy of a premium bid.

PCGS# 8744 ESTIMATE: $800+

$10 1901 PCGS MS65+ CAC

Blazing, gleaming, booming cartwheel luster blindingly swirls along both sides. The devices are fully struck up and the coloration is totally original with deep orange-gold color. A few ancient marks and a copper spot or two are generally minor and do not detract from the overall great look.

PCGS 442, NGC 668, CAC 67. PCGS has graded 24 in MS65+ and the most recent PCGS CAC example brought $3,840 in March 2019. This attractive GEM should bring close to that.

PCGS# 8747 ESTIMATE: $3,000+

LOT 547

$10 1903 PCGS MS65+

CAC

We are proud to offer this GEM example of this real condition rarity! With just two others graded MS65+ and one in MS66, this lustrous, well struck GEM ranks just under the APEX of the Population Report.

A bold, glowing, cartwheel luster blooms from all over. Both sides show a stunning yellow gold coloration on GEM quality surfaces. We do note, under strong magnification some microscopic contact on the cheek otherwise, this GEM is high end and visually very alluring.

PCGS 9, NGC 10, CAC 2 There are 3 in 65+ and just a single MS66 finer. The presently offered GEM sold in November 2017 for $9,000 and that is the current PCGS value. The MS66 has been off the market since November 2012. This is the finest available and will be worthy of a world class set.

PCGS# 8752 ESTIMATE: $7,500+

$10 1903-S PCGS MS65+

A highly lustrous GEM, with a vibrant cartwheel bloom that looks as brilliant as it did the day it came off the dies. Sharply impressed the details stand out against satiny smooth surfaces. There are a few tiny traces of contact that prevent CAC approval or an even higher grade, and yet, the eye appeal is outstanding.

PCGS 8, NGC 1. This coin sold for $3,408 in the 2017 FUN auction, and was the most recent example to sell. The current PCGS Price Guide value is $3,500. The premium over the much more common .901-S is not large at all—this coin presents a good relative value.

PCGS# 8754 ESTIMATE: $2,800+

$10 1903-S PCGS MS67

This is a truly gorgeous SUPERB GEM Liberty Head eagle. Sharply struck devices, clean (almost flawless) and exceptionally lustrous surfaces combine for a special, condition census level coin, worthy of the top ranking Registry Set of this long lived series.

PCGS 4, NGC 7. NONE are CAC. The current Collector's Universe value is $32,000 and no PCGS-graded coins have sold in five years, the most recent PCGS examples have sold in the $25,000 range. The Simpson Hall coin was only a 66+. Worthy of a strong bid from the advanced collector.

PCGS# 8754 | ESTIMATE: $20,000+

$10 1907 WIRE RIM. PCGS MS65+ CAC
FROM THE PUG COLLECTION.

Ex Frank A. Leach, director of the U.S. Mint from 1906-1909.

A gorgeous GEM example of this extremely popular 1907 $10. Originally 542 Wire Rim eagles were struck, but 70 were melted later on. While this has in the past been considered a pattern issue, and is listed in Judd, enough examples survive that it is popularly collected as a distinct date in the series, and is the closest iteration of St. Gaudens' original design.

This is a gorgeous GEM example! Carefully cared for by the descendants of the Mint Director who was in office during the transition of getting Augustus St. Gaudens' coins produced. The rivalry between Barber and St. Gaudens is well known, and the oft told history of Barber dragging his feet in getting these marvelous coins produced has taken up reams of auction catalog pages, but it was Frank Leach, as Director of the Mint, who oversaw the production. The surfaces are satiny with a thick, original orange-gold skin. The surface texture is distinctive with the heavy die polish lines that are characteristic of the date. There is a single copper-colored toning spot on the obverse and just a couple of light ticks on the reverse near the right rim. The devices are sharply impressed and the eye appeal is excellent.

PCGS 69, NGC 33, CAC 11. There are just 7 in 65+. From 1907 to 2011, this coin remained in the Leach family. This coin was lot 5223 in the 2011 FUN Auction, where it sold for $74,750 in an NGC holder. The last record of a PCGS 65+ CAC selling in auction is from January 2014, where one sold for $99,875. That is five long years ago. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $90,000. We wouldn't be surprised if this coin surpassed that, with its high end quality, eye appeal, and lineage. Good luck!

PCGS# 8850 ESTIMATE: $85,000+

$10 1907 INDIAN NO MOTTO PCGS MS63

Deep yellow gold with scattered light marks that do not detract from the fetching eye appeal. Clearly defined feathers on the headdress and eagle's wings display the sharp strike which is typically a tad softer on this date. Popular first year of issue, this two-year type created by noted sculptor Augustus St. Gaudens without the motto 'E PLURIBUS UNUM' on the reverse was commonly put away as mementos accounting for many of the gems we see today.

PCGS 1,572, NGC 1,308. Listed in the PCGS price guide at $2,050. Last sold at auction for $1,440 in March 2019. A lovely type coin for a gold collector or someone just starting a fine collection.

PCGS# 8852 | ESTIMATE: $1,400+

$10 1910-D NGC MS65

Handsome granular rose gold surfaces characteristic of this Denver Mint issue highlight the incredible detail of the strike. Some small contact marks consistent with the grade blend in with the eagle's feathers on the reverse while the obverse is smooth and nearly mark free. This Lady Liberty is sure to catch the eye of a discerning collector.

PCGS 109, NGC 185. Listed in the PCGS Price Guide at $6,000. The most recent auction record for an NGC graded coin was $4,560 in November 2018. Don't be fooled by the common status of this date in the lower mint state grades, as full gems of this quality are quite scarce. Be prepared.

PCGS# 8866 | ESTIMATE: $4,000+

$10 1910-S NGC MS64

WOW! This coin has monster color! Super satiny granular surfaces glow with orange gold and a hint of blue; a spectacular combination that must be seen as even the very best photo may not capture this coin's reflectivity. This near gem is RARE in this condition, and almost unobtainable any finer.

PCGS 33, NGC 19

The price guide value is $12,500. Auction appearances are few and APR's for MS64 coins range from $5,875 to $15,275. This date heavily circulated in the western states and as a result is most often encountered in VF or XF. There is modest availability in the lower mint state grades, but a coin of this quality is seldom offered and likely to elicit spirited bidding. Good luck!

PCGS# 8867 | ESTIMATE: $6,500+

$10 1914-S PCGS MS64
A very pleasing, FULLY CHOICE .4 S $10 Rich original orange-gold color is exceptional and the satiny luster glows in the fields and across the well struck devices. One or two tiny lines, well hidden, are all that keeps this near-GEM from attaining CAC-approval. However, with its great eye appeal, this coin will delight any collector!

PCGS 66, NGC 27. The current PCGS value is listed at $12,000, but the most recent APR for a non-CAC coin was only $5,280 in the 2019 FUN auction. This coin sold for $7,344 in its appearance in the 2016 ANA auction. RARE any finer, with MS65s bringing in the $30,000 range.

PCGS# 8877 | ESTIMATE: $6,500+

$10 1916-S PCGS MS63 CAC
Medium orange gold toning complements frosty cartwheel luster and light surface marks are consistent with the grade. There are more scratches on the holder than the coin. The details are sharp, especially in the feathers on Miss Liberty's headdress. San Francisco was the only mint to issue Eagles in 1916, and the date is moderately scarce, especially in MS63 or better.

PCGS 127, NGC 33, CAC 8. The PCGS price guide lists the value at $6,000. The last PCGS CAC coin to sell at auction realized $5520 in October 2018. Worthy of a home in a better Indian Head Eagle set.

PCGS# 8880 | ESTIMATE: $5,000+

LOT 556
$10 1926 PCGS MS65
A premium GEM example of St. Gaudens' iconic Indian Head Eagle design with appealing originality as evidenced by lovely rose and orange gold toning. Light contact marks blend in neatly and are consistent with the grade. The surfaces are smooth and lustrous while the strike is sharp. The details in the feathers of Miss Liberty's headdress are crisp and well defined.

PCGS 468, NGC 596. Listed in the PCGS price guide at $2,750, with recent APR's ranging from $2,160 to $2,820. One of the two most common Indian $10's (the other is 1932); a type long sought after for the beauty of its design. Easily accessible in grades up to MS64, the populations decrease significantly in MS65 and are rare any finer. You'll want to take advantage of this GEM.

LOT 557

$10 1926 PCGS MS65+ CAC

Exceptionally vibrant golden mint luster blooms brilliantly on both sides of this GEM that just oozes with originality. Soft rose-gold color accents the smooth surfaces and sharply struck devices. The eye appeal is exceptional in every way.

PCGS 502, NGC 603, CAC 39.

PCGS has graded 34 in MS65+ and this "common" date is very rare any finer. The last PCGS MS65+ with CAC approval realized $7,200 in February 2018. Keep in mind a PCGS CAC MS66 coin is worth around $20,000! This GEM provides a great opportunity for any gold bug or collector putting together an outstanding set of this beautiful series.

PCGS# 8882 ESTIMATE: $5,500+

$10 1932 PCGS MS64+ CAC

Clearly you can tell this coin was hand selected for its great eye appeal. Overall the surfaces are super clean, and show only a scattered super light scuff or two (NONE are serious or stand out - this date can come really hacked up). The surfaces have a very thick satiny texture. The luster is very good. Both sides are a deeper gold color. There are NO spots or discolorations. Miss Liberty and the details are fully struck. The eye appeal is fine.

PCGS and NGC have combined graded over 23,000 in MS64 and 64+, which only 1,075 have been awarded CAC beans. The current market for CAC-approved coins is $1,250-$1,560.

PCGS# 8884 ESTIMATE: $1,400+

$20 1852-O PCGS XF45 CAC

For an XF, this coin has a ton of remaining luster. Light to moderate wear is seen on the devices. Rich golden-orange color graces both sides. Like all New Orleans mint $20s, this date is quite scarce, and most survivors are impaired by conservation, cleaning, or some other defect, a wholesome example like this is always in demand.

PCGS 111, NGC 95, CAC 13. No PCGS CAC coin has ever sold in auction. The most recent PCGS-graded coin sold for $5,040 in March 2018 and an NGC CAC coin sold for $4,994 in November 2014. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $4,950. A PCGS CAC AU50 just recently sold for $6,300. This is a totally collectible and desirable New Orleans Mint double eagle for the collector.

LOT 560

$20 1866 MOTTO. PCGS MS61

An attractive Mint State first year of the Type 2 design. Boldly lustrous, a flashy cartwheel rolls smoothly along the brilliant surfaces. The color is very pleasing with richer orange hues that blend with lighter yellow-gold accents. Well struck devices stand out and have a pleasing frosty texture. While there are some grade limiting marks scattered about, we would not call this coin hacked up.

In 1866, the mint added the motto IN GOD WE TRUST to the reverse designs of the quarter, half dollar, dollar, half eagle, eagle, and double eagle. The first year of with Motto coinage saw 698,745 double eagle coined, most of which went into circulation or were melted later on. PCGS and NGC combined have graded 1.1 Mint State coins, most of which are MS60 and MS61. RARE any finer.

PCGS 38, NGC 25. This coin sold for $11,456 in April 2017. Since then, four have sold in a wide range of APRs. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $15,500. VERY RARE any finer. A great coin for any specialist gold collector.

PCGS# 8949 ESTIMATE: $9,000+

$20 1869-S PCGS AU55 CAC

Significant mint luster adheres to the minimally marked surfaces of this wholly original Double Eagle, well deserving of the CAC approval. There is only slight wear on the high points, and one might reasonably make the case for assigning this coin a higher grade (no guarantees). Miss Liberty is well struck and the devices are strong.

PCGS 180, NGC 370, CAC 36. Only 113 examples have been graded MS60 or better by PCGS. Listed in the Price Guide at $2,500. A date with only modest availability in Mint State that is worthy of a premium bid.

PCGS# 8956 ESTIMATE: $2,500+

$20 1876-S PCGS MS63 CAC

Frosty mint luster cartwheels from the attractive rose gold surfaces of this well-preserved Type II Twenty. The majority of the 1.6 million minted circulated in the western states, but a significant number were exported and stored for decades in bank vaults. Many of those have made their way back to America, and provide collectors with most of the mint state coins extant. These coins were stored and transported in canvas sacks, and tend to be heavily bag marked. The present coin is well above average for the date and type, and will likely find a home in a better Double Eagle set.

PCGS 123, NGC 72, CAC 19. Only 19 finer graded by PCGS making this coin a stellar value. A 63+ will be in the $10,000 range while a 64 trades for 4 times as much, just one grade higher! Listed in the price guide at $5,750. Recent APR's for CAC approved coins ranged from $5,280 to $7,200.

PCGS# 8978 ESTIMATE: $6,500+

LOT 563

CAC

Ex AWA and D.L. Hansen Collections, as noted on the PCGS holder.

While not a rare date in an absolute sense, this date becomes very difficult to find in MS62 and is VERY RARE any finer.

This is an ultra pleasing example that is very high end for the grade. A bold luster is lively and vibrant on both sides with gorgeous satiny texture. The surfaces are totally original and has a rich orange-gold patina on both sides. The reverse has a flashy almost prooflike look in the fields, which adds to the exceptional eye appeal.

PCGS 99, NGC 53, CAC 9. D.L. Hansen purchased the entire AWA collection in 2016 and according to the Registry Listing, he upgraded to a 63. The most recent PCGS CAC example sold for $10,800 in the 2018 ANA auction, and this coin has a much better visual allure. Prior to that, another one sold for $13,200 in April 2018. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $13,500. Keep in mind only 10 coins are graded finer, and NONE have sold in auction since 2009. Having been in the #1 all time sets of $20 Libs, this coin is deserving of placement in a WORLD CLASS collection. We anticipate very strong bidding for this CHOICE example. Good luck!

$20 1883-S PCGS MS63

Attractive rose gold with flowing cartwheel luster, strong striking details, and moderate contact marks consistent with the grade. The eye appeal is unmistakable and this will be a favorite in any Lib set. These large coins produced in San Francisco circulated heavily in the West and as a result relatively few of the 1.2 million minted survive in mint state.

PCGS 241, NGC 91, only 36 finer, with the top grade 64+. The PCGS guide lists the value at $4,750. Recent APR's range from $3,120 to $5,040. An attractive example of a date that is very difficult to locate finer than the present coin. Bid accordingly.

CAC

A condition census example according to PCGS ComFacts, tied for 9th finest graded. While the mintage of 81,139 is relatively small for the series, for a Carson City double eagle, it is one of the more common dates, but that does not mean in Mint State, it can be found readily, especially so original and eye appealing with CAC approval quality. The luster booms with a rich golden-orange toning. The devices are sharply struck and have a wonderful mint frost throughout. Radial cartwheels bloom vividly all over imparting a bold look for a coin that is usually seen in XF and AU grades

This is a totally original and nearly fully CHOICE

PCGS 75, NGC 45, CAC 15 This coin most recently sold in November 2017 for $19,800. Prior to that there was one that sold in June 2015 for $28,200. The most recent one sold in March 2018 for $16,814 and we are certain that the present coin has a much bolder eye appeal. RARE any finer, the finest known are MS63 graded and the last PCGS CAC example sold for $70,500 in 2014. Clearly this coin is worthy of a serious bid and placement in a special set of Carson City gold coins.

Exceptional strike with the details of Miss Liberty's hair, the eagle's wing feathers and the shield lines clearly defined. Moderate contact marks are magnified by the super satiny reflective surfaces. A popular issue from one of the last years of the Carson City Mint. A lock to generate competitive bidding. A total of 222 coins have been graded mint state by PCGS and NGC, with the vast majority MS60-62, and we suspect there is duplication for sure trying to get a higher grade

PCGS 62, NGC 28 The PCGS Price Guide lists the value as $16,500 and recent auction records were in the range of $3,000 to $16,500. VERY RARE any finer! This is a great, and affordable, Mint State example for any collector.

A noteworthy example of this date that is well struck in rose gold with delightful orange highlights. Contact marks are relatively few creating mostly unadulterated and pleasing surfaces. There is a nick on Miss Liberty's nose possibly keeping the coin from the next grade level. Overall quality is outstanding with wonderful eye appeal.

PCGS 143, NGC 70, CAC 20. Only 9 finer at PCGS and NGC. The PCGS Price Guide lists the value at $5,600. Anyone seeking a high-end example of this date has likely been frustrated by the lack of full gem coins. The Carson City Mint closed down in 1893, and only 18,042 double eagles were struck. Thanks to some old European holdings repatriated in the late 1960s, this date would likely be RARE in Mint State.

The present coin is highly lustrous with a sharp, frosty strike. The surfaces show some minor scuffs and ticks that account for the assigned grade. The luster is semi-reflective and the surfaces are lightly toned with warm orange-gold accents.

PCGS 110, NGC 150. Recent auction prices have ranged from $9,600 to $11,400 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $14,500. Almost an equal number are graded MS62, but becomes RARE in MS63, with none finer at PCGS.

Satisfying deep orange yellow gold toning blankets lightly marked satiny surfaces. There are in fact more marks on the outside of the holder than the coin itself. The San Francisco Mint produced nearly 1.5 million pieces, and the date is readily available up to and including MS63. The number of survivors begins to diminish in MS64, with only a very small number of full gems.

PCGS 694, NGC 480. Listed in the PCGS price guide at $2,500. Most recent auction recorded a price of $2,760. This pleasing near gem is ripe for the devoted Lib collector.

A coin well deserving of its ++ designation! This near-GEM has a bold, radiant luster that has a bold rolling cartwheel on the obverse, and more frosty on the reverse. Sharply struck up the devices are fully rendered. The surfaces are smooth with just a few light ticks noted for accuracy and there are no spots or stains that we can find. Totally original and very pleasing.

PCGS 785, NGC 537, CAC 136 We sold the two most recent PCGS CAC examples, both in September 2018, realizing $2,970 and $2,860. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,650 and the value jumps to $15,000 in MS65. This is the highest grade most collectors can hope to own! Gold bugs and set builders alike will find lots to like on this one!

PCGS# 9032 ESTIMATE: $2,700+

$20 1898-S PCGS MS65

This date comes nice and the present coin is no exception. Satiny luster blazes forth from lightly marked surfaces blanketed with noteworthy red gold and orange toning. One wonders why there is currently no CAC sticker (no guarantees) as in our view the color alone makes it worthy of approval. There is no doubt this coin is high-end and will attract zealous bidders.

PCGS 118, NGC 105, only 6 finer. Listed in the PCGS price guide at $7,000 The last PCGS coin sold at auction for $7,800 in October 2018 In MS65 this date is quite scarce and downright rare any finer. It is important to recognize the lack of surviving gem quality coins and the compelling value represented by a coin of this quality

$20 1899-S PCGS MS63 CAC

Visually appealing rich golden color and satiny luster are evidence of this coin's originality. A scattering of light contact marks is typical of these heavy gold coins; none are distracting or detract from the alluring eye appeal.

A total of 3,100 coins have been graded MS63 by PCGS and NGC, but only 53 have been CAC approved. The last stickered coin to sell at auction brought $1,980 in November 2017. The date is elusive in MS64 or better and in MS63 with a green bean is a compelling piece for any gold bug.

A lovely, original 1900 $20 Lib. The surfaces boast a thick, satiny, luster and are clean overall and totally original. The luster is above average for the date and gleams from all over. There are NO spots or other issues. Miss Liberty and the details are well struck and we grade the reverse a full GEM. The eye appeal is excellent!

PCGS 11339, NGC 7106, CAC 771. There are 1,017 graded MS64+ at PCGS. Much scarcer than the 1904, and selling for nearly zero premium over that, this 1900 double eagle would make a nice addition to any holding of U.S. gold coins.

Delightful reflectivity and distinctive orange toning is pleasing to the eye. Original mint luster graces the surfaces. Despite the plentiful mintage, this San Francisco date is much less available than it's Philadelphia Mint counterpart, especially in MS64 or better.

PCGS 1,052, NGC 792, CAC 25. The PCGS Price Guide lists the value at $2,200 and an original coin with CAC approval such as this one is worthy of a bid in that range. This coin is sure to find a home in a fine collection.

PCGS# 9038 | ESTIMATE: $1,750+

$20 1901-S PCGS MS64+ CAC

Among the FINEST KNOWN 1901 S double eagles! We have seen other dates graded MS65 that do not have the outstanding look of this borderline GEM. This is a high end lustrous coin with just some minor contact seen in areas. Sharply struck devices have a frosty texture and brilliant sheen that contrasts against the flashy, lustrous surfaces. The eye appeal is exceptional.

PCGS 127, NGC 67, CAC 10. There are only 7 in MS64+. While the mintage was generous, with 1,596,000 struck, few are survive in MS64 and finer. We think that the population in MS64 is inflated somewhat, with just two coins graded finer than MS64+. The last one to sell realized $8,400 in March 2018. The PCGS MS65 has never sold in auction, and the MS66 last sold in August 1992, making this among the FINEST that will be available to collectors in 2019. Good luck!

PCGS# 9040 | ESTIMATE: $7,000+

LOT 576

$20 1904 PCGS MS64

Struck in gleaming rose gold and boasting satiny smooth surfaces that are notable for the relative lack of contact marks with only small lines bending neatly into Miss Liberty's cheek. The visual appeal of this coin is quite pretty and wholly original.

1904 is often considered among the most common Double Eagles; this is a lovely mint state example that has the look of a full gem. With recent APR's of $1440 to $1890 and a PCGS Price Guide value of $1700, this coin represents solid value for the grade.

PCGS# 9045 | ESTIMATE: $1,400+

LOT 577

$20 1904 PCGS MS64+

Unbroken cartwheel luster gleams from lightly marked deep golden surfaces. The nature of this design makes these heavy coins prone to contact marks, particularly in the wide flat unprotected area of Miss Liberty's cheek. For this reason, the population of coins in MS64+ or better drops off significantly. The details are sharp and especially apparent in the curls of her hair.

PCGS 1,394, NGC 577. The PCGS price guide lists the value at $1,950. Current market prices for $20 Liberty's are low by historic standards, and one should take the opportunity to buy above average coins whenever available. This beauty is sure to delight gold bugs of any level.

PCGS# 9045 | ESTIMATE: $1,750+

$20 1905-S PCGS MS64+

The 1905-S is an often overlooked condition rarity, as the date is extremely RARE any finer than the presently offered MS64+ despite a healthy mintage of over 1.8 million.

Well struck devices stand out against boldly lustrous surfaces. The fields show a shimmering, semi-reflective finish to the fields. Ms. Liberty and the rest of the details all have a nice mint frosty texture, making them stand out on the fields. The grade is limited to a few minor ticks, but this is not the typical 05-S with really choppy surfaces.

PCGS 26, NGC 18. The most recent example brought $3,840 in the 2018 FUN auction and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $5,000. With just 11 in MS65 and the monster Eliasberg coin in 67 finer, this is a great grade and price point for most collectors looking to build as complete a set as possible.

PCGS# 9048 | ESTIMATE: $3,500+

$20 1906 PCGS MS63 CAC

This late date has a surprisingly low mintage, considering the 1904 and 1907-only 69,596 were struck. Pleasing and totally original, this fresh double eagle has the look of a recent coin repatriated from an old European holding. Thick, frosty luster glows on both sides accenting the sharply struck devices. A few traces of contact, account for the assigned grade. The eye appeal is exceptional!

PCGS 135, NGC 41, CAC 13. VERY RARE any finer! The most recent PCGS/CAC coin to sell in auction realized $5,523 in our September 2018 Regency Auction and the current Collector's Universe value is listed at $7,000. Keep in mind the value doubles in the next grade up. A great coin for the collector or gold bug!

PCGS# 9049 | ESTIMATE: $4,500+

$20 1906-D PCGS MS64+

Superior surfaces have no significant marks or lines. They offer a thick satiny texture. A strong frosty mint luster beams from all over. Both sides are very CHOICE and have a lovely original orange gold color. There are no spots or discolorations. Miss Liberty and the details are frosty and are sharply struck. The eye appeal is great!

Struck at the Denver Mint in its first year of coinage, and one of only two years in which Denver issued Liberty Head Twenties.

PCGS 52, NGC 12. The most recent brought $4,320 in March 2019 and the current PCGS value is listed at $5,500. Only about a dozen and half are graded FINER and are very rarely offered. Good luck!

PCGS# 9050 | ESTIMATE: $3,600+

$20 1906-D PCGS MS65

Another conditionally RARE date, common in lower Mint State grades, but surprisingly difficult to find in GEM

Satiny mint luster glows with an ember-like brilliance in the fields. Sharply struck devices have a warm frosty texture. Unmarred by any serious traces of contact, there are just a few minor marks seen here and there, and they are perfectly acceptable for the 65 grade.

We really don't know why CAC did not bean this one, but we like it.

PCGS 17, NGC 15. The most recent example to sell in auction brought $12,600 in the 2018 FUN auction, and the last non-CAC PCGS-graded example to sell before that was in September 2009, which realized $18,400. This is a wonderful GEM example of this first year of coinage at the Denver mint.

PCGS# 9050 | ESTIMATE: $12,000+

$20 1907 LIBERTY PCGS MS64 CAC

The lustrous rich yellow gold and full cartwheel luster of James B. Longacre's long used Liberty Head design are pleasing to the eye. Contact marks are consistent with the grade and blend in neatly. Overall the surfaces are smooth and do not detract from the intensity of Miss Liberty's gaze.

PCGS 1,239, NGC 947, CAC 93. Only 141 graded higher. Listed in the PCGS price guide at $2,300. The common status of this date is deceiving as the truly common 1904 has more than 36 times more plentiful in MS64, a difference that is not really reflected in current pricing, making this date a much better buy.

PCGS# 9052 | ESTIMATE: $1,800+

LOT 583
$20 1907-D LIBERTY.
PCGS MS66
 This is a very high grade example of the second and final Denver mint issue of this type. Bold, satiny, lustrous fields bloom with a swirling cartwheel v.brance. The well struck devices are frosty. The surfaces are not backed up at all, and the eye appeal is very high end for a late date double eagle.

PCGS 2+, NGC 34. The most recent example sold in December 2017 for $15,600 and prior to that, there had not been one sold since August 2011. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $20,000. This is a great coin for anyone working on a high ranking set of Type 3 double eagles, as there are just 3 finer for the date.

LOT 584
$20 1907 HIGH RELIEF, FLAT RIM. PCGS MS65

What a beautiful design! Arguably the most beautiful design ever used for a circulating coin in the United States, the 1907 High Relief is a masterpiece of coinage design, and it led directly to a renaissance of coinage design in the first two decades of the 20th century that saw some of the most iconic American types.

The story of the collaboration of President Theodore Roosevelt and artist August St. Gaudens is well known. In short, Roosevelt, who had a grand vision for the projection of American power and greatness around the world was disappointed with the quality of the designs of American coins. He wished for Augustus St. Gaudens to redesign every denomination from the cent to the double eagle. He set to work early in 1907 and produced models for the Ultra High Reliefs, which were too difficult to strike, and after 24 were struck, officials at the mint instructed him to lower the relief. His second iteration was the High Relief, but he passed away from stomach cancer before he could see the final product, and after only 11,250 were struck, the chief engraver at the mint further reduced the relief and changed some of the other details. While the Ultra High Reliefs are major rarities, and of the nearly 20 known examples, several are impounded in institutional collections, those that are in private collections create quite the stir in the market if they ever come up, and are seven figure rarities. The High Relief is as close to that original concept as anyone can realistically hope to add to their collections.

The present GEM is from the slightly scarcer Flat Rim variety. The surfaces are a deep orange-gold color that comes to life when the frosty surfaces are viewed close up in a light. The sharply struck, high relief design elements are fully 3D and really stand out against the slightly dashed fields. This coin is about as original as you could ever hope to find, and even with the couple of minor ticks, we really do not understand what CAC saw when they chose not to ban this absolutely beautiful GEM.

PCGS 128, NGC 90. The most recent example to sell realized $40,800 in February 2019 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $52,500. As a one year type, and possessing of such a great design, the 1907 High Relief is a "blue chip" coin, in demand from collectors in all grades, but especially so in GEM. This one is worthy of a great type set or would make an awesome start to a set of Saints. Either way, whatever collection it ends up in, it will take fierce bidding to take it home!

PCGS# 9136 | ESTIMATE: $35,000+

$20 1910-S PCGS MS65+ CAC

A very pleasing GEM 1910-S double eagle. This is nicer than most examples of this date we have seen

The excellent quality surfaces are very clean to the naked eye. Only with a powerful glass can you see any tiny tick or two, anywhere, which we only mention for the sake of accuracy. A frosty, satin luster blooms with a warm orange-rose golden patina. The strike is bold and the visual allure is quite strong for the date

PCGS 234, NGC 83, CAC 7. PCGS has graded just four in MS65+ and this date is VERY RARE any finer. Only one PCGS MS65+ has ever sold in auction, which was not CAC and sold for $10,575 in September 2016. The current PCGS value is $12,500, and keep in mind that a 66 will cost around $30,000! What a great opportunity for the Registry collector. Pounce for a great set!

PCGS# 9156 ESTIMATE: $10,000+

LOT 586
$20 1911 PCGS MS65+
 We are very please to present this very attractive GEM 1911 Double Eagle. It is worthy of being placed in a top set.

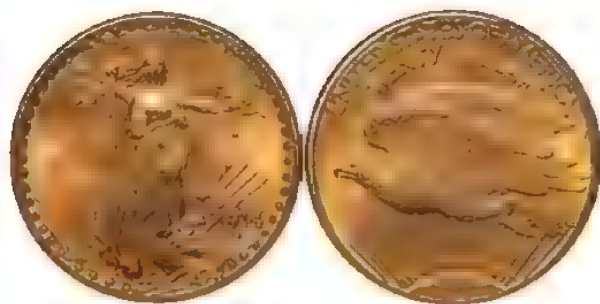

Bold strike for the date with all devices crisp and clear. Surfaces glow with frosty mint luster and are relatively free of the contact marks that are the norm for these large gold coins. The 1911 is scarce in GEM condition, and quite rare in higher grades. The plus grade is a good indication that the present coin is on the cusp of that rare status.

PCGS 13, NGC 2. The current Collector's Universe price guide value is $23,500, and the last auction record was $18,800 in our September 2018 auction. You can search long and hard and will have difficulty locating another coin of this date in comparable quality at this price level, making this coin an excellent value play. Good luck!

PCGS# 9157 ESTIMATE: $11,500+

$20 1914-D PCGS MS65

Wonderful originality as evidenced by the handsome orange pec. surfaces that are characteristic of branch mint coins of this era. The few minor contact marks blend neatly into the devices and can be seen primarily with magnification. An outstanding example of St. Gaudens' popular design, that is surprising for the lack of a + grade or CAC sticker (no guarantees)

PCGS 1,282, NGC 670. The PCGS price guide lists the value at $3,250. Above MS65 the population drops dramatically and the price rises accordingly; less than 200 pieces have graded 65+, 66, and 66+, and only 3 MS67. This lovely full gem is certainly a candidate for a better date set.

PCGS# 9165 | ESTIMATE: $2,000+

LOT 589

$20 1922 PCGS MS65

This is a date that rarely comes "nice." Just take a look at the pops, CAC has approved just 29 examples in 65 out of a total PCGS and NGC population of over 2,000.

Glowing amber-toned golden surfaces really come out when the lustrous bloom is caught in a light. Sharply struck and boasting a very original look, there are a few teeny ticks we note for accuracy.

PCGS 1565, NGC 516. A date that is quite RARE any finer. The most recent examples sold in the $2,400-$3,100 range and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,150. The eye appeal is well above average and will delight the double eagle collector.

PCGS# 9173 | ESTIMATE: $2,500+

$20 1916-S PCGS MS65+ CAC

The final double eagle date struck until 1920, the 1916-S had a somewhat lower mintage of 796,000. This is a very pleasing, high end GEM. Bold swirling cartwheel luster blooms on both sides. Offering a stunning yellow-gold color with orange and rose accents the eye appeal is superb. A few minor ticks and marks can be seen with the aid of a strong glass, but they do not affect the exceptional high end look.

PCGS 1254, NGC 781, CAC 92. There are 30 in MS65+. This is the only CAC-approved one to ever sell in auction, realizing $4,680 in February 2018. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $3,600 and scarce finer. This is a great looking example that is worthy of any great holding of gold coins.

PCGS# 9169 | ESTIMATE: $3,500+

$20 1922-S PCGS MS64+

A borderline-GEM! Stunning mint luster glows with a vivid flash on both sides, accenting the deep, orange-gold toning. Well struck devices stand out. This coin would have likely received a CAC bean but there is just a small trace of contact across Liberty's legs (but this is hidden in the details). We note a few other small ticks and giggles that are acceptable for the grade.

PCGS 54, NGC 10. Two non-CAC PCGS graded coins sold in February 2019 for $6,068. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $7,250. EXTREMELY RARE any finer, with just 21 graded between MS65 and MS66. Good luck!

PCGS# 9174 | ESTIMATE: $5,500+

$20 1922-S PCGS MS64+

CAC

What a fantastic borderline GEM example. We wish all MS64s looked like this!

The obverse and reverse are drenched in a rich, totally original orange-gold color that really comes to life with the vibrant mint brilliance. The devices are sharply struck up and the surfaces are quite clean for the grade and the overall eye appeal is amazing.

PCGS 446, NGC 235,

CAC 42. There are 54 in MS64+, which we believe includes much duplication in hopes of getting a MS65 grade. We sold the most recent PCGS MS64+ CAC, a coin that realized $3,503 in our March 2018 Regency Auction. Keep in mind that a PCGS MS65 CAC will bring in excess of $45,000 if one was to cross the block-there has not been one since 2012.

$20 1924-S PCGS MS64+ CAC

What an AMAZING example of this KEY date Saint. Very high end, and we know high end Saints (our sister firm, Legend Numismatics, has built the #1 and #2 sets), so we know how these come. This is NOT your typical 24-S, and we consider it to be oh so close to MS65 grade. Not only that, but the visual appeal is SUPERB.

Remarkable surfaces are exceedingly clean and smooth looking. In fact, they have a thick satiny texture. Even when using a strong glass, all you can find if you look hard are a few tiny frost breaks. It is amazing this coin is not bag marked up like many of the others we see. A strong (for a 24-S) luster beams from all over. Both sides are a fully original gold color. There are no spots or discolorations anywhere. Miss Liberty and the details are frosty and are well struck. The eye appeal is wonderful!

PCGS 128, NGC 118, CAC 24. There are only 12 graded MS64+ at PCGS. We have sold the last two PCGS MS64+ CAC coins in auction, this one being the most recent, selling for $43,475 in November 2018.

Keep in mind, just seven coins are graded finer at PCGS, and the last PCGS MS65 CAC sold in January 2012 for $172,500. This is a very important opportunity for anyone building an advanced set of Saints. If you missed your chance in November, this is one of those very rare second chances!

PCGS# 9179 | ESTIMATE: $40,000+

25C 1883 HAWAII. PCGS PR67 CAM CAC

We unhesitatingly call this amazing SUPERB GEM the FINEST KNOWN Hawaiian Quarter in Proof! It is a wonder that this coin survives in such a wonderful condition! Only 26 proofs were struck for VIPs at the time.

Deep, watery mirrors beam from all over. The fields are icy smooth and remarkably clean, free of any hairlines, regardless of how microscopic. A wonderful halo of blue and amber patina frames the obverse's brilliant silver centers. The reverse is draped in a dramatic cobalt and crimson toning throughout, and a swirl in the light reveals teal, gold, and violet hues that clearly sparkle. The sharply struck devices are extremely frosted and contrast against the heavily mirrored fields.

The Kingdom of Hawaii did not become an official territory of the United States until 1898, but in 1883, King Kalakaua I commissioned the U.S. mint to strike a series of silver coins. Designed by William Barber, the obverse displays a portrait of the king facing left; the reverse shows the kingdom's Arms. This series has multiple levels of appeal, including advanced U.S. type collectors, Territorial collectors, and since Hawaii was technically a separate kingdom, world coin collectors.

Only 26 were struck. PCGS 1, NGC 0, CAC 1. The only comparable example to ever sell in auction was the glorious NGC PR66* UCAM that was part of an original proof set sold in Stack's November 2008 auction that sold for $43,125 (listed as a record price by PCGS CoinFacts). The presently offered coin IS NOT that coin! There is NO value listed in the PCGS Price Guide. Prepare to bid liberally to win this amazing superb proof Hawaiian quarter. This coin has no peers!

PCGS# 810989 ESTIMATE: $50,000+

25C 1893 ISABELLA. PCGS MS66+ CAC

Unique in the classic commem series as the only quarter issued, it was struck for the Columbian Expo in Chicago. This is a truly PQ example that borders on the SUPERB classification. Beautiful multicolored toning is vivid and the varied shades are brought out by a bold mint luster. The surfaces are very high end!

PCGS 310, NGC 142, CAC 103. PCGS has graded 39 in MS66+, and this coin sold for $4,700 in November 2015; the most recent example sold for $4,266 in the 2018 ANA auction and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $4,500. We know this coin will see very active bidding and will bring a strong premium, anything finer is RARE and hard to come by. Good luck!

PCGS# 9220 | ESTIMATE: $3,600+

50C 1921 ALABAMA. PCGS AU58 CAC

Talk about a truly special coin! First off, good luck finding another one that looks like this in any grade! Clearly this coin was placed in an old Wayne Raymond or similar album where the coin took on rich, colorful patina that makes this SUPERB slider a truly memorable and excellent example for the collector. Warm red, soft peach, vibrant amber, and awesome blue hues grace both sides. The slightest trace of rub, likely from the album slide, and not from any circulation. The eye appeal is truly stunning!

PCGS 124, NGC .00, CAC 2. Ignore any pricing data. The price guides and previous auction records will not serve you well at all! This glorious slider will bring a record price for the grade. Fresh and original, this is a monster slider and bound for a great collection of toned commemoratives.

PCGS# 9224 | ESTIMATE: $750+

25C 1893 ISABELLA. PCGS MS67

A visually impressive GEM. White centers transition to peripheral red gold and blue toning from long-term album storage. Sensational satiny and frosty luster beams in all directions. The surfaces are essentially pristine, which is difficult to come by. Designed by Charles Barber and issued to commemorate Women's Industry released at the World's Columbian Exposition.

PCGS 49, NGC 44. Only 14 finer by PCGS. The price guide lists the value at $7,500. The two most recent APR's were $5,040 in January 2019 and $6,120 in January 2018. The first year the US Mint issued commemoratives and the only classic commemorative of this denomination contributes to the perennial popularity.

PCGS# 9220 | ESTIMATE: $5,000+

50C 1937 ANTIETAM. PCGS MS67 CAC

A wonderfully toned example of this popular Civil War themed commem. Satiny luster gleams from under original envelope toning. Gold, olive, russet, tan, crimson, orange, and lilac-silver hues blend on clean, smooth surfaces and sharply struck devices. McClellan and Lee's portraits are razor sharp, and Burnside's Bridge stands out very nicely. It is remarkable how serene the reverse looks, as it commemorates one of the most fiercely fought over places during the bloodiest single day battle of the Civil War.

PCGS 374, NGC 181, CAC 153. The most recent example to sell in auction brought $1,560 in March 2019, and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $1,050. Other examples have sold in the $900-$1,100 range. This is a great coin for the collector and is going to see premium bidding for its premium eye appeal.

50C 1937 ANTIETAM. PCGS MS67+ CAC

What a well preserved, SUPERB GEM example. Frosty surfaces gleam all over with a rich silver luster. Sharply struck, the devices are fully rendered. There is just a touch of delicate toning and we note a tiny tick on the reverse as keeping this pristine coin from a 68 grade.

PCGS 416, NGC 186, CAC 155. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $2,500 and the most recent example realized $1,920. RARE any finer, with just 25 graded higher at PCGS.

50C 1935-D ARKANSAS. PCGS MS66 CAC

WOW! This 35 D Arkansas half dollar clearly sat, unmolested, in an old collection, where the rims were able to obtain some amazing and colorful patina, which fades to a delicate sky-blue that is just sublime! The surfaces are frosty with a lovely satin sheen and the devices are sharply struck. Remarkably clean and colorful, this coin has the eye appeal of a higher grade and is truly spectacular!

PCGS 242, NGC 116, CAC 62. Go ahead and ignore all the pricing data, there are few comps out there for a SUPERB coin like this, and it will see fierce bidding!

PCGS# 9234 | ESTIMATE: $500+

50C 1938-D ARKANSAS. PCGS MS67 CAC

This is a beautiful, SUPERB GEM Arkansas that displays colorful original iridescent pastel toning. Sharply struck devices stand out with a rich satiny mint frost, accented by an icy teal that is dusted delicately on the obverse, and then blends into gold and fuchsia hues. The surfaces are high end and even a close look with a strong glass fails to yield any marks of consequence. The eye appeal is excellent! A low mintage commem, only 3,155 were struck, and this one ranks high up on the PCGS Population Report.

PCGS 24, NGC 13, CAC 14. The last PCGS MS67 CAC sold back in October 2013 in an online only auction for $5,060; prior to that, the Louis Bassano coin sold in July 2009 for $4,888. Clearly these DO NOT appear with any frequency, twice in a decade is NOT COMMON! The current Collector's Universe value is $4,000 and we can see this coin surpassing that level when the hammer finally falls. Bound for an amazing commem set. Good luck!

LOT 601

50C 1939 ARKANSAS. PCGS MS66 CAC

A lovely GEM survivor from a low original mintage of 2,104. Pewter-silver surfaces show a touch of iridescence attesting to the originality. Satiny luster and a sharp strike complete the wonderful eye appeal.

PCGS 77, NGC 33, CAC 31. The last one to sell was back in September 2015, realizing $1,587 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $2,000. RARE any finer, with just 22 graded higher. A great classic commem for the collector.

LOT 602

50C 1939 ARKANSAS. PCGS MS66+ CAC

This magnificent, original piece must have sat undisturbed from the day it left the Mint. Not even the slightest tick or luster break can be found on the undipped, unaltered surfaces. A pretty ring of golden brown frames the rims and both sides are a soft pewter/silver. All the details are sharply struck, and exhibit none of the softness typical to the date. The eye appeal is great!

PCGS 98, NGC 34, CAC 33. Only 2,104 were minted and PCGS has graded only four coins higher, including one in MS67+. The last 1939 Arkansas PCGS CAC to sell at auction brought $1,939 in the 2016 FUN auction and the current Collector's Universe value is listed at $2,400. Opportunity knocks if you're building a better date Type or Commemorative set!

50C 1939-P.D.S ARKANSAS SET

Housed in the original, unopened shipping box

Addressed to Mrs. Thelma Loeffler of Los Angeles, California, this box was post marked from Little Rock. The original paper tape is still sealed on all sides.

The 1939 set is the lowest mintage of all the Arkansas sets with just 2,100 sets sold. Clearly we have not seen what the coins look like, but this is one of those opportunities for those with the heart of a gambler! Imagine if they are all beautifully toned PQ GEMS! We obviously cannot make any guarantees as to the quality of the coins, and this lot is being sold as is with no return privileges of any kind.

LOT 604

50C 1936-D COLUMBIA. PCGS MS67+ CAC

A superbly preserved and totally original Columbia half. The eye appeal is very high and the definition of a SUPERB GEM. Well struck devices, satiny smooth surfaces, frosty luster and pleasing antique toning combine on this high grade example.

PCGS 254, NGC 228, CAC 127. There are 34 graded MS67+. The last three sold in the $720 to $780 range, and the current CU value is $850. Worthy of any high grade commem set.

PCGS# 9292 | ESTIMATE: $700+

50C 1936-D COLUMBIA. PCGS MS68+ CAC

We are proud to offer this simply AMAZING, pristine GEM Columbia half. It is TIED FOR FINEST graded at either service. As soon as it came in, we were mesmerized by the captivating toning that caresses the rims of both obverse and reverse. Similar, though more evenly toned to the MS68 we sold in September 2018, this vivid beauty is a marvel to behold.

Clearly stored in the original cardboard holder, where it was able to obtain a rich band of deep violet and traces of rainbow tone. Vivid, swirling cartwheel luster blooms on both sides accenting the color and highlighting the PRISTINE surface quality. This coin is about as close to FLAWLESS as you could ever expect to see. The eye appeal is nothing less than truly spectacular!

PCGS 31, NGC 22, CAC 14. There are only 5 graded MS68+ and none finer. None of these have ever sold in auction. There is a wide range of APRs for PCGS CAC MS68s, but this beauty surpasses them all, and should see bidding surpass the current Collector's Universe value of $7,500. This dramatic coin is worthy of placement in a world class collection of Classic Commemoratives. Good luck!

PCGS# 9292 ESTIMATE: $7,000+

LOT 606

50C 1936-S COLUMBIA. PCGS MS67+ CAC

Brilliantly lustrous and SUPERB in every way. This beautiful Columbia half clearly came from the same collection as the previous lot.

A strong luster beams with a bold brilliance on both sides, especially frosty in the centers. The peripheral devices are coated with a beautiful album toning, which creates a great frame for the well-struck central devices. This coin really is quite beautiful for the type. A lower mintage issue, with only 8,007 distributed.

PCGS 133, NGC 130, CAC 79. We sold the most recent one in November 2018 for $1,234, and it was not as beautifully toned as this one. The MS68 that we sold in September 2018 had a very similar look, realizing $6,169. This is another classic commem that will defy the current market and sell for a really strong price.

PCGS# 9293 ESTIMATE: $1,250+

50C 1936 ELGIN. PCGS MS67+ CAC

A SUPERB GEM! One of the NICEST Elgins we have handled in a VERY long time! Boldly defined details stand out against the satiny smooth surfaces and rich frosty luster. Both sides are awash in a BEAUTIFUL multi-hued iridescent toning that is particularly colorful in the central devices of the reverse (rose, pink, olive, and blue hues really sparkle in the light). The eye appeal is awesome.

PCGS 286, NGC 136, CAC 101. There are 50 coins in 67+ at PCGS. Recent PCGS/CAC have sold in the $1,700 to $2,100 range, well above the current PCGS value of $1,650. Only eight coins are finer, and this coin has such a great look, we can see it bringing a very strong premium bid!

PCGS# 9303 | ESTIMATE: $1,200+

50C 1922 GRANT PCGS MS67 CAC

What a stunning SUPERB GEM Grant half. The obverse glows satiny white while the reverse beams out iridescent light red gold. Surfaces are remarkably smooth and mark-free. The eye appeal is literally stunning. This is the more available type 2 without the incuse star in the right obverse field. More available only due to lesser grades, not the present coin that is high on the condition census.

PCGS 69, NGC 31, CAC 27. Only 19 67+ (PCGS & NGC), none finer. Listed in the PCGS price guide at $3,500. Recent APR's range from $4,655 to $6,600. A MONSTER coin with few peers-b.d accordingly.

PCGS# 9306 | ESTIMATE: $4,000+

50C 1922 GRANT STAR. PCGS MS66

Wonderfully original, this GEM Grant with Star half is a great example of this scarce early commem. Frosty satiny luster has an ember-like glow in the fields, especially within the lettering of the legend. A touch of toning adds a dimension to the eye appeal accenting the well struck devices. A glass reveals a few ties of little consequence. VERY RARE any finer.

PCGS 44, NGC 52. The most recent example sold in February 2019 for $5,280 and prior to that, one sold in March 2018 for $5,750. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $7,500. Only a baker's dozen are graded higher, each one carrying a five-figure price tag. Bound for a very pleasing GEM set.

PCGS# 9307 | ESTIMATE: $4,500+

50C 1936 LYNCHBURG. PCGS MS67+

With just a single MS68 graded higher at PCGS, this SUPERB Lynchburg is tied for second FINEST graded and it has a stunning look! Totally original, this coin clearly sat for ages in an old album with a band of very attractive and colorful rainbow toning that graces the extreme obverse periphery from 12:00 to 7:00. The remainder of the surface is a light pearlescent olive, yellow-gold, and silver iridescent tone. The strike is full, and there are no marks of consequence on either side. The eye appeal is truly remarkable.

PCGS 20, NGC 2. There is just a single MS68 graded finer. The last non-CAC example to sell in auction was in our November 2018 Regency 29, which realized $2,703. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,000 and this one should sell for that amount or more. Keep in mind the MS68 has never sold in auction.

PCGS# 9324 | ESTIMATE: $2,500+

LOT 611

50C 1921 MISSOURI 2X4. PCGS MS64

A frosty, lustrous example with beautiful teal blue and rose accents across the surfaces of the obverse. Generally clean and free of any sort of contact, this near-GEM is a fresh and original coin that is a early newly graded from an old time collection.

PCGS 817, NGC 84. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $950. So far in 2019, three examples have sold ranging from $720 to $1,020. Scarce finer, and hard to find with such lovely patina. A great find for anyone collecting colorful commemor.

PCGS# 9331 | ESTIMATE: $800+

LOT 612

50C 1921 MISSOURI 2X4. PCGS MS66+ CAC

Legend Rare Coin Auctions is honored to offer this impressive, GEM Missouri half dollar. Tied for FINEST GRADED at PCGS, it is indeed a trophy for the collector of classic commemoratives.

Frosty, stam luster blooms in the ultra smooth fields. The strike is bold with fully struck devices that seem to be in high relief. The most delicate touch of iridescent tone is brought out by the impressive satin glow. The eye appeal is exceptional and if you collect TOP POP commemoratives, you will find a lot to love with this GEM!

PCGS 52, NGC 39, CAC 12. There are only four coins graded MS66+ at PCGS and NONE ARE FINER! None have sold in auction. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $25,000. A high end coin like this will see fierce bidding when this one crosses the block--it is clearly one of the FINEST known! Good luck!

PCGS# 9331 | ESTIMATE: $18,000+

50C 1938 NEW ROCHELLE. PCGS MS67

Impressive tab toning can be seen on both sides of this SUPERB GEM. Amber, gold, and sunset orange forms a ring around the right obverse periphery. Subtle icy, silver blue blends on that side, while the tab pattern on the reverse is deeper in shade. The eye appeal is nice.

PCGS 219, NGC 85. This coin sold for $881 in July 2016 and the current Collector's Universe value is listed at $875. If you like interesting toning, take a look at this one!

PCGS# 9335 | ESTIMATE: $750+

50C 1915-S PANAMA-PACIFIC. PCGS MS66+ CAC

Totally original! Satiny lustrous surfaces are brilliant at the centers and have a frame of toning that attests to storage in an old album or original frame. Well struck and very pleasing, this GEM will delight any classic commem collector.

PCGS 352, NGC 240, CAC 122. PCGS has graded 30 in MS66+ and recent auction prices are: $2,880 in February 2019, $2,100 and $3,360 in March 2019. The current PCGS value is listed at $2,750 and this date is quite scarce any finer and with its beautiful design the Pan Pac is always popular and in demand from collectors.

PCGS# 9357 | ESTIMATE: $2,400+

LOT 615
50C 1920 PILGRIM.
PCGS MS67+ CAC

Tied for second FINEST seen by PCGS, this beautifully preserved SUPERB GEM is a richly, and originaly toned example. Russet, olive, rose, and good patina are seen on both sides. The devices are sharply struck and they are accented by a wealth of warm, satiny luster that brings out the subtle shades of the expressive toning. The eye appeal is very high end and exceptionally pleasing.

PCGS 64, NGC 21, CAC 25. There are 14 graded 67+ at PCGS and just two finer. The last PCGS MS67+ CAC sold for $7,200 in the 2019 FUN auction and the current Collector's Universe value is listed at $7,500. Neither of the MS68s have ever sold in auction, but we would suspect that you would have to pay well in excess of the hypothetical PCGS value of $15,000 to take it home. This is one of the finest on the market, and will see spirited bidding from specialists for sure. Bound for a very high end set.

PCGS# 9359 | ESTIMATE: $6,500+

50C 1936 ROBINSON-ARKANSAS. PCGS MS67+ CAC

Tied for second FINEST graded at PCGS, this SUPERB GEM Robinson is extremely high end and beautiful!

Sharply struck and fully brilliant, this is a beautiful and FRESH coin that will delight any collector. Totally original surfaces have a pale iridescence and a touch of richer blue and amber toning on the lower obverse rim. The surfaces are flawless and the eye appeal is stunning!

PCGS 98, NGC 34, CAC 31. There are eight coins graded MS67+ at PCGS and just two MS68s finer. No PCGS MS67+ has ever sold in auction. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,500 and keep in mind that the last MS68 sold in 2005 for over $20,000! We expect very strong bidding from any serious collector of top quality and highest grade Commems. Bound for a great set! Good luck!

PCGS# 9369 | ESTIMATE: $3,000+

50C 1936-D SAN DIEGO. PCGS MS67

We wish all San Diego half dollars looked like this! It is a near twin in terms of eye appeal to the one we sold in November 2018 for $5,288, and we really don't know why CAC did not approve this beauty! Boldly lustrous with a vibrance that grabs the viewer from across the room. But its glorious luster is just part of the story of this stunner—the other is the gorgeous toning at the rims on both sides that display the full spectrum of rainbow color that frames the brilliant silver centers. The eye appeal really is off the charts with this one!

PCGS 106, NGC 53. We really don't know why CAC didn't approve this SUPERB GEM. The beautifully toned coin we sold in November 2018 brought a very strong $5,288. Bound for a great collection of toned commems and worthy of a strong bid!

PCGS# 9372 | ESTIMATE: $1,500+

50C 1935-S SAN DIEGO. PCGS MS67+ CAC

This is a beautifully toned and wonderfully preserved San Diego half. Sharply struck and very lustrous, both sides are awash in a warm apricot-honey gold tone that truly adds to the exceptional visual allure.

PCGS 237, NGC 99, CAC 84. There are 31 in MS67+ at PCGS and just 8 coins are graded finer. The most recent PCGS/CAC example sold for $1,140 in March 2019 and that was the first one sold since the FUN 2017 auction that realized $1,410. The current PCGS price is $1,400 and this one, with its amazing look, should bring a premium bid.

PCGS# 9371 | ESTIMATE: $1,100+

50C 1937 TEXAS. PCGS MS67 CAC

Beautiful! This is truly a SUPERB GEM that is fresh out of an old album. This coin has a truly original and very high end look. Great rainbow toning comes out when the vibrant luster catches the light. Shades of teal and magenta dominate, but every shade of the spectrum can be seen. Sharply struck and very eye appealing, this beauty will be a delight to any collector of commems.

PCGS 128, NGC 73, CAC 83. The last two sold in July 2018 for $528, but with this coin's amazing look, it should bring closer to the current PCGS Price Guide value of $750. Anticipate strong bidding here.

PCGS# 9390 | ESTIMATE: $650+

50C 1949-S BOOKER T. WASHINGTON. PCGS MS67+ CAC

Wow! This immaculate Booker T. Washington is tied for FINEST graded and is of exceptional, totally original, and high end quality. A strong, glowing lustrous surface is framed by a golden peach rose patina at the peripheries. The eye appeal is exceptional PCGS 75, NGC 59, CAC 61. There are 3 in MS67+ and NONE have ever sold in auction. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $6,000 and we know this SUPERB GEM will delight even the pickiest of collectors who want only the FINEST classic commems. We know that with a pop top like this auction records will be shattered. Good luck!

PCGS# 9418 | ESTIMATE: $3,500+

50C 1950-S BOOKER T. WASHINGTON. NGC MS67+PL CAC

A rarely seen or offered coin, a classic commemorative designated with PL surfaces. While there are several types that come with PL surfaces (Columbian Expo and New Rochelle immediately come to mind) classic commemoratives as a whole generally have a frosty or satiny finish to the luster.

This absolutely Superb Gem exhibits highly polished fields that have a pleasing nearly fully mirrored finish. Untoned, this piece looks like it was just carefully removed from the press! The overall quality and eye appeal of this wonderful piece is very high end

PCGS 0, NGC 4, CAC 2. A non-+ example sold for $3,360 in the 2019 FUN auction, and the NGC Price Guide value in 67 PL is $5,000. A coin like this will see strong bidding from the specialized collector

PCGS# 9422 | ESTIMATE: $4,500+

50C 1951-S BOOKER T. WASHINGTON. PCGS MS67+ CAC

Tied for FINEST GRADED at PCGS!

Well, struck with remarkably smooth satin surfaces that are relatively mark free. Shimmering frosty silver luster dominates with just a touch of gold towards the rims. Totally high-end in quality and appearance for this lovely coin commemorating the life of this famous American educator. Low mintage of only 7,004

PCGS 86, NGC 67, CAC 64. There are only 9 in PCGS MS67+. The most recent sold in our March 2019 Regency Auction for $2,820 and the current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $3,500. With none finer, this SUPERB GEM is as close to perfect as you will find!

PCGS# 9426 | ESTIMATE: $2,700+

50C 1952-D WASHINGTON-CARVER. PCGS MS66+ CAC

Only 8,006 examples were distributed and this the present coin is tied for FINEST graded at PCGS. One look at this PQ GEM, and it is easy to see why. Wholesome surfaces are devoid of any significant contact. A strong luster blooms all over, accenting the delicate iridescent toning on the reverse.

PCGS 81, NGC 19, CAC 18. There are only 9 graded MS66+ at PCGS, and NONE FINER. There are two previous auction records, one in March 2019 for $3,600 and the other at $5,280 in June 2018, both exceeding the current PCGS value of $3,500 and this GEM, no doubt will bring a similarly strong bid. Bound for a great set of classic commems

PCGS# 9435 | ESTIMATE: $3,200+

GS1 1903 LA PURCHASE JEFFERSON. PCGS MS65 CAC

Rich, appealing gold tone over semi-reflective mint luster. The well struck devices are frosty and stand out nicely. Highly attractive with clean fields and a true GEM.

PCGS 765, NGC 471, CAC 136. The last PCGS CAC example to sell brought $1,020 in February 2019, and the current PCGS Price is $1,100. Prices are depressed on this series, and have been for several years. Now would be a great time to put together a set of small gold commemoratives in MS65.

PCGS# 7443 ESTIMATE: $900+

GS1 1903 LA PURCHASE MCKINLEY. PCGS MS67+ CAC

A visually and technically STUNNING superb GEM. This little jewel is just oozing with rich originality. Among the finest graded by PCGS, this piece boasts a brilliant golden surface that drips with a reddish hue over exceptionally gorgeous gold color. Every tiny detail is struck up with full precision and is exacting in its definition. Even the tiny mint made die polish lines are visible in the fields, suggesting an early striking before they wore off the surface. Although 125,000 were initially authorized, the reported net mintage is listed at 17,500 and the remaining pieces were melted due to poor sales.

PCGS 138, NGC 127, CAC 69. PCGS has graded 11 in MS67+ with a mere 3 coins finer (the most recent MS68 to sell brought a robust $25,850 last year). There is a wide range of APRs, the most recent we sold realized $7,931 in our November 2018 Regency Auction. The current PCGS Price Guide value is listed at $8,000 and this coin is truly worthy of a premium bid! If you are working on a top quality set, this coin should definitely be added to your collection!

OUR ESTIMATES

The estimates you see published in this catalog are based on HAMMER. Keep in mind that a coin could be either low or high end for the grade, have stunning color or be dull, all of which radically affect a coin's value. Yes, there can be huge price differences within a grade, and we offer estimates as a guide so Collector's can have a better idea of value. One thing we will never do is offer low ball estimates in order to claim stronger sales.

These published estimates represent what Legend Rare Coin Auctions determines to be an approximate high wholesale value for the coin. The numbers are based upon current market values, similar trades, auction prices, published prices, and a consideration of the coin's quality. There is no guarantee that the estimated prices are minimums or are exactly what you can expect to get if you attempt to resell them wholesale.

We always advise you to view the coins you are interested in and calculate what you'll pay using as much information as possible. If you have any questions, please feel free to ask us. We are here to help you!

LOT 626

GS1 1904 LEWIS & CLARK. PCGS MS67+ CAC

Tied with just one other for the second FINEST graded of this lower mintage classic gold commemorative.

While 125,000 were initially authorized, only 10,025 were distributed.

Today, they are readily available in lower Mint State grades, and it becomes rare in MS66 or finer grades. Both sides show a vivid, brilliant, rolling golden cartwheel luster that is just screaming with vivacity. The bright, yellow gold is outstanding. A powerful loupe reveals only a tiny line or two that keeps this SUPERB GEM from being PERFECT! The eye appeal is stunning!

PCGS 26, NGC 22, CAC 9. There are just 2 in MS67+ and 2 finer. The only MS67+ sold in auction April 2016 for $25,850 and the current PCGS price Guide value is listed at $32,500. Only one MS68 ever sold in auction, bringing $57,500 back in June 2006! Clearly this PCGS, CAC MS67+ is worthy of the FINEST of gold commem collections and will see intense interest from Registry Set collectors who need this SUPERB GEM for their sets. Good luck!

G$1 1917 MCKINLEY. PCGS MS67+ CAC

A beautiful example that is tied for FINEST certified! This coin is amazing in all regards. The rich original golden luster is satiny and the fields are immaculate. Even under a strong glass there is not a single flaw to describe. There are a total of 11 coins graded MS67+ at PCGS, and this coin is certainly as close to MS68 as you can get (and is the nicest example of the type this cataloger has ever seen!).

PCGS 94, NGC 50, CAC 18. As said above, there are 11 MS67+ at PCGS. NONE are graded higher at either service. The current Collector's Universe value is listed at $6,500. With NONE finer, we know this coin will entice the collector who demands the FINEST gold commems.

Ex Denah Collection.

This coin is a very high R-7 (4-7 Mntd.) Struck in aluminum with a plain edge. It is the FINEST known.

There are less than half a dozen known of this issue and this coin is the finest certified! For a truly striking, a lot of effort went into making this exceptional quality piece. Overall, the planchet was problem free, so when it was struck, there are practically NO imperfections. Glorious watery mirror fields that offer extraordinary quality and preservation. This issue has a plain edge and is boldly struck on all the devices with snow white frost glistening over the mirror fields. No spots or lines detract! Undoubtedly this is the finest known of this rare and seldom seen pattern issue.

PCGS 1, NGC 0, CAC 1. The ONLY other specimen we are aware of is the PR 64+ Cameo in the all time finest ever Pattern Collection-the Simpson Collection. This coin sold in December 2017 for $9,400. There are NO accurate price guides for this coin. Do keep in mind, if it was a regular 1870 Half in PR66 Cameo CAC it would easily cost $10,000+. Good luck!

LOT 630

50C 1870 J-986. PCGS

PR67 DCAM CAC

Legend Rare Coin Auctions is proud to offer the FINEST J-986 Standard Silver half dollar pattern.

VERY RARE, rated R-7+ (4-6 minted). Barber's Standard Silver bust of Liberty with a starless tiara. Struck in aluminum with a plain edge.

A VERY RARE Standard Silver pattern. This one has a bold, exceptional. SUPERB quality eye appeal that was imparted by deep and clear mirrors that contrast with the highly frosted devices. Every element of the design is expertly struck up and there is excellent contrast between mirrored fields and the devices. There are no post mintage flaws anywhere visible to the naked eye, or with the aid of a strong glass

This piece is finer than the Denah-Cook and Bob Simpson coins that we have had the pleasure of selling in recent years.

PCGS 1, NGC 0, CAC 1. There are no auction records or price guide values for this SUPERB GEM. Worthy of the FINEST of pattern collections. Good luck!

H10C 1871 J-1070. PCGS

PR66 CAM CAC

What a great looking, extremely RARE pattern half dime. We love the Longacre Seated Indian Princess design!

Considered R-8 in Judd and Pollock, with about 3 examples known. Struck in aluminum with a reeded edge. The eye appeal of this stunning RARITY is really high end. Highly polished dies show bold, deep, reflective mirrors on both sides-the obverse shows no marks, except for the die polish lines. The devices are very crisp on both obverse and reverse and they are fully frosted with a thick white finish. There are zero imperfections on either side, and you will marvel at the exceptional quality!

PCGS 1, NGC 0, CAC 1. No CAMEO example has ever sold in auction. In fact the only APRs we can find are for two old holdered PCGS coins. One sold in July 2003 for $14,950 and the other sold in June 2018 for $13,200 (two different coins). We love the look of this one and it will delight any advanced Pattern collector looking for the FINEST of the fine. Good luck!

LOT 632
$10 1874 J-1375. PCGS PR62BN CAC

LRCA is pleased to offer an affordable grade example of this very important Pattern issue. The Bickford Eagle is one of the most historically interesting pattern issue of the 1870s.

Rarity-7, with about a dozen known in all grades. Barber's head of Liberty faces left, wearing a starred coronet with LIBERTY. She wears a wreath of olive leaves on her neck. The reverse lists the denomination in six different international currencies, the weight, and fineness in the center with the word UBIQUE below. Struck in copper with a plain edge.

After the Civil War, the American manufacturing economy grew, and with the increased trade, businessmen and politicians believed that a gold coin, that could be easily circulated internationally would help expand markets, and make it easy for international travelers to exchange currency. Around the same time France, Switzerland, Spain, and Italy struck gold coins that were all the same weight allowing for simplified cross border commerce.

While traveling around Europe, Dana Bickford, came up with the idea of a coin that would be recognized and accepted not just in the Latin Monetary Union, but throughout Europe. His proposed design was for a $10 gold piece that contained 16.72 grams of 900 fine gold. The reverse design has the conversions into British, German, Swedish, Dutch, and Latin Union currencies. The term UBIQUE signifies that the coin would in theory would be ubiquitous and accepted everywhere. This (and other international gold coin) proposal never made it further than the pattern stage. These were struck in gold, copper, copper-gilt, aluminum, and nickel. All are RARE, though the copper, struck with both reeded and plain edges, are available on the market from time to time.

The currently offered Bickford $10 is very pleasing, and will represent this important issue very nicely for any pattern collector. The surfaces show some minor traces of contact. Some traces of reflective fields survive in places. Mostly an even, milk chocolate brown coloration, there are splashes of lighter golden-rose. VERY RARE in all grades, and very rarely offered on the market, J-1375 appears about once a decade on average. The Reeded Edge, is much more available.

PCGS 1, NGC 0, CAC 1. We cannot trace this coin to a prior auction. Many examples of this pattern were gilt, and the auction records are mixed with both gilt and non-gilt pieces. The last time we can trace a similar coin was an uncertified example sold in Stack's June 2003. The 10th Edition of Judd lists a $12,000 value in PR60 and $30,000 in PR63. Keep in mind that a GOLD striking is excessively rare with just two known and a seven-figure price tag. An attractive copper striking in this more modest grade is the ONLY way the vast majority of collectors can ever hope to own.

PR65+RB CAC

Hard to believe this is an R-6 with 13-30 minted. We think it's an R-7 with LESS than 12 minted. Regardless, the pops in copper total ONLY 4 coins in BOTH PCGS and NGC. We fully agree with the coin's grade.

Deep mirrors beam vividly from all over. They look like freshly made glass. We see no imperfections anywhere. The overall clarity and cleanliness are excellent. Just a few microscopic toning dots are scattered around—they harm nothing. The powerful mirrors light up the magnificent toning. Electric shades of original rose/violet frame the rims and open into blue/pale purple centers. Miss Liberty and the details are thickly frosted and stand out with full strikes. The eye appeal is incredible!

PCGS 1, NGC 0, CAC 1. PCGS has graded only 1 in PR65+ RB. For a regular PR65 the Collectors Universe Value is $6,750. Of course there is NONE for the 65+ nor has this coin ever been sold via auction. The eye appeal certainly adds much value here!

PR65 CAC

In 1896, the House of Representatives sent a request to the Treasury to evaluate the merits of different alloys of nickel, aluminum, and bronze. Trial strikes of the cent and five-cent denominations were struck from Charles Barber's Shield design. The Union Shield has a ribbon inscribed Liberty across with crossed poles above mounted with a liberty cap and eagle, E PLURIBUS UNUM, stars, and date around. The reverse shows 1 CENT inside a curved olive branch. Struck in PURE NICKEL (magnetic), with a plain edge and is considered to be R-7-, with perhaps 7-12 struck.

Pewter-nickel with pale gold accents live on the smooth planchet. The pure nickel planchet stock has some streaks and a grease mark near the date, all produced at the mint and are part of the minting process. This pair of dies was used to strike coins in a nickel alloy, pure nickel, bronze, brass, and aluminum, perhaps as many as fifty coins were struck in all alloys combined.

PCGS 2, NGC 0, CAC 1. Just a single PR65+ is graded higher. The most recent example was NOT CAC and sold for $5,640 in June 2018. The current PCGS Price Guide value is $7,500 and this coin is a great example for the advanced pattern collector.
